

Love Through Time and Space

Chapter 63

The overwhelming hand behind "Xiaomi, Mr. Huang said, it is not your fault that you have been wronged by others. He decided to increase cooperation with us in order to express his previous wrong judgment of you."

Su Qinghui's voice heard Get up very excited.

After a happy word, he said: "This time I really thank you, Xiaomi, remember to go home for dinner at night, and my eldest brother asked me to cook your favorite dish. I must come back!" "...I know, Brother."

Su Xiaomi was in a daze. Before she woke up, her second sister Su Yushan called again.

"Xiaomi, Guoliang said he wronged you, and I believe those rumors and rumors are deliberately fabricated by caring people!" Su Yushan was also very excited, "I'm going to travel with Guoliang, he said, he will love me more in the future!" "Xiaomi, the words that my sister said before are all angry words. Don't take it to heart. When my sister comes back, I will definitely bring you a gift!" Su Xiaomi became even more dazed, until the phone was hung up, she was still confused. I don't know how to react but can't react.

"Ranran..."

It seems that now, only Emily Gale can explain to her what's going on.

"How do I know?" Emily Gale shrugged, "Maybe people think they wronged you just like everyone else, and now they feel guilty."

"Of course, do I really look like such a stupid person?" Su Xiaomi mumbled. mouth.

"Do you look like I don't know, but you really are so stupid!" Emily Gale gave her a blank look, and Su Xiaomi didn't dare to refute a word now.

Today is really "exciting", and what I have experienced after living for 18 years is not as much as one day.

I almost jumped off the building because of the noise. Think about it, it's terrible!

However, all of this is really unreasonable.

To say that Qin Guoliang felt that she had misunderstood her second sister, and now she is back together, she can barely make sense.

However, a business manager Huang would feel guilty to give her elder brother more business because he felt that he had misunderstood a little girl. That would be too far-fetched.

No matter how you look at it, it seems that there is an invisible hand behind it, helping them to push all this!

Moreover, this is definitely a hand that can turn clouds and rain!

A hand powerful enough to subvert everything!

"Of course, do you really have no extra help?" Su Xiaomi looked curious.

"I am a poor student, who can I ask for help?" Emily Gale looked away from her.

"For example, like Jackson..."

"RJenni said no, then no, when did she lie to you?" Jackson Tianyou started the car and drove out of the underground parking garage of Shangde Hospital.

God didn't like her to ask, probably because she didn't want to be embarrassed, Su Xiaomi didn't ask.

After this turmoil, people are like coming back from the dead,

Even a breath of air feels particularly fresh.

Finally, the rain passed and the sky cleared.

Now, I am afraid it will be Ye Fangfang's turn to be unlucky.

The live broadcast just now was really wonderful.

"Yang Yi, you are really amazing. How can you remotely control Ranran's mobile phone and log in Ye Fangfang's live account on Ranran's mobile phone?" If you use someone else's live account, you may leave evidence of being hit.

Candid photos are very troublesome if they are more real.

However, if Ye Fangfang's own live broadcast account was used, it would not be easy for Ye Fangfang to trouble them afterwards.

Sitting in the passenger seat, Yang Yi smiled triumphantly: "I have a lot of good points for a small case, you didn't dig it out."

Emily Gale's heart was slightly cold.

Yang Yi is indeed very good. In his previous life, because of this ability, Kylena Gale took advantage of it and took the rest of her life into it.

"Yang Yi."

She called out suddenly.

"Huh?" "Promise me, no matter who asks you to do illegal things in the future, you will never be able to promise, no matter for whom or for what purpose."

Emily Gale suddenly became so serious that Yang Yi was completely confused.

"What's the matter? How could I do something illegal?" Jackson Tianyou glanced at Emily Gale from the rearview mirror, and a trace of seriousness flashed across his eyes: "Is there any difficulty?" "No, just remind this guy, I'm afraid He will be used by others in the future."

