

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 291–300

When Omi stood on the stage to write a detailed proof of the hail conjecture, his whole body and mind was completely immersed in the ocean of mathematics, unable to extricate himself.

When Omi wrote the final conclusion of the hail conjecture, a flash of inspiration suddenly flashed in his mind.

[Absolute focus: trigger a flash of aura!]

Suddenly, the Hodge conjecture studied last night, like a sea tide, kept rippling in my heart.

Then, Omi began to solve Hodge's conjecture involuntarily.

"Da da da!"

Omi had already got the answer to the hail conjecture from the system.

So, when I wrote it earlier, it was very relaxed and quick.

And Omi did not master the complete Hodge Conjecture solution process.

However, under the blessing of a flash of light, his writing speed is not slow at all.

The difference is that the previous hail conjectures all used the clearest formula.

At this time, Omi couldn't take care of that much at all.

In addition, Hodge's conjecture is much more complicated than the hail conjecture.

Therefore, even if everyone present is a great expert in mathematics.

But, soon... the vast majority of people can no longer keep up with Omi's speed.

Some people looked at the complicated calculations, but felt dizzy and dizzy.

In the end, I had to give up.

The man in the white shirt whispered: "Do you understand?"

The person next to him said bitterly: "The front is okay, but the back is..."

The man in the white shirt breathed a sigh of relief first.

Fortunately... Fortunately, it's not that I can't understand it alone.

But, soon, he also became extremely bitter.

Omi is just a young man in his twenties!

He couldn't even read his calculations even when he looked at it.

This...

This...how is there such a big gap between people?

...

Professor Lancenet stared at the huge display for a long time, only to feel a little sore in his eyes.

It was also at this time that Omi gradually slowed down his writing speed.

Lancenet squeezed his eyebrows, and said: "It seems to be in trouble, Professor Barneton, do you think he can succeed?"

Barneton sighed and said: "He is in a lot of trouble, I am afraid it will be very difficult."

Lancelot said: "It's a pity."

...

In fact, as Lancenet and Barneton expected, Omi did have trouble.

In Omi's mind, he was constantly advancing toward the mountain road, and when he was about to reach the top of the mountain and enjoy the beautiful scenery...

On the road ahead, a cliff tens of meters wide appeared.

Omi couldn't get past it at all.

However, Omi had already seen the beauty of the top of the mountain in a quick glance.

He desperately wants to climb to the top and appreciate it.

[Whether to upgrade the academician's mathematics experience level?]

"Yes!"

[Ding! The promotion is successful! Congratulations for gaining the experience of Pope Grothendieck in mathematics.]

[Do you use the skill double card?]

"Yes!"

Omi didn't hesitate at all, and directly used everything that could come in handy.

Suddenly, in the middle of the cliff of the mountain road, a gorgeous rainbow bridge suddenly appeared.

Omi walked on the Rainbow Bridge, walking on as if walking on the ground.

The beautiful scenery between him and the top of the mountain quickly draws closer and closer.

...

At the same time, Omicai's formula writing speed slowed down and soared again.

"Da da da!"

The writing pen and the electronic display screen collided quickly and violently! A burst of even more shocking music was sent out.

See here...

Barneton's dim eyes burst into brilliant light again, and he said excitedly: "He...really can succeed!"

It seems... to verify Barneton's words.

Omi's writing speed is getting faster and faster.

next moment...

His wrist stopped suddenly and slowly put down the writing pen.

The whole auditorium was quiet at first.

After a while, someone shouted: "He made it!"

"Hodge's conjecture has been proven!"

"Oh my God, I have witnessed history again!"

Witness the history again?

That's right!

Some of the people who attended the Jiangbei University report meeting have already been there once.

Last time, Omi solved a world-class problem in public—the twin prime number conjecture, creating a historic scene of immediate problem solving.

Today, he reproduced what happened that day!

And, it was replaced by a more difficult Hodge conjecture!

"Fuck!"

Suddenly, everyone spared no effort to applaud, making the entire auditorium thunderous applause.

Hu Tian, who was sitting in the audience, looked at Omi quietly all the time.

She watched Omi write down the proof process of the hail conjecture, and watched Omi write down the complicated Hodge conjecture proof process...

Hu Tian looked at Omi's concentrated expression, serious actions...

Gradually, in Hu Tian's eyes, Omi's body began to grow bigger and bigger...

When he wrote down the final answer to Hodge's conjecture, Omi suddenly became as huge as the sun, completely filling Hu Tian's entire world.

