

Love Through Time and Space

Chapter 372

Believe her, it's enough Hunter Jackson is still eating, turning a deaf ear to Emily Gale's words.

Emily Gale bit her lip, never willing to give up.

"Young Master Jackson, you said that grandma is the person you respect most, don't you want to know her..."

"It seems that you are already full."

The man finally opened his mouth, but his gaze started from the beginning. In the end, nothing fell on her face.

Emily Gale's heart was blocked, and the whole heart became sad.

In Jackson's house, she could not find anyone to rely on.

The old man would not agree to reopen the lake.

Young Master Jackson is her only hope!

"Young Master Jackson, the old lady's death is unclear, you have a responsibility to give her justice!" Hunter Jackson put down his chopsticks, his face slightly deep.

"When the grandma had an accident, wasn't you the only one at the scene?" Emily Gale was taken aback. What did these words mean?

Isn't he still not believing her until now?

Still believe that the matter is related to her?

"It's not me!" She gripped the embroidered tablecloth tightly, her fingertips trembling slightly.

"If you don't believe it, you will let the lake..."

"Since you are full, then go up, wash and wait for me."

"Young Master Jackson..."

"Take her up."

Hunter Jackson was indifferent His words are absolute commands here.

In order not to make him more angry, Aspen Li immediately put down his chopsticks and walked up to Emily Gale's.

"Miss Ranran, please go upstairs."

Emily Gale stared at Hunter Jackson's waveless eyes.

She still didn't want to give up. Could it be that he really didn't want to know what happened at that time?

Or does he believe that she did the thing a long time ago?

"Young Master Jackson..."

"Miss Ranran, I'll send you up!" Aspen Li increased his voice, fearing that if he continued to entangle him, the young master would be angry.

Young Master's current temper is not something Emily Gale can bear.

"Please don't embarrass me!" Aspen Li said in a deep voice.

Emily Gale bit her lip, finally stood up and left.

... That night, he returned to the room at ten o'clock.

Just after taking a shower, Emily Gale was thrown on the bed.

She lay on the bed without any resistance, but she didn't give up.

"Why don't you want to give it a try? He is your favorite grandma!" Without any words, the man behind him dropped his bathrobe on the chair beside him.

Emily Gale gritted his teeth and silently endured his devastation like a storm.

But tonight he was more terrifying than ever before, and the force that fell on her almost completely destroyed her.

Finally, when she couldn't bear it, she cried hoarsely: "Why..."

No one told her why.

But she actually knew that he was just punishing her.

Punish her for walking with Daniel Jackson, and punish her for acting with other men.

This

A man, in some things, his mind is as small as a needle!

Pain...

She grabbed the sheets under her body and sobbed softly...

The sun shines on the bed through the French windows.

The girl who was deeply caught in the bedding opened her eyes slowly, then immediately closed them again.

Kind of, can't adapt to this glare.

After a while, she opened her eyes again and saw everything in the room clearly.

Young Master Jackson is gone.

His breath remained in the air, but the temperature on the sheets did not belong to him.

It hurts... Emily Gale grabbed the quilt and finally sat up.

I want to go down and wash, but I don't have any strength.

Looking at the empty room, the whole person was suddenly completely overwhelmed by a feeling of despair.

He didn't believe her, no matter what she said or did, he would never believe her again!

Forever, I won't believe it...

After holding back the tears for so long, I finally couldn't help but fall from the corner of my eyes.

In the morning when no one is disturbed, it is deserted, and even the sun can't bring a trace of warmth.

The girl sat on the bed, holding her legs, tears down, silent.

But even if she tears so presumptuously, in the end, she doesn't know what her tears are for.

She had hurt him so deeply, and he now recognized his betrayal.

Isn't it the most normal not to believe her?

If you believe her, that would be a miracle.

Oh, where is the miracle in this world?

The so-called miracles are nothing but desperate people who come up with things to comfort themselves.

She didn't believe these two words anymore.

Raising the back of his hand, he wiped hard on the corner of his eye.

The tears have not dried yet, and the mood has calmed down.

Don't cry, because tears have no value here.

She lifted the quilt and got off the bed slowly.

When he landed on his feet, he was so sore that he almost couldn't stand firmly.

That beast!

When he gets crazy, he is simply not a person!

It hurts her to death!

Three months, when the time of the agreement expires, all this is really over, right?

After washing, Emily Gale went downstairs.

After a casual snack, she walked out of the hall and into the courtyard.

Everyone is busy, only she is bored.

Today I feel a little sick, and I feel heavy.

Even if I went back to my room to read, I probably couldn't stand it.

Unconsciously, Emily Gale walked out of Wangjiang Pavilion.

Get on the sightseeing car and drive to Jackson's backyard.

The closer you get to the backyard, the more you feel the atmosphere today is a bit unusual.

Why is there such a loud noise coming from the backyard?

It seems to be tossing some big project.

The closer you are to the backyard, the louder the sound.

There are gradually more people here, and it seems very lively.

Isn't that the place where the old lady's accident happened?

In the end

what?

Emily Gale stopped the sightseeing car, got out of the car enduring the discomfort of his legs, and walked towards the filled lake.

Along the way, I can still meet many servants from over there.

"What's going on over there? What are everyone doing?" She grabbed one of them and asked in a low voice.

The new maid doesn't know Emily Gale yet.

When she heard the question, she replied: "The eldest master is directing the excavation."

"Excavation?" "Yes, I heard that it was a lake before. I don't know why it was filled in. Now, it's going to be excavated again.

"Wealthy people really know how to play. Such a big project will fill it up and dig it up, and don't know how much money will be wasted.

However, the Jackson family is really rich.

This little money, no one will take it seriously.

Emily Gale couldn't remember when the maid left afterwards.

What has been lingering in his head is the words of the maid: Young Master is directing the excavation, the lake, now, is going to be dug up... Young Master Jackson is going to dig up the filled lake!

He really wants to dig up the lake!

Ignoring the soreness of her legs, she walked over quickly.

When seeing the tall figure standing under the sun, seeing the little warmth hidden behind him chilly, Emily Gale couldn't help covering his lips, tears rolled down.

It turns out that there will be miracles in this world.

It turns out that miracles are not things for desperate people to comfort themselves.

The miracle, now so real, appeared in his sight.

She leaned against the tree trunk and pressed her lips.

When she was the most painful, she would only shed tears and never let herself cry presumptuously.

But now, when I glanced at the figure, I couldn't make a sound.

Hunter Jackson, what kind of person are you?

Can make her painful to despair, but quietly gave her the best hope.

Even if he knew that he did it for the old lady.

But at least, he believed her!

Just trust her, that's enough!

Chapter 373

Want to use her to threaten me?

"Abei, what the hell are you doing?" Elder Jackson's family went out early in the morning.

After hearing the news, he came back after putting things down.

In front of him, dozens of machines are operating.

The excavation work has been carried out for a short period.

The original lake was so big that it had to be filled at first, and it was filled for several days.

Now, if you want to dig again, the workload is more than filling the lake.

Therefore, within three or five days, there is no way to dig.

But, only three or five days!

"Abei, let them stop!" The old man flushed with anger.