"How can I be? I'm such a smart person, who can use me?" Yang Yi smiled nonchalantly, "Don't put me and Xiaomi into one category, I'm not that stupid!" Yang Yi, don't overdo it!" Su Xiaomi frowned immediately.

"Okay, okay, just kidding, but don't be so stupid from now on, you don't know how scared I was when I saw Ranran falling to save you today."

"I know, I won't be anymore.

"Su Xiaomi didn't even think about that scene.

However, she seemed to think of something again and stared at Emily Gale: "Young Master Jackson is really good to you. In order to save you, I don't even want your life. I think you two are dead."

"Don't talk nonsense."

Yang Yi immediately interrupted, what is not dead.

Su Xiaomi sighed and pouted: "I know, I won't talk nonsense or do things in the future."

But she still insisted: "Young Master Jackson is really nice to you!" Emily Gale didn't speak, and turned her head. Look out the window.

Is Young Master Jackson really good to her?

Maybe, it's not bad.

Thinking of the shameful scenes in the room, his cheeks became hot again.

They k*ssed, hugged, even, almost that!

This is definitely something that I couldn't even think of in my previous life.

She didn't dare to think about the hand behind Su Xiaomi's words.

but

It is because she is not stupid. If there is not such a hand behind her, even if things can happen, they will not succeed so thoroughly and quickly.

Young Master Jackson...Why do you want to help her?

These things, in fact, have nothing to do with him...

"But, it was too expensive today. If you buy these things, it's useless to buy them."

Su Xiaomi looked at the brand-name bags and cosmetics on the back seat, and suddenly felt pain.

"The things here are hundreds of thousands. You don't usually use brand-name goods..."

"What are you afraid of, things are still good, but the bags are used."

Ye Fangfang is also used to brand-name goods. People, if you use fake bags, she can tell at a glance.

She smiled and said, "Don't you know? This kind of big brand can be returned within three days if you are not satisfied. I will return it intact, without losing a penny."

For Ye Fangfang, spend hundreds of thousands?

No, it's not worth it!

She can even make that coquettish b*tch half dead without spending a penny!

Su Xiaomi stared at Emily Gale, her mouth wide open: "You...you...OMG! You are simply my idol! I love you to death!" They are of course amazing, big boss level!

She is like her, of course, she is a pig teammate!

"I will listen to you in the future. I will do whatever you say. I will not do anything you do not let me do!" "You are my boss, and I will always be your little follower!" What I said is true, of course..."

Emily Gale ignored her, the phone rang, and she picked it up.

On the other side of the phone, Hunter Jackson's deep and magnetic voice came: "Now, go home."

Chapter 64

He is back!

The old lady wants to advance the time of the banquet because her favorite grandson is back.

Ross, because of his poor health, spent three years in a large hospital in Lingzhou.

I originally said that I would come back at the end of the year, but I didn't know why, so today I went home without humming.

When Emily Gale received the news, she was stupid.

Ross is back!

Ross is finally back!

"Aspen Li, do you think I look good in this suit? Or the one just now looks good, you say!" She has changed three sets of skirts, and this is the fourth one.

Aspen Li had never seen the young lady so nervous, even when he was engaged to the eldest young master!

But they didn't know that Ross died to save her in her last life.

See you again in this life, how can she not be nervous?

She even almost wanted to wash the cosmetics off her face impulsively, because Ross loves cleaning and he hates the smell of cosmetics.

That stupid man, the moment she died for her, made her crash completely.

But he is back now, he is back alive!

No, she came back alive and went to see him again!

Hunter Jackson was sitting on the sofa, and his eyebrows frowned slightly when he saw that the girl twisted and twisted and was completely different from her usual appearance.

It's just an ordinary family dinner, why are you so nervous?

What's more, she's already been to Jackson's this morning, and she's only getting nervous now, isn't it a bit unreasonable?

"Madam young, I think...Each set looks good."

The young master is still here, where can Aspen Li dare to say anything?

Although, he actually wanted to say that with such a face, Mrs. Shao actually wears everything... that's it.

Emily Gale glanced at him for nothing, and knew it was against his will.

