

Love Through Time and Space

Chapter 162

Sorry, when Aspen Li slipped back to Wangjiang Pavilion, Hunter Jackson was still sitting in the car.

The notebook was opened on the remodeled small table. He seemed to have been working attentively, not caring about Aspen Li's going out to find Emily Gale.

But Aspen Li knew that the young master was indifferent, in fact, he cared very much about the young lady.

Otherwise, I had already got on the car just now and was leaving, why after hearing the news that the young lady was coming, I made up and said I was going to work and stayed in Wangjiang Pavilion.

Seeing Aspen Li coming back alone, Hunter Jackson frowned: "What about people?" "Madam said that there is still something to do, so go ahead."

"Didn't you say that I just asked her to have a cup of tea?" He frowned. Tighter.

"By the way, I also said that I don't like tea. Coffee is fine, but Madam Shao said that she doesn't like tea and has no habit of drinking coffee."

Hunter Jackson suddenly opened the car door and got down from above.

Aspen Li didn't know what he was going to do, he said: "Young lady has already left."

Joseph Beitie opened the door of the driver's seat with a green face, and stepped forward with his long legs.

“Young Master, where are you going? Go to the company? I...”

The sound of the accelerator was a bit deafening, and Aspen Li looked wrong, and watched the Young Master drive the car out.

He... seems to have been dropped again.

The young master is chasing the young lady?

Since you care so much, why didn't you wait for someone in the yard yourself just now?

What kind of reservedness do you pretend?

Hunter Jackson sullen his face all the way, and after driving the car out of Wangjiang Pavilion, he drove slowly towards the gate.

Jackson's family is too big, this girl may not have walked out of the door.

Sure enough, after waiting at the gate for a long time, she saw her walking out slowly.

Emily Gale didn't seem to see the car parked aside, and of course he didn't notice who was in the car.

Jackson's family is really big, she walked out of breath when she walked out of the main house.

I was driven away by Young Master Jackson before, but now if I go to the garage and ask the driver to take it off, it seems a bit embarrassing.

Therefore, even though she knew that Jackson's villa was built in the middle of the mountain, she could only bite the bullet and determined to go down.

Next time, you must take a driver's license and drive by yourself.

Not long after walking out of the gate, a low-key luxury car drove behind him.

With a squeak, she actually stopped beside her.

Isn't this the luxury car parked at the door just now?

Emily Gale narrowed his eyes and looked at the slowly lowering car window.

Hunter Jackson?

Suddenly, her eyes were filled with precautions, and, alienation.

Hunter Jackson was still stung by her indifferent eyes.

A few days passed. How was she doing?

I have been deliberately not inquiring about her, but still can't help but want to know what she did and who she was with.

I thought she would call back at least a few calls and report

Your situation at school.

Unexpectedly, a whole few days passed, there was not even a call.

"This is Mid-Levels, do you plan to go down like this?" he asked, trying to maintain an expressionless iceberg face.

"It doesn't matter, I can go."

Emily Gale responded lightly.

"Two hours, are you willing to go, too?" This girl is clearly still angering him!

"Isn't there still a class in the afternoon?" "There may be a taxi passing by in the afternoon. I have a class in the afternoon, but if you don't bother about it, I will take a taxi."

"This road, there will be no Taxi, when are you going to make trouble?" Emily Gale's heart was congested, and he immediately moved forward.

Actually, completely ignored his existence!

Without saying hello, just walk away!

Does this woman have the courage to eat the bear heart and leopard?

Hunter Jackson has never been left behind so unceremoniously in his entire life, this is simply a provocation!

He was angry, and what was even more annoying was that he didn't even think about it, so he drove the car and followed.

"Do you want to tear your face with me in front of the Jackson family?" "There is no Jackson family here?" Emily Gale didn't want to ignore him at all.

I wanted to do that to her last time, and then let her go. Now, she is no longer angry, just begging not to have any more trouble with him.

He didn't think it would be fine if he didn't see her. What does it mean to chase her all the way?

"Here, it's still in the Jackson family's place."

Hunter Jackson didn't want to make trouble with her, "Get in the car."

She didn't speak, and didn't pay any attention. He said unhappily: "If you still remember the agreement between us."

Emily Gale took a deep breath, and finally stopped.

Going out of the back seat, opened the door, and stepped up.

Still reluctant to sit with him!

The man was angry, but it was rare that she finally did not resist and got into his car.

At this moment, she didn't want to break the peace.

The little girl is just having a temper. He is a big man, but can't know her in general?

The car was on the road in the middle of the mountain and drove down the mountain without any haste.

Hunter Jackson even deliberately slowed down, letting the car go slowly on the road.

However, the atmosphere in the car has been a bit heavy.

Occasionally looking at her from the rear-view mirror, this girl just turned her head to the side, focusing on the scenery outside.

Actually, I didn't mean to talk to him at all.

I haven't seen him for a few days, so there is nothing to say to him?

After a few more minutes, Hunter Jackson finally couldn't help but broke the calmness: "When will I move back?" "Will Joseph let me move back?" Her tone was a bit blunt, "Isn't it, Joseph? Let me stay away?" "..."

It is said that women are small-minded, and Hunter Jackson has finally experienced it personally.

It's been so long, how come you still keep it in mind?

He pursed his lower lip and tried to make his tone sound colder: "It's just... a momentary slip of the tongue."

"It turns out that Young Master Jackson also has a slip of the tongue?" Heh, this slip of the tongue is really hurtful.

Joseph's northern eyes fluttered slightly, this girl, now covered in thorns, was really hard to get along with.

However, if this stalemate continues, he is really uncomfortable.

It had been several days, and he didn't know how she was in school.

However, my life was a bit messy.

I couldn't sleep at night, and even preferred to work all night until I was so sleepy that I couldn't open my eyes before falling down and lying down for a while.

But every time I close my eyes, I think of the two tears that slipped from the corners of her eyes.

This girl doesn't like to cry, but she cried under him.

Did the behavior to her that day really hurt her?

"That day..."

"Young Master Jackson, just put me down at the intersection ahead, and there is a bus that can go back to school."

Emily Gale interrupted him and pointed to the intersection ahead.

Hunter Jackson was suddenly frustrated. When did the car arrive on the road?

If you knew it, you should drive more slowly.

"Yeah."

He faintly responded, but when he passed the intersection, he didn't mean to stop at all.

"Major Jackson?" Emily Gale was astonished for a while, and the intersection had passed. Hasn't he already agreed to put her down at the intersection?

What does this guy want to do?

"Then, you can put me down on the road ahead."

"Come along and take you to school."

"No need, I can do it myself..."

"...I'm sorry."

Chapter 163

It seemed as long as half a century had passed to keep her in her arms.

In the car, it was so quiet that even the sound of the tip of a needle could be heard.

Hunter Jackson's sorry sentence made Emily Gale silent for an instant.

Breathing gradually became a little messy, I don't know if I was still angry, or if I had already let go of such an apology.

She found herself a bit cheap.

This man, treat her a little better, she actually forgot the things he had done to hurt herself.

But how can it be so cheap all the time?

But now, she couldn't be angry anymore.

Suddenly, the car stopped.

Emily Gale raised his eyes and realized that this was not a good place to park at all, and there seemed to be no bus stop around.

"It seems that something has happened."

Hunter Jackson turned off the car and opened the window to let her breathe.

"You rest here, I'll be right back."

"What happened?" Hunter Jackson's voice was a little serious, making Emily Gale suddenly serious.

"It's okay, stay in the car obediently, don't get off."

