

LOVED BY AN OLDER MAN

Chapter 11: Is The Necklace Fake?

Teng Yi quickly left. Jiang Yu returned to her room.

She did not check the contents of the box first. Instead, she took out her phone and called Mo Long.

“Did you receive it?” Mo Long’s voice was still clear and pleasant.

Jiang Yu nodded and replied, “Yes. Thank you.”

Mo long paused. “You don’t have to thank me. Did you put it on?”

Jiang Yu said, “Not yet.”

Mo long said, “I think it will look good on you.”

Jiang Yu had already guessed what it was and reached out to open the box.

She saw a diamond necklace laying inside. It was sparkling and it was obvious that it was expensive.

“It’s too expensive.”

“It’s not expensive on you.”

Jiang Yu was laughed at. This Mr. Mo was really too good at talking. He could always make people feel as if they were bathed in the spring breeze and was exceptionally pleasant.

“After the birthday party is over, I will celebrate your birthday with you alone,” He added.

Jiang Yu was stunned for a moment.

He had thought that this person would attend as her boyfriend.

Mo Long seemed to know what she was thinking. "You are still too young. I don't want my relationship to affect your normal university life."

If others knew that she was his girlfriend, Jiang Yu reckoned that even finding a part-time job would become complicated. Countless people wanted to curry favor with him, but they could not find a way.

Jiang Yu frowned and smiled. This uncle was really too heartwarming.

It made people love him more and more.

In the evening, Wei Juan went to the birthday banquet to decorate.

Jiang Ran wore heavy makeup. Her entire person was very different from usual, and she looked somewhat surreal.

At this moment, Jiang Yu came down from upstairs.

When Jiang Ran looked up, she suddenly exclaimed in surprise and stood up abruptly, staring at Jiang Yu.

No, to be precise, she was staring at the necklace on Jiang Yu's neck.

The necklace of the heart of the ocean had been hung at the auction house a few days ago and had been canceled. Why would it appear on Jiang Yu's neck now?

"Sister, your necklace is really beautiful," Jiang Ran said with a strange tone.

Jiang Yu glanced at her indifferently. "Is it nice? My friend gave it to me."

"Nice... It's so nice!" Jiang Ran took a deep breath and suddenly thought of something. She looked at her meaningfully. "Such a nice necklace. If it's genuine, it must be very expensive, right?"

With Jiang Yu's ability, it was impossible for her to afford it. It was also impossible for Jiang Yu's friend to give her such an expensive gift.

Could it be a fake?

With this thought in mind, Jiang Ran began to prepare to watch a good show.

Jiang Yu was wearing such a famous necklace, and she would definitely be recognized by others. If she met the original collector again, it would be really interesting.

The Jiang family only had one car left, and it was specially used to send two young misses to their birthday banquet.

In the car, Jiang Ran's gaze would wander over Jiang Yu from time to time with a smile.

It was very unusual.

Jiang Yu also didn't understand what tricks Jiang Ran was thinking of.

But at least, on the surface, Jiang ran had to put on an act.

So after getting off the car, Jiang ran wasn't the first to enter the scene. Instead, she waited for Jiang Yu for a while. The two of them looked like they were walking side by side.

They were trying to create a sisterly bond.

Today's home ground was hers, and Jiang Ran didn't want anything to go wrong.

Everyone knew that today's guests were celebrating Jiang Ran's birthday. Many of them couldn't even remember Jiang Yu's name.

Some even thought that Jiang Ran was the only young lady of the Jiang family.

In the banquet hall, relatives and friends had gathered together. There were also many famous people from the industry. All of them were dressed exquisitely. None of them were ordinary.

"Miss Jiang is here!" Someone suddenly shouted.

Everyone subconsciously looked towards the main entrance and saw two white figures slowly approaching.

They were actually two young girls wearing the same gown.

One was dressed exquisitely, while the other was only wearing light makeup.

One had a smile on his face, while the other had a cold expression.

However, everyone present couldn't help but look at Jiang Yu. They felt that Jiang Yu had the bearing of a young miss of a rich family.

A young miss praised Jiang Yu, "The young miss of the Jiang family is indeed as unique as the rumors say."

As she said that, she winked at Jiang Yu.

At this moment, Jiang Yu finally smiled.

She laughed so much that the entire hall dimmed. It was as if all the light had been sucked away by Jiang Yu.

"You're wrong. The rumored young Miss Jiang is the one beside her."

"Ah, but she is obviously more noble."

"Shh, Stop talking. Shut up."

"It seems that one is the biological daughter and the other is the adopted daughter. They are sisters and they wear the same clothes."

"Quick, take a photo."

If not for the fact that many people knew Jiang Ran, they would really think that Jiang Yu was the talented young miss of the Jiang family. After all, it was not easy to fake a person's temperament.

Jiang Ran was extremely angry, but it was not good for her to flare up. Her fake smile became even brighter.

In the middle of the hall was a crystal piano.

Jiang Hai and Wei Juan were already standing in the middle of the hall, waiting for their two daughters to walk towards them.

At this moment, there was a commotion outside.

“Professor Bai Is here!”