Her gaze accidentally aimed at the man sitting on the sofa.

She really wanted to hear his opinion, but because she was a high-ranking young master Jackson, how could she be able to give her some advice?

He has been doing things, I am afraid, he hasn't seen her half an eye just now.

Emily Gale was a little discouraged and was about to go up and continue to change. Behind him, the man's low and deep voice rang: "The second set is good-looking."

"Do you think the second set is good-looking too?" Emily Gale was taken aback, and his eyes flew up.

A touch of surprise.

She also thinks the second set of plain white floral skirts look good, but no one gives her advice, she can't pay attention.

Unexpectedly, Young Master Jackson had been working, and he could even pick her out.

Did he watch every time she came down just now?

Hunter Jackson didn't say anything more, he would naturally not be willing to bother about such trivial matters.

I don't know if he said the second set just now, whether he really read the comparison or just broke it at random.

Maybe, just to save time... However, Emily Gale still went up to the ground happily.

Put the second set I just tried back on.

She pulled her long hair sideways and tied a silver-gray band loosely.

If you don't look at that face, this dress is absolutely beautiful, but unfortunately, a face is really ugly.

When coming down from the stairs, the eyes of the two men downstairs were obviously different.

Aspen Li only felt it a pity.

The figure dressed up was quite beautiful, but this face... the feeling of a flower stuck in cow dung, but he didn't dare to talk nonsense.

Hunter Jackson's gaze swept across Emily Gale's body.

It was deep, like stars, that people couldn't see clearly and couldn't guess.

He didn't understand, what kind of charm this girl had in her body that could make herself lose control easily.

The loss of control today was beyond his expectation, and he didn't even close the door.

Young Master Jackson, who is accustomed to controlling everything, refuses such a loss of control.

The ink-rich eyes returned to coldness, and there was no more ripples inside.

He stood up and walked outside the door.

Aspen Li immediately looked at Emily Gale and said with a smile: "Madam Young, it's getting late."

"Okay."

Emily Gale also knew that changing his clothes took a lot of time.

Young Master Jackson didn't seem so good-looking just now, could she blame her for wasting too much time?

She followed quickly.

The driver had already sent the car outside the hall door. When Hunter Jackson and Emily Gale both got on the car, Aspen Li immediately took the driving seat and started the car.

"Where are the things you bought today?" Hunter Jackson's gaze passed over her.

The clothes were prepared by Qin Ming.

Although the styles are relatively simple and elegant, they are all international brands.

But the bag in her hand is really shabby.

Although Hunter Jackson's Century Group did not engage in the luggage industry, he had a fashion business under his command.

He basically understands the international big names, including women.

Emily Gale glanced down at his bag, "That, I have returned it."

"Why do I want to return it?" "I don't need it anyway, it doesn't cost a penny to return it..."

But in the end, Emily Gale's The voice suddenly became lighter.

Sure enough, Young Master Jackson was displeased for a while: "I want to return to Joseph's fiancée. What I don't like needs to be returned?" "I..."

She bit her lip. Of course, Young Master Jackson didn't like buying things. I would rather If you throw it away, you won't go back.

In order to return the money for that little money, he hit him in the face.

However, that is Joseph's money, not hers, she feels guilty to spend it!

However, tonight is the meeting of the Jackson family, and all the people in the Jackson family were born with golden keys.

If you take this bag back, you will be laughed at by those women.

However, laughter is at most just laughing at her.

As for Mr. Jackson, who doesn't know that he is rich and handsome?

No one would doubt his strength.

The most is to make fun of her for not being favored.

MU

Don't even care about this matter?

"Go to the city."

Hunter Jackson said suddenly.

Aspen Li hurriedly said: "Yes."

With a squeak, the car stopped in front of the top business district building in the city center.

When Emily Gale entered the door, Young Master Jackson's indifferent voice seemed to linger in her ears: "Don't bring back those under one million."

She felt that she was going to float away.

She hadn't had a bag over one million in her life. Have you seen it?

No, two lifetimes.