Hunter Jackson handed the key to her and got out of the car.

After he got out of the car, Emily Gale saw clearly what was going on ahead.

Isn't this the lot that Jackson's bought before?

To invest in real estate.

Because of the large area, this matter has been lively on the Economic Channel for a long time.

However, this is Jackson's business. Emily Gale has been with Hunter Jackson for so long, and it is clear that this business is not made by Joseph.

But now, the situation does not look good.

A group of people gathered on the construction site. Is this making trouble?

"It's Master Jackson! The eldest master of the Jackson family!" Finally, someone saw Hunter Jackson in the past.

Those who surrounded the site manager immediately shifted their targets and surged towards Hunter Jackson.

"You forcibly forced us to demolish, you are too much!" "That is, our ancestral house is unwilling to sell, you cut off the water and electricity, forcing us to leave!" "Didn't you say it, will we talk about it slowly? Why do you cut off the water and electricity? You profiteers!" More and more people came around, and the site manager saw that it was Young Master Jackson and was so scared that he let the workers over and protect the young master.

"What's the matter?" Hunter Jackson's face sank, his cold voice with majesty.

These villagers who were still arguing just now have mysteriously quieted down.

Hunter Jackson's gaze swept over everyone, and finally fell on the site manager.

"The person hasn't moved out yet, why is the water and electricity cut off?"
"This..."

The manager looked embarrassed, and he was just executing instructions.

"They are unwilling to move.

The price has been negotiated, and they temporarily regret it..."

"Nonsense! You are the one who regrets it temporarily!" "That is, it was originally said that each household would share a settlement fee. Say, this settlement

Fee cancelled!

" "Yes!

Your admirers said that a lump-sum resettlement allowance for each household is at least 100,000 yuan per person.

"We believe in your Jackson family, but you are a lie!"

"Did you not sign the agreement?"

"Hunter Jackson stood in the crowd.

Although the crowd was noisy, he stood inside as if he were a king. Everyone consciously kept their distance from him, and no one dared to get closer.

"The agreement said. One hundred thousand, but what you said was one hundred thousand per capita!

You said that you don't need to change it. Jackson's family has a big business and it is impossible to lie. We all believe it!

"Yes, we all believe that it was your Jackson's young master who said it!"

"The Jackson's lie!"

The young master of the Jackson family lied!

The sentiment gradually became turbulent again.

The thought that their house was gone and the money was so much less, everyone thought about it and became more excited. Those people gradually moved towards Joseph Beiwei.

"Master, this matter, I Will take care of it, you go back first.

"The manager is terrified. If something happens to the young master here, he won't want this job. He said loudly, "Don't worry, are we still discussing this matter?"

Will give you satisfactory answers.

"What to discuss?"

You have already started construction, will you still discuss with us?

"Jackson family, pay back our money, pay back!"

"My mother was so angry that she was admitted to the hospital.

It was all the people in your Jackson family who killed her. Repay the money!"

"The Jackson family doesn't talk about credit, the young masters of the Jackson family are all bad guys!"

" "Correct!

You are all bad guys!

"I don't know who grabbed a small stone and slammed it on Hunter Jackson.

"Be careful!"

"Emily Gale, who was sitting in the car, was shocked. He immediately opened the door and rushed over.

"Be careful, don't fight!"

"What are you doing here?"

"Hunter Jackson's face sank, and he rushed past the crowd and walked towards her. Unexpectedly, when he came out of the crowd, he accidentally knocked down an old man. Everyone was so excited that they shouted Joseph hurt. In the crowd, I don't know who it is. Suddenly he grabbed a brick and smashed it towards Hunter Jackson. Hunter Jackson pushed away in a staggered step, and the brick fell not far from Emily Gale's feet, scaring her.

All body softened. God, these people actually used violence! "Master Jackson, be careful!

"Another piece turned his head and smashed it on him! Emily Gale didn't even think about it, and ran towards him as fast as possible.

"That's the woman from Young Master Jackson!"

It's Mr. Jackson's car!

"They made so much black-hearted money, and it was all spent on women and cars, these profiteers!"

"It's shameless to earn money from the hard-earned people!"

"Shameless!"

" "go to hell!

With a scream, this time, the bricks were not smashed toward Hunter Jackson, but smashed toward Jenni.

Of course.

Emily Gale was still running, and when the brick came over, she couldn't hold her back at all.

Want to hide, but it's too late.

"Young Master Jackson!" She hugged her head with both hands, still unable to stop.

With a bang, it hit the man's arms.

The slender body swayed, almost being knocked out.

Those big palms fell on her arms, yanking her back suddenly, and into her arms.

The brick didn't hit her just now, and the pain did not come as expected.

Emily Gale breathed a sigh of relief and looked up, but suddenly saw a scarlet!

"Young Master Jackson!" For an instant, Emily Gale was frightened!

he is injured!

Is it the brick just now?

It was hit on his forehead!

"Don't make trouble! Everyone don't make trouble! You are breaking the law like this! Don't make trouble!" The manager led the people and quickly stopped them.

Not far away, several cars stopped abruptly.

A dozen well-trained men in black shirts and trousers came out of the car and surrounded Hunter Jackson and Emily Gale.

"Young Master Jackson, how are you? Don't scare me!" Emily Gale raised his hand, trying to touch his wound, but didn't dare.

She panicked and yelled: "Come on, come on! The young master is injured! Come and save!" Hunter Jackson still held her tightly in his arms and completely wrapped her in his body. Just in case those people have to hit her with bricks.

But his tall body shook slightly, and the turning of his head just now smashed him, obviously hurting him a lot!

Now, he could hardly stand still, but still subconsciously hugged her tightly!

Emily Gale felt sour, seeing the figure coming down from another car, and said anxiously: "Aspen Li, Young Master Jackson is injured, take him to the hospital quickly!"

Chapter 164

Really, not angry anymore Aspen Li was almost frightened by the blood on Hunter Jackson's face.

Wanting to help him in the car, the young master kept holding Emily Gale tightly, still using his body to shelter her in his arms.

"Madam Young, you have to get him in the car yourself."

Aspen Li said anxiously.

Emily Gale supported Hunter Jackson, and had never seen such an embarrassed side of Young Master Jackson. His heart was broken when he saw the blood on his face.

"Young Master Jackson, let's get in the car first, okay?" Hunter Jackson finally got on the car with her with her support.

The moment the car door was closed by Aspen Li, he solemnly said, "Don't hurt people!" "Yes, young master!" Aspen Li immediately ordered that the residents should not be hurt.

"They called the police, and the police will come soon."

Emily Gale took a tissue and wiped the blood off his face carefully.

"Don't worry, they will take care of it. You have to go to the hospital now!"
There is so much blood that you can't wipe it off!

A stream of blood, as if pouring directly into her heart.

pain!

The pain is spreading on the apex of my heart, I wish it hurt my body!

Turning out the medicine box from the hidden compartment of the car, Emily Gale took the gauze and pressed it hard on Hunter Jackson's forehead.

Hunter Jackson frowned and saw that his blood stained her clothes, and was about to wipe the blood stains off her clothes.

Emily Gale thought she hurt him, so she hurriedly leaned forward, blowing air carefully.

"It doesn't hurt, it won't hurt soon! When you get to the hospital, it won't hurt anymore."

He did not speak, and the girl's soft breath blew on his forehead.

It seemed that the feeling of tension on his forehead was really not So serious.

"It doesn't hurt, isn't it? Don't be afraid, you can go to the hospital right away."

Aspen Li didn't know what happened to the young master's injury, and the car had been driving fast.