He has already said that it is absolutely not allowed to reopen this lake. Hunter Jackson is clearly hitting him in the face like this!

"Smelly boy, I asked you to stop them. Did you hear that?" "Why stop?" Hunter Jackson didn't look at him, his eyes kept falling on the filled lake.

"I heard that there is new evidence that can prove that what happened to grandma was not an accident."

"Who is talking nonsense!" Of course Mr. Jackson knows who it is, that woman, so he shouldn't let her stay.

Yesterday, she should be sent away, far away!

This woman was against their Jackson family, and let her stay, and it really became a scourge again!

"Your grandma's death was an accident. This matter has been investigated a long time ago. What are you going to toss about now?" Old man Jackson was so angry that his fingers were shaking.

The old housekeeper also whispered: "Young master, you must think about it clearly, and continue to investigate this matter..."

"If there is a murderer, then continue to investigate, maybe you can really find the murderer."

Hunter Jackson looked at it. Looking at the two of them, they looked indifferent: "Is this a good thing?" "If there really is a murderer, then this murderer is the woman you brought back!" Old man Jackson pointed a long finger to the figure under the tree in the distance. .

"Bring her here."

Two bodyguards in black immediately walked towards Emily Gale.

In fact, there is no need for them to speak, Emily Gale also knows that the old man is looking for her.

Cleaned up the last tears under her eyes, she pursed her lips and walked over first without waiting for the bodyguards to come in.

Hunter Jackson's gaze swept over her without staying too much.

He still looked at the lake being dug, without any emotional ups and downs in his eyes.

"Since you must track down, then send this woman in first, she is the biggest suspect."

The old man took a look at Emily Gale, with a cold breath hidden in his eyes.

This tone is beyond doubt.

As long as Hunter Jackson continues to dig the lake, he will call the police and ask them to take Emily Gale away.

"Old man, are you threatening me?" Joseph looked at him from the north side, his eyes still soft.

It seems that there is no meaning to be angry.

Even he

There was a smile on the corners of his lips: "Do you think she can threaten me with a bargaining chip?" The old man did not speak, and most people couldn't change what Hunter Jackson decided.

He is the same!

Emily Gale looked ahead, where everyone was busy.

She laughed: "I didn't do things. I'm not afraid to go in and sit. I believe that the police will give me justice."

"You...you are really not afraid of death!" Old man Jackson was full of anger and chills!

"I'm afraid."

Emily Gale met his gaze, and the breath between his brows was calm and indifferent.

"But I know that I will be fine if I go in, because I didn't harm the old lady."

Old man Jackson's chest was constantly rising and falling, and he was so angry that his heart was hurting.

He didn't want to care about Emily Gale.

The sharp gaze fell directly on Hunter Jackson.

"You have to do this? Even if you know that once this goes out, Jackson's shares will definitely be affected?" Hunter Jackson disapproved: "Since you handed Jackson's to me, then, the Jackson's matter, you shouldn't you care too much?" "You..."

I didn't expect that the grandson I had cultivated by myself would talk to him with such an attitude!

The old man is indeed almost completely behind the scenes now.

He basically didn't care about Jackson's matter.

He trusts Hunter Jackson's ability and believes that he can take all the Jackson family to a new height.

However, the premise is that there is no such woman!

As long as she is there, his grandson will easily become a lunatic!

"Boy, don't be too crazy, or I will let you know that you regret it!" His senhan gaze swept across Emily Gale.

Hunter Jackson sneered, and suddenly stretched out his hand to push Emily Gale over.

"Want to use her to threaten me? Oh, a tool for warming the bed, you can do whatever you want."

The tool for warming the bed...

Although Joseph's voice is not loud, everyone around him can hear it clearly.

It turned out that the third young lady from the Gale family was able to come back because he provided such service to the young master.

No wonder they were all abandoned, and they still stayed with Joseph.

Unexpectedly, the rumors were true, and everything that Miss Gale's third lady had now was exchanged with her own body.

Emily Gale was expressionless, quietly accepting all the disdainful eyes.

Warm the bed, as long as Young Master Jackson is willing to investigate this matter, she doesn't mind any humiliation.

Anyway, from the moment she returned to Wangjiang Pavilion, she was a shameful existence.

She smiled and looked at the old man with a calm expression.

"Master Jackson wants to call the police? If you want to call the police, then I will go back and eat something first. I'm afraid I will not eat well in the bureau."

It seems that I really don't care about it.

The rest of the day, do you live in the game?

Elder Jackson was almost about to vomit blood from these two men!

After a burst of anger, his chest suddenly became dull, and even breathing began to become difficult.

He covered the place where his heart was.

The old butler was taken aback, and hurriedly said, "Master, how are you?" Hunter Jackson didn't want to argue with him anymore, he said lightly: "Send him back to rest and let Ye Han come over and take a look."

"No need!" Where's Lengao?

Now, what role do you still play as a good grandson?

If it weren't for him to get angry, how hard would he be?

"I know I can't stop the matter you decide, but you'd better think it out for yourself! After this matter, what difficulties will Jackson Family face!" Hunter Jackson said nothing.

The old man stomped his feet with anger, turned and left.

His steps are a bit messy and frivolous, and it seems that his body is really not well.

"Master!" The old butler quickly followed.

As he walked, he took out the phone and hurriedly said: "Master is uncomfortable, come over and show him."

The two walked away, and several bodyguards followed away.

Everyone is still busy beside the filled lake.

The servants around did not dare to stay to watch the show, it was all right, all of them went away.

Emily Gale glanced at Hunter Jackson.

At this moment, there were only two words to say: "...thank you."

"Thank me for what? But you can give you some sweetness by the way."

Hunter Jackson didn't even look at her. , His voice was indifferent without the slightest ups and downs: "After all, you let me have so much fun."

Chapter 374

Emily Gale, it was you who forced me to feel a pain in my heart.

Lie on the bed like a doll.

Whether he did it on purpose or not, these words really pierced her heart.

She took a deep breath and tried to suppress the sting.

His face regained his indifferent expression.

Say it, don't care, so, what else hurts?

Does it hurt because you still care?

Ah.

How silly!

Hunter Jackson did not stay here all the time.

After about half an hour, Aspen Li answered the call and invited Young Master Jackson to leave.

Emily Gale sat in the shade of the tree, looking forward, watching everyone busy.

Until, someone from behind, pulled her fiercely!

"Emily Gale, what do you mean? What do you want to do?" The man who was almost crazy turned out to be Shu Ran.

It was a bit beyond Emily Gale's expectations.

"Go to a place with me!" Shu Ran grabbed her wrist and pulled her up abruptly.

Emily Gale didn't speak, she was dragged all the way to the back room, the old lady's room.

Coming here, Emily Gale's mood immediately became heavy.

But what does Shu Ran mean?

"Let Joseph stop digging on the lake!" Shu Ran glared at her, a little frustrated!

"Why stop?" Emily Gale studied the expression on her face.

However, this old lady, who has always been quiet and gentle, was already out of urgency.

The calmness of the past is completely gone.

She squinted her eyes: "Madam, I don't understand what you are doing now."

