

Love So Sweet 90

90 Your Daughter?

Fortunately, Bai Qi was right.

They only queued for five minutes before finally reaching their turn. Zhang Li Xue held her passion fruit milk tea and took a sip. The sweet and sour taste filled her mouth, and it was making her happy.

Zhang Li Xue snapped a few photos of her drinks before they finally left the area.

As they finally reached at the car, Zhang Li Xue turned to Bai Qi again and asked, "Doctor Bai, is there anywhere else you wanted to go to?"

"Other than the hospital, I have no other place to go to," Bai Qi said.

"You still have to work?" It was the weekend and Zhang Li Xue thought that he was on his off day. Thinking that she had dragged him out to accompany her to eat made her feel a little bad.

"Not really. But I still have to work on some papers."

Anyway, he had gone out with his little fairy long enough. It is time for him to go back and look after his little sister. Although Xi Xi did not say that much, Bai Qi knew that his little sister would get disappointed when they could not spend time together.

Zhang Li Xue sighed. "It seemed that being a doctor is not an easy thing. Doctor Bai, work hard! I'm rooting for you."

Bai Qi chuckled at her serious expression. "Thank you, Miss Zhang." Spending his time with her was already an encouragement for him.

Perhaps after this, he will be able to work hard.

"Then, get in. Doctor Bai, I'll drive you back to the hospital." Zhang Li Xue slid into the driver's seat and started to drive back to the hospital.

Once in a while, she would glance at the man beside her, wondering why she would feel very comfortable with him. It felt as if she had known him for a while.

But it did not seem like it.

She still couldn't remember knowing anyone called Bai Qi.

Moreover, Bai Qi said that he left Y City when he was younger. They shouldn't have met when they were little, right?

The traffic back to the hospital was smooth and it did not take them a long time to arrive.

Zhang Li Xue was in the middle of finding a parking spot when Bai Qi suddenly touched her arms. She turned at him in surprise. Before she could ask what was he trying to do, the young doctor had spoken again in an anxious voice.

“Miss Zhang, please stop the car!”

“What?”

“Stop the car! Now!”

The vehicle stopped with a slight screech. The moment the car stopped Bai Qi unlocked the car and alighted.

Zhang Li Xue watched as he ran off with a dazed look on her face. Worried about her new friend, Zhang Li Xue decided to find a parking spot before she went to check on him. Bai Qi had left very quickly and she wondered if something serious had happened.

Meanwhile, Bai Qi jogged until he reached the hospital’s entrance. The moment he caught up with that familiar figures, Bai Qi began to call out, “Auntie Ji! Xi Xi!”

The middle-aged woman turned around. The moment she saw the young doctor, Auntie Ji’s eyes began to light up.

At the side, the little girl who was holding the elder woman’s hand quickly ran over to Bai Qi’s side. “Brother Bai Qi!” She arrived at his side and held his hand. Bai Xi Xi seemed very happy when she saw her brother.

Bai Qi patted the girl on her head before looking up. “Auntie Ji, why are you here?” Now that he looked at the elder woman again, Bai Qi realized that the middle-aged woman was carrying her daughter in her arms.

“Xiao Yan injured herself while playing,” Auntie Ji spoke. She looked at her daughter and tried to coax her as she was still crying.

Bai Qi turned to the girl and saw that her forehead was slightly swollen.

“I worry about her. Since there is no one else at home, I took Xi Xi to come with me as well.”

Seeing this situation made him feel guilty. If only he stayed home and look after his sister, then perhaps everything would be alright.

“Let me look at her.” Bai Qi leaned over and looked at the girl’s head. Other than the lump on her forehead, it did not seem as if the girl was injured anywhere else.

Still... it was better to get a thorough check-up.

“How did she injure herself?”

Auntie Ji heaved a sigh. “Xiao Yan liked to climb the sofa. This time, she wanted to show off her jumping skills and ended up hurting her head. Doctor Bai, now that you’re here, I can leave Xi Xi with you. I’m sorry. I still have to take Xiao Yan to see the doctor.”

Bai Qi nodded. “Go ahead. Auntie Ji, I will come over after this.” He watched as the middle-aged lady walked into the hospital building before turning to his sister again. “Xi Xi, how are you? Are you hurt as well?”

“Brother Bai Qi, I’m fine,” Bai Xi Xi said. “Xiao Yan wanted me to climb up the sofa with her, but I told her that it would be dangerous. She would not listen to me.”

Her brother had said that he will be going out for a while and that she should stay with Auntie Ji obediently. Bai Xi Xi did not want to make things difficult for her brother and had been listening to his words well.

“Such a good girl.” Bai Qi patted the girl on her head. “Xi Xi, let’s go in first and let me take a look at Xiao Yan, alright? Later, we can go home together.”

The little girl nodded. “Brother Bai Qi, I will listen to you.”

A faint smile curled on his face. Bai Qi was about to walk into the hospital building with his sister when he heard the familiar voice behind him.

“Doctor Bai?”

Turning around, Bai Qi finally remembered that he had left Zhang Li Xue without explaining it to her before leaving.

The moment he saw Auntie Ji and his sister, he thought that his sister was injured. He was anxious and could only think of going to her side to check on her.

There was a guilty look on his face as he was facing Zhang Li Xue. “Miss Zhang...” He looked at his sister and suddenly did not know how to explain his situation.

“Doctor Bai...” Zhang Li Xue followed his gaze and looked at the little girl as well. “This...” The more she looked at the little girl, the more she thought that this girl resembled the young doctor a lot. A thought came to her mind, and she looked up with a surprised look on her face. “Doctor Bai, this is... your daughter?”