After a sharp turn, Hunter Jackson, who was still staring at Emily Gale, shook slightly, and Emily Gale immediately hugged him tightly in fright.

Looking up at Aspen Li, she was anxious and distressed!

"He hurts his head and will feel a little dizzy. You drive steady!" Dizzy?

The man's eyes were deep, and when she looked back at her, she actually closed her eyes.

"He is going to faint!" Emily Gale was frightened and hurriedly said: "Aspen Li, be careful!" "Know! I know!" God!

The young master is going to faint!

too frightening!

The eldest master is the kind of intrepid existence that can't blink even after a few stabs. Why is it that he is hit by a brick now, and he is afraid of pain and dizzy?

This brick is more powerful than bullets?

Emily Gale thought so much when she saw Hunter Jackson closing his eyes and immediately reached out and hugged him in his arms.

The man fell into her arms as a matter of course.

The girl's soft body is right in front of his eyes, and the tip of her nose does not smell of blood, but her body

Some fragrance.

The two of them were still in the cold war just now, and she looked indifferent to herself and didn't even want to bother.

But now, she was so nervous, she hugged him tightly, pressing his wound with one hand, and patted his back with the other hand.

Sometimes, her hand would run across his face to wipe the blood from his face.

This girl, even her fingers were soft, and when the fingertips ran across his face, they were so gentle and cute... Hunter Jackson finally couldn't help it, and took her hand.

"Master Jackson!" Emily Gale was startled by his sudden behavior.

Hasn't he passed out?

Why did you suddenly hold her hand so hard!

Hunter Jackson immediately realized that he should still be in a faint state now.

This action seems to be a bit revealing.

He opened his eyes slightly and looked at her, his voice was a bit hoarse and dry: "You still have classes in the afternoon."

Emily Gale was sour in her heart, she wanted to hug him tightly.

She bit her lower lip and tightened her chin slightly, so sad that she almost cried.

"I'll take you to the hospital first, and see what the doctor says."

It hurts on the forehead.

Although it doesn't seem to be a big wound, it's the head after all!

The head injury can be big or small, what should I do in case of sequelae?

"How are you feeling now?" Emily Gale held his face, trying to see the look on his face clearly.

But even if Young Master Jackson was injured, his face was as cold as a thousand years of glacier.

Except for the frowning of his eyebrows, there was still no expression on his face.

Emily Gale wanted to stretch out his hand to rub his eyebrows apart, only to remember that he had been holding his hand.

I want to withdraw my hand, but at this moment, I can't bear it again.

He was injured in order to save her. If it weren't for the shelter of Young Master Jackson, she would be the injured person now!

She's still arguing, why bother with her life and death?

He is Young Master Jackson, with such a distinguished status, how can he be injured for others...

"Aspen Li, how come the hospital hasn't?" The blood on the wound keeps flowing out, and can't stop it. If it continues to flow like this, it will not Will all his blood flow away?

"I'll be here soon, Madam, right ahead."

Before Aspen Li went in, someone had greeted the doctor in the hospital.

So, as soon as the car was parked in the parking garage, doctors and nurses rushed over.

Everyone hurriedly helped Hunter Jackson lying on the mobile hospital bed and hurried to the elevator.

Because Young Master Jackson had been holding Emily Gale's hand, she could only follow the hospital bed, along with the doctors and nurses, and injured the operating room on the tenth floor via the elevator.

Pushing the hospital bed to the door of the operating room, Hunter Jackson still held Emily Gale's hand tightly and said not to let go.

He half-closed his eyes, expressionless, no one knows

Dao, is Young Master Jackson's consciousness still sober?

But he just won't let go, what should I do?

Emily Gale tried to earn a few times, but Young Master Jackson's strength was so great that he couldn't earn it at all!

"Young Master Jackson, your wound needs to be dealt with right away, you let me go first."

He just didn't let go, whatever they said was useless.

"The young master, the young lady won't leave, she will always be here waiting for you."

Aspen Li is also anxious.

Although the young master's wound does not seem to be very serious, but if he hurts his head, in case there really is a sequelae. ,How to do?

The young master's brain is a priceless treasure. If it is broken, how many people will be unlucky?

"Young Master..."

"Are you...angry?" Hunter Jackson suddenly opened his eyes and stared at Emily Gale.

"Not angry! Really! I'm not angry anymore!" At this time, why are you still thinking about that?

Now, of course, his body is the most important!

He seemed a bit difficult to speak, and his voice was hoarse: "Move back?"
"Move! As long as it's okay, move back immediately, okay? Let the doctor treat the wound for you first! Please!" Emily Gale is really going crazy Now, the blood on his wound is still flowing, so how can you tell her about such trivial things?

As long as he gets better, why will he be angry?

The past is over, who is willing to be really angry with him?

"Tonight... I will move."

"Well, I will move back tonight. I must move!" Now, no matter what the young master Jackson asked, she agreed.

As long as he obediently asks the doctor to examine him, she can agree to anything else!

Unexpectedly, Hunter Jackson still held her hand tightly, and said dumbly:
"You have... this afternoon, you have class."

Chapter 165

Well, how about a concussion?

Because of Hunter Jackson's persistence, Emily Gale had to go back to school first.

If she doesn't agree, this man is really unwilling to clean up his wounds.

Aspen Li drove Emily Gale into the car and hurried back to the operating room after watching the car drive away.

No, the doctor told him that there is no need for surgery.

In the medical room above the operating room, the doctor was still stitching up Hunter Jackson's wounds, but the injured patient had already sat up, flipping the news on his mobile phone.

What about the one who was so injured that he couldn't even walk, and fell into a semi-coma?

Why are you so energetic now that you don't even need anesthetics for your stitches, and you can still look at your phone while stitching?

"Are you sure to send it away?" Hunter Jackson asked when he saw Aspen Li enter the door.

"Sent, sent away."

Aspen Li was still a little overwhelmed.

But looking at the eyes of the eldest master, there was no air just now, but now, it is always cold and fierce!

Suddenly, he seemed to understand something.

The eldest master said that he wanted him to send the young lady into the car personally, but Aspen Li thought it was the eldest master who was worried.

Unexpectedly, I was afraid that Mrs. Shao would return!

Could it be that the eldest master was... acting?

As for Hunter Jackson, the next order he issued made Aspen Li thoroughly understand that everything just now was really false.

"Let people investigate the resettlement fee of 100,000 yuan per person, why has it become 100,000 yuan per household."

"Who is handling this project?" "Don't alarm the person who took over the project for now, and don't let him know that our people are investigating."

"Let people go to the police station. Don't embarrass the residents. However, there is obviously someone in there who is making trouble and catch them!" Aspen Li was so dumbfounded that he almost didn't remember what the young master said. .

"Is there a problem?" Hunter Jackson cast his icy gaze over.

"No, no problem, go to deal with it immediately."

Aspen Li said boredly.

Having been with the young master for so many years, I didn't realize that the young master has such a powerful skill!

This acting skill, even he was deceived!

As soon as the young lady left, he immediately regained his usual calm and decisiveness.

This is his eldest master, let's just say, how can a small brick make the eldest master so vulnerable?

Finally, all doubts were completely solved.

"Then, young master, should the medical records...should be slightly changed?" Now the young master seems to have no problems at all, and the young lady will definitely be coming in a hurry after class is over.

When the time comes, I am afraid that the young master will not be able to play.

Think about it, Aspen Li said: "Well, how about a concussion?" Hunter Jackson's eyes were dark, after thinking about it, he said lightly: "Go to the finance department to receive the bonus."