"You don't need to see what to understand, you just need to tell Joseph to stop digging the lake!" But Emily Gale, how could it be so easy? Listened to her?

"Should the old lady give me at least a reason? And this reason must be able to convince me?" "Emily Gale!" "Before the old lady's accident, only you had seen her. Did you move something in her wheelchair? Hands and feet?" Shu Ran's current performance is really puzzling!

If it's not a guilty conscience, why should she persuade Mr. Jackson to stop the lake digging project?

But if it's really a guilty conscience, why dare to speak out your purpose directly in front of her?

Shu Ran, what is she thinking?

"I didn't kill the old lady."

Shu Ran was really excited just now.

Hunter Jackson wanted to dig the lake. He probably only decided last night or even this morning.

No one received any news beforehand.

She even asked about the construction team who excavated the soil, and only received instructions this morning.

Shu Ran didn't know why Young Master Jackson suddenly wanted this, but she was sure that Emily Gale was the only one who could stop Young Master Jackson now.

After all, what happened before the old man and the young master Jackson,

The whole Jackson family knew about it.

"Emily Gale, I can't explain to you, as long as you are willing to convince Joseph, I will give you what you want."

"But I don't want anything."

Emily Gale stared at her.

Shu Ran's performance made her more certain that the old lady's matter was by no means an accident.

"Who killed the old lady?" She walked over and suddenly grabbed Shu Ran's skirt.

"You know, don't you? Tell me, who the hell is it? Why did he do this?" "No one, it was just an accident!" Shu Ran pushed her away forcefully.

The coldness just now is gone, now, there is nothing left.

"Emily Gale, just beg you, don't continue to investigate this matter! Can I beg you?" Emily Gale still looked indifferent: "Unless you tell me who killed the old lady!" I don't know who it is? There is no such one at all!" Shu Ran was going crazy, grabbing Emily Gale's shoulders hard and shaking hard.

"If you continue like this, you will kill an innocent person! You will kill him!"
"Who is it?" Emily Gale frowned. Why is she so excited?

Who is she protecting?

"Is it Daniel Jackson? Is it him?" Her fingers were a little cold, but how could it be possible?

For no reason, why did Young Master Jackson act on the old lady?

Impossible, impossible!

What is the grudge between him and the old lady?

"He killed the old lady?" "What are you talking about? How could Daniel attack the old lady? Are you crazy?" "Then what are you worried about?" Emily Gale pushed her hand away.

"The old lady's matter is not an accident. This matter must be investigated."

"Then tell me, why do you think her death was man-made?" Shu Ran's look made Emily Gale even more puzzled.

She really didn't understand what she was thinking.

If it is a murderer, what you are thinking about now, shouldn't it be to find a way to destroy the evidence that you accidentally left behind?

But she didn't do something beneficial to her, instead, she came here to beg her for cover.

This is not like a normal murderer, so even if what Shu Ran said to him was weird, Emily Gale still felt that the man in front of him was not the murderer of the old lady.

But what is she panicking?

Is it because she knows who the murderer is, or is there any secret hidden in this lake?

Emily Gale's heart trembled slightly, and she didn't know what she was thinking. In short, she felt a little frightened.

She suddenly walked outside the door, walking quickly.

But just when she was about to walk to the door, Shu Ran behind her suddenly jumped up and pulled her back.

Shu Ran's strength is great, as if she has exhausted everything she has

Some power.

Emily Gale was caught off guard, and she was dragged to the ground without paying attention.

With a thud, where the back of the head hit, I felt dizzy.

it hurts!

She clutched her head and clearly felt something warm and sticky flowing down her fingertips.

Shu Ran didn't expect that she would make her hurt like this if she pulled it at will!

Emily Gale's head was bleeding!

The scarlet blood immediately stained the ground.

Shu Ran was shocked, panicked, at a loss, and finally calmed down.

"Tell me, what did you see by the lake? Why did you think that the old lady's matter was not an accident?" Emily Gale was so painful that he almost lost the strength to speak.

But she kept shaking her head, feeling more and more dizzy, she unconsciously opened her mouth: "You...wrap the old lady's wheelchair with waterweeds..."

She sneered, her temperature seemed to be dropping.

headache!

Consciousness is also gradually blurred.

But she still sneered.

"Shu Ran, whether you are a murderer or not, you...are related to the murderer. This time, you...can't escape."

"Oh, it turned out to be like this, it turned out to be like this..."

Shu Ran didn't even panic.

There is no fear.

She sat on the ground, looked at Emily Gale who was still bleeding, and suddenly smiled.

"Why do you have to force me? Everyone has a good time, okay? Why do you want to do this?" She seemed a little mad and desperate.

Finally, she stood up, walked to the bed, tore off the quilt that the old lady used during her lifetime, and put it on Emily Gale's body.

"Emily Gale, you forced me!"

Chapter 375

Forgot how she betrayed before Emily Gale finally fainted.

The blood is still flowing out, but the consciousness has completely moved away.

When the quilt was covered, the last bit of strength also disappeared.

After making sure that Emily Gale was no longer conscious, Shu Ran picked up the phone and dialed a certain number.

"Bring me the car, the old lady lived in the back room, and drive directly to the entrance of the hall.

There is some rubbish here, I have to throw it away."

... Hunter Jackson's eyebrows bounced a few times.

He frowned, and the documents in front of him seemed a bit unreadable.

The manager of the marketing department is still talking about the plan for next year.

But this young master Jackson, who has always been known as a workaholic, gradually couldn't listen to a word.

With a snap, his pen was suddenly placed on the table.

The marketing manager was taken aback, and hurriedly stopped and looked at him.

"Chief, President, is it... Is there something wrong?" Everyone's eyes fell on Hunter Jackson's body.

The president's face doesn't seem to be pretty. Is it the content of their meeting today that made him unhappy?

Young Master Jackson's face darkened slightly, everyone's heart moved, and they didn't even dare to breathe hard.

Suddenly, Hunter Jackson stood up and left a cold word: "Today's meeting is over."

After that, the slender figure walked to the door.

The little secretary hurriedly opened the door of the conference room and respectfully stood by.

The figure of the president quickly disappeared in front of everyone.

Everyone looked at each other, completely wondering what went wrong just now.

In the end, everyone's eyes fell on Aspen Li.

Aspen Li just packed his briefcase.

As soon as he stood up, he saw everyone's eyes for help, focusing on him.

He shrugged, helplessly: "I don't know why, just now, there is nothing wrong with what I said."

The eldest master left, he had to follow.

Aspen Li spread out his hands and picked up the briefcase.

As soon as I went out, I received a call from the housekeeper.

... When Aspen Li walked into Hunter Jackson's room, his expression was a bit anxious.

"Young Master, Miss RJenni, she..."

"She's here?" At first hearing Emily Gale's name, Hunter Jackson's eyes throbbed even more.

But he was always cold and hard, with no expression on his face.

"No!" "Young Master, of course Miss Miss is gone."

Sometimes Aspen Li couldn't see the man in front of him.

When talking about the four words "Miss Ranran" just now, the corner of the young master's eyes jumped clearly.

