

LOVED BY AN OLDER MAN

Chapter 5: Support Her

Jiang Ran said awkwardly, “Yu’er, if you need money, you can tell me. You don’t have to suffer here.”

Firing her was for her own good.

At this moment, a few luxury cars suddenly stopped outside the car dealership.

The person who got out of the car walked straight in.

The manager saw the person and immediately greeted him with a smile, “Young Master Zhang, second young master Bai!”

Young Master Ye also took a step forward with a smile. “Brother Bai!”

However, second young master Bai said, “I don’t have time for small talk. Who is Jiang Yu? I heard that her introduction is very professional. I want to buy a car from her.”

Everyone subconsciously looked at Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu was also dumbfounded. Since when did she introduce cars professionally.

However, the manager immediately pulled Jiang Yu forward in a flattering manner. “She is Jiang Yu.”

Second Young Master Bai changed his previous unruly attitude and was a little cautious when facing Jiang Yu. “Miss Jiang, please recommend a car for me.”

Jiang Yu looked at the manager in confusion. “Manager, do I not have to be fired today? Can I continue working?”

How could the manager dare to fire Jiang Yu? Who was second young master Bai? He was someone who was several levels higher than young master Ye.

After second young master Bai understood what had happened, he immediately looked at young master Ye with an unfriendly expression.freewebnovel.com

He had just received an order from Mo Long to come over and support Jiang Yu.

He did not expect that young master Ye would actually dare to give Jiang Yu a bad look.

He could not tolerate it.

Young master Ye said awkwardly, "It's all a misunderstanding."

Second Young Master Bai sneered repeatedly, "What misunderstanding? I think Young Master Ye's ability has never been very good. It seems that there's no need for you to bid."

Young Master Ye's expression changed. He was about to go forward to explain, but he was stopped by others.

The manager said to young master Ye with a straight face, "I'm sorry. Young Master Ye, it's best if you don't cause any more trouble here."

Jiang Yu also couldn't understand why second young master Bai would help her.

When she brought second young master Bai to look at the new model of the car, second Young Master Bai secretly asked for credit and said, "Miss Jiang, it was brother Mo who sent me here. I did pretty well, right? If brother Mo asks, I hope Miss Jiang can put in a good word for me."

Jiang Yu: "...Mo Long?"

No wonder these people who didn't seem to have any relations with her would suddenly come to her to buy a car.

After that, Jiang Yu just made a few introductions, and second young master Bai and Young Master Zhang bought a new car without saying a word.

With a swipe of the card, the sale of sixty million was made.

The manager looked at Jiang Yu with more and more loving eyes.

He had never expected that Jiang Yu, who was usually secretive, would know so many important people!

The manager almost called Jiang Yu "Great Aunt", so he quickly let Jiang Yu sit down and have a good rest.

Young Master Ye and Jiang Ran had been waiting in the car outside the garage.

When they saw Jiang Yu sell two new cars directly, both of them were equally shocked.

"What's going on? Why does your adopted sister know Second Young Master Bai?" Young Master Ye looked puzzled, but at the same time, he felt very regretful.

Jiang Ran suddenly thought of something and suddenly showed a contemptuous look. "I know. She came back yesterday with her clothes disheveled. She probably had a romantic relationship with second young master Bai, so second young master Bai came to support her."

When young master Ye heard this, his face was full of disgust. "There's actually such a shameless person!"

Jiang Ran gritted her teeth and lowered her head. "Ran Ran has always been wild. After all, she was born in the countryside in the past. We can't control her."

Young Master Ye suddenly felt relieved. "If that's really the case, I think second young master Bai will not really cancel the cooperation with our company. He must have just done it for that woman."

Jiang Ran also felt relieved. It seemed that Jiang Yu was just so-so.

Just an hour later, when the two of them were eating and shopping, young master Ye's phone suddenly rang. When he picked it up, his expression changed abruptly. "What? The Bai Corporation canceled our bid?"

This case was deliberately taken on by him in order to prove his ability to his father.

Now that he had actually been rejected, young master Ye hung up the phone with a dark expression on his face.

Young Master Ye looked down at Jiang Ran and said in a cold voice, "Ran Ran, you need to apologize to that foster daughter! I can't lose this project."

At the car dealership, the manager told Jiang Yu to leave work early.

By the time Young Master Ye and Jiang Ran returned to the car dealership, Jiang Yu had already left.

Jiang Yu took a taxi to the orphanage.

This was her home since she was young.

The director of the orphanage was a woman in her forties. When she saw Jiang Yu coming over with large and small bags of gifts, she immediately took them as usual.

"Xiao Yu, why did you buy so many things again?"

"Sister Jiang!" The orphans surrounded Jiang Yu and called her name affectionately.

Jiang Yu distributed the gifts to the children before entering the office with the director.

"Auntie, have you been feeling better recently?" Jiang Yu asked with concern.

The director shook his head. "Ahem, it's still the same."

Jiang Yu took out a card and handed it over. "Part of the money on this card can be used to improve the children's lives. The other part can be used to treat your illness. Your illness can not be delayed any longer."

This was also the reason why Jiang Yu had been working hard.