"Telling! After all this is handled, immediately. Just go

Aspen Li was so excited that he was about to fly, feeling that life is still reaching its peak. Is there anything wrong with it? "Doctor, do you know how to do it?"

"Know, I know."

"... Emily Gale originally didn't want to go back to school, although there are classes, but Young Master Jackson was injured like that, where would he be willing to leave? But that guy didn't know what was going on, so stubborn, he had to send her to the car by Aspen Li himself.

Although I went back to class, I was absent-minded for the entire two classes. Basically, I didn't even listen to a few words about what the teacher talked about. I don't know what the situation is like now, so I called Aspen Li. , I kept saying that I was still in the operation.

It just hurt my forehead, why would I need so long operation? Is there any other wounds? She was distraught, and just after class, she immediately ran out of school. Aspen Li said that she was prepared for it.

The car, as expected, I saw it from the back door.

She made countless calls to Aspen Li from school to the hospital. Aspen Li still said the same thing. People came out, but they were not in good spirits. When they arrived at the hospital, Aspen Li personally waited in the parking garage. Seeing Emily Gale coming down, he immediately greeted him: "Madam Young, you can count on coming.

" "how about it?

How is he now?

"Emily Gale got off the car and walked quickly to the elevator with him.

"It doesn't look like it's anything, but I've been in a bad spirit."

"Aspen Li carefully pondered the words: "The most important thing is that the elders don't like other people's care.

They don't want to take medicine or take injections..."

This is true.

It was originally intended to cure inflammation. But The young master didn't want to.

The young master hates injections, and everyone in the Jackson family knows about this. Aspen Li took the opportunity to file a complaint: "The nurse wanted to give him an injection, but he almost didn't cry.

"How can Jackson Dashou curse?"

"Uh..."

It seemed that the words were a bit exaggerated, and Aspen Li changed his words hurriedly: "The young master doesn't need to scold someone."

She glared at others and the little girl almost cried.

"It's possible."

The look in Young Master Jackson's eyes is really scary sometimes. But...

"Didn't you say that he was not in good spirits after he came out, and often dizzy?"

How can you scare people?

"Uh..."

Did he say that? Aspen Li patted his head and explained quickly: "Well, his spirit is weird, sometimes good, sometimes bad, most of the time, just a little dizzy. Comfortable."

"Is it serious?"

"It's serious, I'll take you to see it."

"The next thing, or leave it to the young master? He is really not good at deceiving ignorant girls. When he walked into the elevator, he quietly took out his cell phone and sent a message to someone: "Young lady is coming up."

"... In the ward, Ross stared at the man sitting on the hospital bed and looking at the busy notebook."

"This project was done by the fifth brother, but he has always been cautious and fair in doing things. He can't do things that damage Jackson's interests."

Although Ross and this fifth brother have never had much contact. However, Jackson Wushao and Jackson Pei Tang have always performed well.

It's not his style to make such a big mess.

"I am afraid that someone took advantage of the loopholes in the middle link.

The fifth child may not know."

"Whether he knows or not, he must handle this matter himself."

The mobile phone sounded off and Hunter Jackson picked it up. Push the notebook away immediately.

Outside, Aspen Li's loud voice came from a distance: "Young lady, young master is not willing to take medicine, you have to persuade him."

Ross was a little surprised, is this Emily Gale here?

Looking back, I saw that Young Master Jackson, who had just been sitting on the hospital bed and discussing things with him calmly and calmly, was lying on the bed now, looking groggy.

Before Ross had time to think about anything, Aspen Li had knocked on the door of the ward: "Young Master, Mrs. Young is here."

There was no response inside. Aspen Li looked at Emily Gale before gently pushing the door open.

Emily Gale didn't expect that Ross was there, and was about to say hello, only to see the man lying on the bed.

"Young Master Jackson, how are you?" Seeing him lying sickly on the bed, Emily Gale was still thinking about other people.

He walked quickly, squatted down on the side of the hospital bed, and carefully looked at his pale face from the injury.

Hunter Jackson opened his eyes slightly and gave her a light look.

This look is actually an unconscious look!

Emily Gale was anxious, and turned around to stare at Aspen Li: "Didn't you say that he is much better already? How could this be?"

Chapter 166

The fatal weakness Aspen Li was a little dumbfounded, and he couldn't say why.

Haven't come in to see it with your own eyes, who knows how sick the young master is?

He thought what he said was serious enough, who knows, when he came in, it seemed that it was a little more serious.

Looking at them, Hunter Jackson didn't actually show much weakness.

But for a person like him, his usual tall image is almost like a god of war.

Now the God of War is lying on the bed, his eyes are blank, even if he doesn't say a word, it can make people feel distressed.

Emily Gale paid no attention to Aspen Li, stretched out his hand and probed Hunter Jackson's forehead.

The temperature was still normal, and she was relieved.

Seeing him just looking at herself without saying a word, she asked softly: "How do you feel? How is it?" "Halo."

I heard that he is now "concussion", so this word should be the best response .

Aspen Li looked at Ross, and whispered, "Um, Third Young Master, let's go out first."

But Ross stared at Hunter Jackson on the hospital bed and Emily Gale sitting by the bed, without saying a word. hair.

He had never seen his elder brother like this, for a woman, willing to put down his figure.

That cold and arrogant breath was completely gone when Emily Gale walked in.

He was actually a little unhappy, but he couldn't reveal what the eldest brother did.

There is no reason for demolition.

What's more, the eldest brother doesn't need to pretend at all. He only needs to let his cold breath converge a little, which is enough to make women feel distressed.

Ross turned his gaze on Emily Gale again before turning around and walking out of the ward.

Aspen Li followed out: "Master San, did you drive here by yourself?" Ross stopped at one end of the corridor and looked back at him.

When he stared at him like this, Aspen Li was taken aback, and suddenly felt a tingling sensation on his scalp.

Unexpectedly, the eyes of the Third Young Master could be so cold and cold, he hadn't noticed before.

"Three or three young masters, do you have anything to say?" "Why is the big brother injured?" A few residents, a few bricks can hurt him?

This is simply impossible!

Aspen Li knew that if he didn't tell the truth, he couldn't tell the truth.

He hesitated, and then honestly said: "It's to...save the young lady."

It was the woman again!

For her, the eldest brother has been in danger again and again, she is like a malignant tumor, and the eldest brother's life is in danger at any time.

"The Third Young Master, this matter has nothing to do with the young lady."

Seeing the coldness of the Third Young Master, Aspen Li knew that things were not good.

The last time those people took Su Xiaomi to prevent the young master and the young wife from getting engaged, they were actually made by the third master.

Young Master San just wanted to prevent Young Master from getting engaged with Gale's ugly Third Miss, but he never thought of dealing with Su.

What does Xiaomi or Emily Gale do?

It's just that after those people brought Su Xiaomi to the island, they were surprised.

But it can already be explained that the Third Young Master has always disliked Emily Gale and the older one.

"Big brother really likes Emily Gale so much?" It's not a matter of once or twice for Emily Gale's injury.

Now I just hurt my head. When did it become a fatal wound.

He even offended the people on Paradise Island for this woman.

Everyone knows that the boss of Paradise Island is a lunatic when he gets crazy!

The people on Paradise Island have been looking for opportunities to retaliate against Young Master Jackson. Isn't it Emily Gale's fault?

"The third young master, the young lady is the young master's fiancée.

The fiancée is in danger, so the young master should save people."

"I'm just asking you if he really likes Emily Gale."