Although he was always expressionless, Aspen Li had been by his side for so many years, as long as there was something wrong on his face, Aspen Li could still easily see it.

But now, speaking of Miss Ranran's disappearance, he can still be quiet?

Aspen Li didn't know, what the hell is this young master

Do you care or not?

"The Jackson family is so big, enough for her to go shopping all day."

Hunter Jackson snorted coldly.

"But someone saw her and the old lady go to the old lady's house.

After that, the big lady asked the car to drive in directly.

After that, no one saw Miss Ranran come out from there."

"What do you mean?" Young master, I suspect that the eldest lady will take Miss Ranran away."

As for what exactly he is going to do after taking it away, he has just received the news now and is still unclear about the specifics.

"Young Master, do you need to find it?" He actually wanted to see an anxious look on Young Master's face.

Although, knowing it is impossible.

Sure enough, Hunter Jackson's face was always indifferent without any expression, anxious or something, and he had nothing to do with him.

"Look at what Daniel Jackson is doing?" He returned to his office.

Soon, Aspen Li knocked on the door and came in: "The Second Young Master has been in the company all day and has not left."

Hunter Jackson still had no response, but Aspen Li was a little anxious.

"Master, do you want to send someone to find it?" Even the eldest lady did not come back. This matter is a bit strange.

"Why are you looking for?" Hunter Jackson leaned back in his chair, squinting at him.

"You are so idle, even if two women go out shopping, you have to worry about it?" "I..."

Two women go out shopping, in fact, it is not without this possibility.

Aspen Li thought for a while, and felt that he might really think too much.

He was just a little skeptical.

The eldest master didn't say to allow Emily Gale to go out. With Emily Gale's character, if it wasn't for important things, he wouldn't go out without authorization.

However, the young master never said that she is not allowed to go out, right?

Aspen Li finally left Hunter Jackson's office with a little doubt.

Hunter Jackson leaned back in his chair, inexplicably annoying.

Take out the cigarette from the drawer on the side and light it with a snap.

He raised his hand and took a couple of breaths.

The irritability and the inexplicable anxiety that came from his heart were still not dispelled.

What's the matter with him?

That woman is going out, what does he care about?

What's more, Shu Ran took her out.

What earth-shattering things can two women toss about?

It's just a tool for warming the bed, it can annoy him to this point!

Is he stupid?

Have you forgotten how she and other men betrayed him?

Hunter Jackson took another breath of smoke and pinched the cigarette butt on the ashtray.

Slender fingers landed on the mouse and continued to look at the plans sent by various departments.

... Young Master Jackson came back a bit early tonight. He arrived at Wangjiang Pavilion at 6:30 and was clearly back after work.

Wangjiang Pavilion is very quiet.

There is no figure of that woman.

Actually, no one knew where she was.

Isn't that enough after going out for a long time?

"Get that woman back for me!" He was angry!

The three-month agreement did not let her come here to play.

He even played until he came back, and I didn't know how to get back and wait!

The housekeeper hurried back from the outside: "Young Master, I haven't seen Miss Ranran all day. People have been found in the backyard, and they haven't."

"Before they said they saw Madam Ranran together with Miss Ranran.

The madam went out all afternoon, and hasn't come back yet."

"I don't know how to call and ask?" What's the matter with the housekeeper, this little thing can't be handled.

Steward Qin knew that the young master's temper was much more irritable than before for more than a month.

He hurriedly said: "Madame's phone is turned off.

As for Miss Yu Ranran..."

He put a phone in front of him from his pocket.

"Miss Ranran's phone number was found in the bedroom where the old lady lived."

"What did you say?" Hunter Jackson grabbed the phone.

It's Emily Gale's phone. How can she not even bring her phone when she wants to go out to play?

Forgot?

The restlessness throughout the day was aggravated at this time.

Hunter Jackson had time to give instructions. Outside, Aspen Li walked in quickly, looking anxious.

"Young Master, blood stains were found in the lobby of the back room."

Chapter 376

Not me, who else?

Emily Gale had an accident.

Shu Ran couldn't find it, and she was missing.

The car she drove out was abandoned on the beach.

I heard that the lady drove away a speedboat from their own wharf.

But there was no surveillance at sea, and the lady also destroyed the speedboat's positioning system. Now, I don't know where the speedboat went.

"What's the matter? My mother took it away?" Daniel Jackson rushed to receive the news. When he arrived at the dock, Hunter Jackson was already in the monitoring room, staring at the technicians recovering data.

Shu Ran didn't destroy the system on the speedboat as soon as she got on the speedboat.

She didn't start working until they got to the surface.

But obviously, Shu Ran is not very familiar with the system.

It is estimated that a more violent method was used to destroy the hardware of this system.

Each of their Jackson's speedboats has an independent computer system, which is relatively advanced.

This system can help those sailing to analyze the surrounding environment. Of course, navigation, communication with people on shore, and weather forecasting are all available.

The precise positioning function is also integrated in this system.

If Shu Ran hadn't damaged the host computer on the speedboat, they would now be able to lock the fast-fixed position.

But now, the last position information is stopped on the sea.

No one knows where they went after that.

"Is it all right?" Hunter Jackson kicked on the chair.

Such a sturdy chair cracked in the middle!

How heavy is this foot of Joseph, I can hardly imagine!

If you fall on yourself, you will be seriously injured if you don't die!

The technicians in the monitoring room were all trembling, not even daring to take a breath.

The team leader wiped his sweat and hurriedly said: "The host computer on the speedboat cannot communicate. Now, we can only rely on our positioning system to estimate the most likely place for the speedboat."

"In other words, even if there are results, it's just an estimate?" Hunter Jackson's face sank, and the team leader's legs were soft in fright!

"Lord, young master, the host can't connect, we can't repair it remotely!" Now, it is estimated that the hardware has been completely destroyed.

"Young master, don't worry, although it's just speculation, the accuracy rate is still very high."

Hunter Jackson did not speak, his face was pale.

The group leader didn't dare to say anything more, and quickly ordered everyone to continue processing the data and quickly analyze the results.

The young master's temper is getting more and more violent, and he is almost on the verge of breaking out.

Continue to drag on like this, it will really kill people!

Of course everyone knows that the situation is serious, and no one dares to relax.

Seeing that his eldest brother was unwilling to pay attention to him, Daniel Jackson quickly walked to Aspen Li's.

"What the hell is going on? Are they going out together or saying..."

The front took Miss Ranran to the back room where the old lady lived, and we found blood stains in the lobby of the back room.

Daniel Jackson's heart suddenly tightened, and his face became very ugly by the way.

"Blood?"

"God! What did his mother do to Emily Gale? "My mother won't hurt anyone!"

Brother, she has been in Jackson's house for so many years, even if you don't understand her character, you should know that she doesn't have such courage!

"Hunter Jackson is desperate now. Where can I have the mind to talk to him? Even if it's just a bed-warming tool, at least it is still what he needs. If something goes wrong at this time... He clenched his fists and his breath became colder. Jackson Daniel looked at Aspen Li, and Aspen Li was also helpless. Since there is blood stains, it means there is a dispute.

