

Love So Sweet 94

94 Planning a Vacation

After recuperating at home for two weeks, Zhang Li Xue finally returned to the office.

When she arrived at the office, Zhang Li Xue heard from her co-workers that her father had ordered everyone to look after her. During lunch hour, she will have to leave the office and have her meal with everyone else.

Zhang Li Xue always knew that her father doted and worry about her the most.

Hearing what her co-workers had said turned her heart warm. But it also made her feel a little guilty for taking easy on her own health.

A while ago, she had scared her father with her gastric problem. Her father did not want something like that to happen again and had let others keep close eyes on her.

However, during lunch hour, Zhang Yi Hai and the triplets showed up at her office to drag her to lunch.

The triplets brought over some packed lunch and placed the food container in front of her. "Sister, our mom was worried that you would skip your lunch again. She made this and let us share with you," Wei Zi Ming, the eldest spoke.

"Sister, you have to eat a lot," Wei Zi Qian looked at her with a stern look in his eyes.

Zhang Li Xue chuckled as she watched everyone worrying over her. Picking up her chopstick, Zhang Li Xue began to eat the meals that her aunt had prepared.

.....

Just like that, four men were serving her as she ate her lunch. It was a sight that would make others envious.

However, everyone in the hotel was aware of her identity. Even if they were envious there was nothing that they can do about it.

Zhang Li Xue watched as her little brother clipped a piece of steamed broccoli to her bowl and made a face. Seeing that the boys were watching her, Zhang Li Xue could only eat the tasteless steamed broccoli obediently.

"Sister, let's plan a short vacation," Wei Zi Qian spoke. "We are supposed to be on a summer break, but here we are. We were working part-time to gain some experience and a little pocket money. A few of our friends were posting photos of their vacation. We also wanted to go and play around."

As he spoke, Wei Zi Qian turned to his brothers and they all nodded in agreement.

Zhang Li Xue pondered over their suggestion and thought that it was pitiful that they had to work during their vacation.

It would be fine if they went out to have fun for a few days.

"Do you want to go to the amusement park?"

It would take less than an hour to reach the amusement park in B City. They had their VIP pass and would not have to queue if they wanted to play.

“God, no.” Wei Zi Kai pulled a face. “We have been going to the amusement park in B City ever since we were little kids. Let’s go somewhere else.”

“Then, where do you want to go?”

“The beach!” Wei Zi Qian said. “Sister, it has been a while since we’ve gone to the beach.”

The triplets agreed with the suggestion. Zhang Li Xue turned to her brother and raised a brow.

“It’s fine. But we can only go for a few days,” Zhang Yi Hai agreed.

“Then, I will talk to our parents,” Zhang Li Xue said. “I’ll ask my friend, Fang Su Jin to come along as well, alright?”

The boys thought that it would be too lonely for their sister to be the only girl around. Naturally, they agreed with her suggestion.

“Then, let’s go next week.” Wei Zi Ming said.

Zhang Li Xue pulled out her phone and checked her schedule. “I can’t do it next week. How about the two weeks later?”

“What’s wrong?” Zhang Yi Hai looked at his sister curiously. “You have something planned?”

“Mmm... high school’s class reunion. A few of my classmates came back and they wanted to meet everyone.”

Zhang Yi Hai narrowed his eyes when he heard her answer. However, Zhang Li Xue had failed to see the look in her brother’s eyes as the triplets were busy dragging her to discuss their vacation plan.

Meanwhile, Zhang Yi Hai was unable to stop thinking of her sister’s upcoming reunion. He knew well that his sister will run into Mu Zhen Yu at her class reunion and he did not like where this was going.

The thought that the man would try to get close to his sister again made him unhappy.

...

“Su Jin, how about it? Would you accompany me and my brothers to the beach?” Zhang Li Xue asked.

After dinner with the family, Zhang Li Xue called her friend and told her about their vacation plan.

Fang Su Jin frowned as she thought about going on a trip with Zhang Li Xue and her brothers. She could tolerate the triplets as they were usually very lively. However, Zhang Yi Hai was quite a scary person.

The last time he showed up at her art exhibition, Fang Su Jin almost had a heart attack. She was busy explaining her drawing to her friend, but Zhang Yi Hai was watching them with his hawk eyes. It was giving her anxiety.

“Come on. Come with me. Otherwise, I would be the only girl around,” Zhang Li Xue continued to coax her friend. “Su Jin, we can share a room and do a lot of things together. How about it?”

Fang Su Jin thought that it was pitiful for Zhang Li Xue to be alone. "Alright. I guess I'm not too busy that week."

Zhang Li Xue laughed happily. "Su Jin, thank you."

The two friends chatted until Fang Su Jin mentioned her class reunion next week. Zhang Li Xue was surprised to know that Fang Su Jin knew about this reunion.

"It's not anything strange," Fang Su Jin said. "After Mu Zhen Yu returned to Y City, a lot of people have been talking about him. You are probably unaware of this as you did not pay much attention to the gossip around."

Zhang Li Xue knew that her friend's words were right. She rarely mixed with the upper-class socialites her age. She was only close to Fang Su Jin as they have known each other since childhood.

"I heard that Mu Zhen Yu's company will move to Y City soon," Fang Su Jin said. "A lot of people were discussing his business. But, Li Xue, if your brother knew that the reunion is for Mu Zhen Yu, would he let you attend this reunion without him?"

The corner of her lips twitched. Zhang Li Xue could already sense that her brother would create trouble if he knew who would show up at this reunion.