Actually this question, just now After seeing the performance of her elder brother, Ross already had the answer in her heart.

Maybe even the eldest brother himself didn't notice that he was too caring about that woman!

"Do you know how many enemies your eldest brother has in Beiling?" Ross stared at Aspen Li and snorted coldly: "At this time, if people know that he has a woman he cares about, guess what those people would do?" Aspen Li opened his mouth, but couldn't say a word.

He actually understands that even when the young master jumped into the sea to save Emily Gale last time, he faintly had a bad feeling.

If he someday, the young master's enemy uses the young lady to deal with the young master, then for the young lady, can the young master not even have his life?

"Since you know that such a woman is a time bomb by your eldest brother's side, do you still indulge?" Ross glanced at him, turned and left, leaving him with a cold back.

Aspen Li scratched his head, and immediately became aggrieved.

What the third young master said is reasonable, but the blame for him is a bit innocent, right?

Where is he to indulge?

He just executes instructions!

However, it is a fact that the young master often takes risks for the sake of the young lady.

What should we do about this kind of thing?

Alas... In the ward, Emily Gale helped Hunter Jackson to sit up.

Seeing the wound on his forehead, Emily Gale couldn't help but blamed himself.

"It's all my fault..."

"Are you not angry?" The man's voice was low and hoarse, which sounded distressing.

Emily Gale shook his head and whispered: "I'm not angry anymore."

"Go home?" Emily Gale raised his head to look at him, but Hunter Jackson didn't know what he was looking at. He didn't seem to care about this issue very much, as if he was just talking casually. ask.

She didn't know how to answer.

This weekend is the rematch, and their team is really busy now.

get out of class today

After that, everyone immediately returned to the office to continue their creation.

She was the only one who sneaked away.

Originally, I planned to come to see Master Jackson. If he is okay, she will go back to the office to continue writing the script.

But now he seems to be okay, and it also seems to be something... Emily Gale is a little entangled.

She still thinks about whether to go home or not.

Hunter Jackson suddenly raised his hand, pressing his long fingers on his forehead.

"What's the matter?" Emily Gale was taken aback and hurried to help him, "Did the head start to hurt again?" He didn't speak and didn't want to care about her.

"I will ask the doctor to show you."

"No!" He lifted the quilt, trying to get off the bed.

Emily Gale went over immediately and held his arm.

"The doctor said that you have a slight concussion, and you will be dizzy at any time, so be careful."

"I'm fine."

Hunter Jackson sat on the edge of the bed, coldly, no different than usual.

"If you have something, let Aspen Li send you back to school."

"I...I'll go back later."

She does have something, but how can she leave if Young Master Jackson is like this now.

The man's face sank in an instant.

Sure enough, she still wants to go back to school, didn't she say that she would go home with him?

He gently pushed her hand: "I can do it myself."

The cold young Master Jackson is indeed not easy to get along with. If it weren't for him, Emily Gale probably wouldn't dare to get too close.

"What are you going to do?" She didn't dare to hold on, but she didn't dare to walk away.

"The doctor asked you to rest more.

It's okay. Don't get out of bed."

Hunter Jackson still stood up, but when he stood up, his tall body shook slightly.

Chapter 167

I frightened him again, and I was gone forever like a tree supporting the sky and sheltering everyone from the wind and rain, almost collapsed!

Emily Gale was not directly scared to death, which has shown that he has a superb bearing capacity.

She went over immediately, holding on to Hunter Jackson's shoulders, sweating profusely.

"I'll go home with you tonight! I won't go back to school! You tell me what you want to do?" Hunter Jackson was really not intentional this time.

After being injured, he didn't even hang the needle.

After sitting on the bed for so long, suddenly I was about to get down, and my head really felt dizzy.

However, the dizziness only disappeared in a flash, and now, people are completely energetic.

But he was dizzy just now, without saying anything, this girl agreed to go home with him?

It seems that there is nothing wrong with occasionally "fainting".

"Go to the bathroom."

He said lightly.

Emily Gale hurriedly helped him and stood up slowly: "I will accompany you."

He nodded and said nothing.

Although she was able to walk this time, she still put half of her weight on her shoulders.

Soon Master Jackson found out that the more "vulnerable" he was, the more considerate this girl was.

So, he simply "fragile" to the end.

After entering the bathroom, he didn't do anything, just holding on to the sink, a little bit powerless.

"Young Master Jackson, you... don't you want to go to the bathroom?" Why didn't you move at all while holding on to the sink after entering?

She originally wanted to go out, guarding him outside the door, but the appearance of Young Master Jackson made her feel uneasy.

"Major Jackson..."

"Yeah."

He answered, but still did not move, just holding on to the sink and closing his eyes.

"Is my head dizzy again?" "Yeah."

Emily Gale sighed. With this situation, Master Jackson won't be so dizzy that he can't even go to the bathroom by himself?

Then she...does she need her to help him?

But how can I help?

To solve the problem, you have to... have to take off your pants.

"Major Jackson, is it uncomfortable to hold back?" "Yeah."

He replied very readily. Isn't it because it's uncomfortable to be able to come here?

"I, I will help you."

The little girl finally succumbed to her conscience, and helped him to the toilet, letting his hand rest on the wall.

After that, she squatted down in front of him, looking at the waistband of his hospital gown, she was worried again.

Do you really want to unlock it for him?

But, this...it's shameful.

"Uncomfortable!" The man's impatient voice spilled over his head.

Emily Gale's heart trembled, and her long fingers quickly tugged at his waist.

The belt was really untied by her, as long as... as long as he pulls his pants down again... But if you really pull the pants down, what will you face...what to do?

But he said, uncomfortable... Emily Gale

Biting her lip, finally closing her eyes, her fingers grasped the waist of Hunter Jackson's hospital gown, and she was about to pull it down... Suddenly, she kept her big palm on the back of her hand and gently held her hand.

He lowered his eyes to look at her, his eyes flashing, and his eyes were bright, like a smile.

"Little sex girl, just want to take advantage of me when I am sick?" "I, I don't."

Emily Gale raised his head and slammed his eyes into the deepest part of his eyes.

The narrow smile made her feel like she had been hit hard by something.

Young Master Jackson, who doesn't like to laugh, is really charming when he laughs...

"No?" Hunter Jackson raised his eyebrows and looked down at the position where her palm was resting: "Then what are you doing now?" ..."

What's under the palm?

It seemed... could move...

"Ah!"... When Aspen Li heard the screams coming in, Emily Gale just came out of the bathroom.

"Madam, what's the matter? Isn't it the eldest master..."

"He's okay! He..."

Emily Gale wanted to look back, but didn't dare.

She could only guard the door, and didn't dare to look around.

"He's just... just going to the bathroom."

Is it really okay?

What did she scream for?

Also, is this face red too weird?

It was almost as if he was about to bleed.

"Young Master..."

"When I go to the bathroom, do I need so many people to serve?" Hunter Jackson's tall figure appeared at the door of the bathroom.

Emily Gale panicked, fearing that he would fall when he walked, and quickly turned back to support him.

Aspen Li turned his face away and coughed softly, "Well, the doctor said, if you can, it's best...that, hang two bottles of anti-inflammatory drugs."

The breath of a certain man was instantly cold, and Aspen Li subconsciously took a half step back. , Stay away from him.

If Mrs. Young were not here, Aspen Li would really not dare to mention it.

In the afternoon, the doctor came to persuade him several times. For the last time, he was frightened and fled from the ward with the cold eyes of the young master.