And the last one that appeared in the monitoring screen of the Jackson family was intact Shu Ran. That is to say, the blood stains belonged to Emily Gale.

The current one.

The fact is, she took the injured Emily Gale away! "The data is out!

"The group leader said, bringing all the thoughts of several people over. He looked at Hunter Jackson, with cold sweat on his forehead.

"Master, the place they are most likely to go is Rainbow Island under the name of Mr. Da. Secondly, Feixia Island under the name of the Second Young Master.

"It must be Feixia Island."

"Daniel Jackson stepped forward and looked at Hunter Jackson.

"The last time we went to Rainbow Island, my mother was scared by the snake in the wild forest.

It was a unique snake on Rainbow Island.

She said that she will do it again later. Do not go to Rainbow Island either.

Hunter Jackson turned around and walked out of the monitoring room without saying a word. Aspen Li walked behind him, and while walking, he took out the phone and gave instructions.

"...Your team, go to Rainbow Island to find someone... Yes, my young master
Take a few people to Feixia Island.

"... Emily Gale woke up with a headache.

The headache was terrible, and the whole head seemed to explode. Pain! It was so painful that even the eyelids could hardly be lifted. Finally, she tried her best to open her eyes.

The gap. In the dim vision, a person is sitting not far away, as if holding a pen and paper, not knowing what she is writing. Her back looks very desolate. I don't know why, seeing her at this time, there will be a kind of despair It's not that Emily Gale felt desperate, but that she smelled a desperate breath on Shu Ran's body. Why is that? "Hiss..."

After moving casually, she found her hands tied behind her back. Probably tied.

It took too long and tied too tightly, and the rough rope frayed the skin of the wrist. Now when I move it, there is a heart-piercing pain! "Wake up?"

"Shu Ran glanced back at her, this one, there is no previous resentment, and no reproach.

A very plain look, but because of this plainness, the breath of despair in her is even more so.

Add richness.

"What are you going to do?" Emily Gale struggled, and finally sat up.

Behind them is the stone wall, they are in a cave!

She bound her limbs and carried such a place, what exactly did she want to do?

"I can't live."

Shu Ran smiled, bleak and helpless.

"Oh, Emily Gale, you have blocked my last way."

"Did you kill the old lady?" For no reason, why did she want to do this?

The only possibility is that she is the murderer!

But why?

She could not feel at all, Shu Ran had any murderous intent towards the old lady!

Shu Ran smiled again, stopped looking at her, took the pen, and continued to write on the paper.

"Don't you know everything? I didn't kill it, who else could it be?" "Why did you kill her!" Emily Gale's words were clearly yelled!

She was so excited that she was trembling all over, and her lips were trembling!

"Why did you kill her, why? She is such a kind person, where did she offend you? Why did you kill her?" Why?

Why is Shu Ran!

She had doubted, but she never thought that Shu Ran had the motive to kill the old lady!

Why on earth?

Why is she doing this?

Emily Gale wanted to jump over, but her hands and feet were tied.

Pounced forward and fell to the ground with a thud.

But she didn't give up, still staring at Shu Ran fiercely.

"Tell me why? Why are you killing grandma? Why on earth?"

Chapter 377

She had no retreat, and Shu Ran seemed to have finished writing everything.

She put the paper and pen aside before looking back at Emily Gale.

The corners of his lips still have that bleak and disturbing smile.

"She discovered the secrets between me and other men. Can I not kill her and kill her?" "What?" Emily Gale was stunned.

Other men...

She actually betrayed Mr. Da!

"I don't understand.

There are so many women in Jackson Shiru, why can't I have other men?"

"Why does she say she wants to tell Jackson Shiru things, why should she drive me out of Jackson's house?" "You ...You went to see the old lady that day..."

"She was looking for me!" Shu Ran stared at Emily Gale and sneered: "She said she wanted to drive me out of Jackson's house!" "Impossible, the old lady is so kind, she She will only try to persuade you, she can't force you!" Emily Gale didn't want to believe it at all, she absolutely couldn't believe it.

Grandma couldn't even say a heavy word to others, how could she have to force her to leave?

Who didn't know that Jackson Shiru had many women outside.

Leaving aside the outsiders, it is in this home that Young Master Jackson is a mother, and Daniel Jackson is a mother.

Even Ross and Jackson Peitang were not born to the same mother.

The whole Jackson family knew Jackson Shiru's passion.

Although it was wrong for Shu Ran to have other men, she believed that the old lady would only persuade her and would not viciously try to drive her away.

"You don't believe it, do you?" Shu Ran smiled suddenly, a little nervously.

"Oh, I didn't believe it at first. I thought that as long as I confessed to her, told her everything, and then sincerely regretted it, she would forgive me."

"I even knelt down and begged her, and promised her that I would never again. When something like that happened, she didn't listen, she must make it known to everyone, and must ruin me!" Shu Ran stared at her, but she didn't seem to see much hatred in her eyes.

She just glared at Emily Gale and sneered: "I am the eldest wife of the Jackson family. I have a lot of beauty outside. If this matter is spread, I will be ruined by her for the rest of my life!" "What can you say to me? What other choice? Emily Gale, you say!" She suddenly rushed over and grabbed Emily Gale by the collar.

"I begged you, I beg you to let Young Master Jackson stop digging the lake, but you don't want it, you don't even have a little compassion."

"How could I be willing? You killed the old lady, this is impossible. That's it!"
Emily Gale didn't want to comment on her having a man thing.

If she was wrong, then Jackson Shiru was even more wrong.

She even felt that Jackson Shiru was so excessive that she had other men for granted.

Of course, if it were her, she would definitely get divorced instead of playing separately

Each of them.

However, everyone has their own ambitions, divorce or not, it is someone else's business.

But what she did to the old lady must not be buried in the ground like the lake!

"If Madam Jackson didn't dig the lake, would you come out and confess?"
Heh, after all, she still has a guilty conscience.

There is absolutely nothing wrong with digging a lake!

However, now that Shu Ran pleaded guilty, there is no need to continue digging this lake.

Emily Gale had an inexplicable and complicated sentiment in her heart.

She didn't know what she was thinking, but felt that things... were still a little weird.

"I was killed by you, Emily Gale, I was really killed by you."

Shu Ran seemed very decadent and desperate.

She let go of Emily Gale and walked aside to sit down.

I don't know when there is a little thing in my hand, it seems that it is a small bottle.

She looked bleak, looking at the small bottle in her hand, laughing and crying.

"What is that?" Emily Gale was a little panicked, an indescribable fear.

"Shu Ran, what do you want to do?" Shu Ran looked back at her, smiling beautifully.

"Poison, what else could it be?" Emily Gale was cold.

At this moment, she was holding the poison in her hand. What did she mean?

Shu Ran had stood up and walked towards her step by step.

"It's all caused by you, Emily Gale, why are you going your own way? Why do you have to kill me?" "I was really hurt by you. I have nothing now. Guess what I want to do the most?" Jenni didn't want to guess, but stared at the bottle in her hand with a defensive look.

With a bleak smile, Shu Ran walked to her and squatted down.

Emily Gale was more flustered inexplicably, not because she was afraid that she would poison herself.