Entering the building, Emily Gale found that he had really little knowledge of famous brands in the past.

She thought that a bag of 30,000 or 40,000 was a luxury item, but only after coming in did she realize that there are not even a few bags below 100,000!

Ouch!

When I look at these prices, even if I don't buy them, do I feel pain?

There are actually several shops here, which Emily Gale knew.

However, all of them are limited editions, which are very valuable.

The only time she took the initiative to extravagantly in her two lifetimes was the one she invited Xiaomi and the others to eat and live a few days ago. Isn't that to celebrate her rebirth?

In addition, even if she became Mrs. Jackson in her previous life, she hadn't been extravagant, she just accepted it passively.

Now looking at the dazzling array of products in front of me, it is not only distressed, but also a headache.

She walked into a shop called HARMADS, a brand she hadn't heard of.

But just as she walked in, a sales lady stopped in front of her.

The sales lady glanced at the bag in her hand, and then at the high imitation dress of the same style as the big-name CHEMII, her face suddenly sank.

"Sorry, lady, our shop is going to close, please go to another house."

Chapter 65

She didn't let her see, but she wanted to take care of the dress on Emily Gale.

She didn't know it, but the sales lady could see it clearly.

This is clearly CHEMII's latest model this year, not long after it was launched.

If it were worn by another person, she probably wouldn't suspect that it was a high-fake product.

After all, the workmanship was really lifelike.

But how can a girl with an unknown bag and freckles wear it on her body?

She is strange that the Beiling business district has always restricted high imitation products, especially such top luxury brands.

How can anyone dare to sell high-quality imitation products openly?

Aren't you afraid of being found by people from the Commercial Bureau?

Once found, they will die if they are paid!

Such poor products are naturally not allowed to enter their store. You must know that any bag in their store costs hundreds of thousands.

If they are accidentally hit by such a person, the other party can't afford to pay, and they, sales girls, will have to suffer.

Emily Gale glanced inside, then looked at the sales lady to see her own gaze, she pursed her lips: "Aren't there many customers looking at the package?" It's only less than 7 o'clock now, is it closing?

It's just that the bag she took was too shabby, and she didn't even let the door go.

"They will leave soon."

The sales lady just didn't want to give way.

Emily Gale took a step forward: "Well, when everyone leaves, I will leave."

The sales lady took a step back, but still stood in front of her: "Miss, we are really going to close, please"

Emily Gale stepped in, but the sales lady couldn't stop him.

The manager who was entertaining the guests turned his head and frowned when he saw the bag in Emily Gale's hand.

The sales lady couldn't help but walked over, muttered, and whispered: "You can't drive away no matter what."

"Beware, don't let her take the sheep."

The manager confessed softly, and immediately rushed to the side to try.

The female customer of the shoe smiled and said, "I'm sorry, Miss Jackson, there is a little trouble in the store, it doesn't matter, it doesn't matter."

Jackson Fangfei nodded, she was still in a hurry and didn't care.

The girl on the side suddenly looked surprised and said: "Sister, it's... it's Emily Gale!" Emily Gale?

Is it the very famous Emily Gale today?

Today, all major online sections in Beiling are lively.

What Su Xiaomi, Emily Gale, Ye Fangfang, these names shine in the Weibo circle.

Seeing Emily Gale, Jackson Xianxian was happy, and immediately walked over: "Oh, isn't this the school flower of Ning University? How is it such a coincidence?" School flower?

Several sales ladies looked at Emily Gale's ugly face and couldn't help but smile.

It's really only such an ugly woman who deserves the word "school flower"!

This irony is really appropriate.

To please the two

A lady from Jackson's family, the manager immediately smiled and said, "It turned out to be the school bachelor of Ning University. I really missed it. I'm sorry." Several sales ladies laughed unscrupulously, and did not conceal their feelings for Emily Gale. Disdain.

Emily Gale ignored it and walked aside to look at the bag, as if he didn't understand the ridicule at all.

She didn't mean to come in.

She is in a hurry now.