But the doctor has been looking for him in private, the young master's injury really needs to be anti-inflammatory, otherwise, it is easy to get infected.

Staring at the sharp-edged gaze of the young master, Aspen Li looked at Emily Gale and whispered: "The doctor has been urging, it's time for the young master to hang water."

"You can get out of here!" Hunter Jackson's voice was cold, like a cold knife. .

Aspen Li stepped back two steps subconsciously, and the door was not far away. He thought, as long as there is any disturbance, it is right to escape quickly!

"Why not hang water?" Emily Gale supported Hunter Jackson.

Although he had a suffocating cold breath all over his body, the chill was not directed at him, so Emily Gale didn't think it was terrifying.

"I'm fine."

Hunter Jackson snorted.

Aspen Li was really not afraid of death, lowered his head and whispered: "

I think Mrs. Young seems to have a lot to do. Young Master, if you are really fine, then... Just let Mrs. Young go back to do things.

"Hunter Jackson really wanted to tear this guy up. This was deliberately tearing him down! Good! Very good! Who gave him the courage! Aspen Li knew that he stepped on the tiger's tail, but this was not for the young master, okay? He glanced at Emily Gale with an imploring look, and immediately retreated to the door: "Madam, you can figure it out!

With a whistle, the shadow disappeared in a blink of an eye. Emily Gale was a little helpless, and after she helped Hunter Jackson to sit down on the bed, she stood up and looked down at him.

"Except for being unwilling to hang water, is there not even medicine?" eat?

He didn't speak. Emily Gale knew that this guy was hard to serve. But with such a serious injury and a slight concussion, how could she not take the injection and take medicine? She turned around and rang the bell, less than ten. Within seconds, the doctor hurried over.

"Young Master Jackson, what's the matter?"

"Don't you just give him water?"

Also, what about medicine?

"That..."

The doctor took a peek at Hunter Jackson. Hunter Jackson's face sank, he was about to frighten the brave fellow with his eyes.

The woman beside him had already said coldly: "You scare him again, I will go back to school and ignore you!"

"Aspen Li reminded me just now. Since it's okay, she will go back to school.

Although she is still a little puzzled, why does this guy want to stay by her side so much, isn't there Kylena Gale next to him? However, she is now I can really feel that he is injured and needs himself.

Therefore, no matter if he goes back to school, it seems that it is also a very good threat.

Chapter 168

When the doctors and nurses who only listened to her brought in the needles and medicines, they lowered their heads throughout the process, and did not even dare to look up.

When the nurse approached the needle with water, her fingers kept trembling and she didn't dare to touch him.

Seeing the nurse coming over with a needle, every cell in Hunter Jackson's body was filled with resistance.

Needle, he resisted, woman, even more!

The nurse shivered and looked at a loss.

With this chill, let alone she didn't dare to get close anymore, she didn't even have the courage to stand firm in front of him!

According to legend, Young Master Jackson is not close to female sex, as if...is true.

But, if you don't come close, how can you give him an injection?

"Young Master Jackson..."

"Don't scare her, it's just an injection."

Emily Gale took LaJosephbei's hand, and this guy clenched his fist tightly and received his hand under the quilt. This... ..What does it look like?

Young Master Tang Tangmu, like a child who is afraid of injections, hides his hands?

Emily Gale almost couldn't help but want to laugh, and then pulled, this guy still didn't want to hand over his hand.

"Are you going to fight or not?" She darkened her face, deliberately scowling.

Hunter Jackson did not speak, his face was stubborn.

Emily Gale glared at him and decided to resort to a trick.

"I still have a lot of work to do. If you don't get an injection, then I will go first."

She stood up, ready to leave.

Just taking the first step, his wrists suddenly tightened, and Hunter Jackson grabbed her.

His face was sullen, and his face was ugly: "Don't go."

"Do you have an injection?" Emily Gale didn't want to leave either, but just scared him.

Who makes him scare people at every turn?

See how the doctors and nurses are scared by him

Aspen Li was so scared to escape, don't you know that he looks too scary?

Hunter Jackson's gaze finally swept over the needle in the nurse's hand, and the muscles in his face couldn't help beating slightly.

He was really afraid of injections, and Emily Gale soon discovered this.

Originally thought he was just resisting, but unexpectedly, he was really afraid.

There are things that Young Master Jackson is afraid of in this world, which is really rare.

Seeing him resisting all over but still trying to endure, Emily Gale's heart couldn't help but soften again.

She softened her voice: "Just prick it, just like a bite by a mosquito."

She pulled his big palm from her wrist, and put it on the quilt, her fingers one by one. Head, and opened his clenched fist.

"It really doesn't hurt.

After hanging this time, as long as the doctor says it is OK, there is no need to hang again."

Hunter Jackson's gaze immediately turned to the doctor.

"I believe that Young Master Yimu has a strong physique.

As long as you finish hanging this time, you definitely don't have to hang it again."

The doctor hurriedly said, for fear that his words would not make him happy.

"Since I know my physique is strong, what water do I need to hang?" Hunter Jackson's face sank.

"This..."

The doctor's look for help immediately fell on Emily Gale.

Emily Gale squeezed Hunter Jackson's hand, and said helplessly, "Just this time, stop making trouble."

Putting his hand on the bed, Emily Gale looked at the nurse: "Come on."

The nurse was still a little trembling. Holding the needle, he walked cautiously, Hunter Jackson was indeed very resistant, especially, this woman had broken into his safety zone!

The breath of resistance is getting stronger and stronger, even Emily Gale can feel it.

Does he resist the injection or the nurse?

Or is it both?

Finally, the nurse walked up to them and stretched out her hand tremblingly, trying to disinfect Hunter Jackson's hand.

But the finger hadn't touched him yet, but the cotton swab in his hand was drawn across the back of his hand. Shao Jackson clenched his fist and said angrily: "Get away!" "Ah!" The nurse hurriedly backed away in fright. , A loose hand, the cotton swab fell on the ground.

"I...I..."

The nurse looked at Emily Gale and was so frightened: "I just...just accidentally, I looked at Joseph more..."

No wonder Hunter Jackson resisted so much, he hated women flowers most. Crazy eyes.

Emily Gale was a little helpless, picked up the cotton swab on the floor and threw it in the trash can.

She went into the bathroom, washed her hands, returned to the bed and sat down, held Hunter Jackson's big palm, and placed it on her lap.

"I'll call you, can I?" "Mrs. Jackson Shao..."

The nurse looked anxious.

"It's okay, it's not that I haven't beaten him."

It's just that the spanking last time was on the back of the hand.

However, in the last life

She has studied medical care and just got a needle.

There shouldn't be any major problems.

Taking the cotton swab from the nurse, first disinfected the back of Joseph's hand, and then she tore the needle packing bag.

When the dazzling needle appeared in front of him, Hunter Jackson's muscles couldn't help tightening for a while.

Emily Gale patted the back of his hand lightly and softened her voice: "It's okay, trust me, just one click."

She picked up the needle and approached the back of his hand.

But the closer he gets, the tighter his muscles become, as if he would resist at any time!

Emily Gale was a little uneasy, and Joseph's appearance would hurt others in minutes.

She whispered: "Don't struggle, otherwise, the needle will hit me."

Struggling, the needle will hit her?

In the next second, Young Master Jackson was as quiet as a chicken, and he didn't even dare to move.

He really cares, is it going to hurt her... Emily Gale felt a strange feeling in her heart, she couldn't tell what it was like, that is, it was a little warm, but also a little sweet.

When this man bullied her, he was really hateful.

But today, she was moved again and again...