Because she couldn't see any murderous in the bottom of Shu Ran's eyes.

She didn't want to kill her!

Then her bottle of poison...

"Shu Ran, don't mess around!" Shu Ran stood up, looked down at her, laughed, smiled and smiled, but shed tears again.

"I have no turning back. You forced me to this place, what else can I do?" She stopped watching Emily Gale, and walked aside, looking at the night outside.

She picked up the small bottle in her hand.

"Shu Ran, don't mess around! Calm down! There is a solution to everything, death is not the only way out!" "Shu Ran, Shu Ran...Listen to me, you still have a son, and you have a son.

"Son..."

Shu Ran's fingertips shook, looking at the night outside.

Under the dim night sky, Daniel Jackson's face gradually became clear.

Son, she also has a son.

She had to die just because there was a son.

She must die!

must!

Suddenly, she raised her hand and opened the bottle.

The poison in the small bottle was poured into her mouth at once.

Soon, all swallowed

Went in.

"Shu Ran!" Emily Gale struggled to climb over, but she had ropes on her hands and feet, and she couldn't even stand up.

"Shu Ran, call, call an ambulance, Shu Ran!" Shu Ran looked back at her with a sad expression.

"Emily Gale, can I ask you something?" "No! I won't listen, and I won't agree! You call an ambulance, hurry up!" She knew that as long as Shu Ran finished the matter, she His life is coming to an end!

She couldn't agree, maybe she didn't, Shu Ran still had a chance to live.

Even if she knew that this idea was naive, even if she knew it was impossible, she still didn't want to agree, she couldn't agree!

"Hurry up and call an ambulance. If you can survive, if you have anything, you can do it yourself!" "You surrender, and they will reduce your sentence as appropriate. Don't do this, you don't need this! Madam!" "I don't, I can't go. I can't surrender myself..."

Shu Ran shook his head vigorously.

I don't know if it was because of too much force that she could not stand still.

After shaking her body, she fell to the ground with a snap.

The black blood slid down the corners of her lips.

She started to feel pain, trembling from the pain, and gradually, the trembling became convulsions!

"Here...this is on a desert island, on...island."

"The phone...threw it away, no one, no ambulance, no..."

She was able to come here, she already thought of it, she didn't There is a way out.

She also does not allow herself to retreat!

"Gale...Jenni, promise me... Promise me one thing..."

Shu Ran gritted his teeth and looked at Emily Gale. Her body was still twitching and her lips kept trembling.

But she still gritted her teeth and finished speaking with difficulty: "My son...likes you, I know...you don't like him, but, but please...please occasionally...care about him, please... Please..."

Chapter 378

This shameless woman!

Shu Ran's voice gradually weakened.

Suddenly, after being quiet for two seconds, her whole body trembled suddenly.

Convulsions, death-like convulsions, every cell in his body is convulsing fiercely!

"Shu Ran, Shu Ran!" Emily Gale wanted to rush over like crazy.

With a thud, he fell to the ground because of his hands and feet.

"Shu Ran! Don't do this, don't do this!" She was really panicked!

Shu Ran's face was completely black, and the body that was still twitching violently just now, now gradually calmed down.

She knows what it means.

As long as there is complete silence, people will be gone.

“Shu Ran...Help! Help! Help!” On the deserted island, she actually knew that no matter how she called, there would be no one to rescue them.

However, she has nothing to do.

“Help, dead, help, help...”

No one could respond at all on this empty night.

Shu Ran’s face gradually darkened, and her whole person was dark.

She stared at Emily Gale, staring at her face.

“Help me... take care of... son, son...”

Her voice slowly and completely disappeared.

Emily Gale only felt that the whole world was moving away from him bit by bit.

Everything around is inaudible and invisible.

In the blurred vision, there were only Shu Ran’s eyes.

Those eyes didn’t breathe at all, and didn’t have a trace of bright, completely gray and dead eyes.

They have been staring at her, staring at her, as if asking her, why are they forcing me, why?

Why dig a lake, why force me, why must I die?

She is dead.

Emily Gale lay on the ground, very close to Shu Ran.

Closer, it seems that as soon as you reach out, you can touch her.

But she couldn't touch anything after all, her hands were tied behind her back, and she didn't have any ability to break free.

I don't know how long it took, but suddenly there were a few more figures in my sight.

In the ear, a man's heart-piercing call came: "Mom..."

But she couldn't see clearly, she couldn't see everything clearly.

In her eyes, there were still only Shu Ran's wide-open eyes without any gloss.

Those dead eyes.

Suddenly, someone held her shoulders and helped her up.

At the moment he was touched, Emily Gale seemed to be awakened in a dream.

After waking up, he was still in a terrible dream.

"Don't touch me, don't touch me, no! Ah, ah... let me go..."

She got a block in her chest. Before she could see the person in front of her clearly, her eyes suddenly became dark and she fell into his arms. Go down.

"Emily Gale!" Hunter Jackson untied the ropes on her hands and feet, and hugged her up.

This girl

Fainted, his face pale as paper, just now, his whole body was shaking.

And Shu Ran, lying not far in front of her eyes, when they arrived, the girl stared at Shu Ran's eyes.

Shu Ran, but her breath was gone.

"Mom! Mom!" Daniel Jackson fell to the ground, picked up Shu Ran, and hugged him in his arms.

He was crazy, and his fingers were shaking.

"Call an ambulance, call an ambulance! Hurry!" Aspen Li squatted down beside him, feeling the pulse between Shuran's neck.

His fingers stiffened and shook his head towards Hunter Jackson.

People are dead, calling an ambulance is useless.

What's more, they are on the island now, even if they call an ambulance, they can't get in.

"Second Young Master..."

"I asked you to call an ambulance, didn't you hear me!" Daniel Jackson roared, with a violent breath.

"Call an ambulance! Hurry up! Call an ambulance!" "Second young master, be sober, the eldest lady has... she..."

"Shut up! Shut up!" Called the ambulance, he called himself, no one Help him, he called himself!

Daniel Jackson was in a hurry and was going to find his mobile phone.

Obviously the phone was in his trouser pocket, but he didn't know what was going on, and he couldn't take it out.

The hands were trembling all the time, and they were shaking so hard that they couldn't even reach into their trouser pockets.

He can't get his cell phone, can't make calls, can't call an ambulance!

The gaze for help suddenly fell on Hunter Jackson.

"Big brother, big brother help me, call an ambulance and save my mother! Big brother! Help my mother!" Hunter Jackson looked at him, his thin lips moved, but he did not speak.

He had never seen this half-brother when he was so flustered.

"Big brother! Help me! Save my mother!" Daniel Jackson was almost begging him, like, now except for the big brother, no one can save his mother.

Holding Emily Gale tightly, he finally said lightly: "She is no longer there."

Daniel Jackson was stunned for several seconds, and after several seconds, he became furious.

"Nonsense! You lie! My mother is still here, he is still here!" "Second Young Master, calm down, the old lady is... dead, calm down!" Aspen Li's words failed to calm him down. Qin Yi could only rush over and trap him.

"Second Young Master, go back first, let's take the eldest back home first!" ... Daniel Jackson was confined by Qin Yi all the way back.