The most important thing is that after looking at a few stores, the styles of this store really caught her eye.

However, the price... Three hundred and eighty thousand, four hundred and eighty thousand, six hundred and eighty thousand, and the middle...

She walked over and wanted to take off the gem-bit bag.

A sales lady immediately rushed over, terrified: "Don't touch it!" This is the treasure of their shop!

If it is broken, no one will have to live.

Jackson Xianxian squinted her eyes, her face suddenly sinking.

"Emily Gale, even though you are a school bachelor, this is not a place where you can mess around."

She actually looked at that bag!

That was the style that my sister just saw and was not willing to buy.

There is only one style in the entire store.

Emily Gale ignored her and said to the manager: "This bag, help me take it down and have a look."

"Sorry, I can't see this bag."

The manager said in a deep voice.

"Why can't you watch it? Isn't your bag displayed just to show guests?" Emily Gale really liked this model.

The texture of the crocodile leather has always been her favorite.

She just wanted to see if there is a small interlayer inside. .

Big brands don't like mezzanine, but she just wants to find one with mezzanine, put some cards or something, so that there is no need to get another small purse.

"Because you can't afford it!" Jackson Xianxian sneered with her hands around her chest, "If it gets soiled, how can I have these shop assistants work?" "My hands are clean and they have been washed."

Emily Gale spread his hands. .

"But, the sour breath that comes with you is dirty wherever you touch it."

Jackson Xianxian snorted from his nose.

In fact, no one cares about Emily Gale's young lady.

However, she was from Ning University, because she was too ugly, and she was a bit famous in Ning University. Jackson Xianxian still knew this.

Ning University and Jiang University are neighbors, and the two universities are next to each other. However, the students of the two universities are completely different.

Most of Ning Da are poor ghosts, but Jiang Da is the world of rich people.

She is a bag that a student of Jiangxi University can't afford, but an ugly girl from Ning University wants to buy it?

What a joke!

Emily Gale really didn't want to buy it when she saw the face of the sales lady.

However, she didn't want to buy, not that she couldn't afford it.

The faces of these people were really disgusting.

"If customers want to see, you have to push three and four. This is how your store treats customers?" They don't want her to see, she wants to see!

"You old

What about the board?

Let your boss come out, and I will ask how your pre-employment training is done.

"The boss is naturally not in the store. Isn't there such common sense?"

"The manager's face is gloomy. This ugly girl still wants their boss to come out and teach them? If the boss sees her honor, I'm afraid he will just sweep her out with a broom, and even wants to see the boss! What a ugly person! "I must read this bag. If I don't let me see it, I will call consumer protection immediately.

Emily Gale's face is not flushed or panting.

It is not easy to be so calm amidst the ridicule of so many people.

The manager blushed with anger. He has never seen such a shameless customer. But, if this is dead. If the girl really complains, it will also cause unnecessary trouble.

After all, there is really no reason why the girl who opens the door for business does not allow the guests to see.

"Give her a pair of gloves.

"The manager said angrily.

It was really unlucky to meet such a silly customer.

The sales lady brought a pair of gloves: "Hey, the gloves are twenty-eight thousand, please pay first.

"No, I just borrow the set you have.

"Look at the bag and it costs more than 20,000 yuan, which is simply cheating!
"Forget it, let her have a look. Can you still see if your bag is broken?"

Jackson Fangfei, who has been silent for a while, said lightly: "If you look bad, you still have to pay compensation. What are the people panicking?"

"Ms. Jackson said that people will be seen. Where can the manager dare to say anything? She is the daughter of Mr. Jackson's second family.

Although she doesn't know her direct lineage, she is also the granddaughter of Mr. Jackson and has a distinguished status.

As for Jackson Xianxian, she is just the granddaughter of the old man. , It is the child of the old man brother, and the relationship with the Jackson family has become a little more alienated.

She has always been the only one who is the first to look at Jackson Fangfei, and immediately said: "Then let her take a look. Be sure to make a video, if it is dirty. , She has to pay for it!