The needle finally got in.

The man's muscles tightened again, and Emily Gale immediately calmed down and said, "It's okay, behave, and you will be well soon."

The doctors and nurses standing by were a little worried, fearing that Young Master Jackson would have a sudden attack and would really hurt him. To Mrs. Jackson Shao.

But I didn't expect that such a cruel Young Master Jackson would really listen to Madam Jackson's words.

From beginning to end, as long as Mrs. Shao's face is stern, he immediately becomes obedient.

The doctor found it incredible, and the nurse looked envious.

Does she really want such a pet like this?

Raised by his side, he is obviously a lion, but as long as he is shunned, he will immediately become a puppy.

It's so fun and so enviable!

Unfortunately, she is not Mrs. Jackson Shao.

In the whole world, probably, only Madam Jackson can make Jackson Da Young so obedient...

After the injections and medicine, Hunter Jackson is reluctant to stay in the hospital anymore.

I don't know if I feel that I feel insecure living in the hospital, and I always have to take medicine and injections.

Emily Gale had no choice but to let Aspen Li arrange the car.

There is nothing to clean up, people can get in the car and leave.

Before leaving, Emily Gale asked the doctor for some medicine.

As soon as he got in the car, Hunter Jackson leaned on Emily Gale's shoulder, closed his eyes, as if he was asleep.

Because many things of the young master are still in Wangjiang Pavilion, they are also going back to Wangjiang Pavilion this time.

However, as soon as the car stopped, the charming voice quickly approached: "Major Jackson, they said you were injured!" Before the person arrived, the voice came first.

His voice was hoarse, and he had clearly cried.

"How are you? Are you hurt badly?"

Chapter 169

He was childish, so cute. This woman was crying, like something happened to her own man.

The servants looked at each other, looking at each other, as if a little... embarrassing?

The people in the car didn't react at all.

Emily Gale lowered his head and looked at the man sleeping on his lap.

I don't know if the needle water that he hangs has added a little sleep aid.

Not long after he got in the car, he fell asleep with his pillow on her lap.

Such a perfect Young Master Jackson still has a slight snoring noise, which shows how tired he has been recently.

When Aspen Li came back, he said that in the few days she was absent, the eldest master had no more than three hours of sleep a day.

Basically, they work all night.

Emily Gale didn't know what kind of work was so urgent, and he had to be so busy.

But from Aspen Li's words, it seemed to faintly discover that the matter was related to him.

Could it be that a quarrel would even affect his life?

Is his influence on him really so big?

"Madam Young, I'm home."

Aspen Li reminded, his voice was so low that he dared not amplify it.

The young master seldom sleeps so soundly. Back along the way, listening to the snoring of the young master, Aspen Li actually felt a kind of happiness.

It's like if his child sleeps soundly, he will feel at ease.

Now, although he has arrived home, no one is willing to wake him up.

Emily Gale couldn't bear it either, but the woman outside seemed unwilling to stop crying.

"Young Master Jackson, how are you? Are you badly hurt? I'm sorry, I was not by your side when you were hurt..."

She thought about it, and Qin Yi whispered: "Young Master just came back from the hospital. He takes a break first."

The door of the car was not opened, and Qin Yi didn't know what the young master was doing inside.

However, the eldest master hasn't come out yet, and everyone really shouldn't bother.

"I didn't see Joseph, how can I feel at ease? Qin Yi, you let me go and see him first."

Kylena Gale cried so much that her delicate makeup seemed to shine in the sun, Chu Chu Pathetic.

Qin Yi couldn't bear it, but since the eldest master didn't come down, he couldn't make the decision without authorization.

"Young Master will be out soon, wait a minute," he whispered.

Kylena Gale cried with a wow, "Major Jackson, are you really uncomfortable? Would you let me see you and let me take care of you?" The man in the car slightly wrinkled his eyebrows, it seemed a little bit Unhappy.

Emily Gale's long finger fell between his eyebrows and gently rubbed: "I'm home, do you want to go down?" But he just hummed, suddenly turned over and hugged her waist.

With her face buried in her stomach, she fell asleep again.

Emily Gale was afraid that his clothes might get the gauze on his wound, and hurriedly reached out and gently stopped him.

Joseph in Dream

But Bei thought she was going to push herself out, and the strength of her arm tightened a bit, still holding her tightly.

Emily Gale was a little helpless, the most ill person, let alone he admired the younger?

Even if he is not sick or injured, he is still the biggest!

However, such a childish Young Master Jackson is really...cute.

"Aspen Li, you go down first, let him sleep again, you go and let someone prepare dinner."

"Okay."

Aspen Li got out of the car lightly.

As soon as I got down, I saw Kylena Gale crying and howling, Aspen Li frowned and suddenly looked disgusted.

"How is Young Master?" Seeing him come down, Kylena Gale rushed over immediately.

Qin Yi also came over, waiting for Aspen Li's answer.

Aspen Li just looked at Qin Yi and said indifferently: "Young Master is sleeping, don't bother him."

He beckoned, and Steward Qin immediately greeted him: "How?" "Prepare dinner for the young master and the young lady. Be lighter."

Aspen Li lowered his voice and ordered.

In fact, the soundproofing effect of the car is very good, but it is rare that the young master sleeps so soundly, he still does not want to hinder him a little bit.

Steward Qin understood and immediately let people prepare.

Kylena Gale felt that she had been ignored, and she stepped forward to look at Aspen Li: "That woman is also in the car?" "Which woman is Miss Gale asking?" Aspen Li's face sank, and an unpleasant gleam appeared in his eyes. .

"Emily Gale!" Can't you tell me?

Except for Emily Gale's b*tch, what other woman would be so shameless, pestering Gale Jackson all day long?

Obviously he was driven away by Young Master Jackson, but he was embarrassed to come back?

No disgusting!

Aspen Li's face became even more ugly: "She is our young lady, the mistress of Wangjiang Pavilion, not that woman."

If you have to say something about that woman, then Kylena Gale is really "that woman."

The woman who has always been scornful, living in their Wangjiang Pavilion!

Kylena Gale knew that this Aspen Li had always looked at herself uncomfortable.

But she didn't understand why.

After all, she was so much more beautiful than Emily Gale now. How could Aspen Li, a man, help Emily Gale instead of helping herself?

Could it be because she usually only gets along with Qin, not with him, he is jealous?

Kylena Gale adjusted her expression and smiled softly at him: "Aspen Li, I'm just worried about Young Master Jackson..."

"Miss Gale, I don't know if you are laughing or crying. However, such a terrible expression is still Please restrain yourself."

Aspen Li said seriously and seriously: "Our eldest master was injured, and now is the time when the soul is weak. Seeing a ghost expression like you will scare him."

Kylena Gale was stunned. No man has ever said that her smile is not good, never!

Not to mention, just say she is ugly, and I'm afraid she will scare people!

impossible!

Is this man blind?

How could you not appreciate her

Smile?

Doesn't he know that her Kylena Gale is the first lady in Beiling and the most beautiful girl in Beiling?

"Miss Kylena, you..."

Qin Yi coughed and couldn't help but reminded: "Wipe your tears first."

Although he really thought Kylena Gale was very beautiful, she smiled so much with tears on her face. Charming... Cough!

It seems, really a bit... ugly.

Kylena Gale was taken aback, only to remember that she was crying just now, and the tears on her face were indeed not wiped off!

But she... how did she know that she is used to acting, crying or not, and not emotional at all.

Just stop and forget that I was crying just now!

It's all that b*tch Emily Gale!