At first, he had to resist.

Later, the strength gradually weakened and the people calmed down.

Perhaps, not calm, but despair.

He actually knew that Shu Ran was really dead.

Desperate, desperate, not even willing to say a word.

Emily Gale was sent to the medical room. Ye Han checked her. Except for a bruise on the back of her head, she shed some blood.

His wounds.

It's just that the shock may be too great, and I still don't want to wake up.

In the lobby of Jackson's house, the old man had a cold face and did not speak.

Aspen Li brought back a suicide note, which should have been written before Shu Ran took the poison.

She admitted her fault in the suicide note.

It was she who set up a facility at the bottom of the lake before, and then entangled the old lady's wheelchair with waterweeds.

In order to clear the charge, after Emily Gale arrived, he would remotely start his hands.

That organ is still buried at the bottom of the lake.

But after she knew that Young Master Jackson was going to dig the lake, she realized that her crime would be discovered and she couldn't escape.

As for why she killed the old lady's suicide note, it was clearly written.

She had another man and was discovered by the old lady.

Jackson Shiru's face was even uglier than the night sky.

He can't wait to tear up this suicide note!

However, before he tore it to pieces, Hunter Jackson took the suicide note and let Aspen Li put it away.

"This shameless woman!" Jackson Shiru turned blue with anger.

Shu Ran is dead, but he is not very sad.

However, this woman actually betrayed him, and he is completely angry now!

Hunter Jackson stared at his angry flushed face, and suddenly said indifferently: "Why is she shameless? Didn't she just follow a man?" "Joseph..."

Jackson Shiru didn't expect his son to speak like this. , For a while, I was too surprised to react.

Hunter Jackson's thin lips pressed lightly, he glanced at his father before humming indifferently.

"Speaking of betrayal, how many times did you betray her before that? She is just one other man, and how many other women, you,?"

Chapter 379

So far, "You...what are you talking about!" Jackson Shiru never dreamed that his son could say such a thing!

Even if he knows that he is usually rebellious, he doesn't even know what it means to be submissive to the old man.

But Jackson Shiru still didn't think that his son would accuse him in front of everyone!

"What's the matter with how many women a man of a wealthy family wants? I am sorry for them, have the money been given less?" Especially Shu Ran, he even gave her the identity of Mrs. Jackson.

This woman, what can I complain about!

Unexpectedly, she became the eldest wife of the Jackson family. Not only did she not know how to be grateful, but she was not satisfied, and she wanted to find another man!

Jackson Shiru is a little lucky now, but fortunately this woman is gone.

Otherwise, he still doesn't know how many green hats he has to wear!

"Why do you think your wife can be sent with money?" Hunter Jackson's face was like a frozen snow mountain.

Not anger, nor disdain, but just cold.

"You..."

Jackson Shiru pointed at Hunter Jackson, so angry that his fingers were shaking!

"I'm your dad!" "Isn't my dad a man?" "What do you mean?" "Being loyal to marriage is the most basic responsibility of a man! If you can't even do it yourself, why do you ask for it? Women are loyal to you?" "You..."

"We Jackson family, why are there so many young masters?" Hunter Jackson sneered, but this laugh, except for the cold, you don't feel any smile at all.

"I, Daniel, Ross, Pei Tang, four mothers, how many women do you have outside? We can't even count them."

"Enough!" The old man suddenly fell on the handle of the chair, feeling depressed. Face, unspeakable ugly!

Other people, except for Daniel Jackson, who still couldn't hear what they were talking about, were still desperate, and Hunter Jackson, who had always looked at them coldly.

Everyone took a breath of fright due to the anger of the old man.

But Hunter Jackson, he was destined for this life, and no one was afraid.

This temper was cultivated by the old man himself.

He said indifferently: "Not enough."

"Smelly boy, what do you want..."

"I just want to say, since you are unfaithful, don't blame the other party for betrayal, whether it is a man or a woman!" Even if the old man is angry, He still insisted on his ideas and did not back down.

This is Young Master Jackson!

After meeting his indifferent but firm gaze, the old man was speechless.

Suddenly, he was puzzled.

What I insisted on before is right or wrong.

In the end, he still frowned, but his tone was softer.

"Smelly boy, I said, for women, it can be spoiled or painful, but absolutely not..."

"It has nothing to do with love, this is just the responsibility of a man."

"He doesn't look at the old man, but at his father."

"If you don't love, you can marry her, but since you marry back, it should be fair."

"If you can't do things you can't do, don't expect the other party to do it. If you can feel at ease, let the other party also take it for granted."

"Jackson Shiru was trembling all over. Now, his wife has another man and betrayed him! But his son still thinks that this woman is not wrong! What kind of medicine did he take wrong, blinded by lard? Already? Hunter Jackson did not intend to persuade him."

Attempting to persuade others was actually a very stupid thing. He was just expounding his own ideas. Shu Ran was not wrong about this matter. However, she did kill him. Grandma's murderer! "The lake in the backyard, stop digging."

"Finally, the old man appeared to be a little tired."

A person died in the family, even if he and Shu Ran usually have no communication, it is not considered to have any feelings. But no matter what, they are all a family. Shu Ran has never been in this home.

It's all so peaceful.

Although he was also very angry about her betrayal of her son, everyone is dead now. This matter, if we continue to argue, it doesn't make much sense. Hunter Jackson didn't say anything. Lake is to find the real murderer.

The murderer confessed his guilt and even killed himself. He is not a stubborn person. This matter continues to be entangled. In addition to affecting Jackson's stock price, it affects the entire Jackson family outside. Reputation, probably, will not have any better results.

"Brother, please, don't check it again.

Daniel Jackson suddenly walked to him and knelt down with a puff.

"Second Young Master, what are you doing?"

"The butler came over to help him up. But Daniel Jackson was unwilling, and pushed the butler away.

"Please, don't check, let her continue to be the eldest lady of Jackson's family, let her... go to the soil for peace. .

"After the investigation, Shu Ran's betrayal of Jackson Shiru's scandal will definitely be exposed. Everyone is dead, he is really scared, afraid that his mother will even be dead, and will bear countless infamy. Everyone's eyes, They all fell on Hunter Jackson's body. He ordered the digging of the lake in the backyard. Now, he must also order him to stop all this. In fact, Hunter Jackson had doubts in his heart and would not completely dig the lake.

It seems a little foggy, and it still can't be solved. However, this matter continues, ruining not only the reputation of Jackson's family.

It will also ruin Daniel Jackson's reputation for life. Mother has other men, this kind of thing happened The body of a wealthy boy can easily develop another statement. For example, the purity of blood! He pursed his lower lip and suddenly stood up.

Go and rest.

"Big Brother..."

"That's it."

"He left, and Daniel Jackson just slumped on the ground. I didn't know if he was relieved or he couldn't find his breath. This matter was finally over. But he, since then, has no mother again.

The woman who usually devotes all her thoughts to him, and always devotes all her thoughts to him. That, even if she is always willful, bad-tempered, and even often ignores her. But she will never leave him, always be tolerant to him, A woman who never cares about him. In this life, if you want to say who loves him the most, then it will always be her! Forever, his mother! And now, this woman who loves him the most is gone... From now on, No one loves him anymore! Jackson Shiru saw his son sitting on the ground and wanted to help him, but inexplicably, he did not have the courage. Son, would he also hate him? He was anxious and accused Shu Ran just now After seeing his son like this, he suddenly disappeared. He blamed, more, because of his guilty conscience.

As Joseph said, he is not only a woman in his life. But he still wants The accusation, whoever has a loud voice, will be justified. If he does not accuse him, everyone feels that it is all his responsibility. But now, the second son looks like a decadent...

"Second Young Master.

"The butler still wants to help him, "Get up first, it's cold on the ground."

Daniel Jackson always ignored him, sitting on the ground with blank eyes, and didn't know what he was thinking. Maybe, he didn't think about anything. He was full of mind, there was only one thing.

The one who loved him most in the world Woman, no more.

Chapter 380

Things are so weird.

"Don't do this! Don't do this! Don't!" Emily Gale suddenly sat up, with cold sweat on his forehead.

There was a cold face in his sight.

She couldn't see who it was, but what was branded deep in her mind was the black face after being poisoned.

And those, protruding, dull, dead eyes.

"Ah..."

She turned around so scared that she wanted to escape.

"Don't move!" Hunter Jackson held her shoulders with both hands, slid down with his palms, and pushed back her dangling hands.

"Don't do this! No! Don't do this!" Emily Gale tried to struggle, but he always hugged her tightly.

If she continues to move, she will hurt herself.

Emily Gale didn't know who was holding her, she only knew that Shu Ran was going to die!

No, Shu Ran is dead, she is dead, and her eyes are still fixed on her!

"No...no! Um..."

She lowered her head suddenly and bit on the arm of the man in front of her.

She just wants him to let go!

But he didn't let it go, even if he was bitten by her, even if he was bitten and bleeding, he still didn't let it go.

Soon, Emily Gale tasted blood.

Between the lips and teeth, there seemed to be a sweet smell.

She was a little surprised, and slowly opened her mouth.

Looking up, those terrible eyes are gone.

It was replaced by Hunter Jackson's cold and quiet face with a hint of softness that was rare.

She didn't know what she was thinking, but when she saw this face, she couldn't remember anything, and hugged his neck.

She was scared.

His appearance seemed to be the savior between heaven and earth.

No, her savior.

Even after experiencing so much, in times of danger, the person he most wants to see is still him.

"Joseph..."

Hunter Jackson didn't say a word, but gently hugged her in his arms.

There was blood oozing between the tooth marks on his arm, but he didn't even wrinkle his brow.

That deep pain made him feel that everything in front of him was real.

When she was frightened, she at least knew that she took the initiative to seek his protection.

She took the initiative to hug him...

A certain string in her heart was touched by her hug before she knew it.

He should push her away, warning her not to touch him with a cold face.

But this time, I couldn't say a word of rejection.

I don't know how long it took before Emily Gale seemed to recover from the nightmare.

See you, there is a smell of blood.

She blinked, and finally remembered how this smell came from.

Pushing him abruptly, he saw a scarlet on his arm.

"I'm sorry, Young Master Jackson, I didn't mean it!" She was breathing messed up, she didn't expect that she would bite him like this!

What Hunter Jackson noticed was only what she called herself.

She just called him Joseph, and now he has become Young Master Jackson...

The softness in his eyes gradually disappeared.

"Hurt me, this account will be settled with you in the future!" Hunter Jackson got up from the bed and walked to the side, just casually glanced at the injury on his arm, and ignored it.

Emily Gale was a little uneasy: "Young Master Jackson, do you want Ye Han to come over and treat the wound for you?" After biting like this, I want to get an injection, right?

"Faulty!" Hunter Jackson was obviously disgusted.

Emily Gale's heart was still messed up, sitting on the bed, hugging her legs, and didn't want to pay much attention to these things.

She was bored, looking at the unknown corner ahead, and asked in a low voice, "Shu Ran...Is it dead?" Hunter Jackson didn't answer, but asked instead, "You were in the cave. What happened yesterday? What's the situation?" It turned out that it was yesterday.

Emily Gale turned his head and looked at the scenery outside the French windows.

The sun is shining, and a new day has come.

People are gone, but how many storms can be caused in such a Jackson family?

"She dragged me to the old lady's back room, begging me to tell you not to dig the lake."

"Do you think you can change my decision?" Hunter Jackson snorted coldly.

But after saying this, he felt a little naive for some reason.

If she begs herself, will he change his mind?

Maybe not.

Emily Gale ignored his cynicism.

After getting along these days, she has become accustomed to this way of saying Joseph.

But because I was still angry, I wanted to find a way to vent when I saw her.

In fact, she even kind of likes his naive way of venting now.

Because the childish young master Jackson is, at least, very real.

When he was angry before, he was so naive.

"What's your expression?" Hunter Jackson was a little upset. Is she laughing at him?

Emily Gale looked back at him and shook his head.

"I'm a bit cold now, I have no expression."

She was indeed a little dazed, and there was really no expression on her face.

In fact, it was because of his lack of expression that Hunter Jackson became more irritable.

She ignored her and said in a mute voice: "I didn't promise the lady. During the dispute, I accidentally bumped into the corner of the table and fainted."

"When I woke up, I was already on the island and I saw her.

She is writing a suicide note."

"She explained everything, grandma was the cause of her harm, and the reason for her harm."

Hunter Jackson said.

Emily Gale's heart was shocked: "She... told you the reason why she harmed her grandma?" Hunter Jackson didn't know what she was surprised, so he nodded indifferently.

"However, the Jackson family doesn't plan to pursue that matter. We won't investigate that man either."

"She really does have... other men's affairs.

, Written on the suicide note?

"This is too far from Emily Gale's expectations. Shu Ran admitted that she killed the old lady. This is nothing, but why did she tell her unknown things? She thought that Shu Ran would commit suicide because she was afraid of herself.

The matter was exposed. But she explained those things herself! Since she was willing to explain, why did she die? Is it because she didn't want to face all this alive? But why, she still thinks this matter is weird? Suddenly, Ye Han came over with the needle water in person.

"Miss Ranran, it's time to change the needle water.

He hung the needle by the bed and looked at her. Emily Gale shook his head: "I'm fine. I don't want to take this needle.

Ye Han glanced at Hunter Jackson, but Hunter Jackson didn't speak. Ye Han had no choice but to say, "Then, do you mind if I give you a check first?"

"Then you are the best..."

She looked at Hunter Jackson, pursing her lips: "Let's treat the wound to Young Master Jackson first. I just..."

She lowered her eyes, and she didn't know why Young Master Jackson didn't push her. Open. Such a wound, as long as he pushes her away, there will never be a chance to appear.

"I was bitten by Master Jackson just now.

"Ye Han just noticed the injury on Hunter Jackson's arm.

It is really rare in the world to be able to bite Joseph into such a person. I don't care what I say, and what I say is just a tool on the bed. In fact, they are nothing but tools.

It's just self-deception. Ye Han put away his smile, and said solemnly: "Young master, I'd better treat the wound for you first.