How could she think so much if she didn't know she was in the car?

When I thought about it, I even forgot that I was still crying, I just wanted to present the most beautiful side in front of Aspen Li.

Kylena Gale hurriedly took out the tissue and wiped her tears carefully, trying not to stain her makeup.

At the gate of Wangjiang Pavilion, a group of people walked in, and the leaders were the old man and the old lady!

Kylena Gale finally cleaned up her face, and immediately turned a bitter face, greeted him.

"Grandma, Joseph was injured, Emily Gale... Emily Gale didn't let us see him."

She was anxious, tears rolled in her eyes.

If you see her now, it must be hard to imagine that she smiled so charmingly at Aspen Li just now.

Grabbing the corner of the old lady's clothes, Kylena Gale's words were obviously addressed to the old man.

"Joseph's injuries are so severe, it is Emily Gale's responsibility. Emily Gale is afraid of being blamed. Now, he won't let us see Joseph, grandma, go and see him, I'm afraid of him..."

, She cried and said: "I'm afraid Joseph was killed by Emily Gale!"

Chapter 170

Such a well-behaved old man's face was pale and he walked over quickly.

The old lady took a look at Kylena Gale and blamed it a little: "Kylena, you can't talk like this."

These words were obviously provocative.

She believes that Ranran is a person, but the old man always feels bad about Ranran.

This time Abe was injured, the old man was very anxious, didn't Kylena Gale's words make the old man even more annoying?

Kylena Gale muttered, her expression dissatisfied.

"Grandma is partial, why doesn't I love Emily Gale?" "Why don't I love you?" The old lady was a little helpless.

"Obviously Emily Gale injured Joseph. Why didn't my grandmother let me say that I feel sorry for Joseph too!" "Of course, it's your sister, why don't you feel sorry for her?" "But this time it is really her fault. !" Kylena Gale is no longer so docile and obedient in front of the old lady.

Anyway, after the old woman identified herself as her granddaughter, she was obedient to her.

Now she doesn't need anything to please her, the old woman treats her very well.

The old lady was really helpless, what she wanted to persuade, and suddenly understood, it seemed useless to persuade herself.

As long as they don't really make trouble, she can do nothing else.

"Tweet, push me over to see Abei."

Tweet is a new maid arranged for her by the butler.

When it comes to this, Kylena Gale gets angry.

The original Axin, the relationship has been established, but he did not expect to be taken away by Emily Gale's b*tch.

Now that Tweety is brought in, it is not that easy to get through the relationship.

If a bad one is self-defeating, it is even more troublesome!

It's all Emily Gale, really wanting to strangle her to death!

Wait and see, now Emily Gale is hurting Young Master Jackson. Soon, the old man will take care of her!

She will take a good look and see what Emily Gale will end up with!

Although the old lady has a high status in the Jackson family, in this family, the old man has the final say!

Elder Jackson walked to the car, and Aspen Li greeted him: "Master, the young master is resting."

"Why don't you go back to the room if you want to rest? What are you doing in the car?" The old man said with a calm face, "open the door" !" What do two people do in the car during the day?

It's so noisy outside, I didn't even come out!

This look really has to make people think about it.

If they dare to be in the car...how can a woman who harmed men like this stay in their Jackson's house?

Tweety pushed the old lady to come behind him, she said anxiously: "Abei should just be injured and need to rest..."

"If you are injured, you should go back to the room and rest."

Kylena Gale walked out from behind the old lady. , Walked to Mr. Jackson's side.

She and the old man's thoughts are actually the same.

They have to go over to see it because they worry that Young Master Jackson is in it.

It was hooked by a b*tch like Emily Gale.

However, now that the old man is here, she hopes that Emily Gale and Young Master Jackson are doing something.

Although it will be heartache, if because of this, the old man will hate Emily Gale.

If the old man is determined to drive Emily Gale away, it will be really happy!

She glared at Aspen Li: "Grandpa wants to see Young Master Jackson, don't he open the car door quickly?" Slowly, maybe the people inside have already put on their clothes. By then, the old man can't find a reason for the attack.

If he doesn't open again, she will rush to open the door.

Everyone thinks that Grandpa Kylena Gale's shout is really abrupt.

However, if the old man does not speak, even if everyone feels weird in their hearts, they cannot say anything.

Seeing that Aspen Li didn't listen to her, Kylena Gale said angrily: "Aspen Li, didn't you hear Grandpa telling you to open the door?" Aspen Li nodded at the master before walking to the car door.

Before Aspen Li could do anything, he suddenly clicked, and the car door was opened by the people inside.

Those two figures immediately caught everyone's eyes.

Emily Gale sat in the back seat, her clothes neatly dressed, even her hair neat, not the least messy that everyone thought of it.

As for Hunter Jackson, he was still very sweet at this time, and was sleeping on Emily Gale's lap.

He hugged the girl's waist and buried his face in her belly, sleeping like a child!

No one has seen such a childish side of Young Master Jackson in adulthood, not even the old lady and the old man!

Now, seeing the sleeping position of Young Master Jackson, the two elderly people feel warm.

Unexpectedly, these two young couples would get along like this in private.

The old lady saw her sore nose even more, and was so relieved that she could hardly contain tears.

Abei He Ranran, so loving each other.

By RJenni's side, Abei was like a child.

Just ask, what woman can make a man sleep like a child?

Especially, he is such a cruel and outstanding man like Master Jackson!

No one except the woman he puts on his heart!

He really put Ranran on his mind.

“Master, look at our family Abe...”

The old lady lowered her voice, really didn't want to disturb the young couple.

The old man nodded, although he didn't say a word, you can see a little bit of unique warmth in his eyes.

He had never seen A Bei so...so cute and meek.

The girl's hand is on his head, as long as he frowns slightly, she gently strokes his short hair.

It's like, giving one's own grumpy child smooth.

This smooth, really obedient.

The servants and bodyguards all looked straight. Who has seen such a well-behaved side of the young master?

This has simply overturned the noble and glamorous appearance of Joseph over the years.

Elephant.

Seeing that everyone was moved to death, everyone looked at Emily Gale's eyes either comforting or admiring, but Kylena Gale was impatient.

Sleeping so soundly on Emily Gale's lap, is this still young Master Jackson?

Where is the cruel and cruel Jackson Dasao?

"Emily Gale, did you take advantage of Mr. Jackson's injury and give him some medicine to make him sleep like this?" Kylena Gale stepped forward and said that he was unwilling to accept this fact!

"Emily Gale, what on earth did you do to Young Master Jackson? Hurry up!" The sharp voice made the man sleeping on Emily Gale's lap frown, his expression unhappy.

He is about to wake up!

This time, even Emily Gale's caressing didn't work.

In fact, being stared at by so many people, Young Master Jackson did not wake up immediately, and was already very relaxed.

Now, there are still people babbling here, can you not wake up?

When Hunter Jackson woke up, the surrounding atmosphere seemed to change.

It was so warm just now, but now it's cold.

He opened his eyes, and his eyes were filled with disgust instantly: "Let her go!" "Abei..."

Before the old lady's words were spoken, Aspen Li had already stepped forward to Kylena Gale, carrying her back clothes. Lead to walk outside.

"Aspen Li!" Qin Yi chased after him, trying to stop it.

It is a bit pitiful for a girl to be treated so rudely by him.

However, that was the order of the young master, and he couldn't stop it.

The old lady was also anxious, but Abei let go, it was impossible for Aspen Li to do nothing.

Although she was anxious, she could only whisper: "Aspen Li, don't hurt people."