Professor Barneton praised sincerely: "He is really amazing!"

...

Professor Jeffries sitting in the front position exclaimed excitedly: "Professor Eddie, have you seen it? Have you seen it? He made another history!"

"Let me just say it!"

When Omi wrote down the final answer to Hodge's conjecture, Professor Edwin was just stunned and completely stupefied.

So that, what Jeffries said now, he did not hear at all.

However, Jeffries obviously did not realize this and continued: "While Omi has not left, let's go up and ask a few questions."

Then, he grabbed Eddie's clothes and walked towards the stage.

In fact, many scholars have similar ideas with him, and they walked around the stage one after another.

However, Jeffries' speed is obviously faster.

He brought Eddie to Omi first and spoke fluent English, saying: "Mr. Lin, hello, can I ask you some questions? The 55th formula, which is $X_{m+1} = S_m^9 - 5$... How did you get it?"

At this time, Omi was in a good mood.

Because when he put down the writing pen, a clear reminder sounded in his mind.

【Ding! Complete the task: answer Hodge's conjecture and get 5 golden red envelopes! 】

Omi still clearly remembered how much the golden red envelopes had brought him last time.

He believes that this time it must be no different!

Therefore, UU reading www. .com Omi doesn't mind answering a few questions at will.

Although, Omi has professional-level English.

However, he still chose to use Huaxia to answer.

Just because he is from Huaxia!

"This formula must be combined with the 35th equation, the 41st equation, and the 44th equation, which is $3X_1 + 5M = 7s$..."

After speaking, Omi stopped staying, turned and walked towards the background.

Only Professor Eddie and Professor Jeffries were left standing there with a blank face.

After a while, Professor Eddie said, "Jeffries, you are right, we have to learn Chinese."

Jeffries nodded vigorously and said, "That's right!"

PS: Welcome to read my book " " .

Before Omi went to the background, several waves of mathematics experts came to ask questions.

Omi, who was in a good mood, answered all the questions one by one.

Of course, what Omi has been using all the time is Huaxia.

Those mathematics experts really want to ask more questions.

However, due to not being able to understand Huaxia, he scratched his head in a hurry, and nothing changed.

Omi didn't know that because of this incident, the international mathematics circle started a wave of learning Chinese.

And, with the passage of time, this trend has become more and more prosperous.

...

Naturally, Omi didn't know about these.

After he left the auditorium, he returned to the dormitory.

At this time, there was no one in the dormitory, Song Yi, Zheng Jinbao, Ma Zhong, none of them knew where they had gone.

Omi was also happy and quiet.

In fact, my ears were a bit painful just now because of the applause in the auditorium.

Then, Omi focused on the golden red envelope.

He looked at the golden red envelope with a look of expectation on his face.

Muttered: "Five golden red envelopes, let me see what I can get."

"Turn on!"

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have gotten a share double coupon. 】

good stuff!

Today, Omi owns 10% of each of Ari Group and Penguin Group.

Once used, you can immediately get another 10% of the shares!

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have received 8 million yuan. 】

Rubbish!

It's useless.

【 Ding! Congratulations, get the land voucher. 】

good stuff!

After use, you can immediately obtain 10,000 square meters of land and the ownership of all the buildings on it.

Omi suddenly remembered that he still had two land coupons that he hadn't used, so I can use them all next time I find a chance.

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have received 5 million yuan. 】

Rubbish.

It's useless!

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have obtained 51% of Tiantian Bank's shares. 】

good stuff!

Tiantian Bank, China's largest private bank, with a market value of 600 billion yuan!

Omi directly acquired 51% of the shares, which means that his assets have increased by 300 billion yuan again!

Omi looked at what he got from the golden red envelope and nodded in satisfaction.

Then, he turned his attention to the stock double coupon.

【 Ding! Do you use stock double coupons for Penguin Group? 】

“Yes!”

【 Ding! Successfully used, a total of 20% of the shares of Penguin Group! 】

Suddenly, Omi’s assets increased by 500 billion yuan again, one step closer to bringing back both the Penguin Group and Ari Group from abroad.

After finishing these, Omi’s mood became more relaxed.

He lay on the bed, took out his cell phone under boredom, and turned on the king that his roommates had been playing during this time.

Omi also knows that this is a tower pushing game, but also a killing game.

However, it would be too difficult to play on your own.

So, before the game started, Omi opened the shark live broadcast.

At this time, Meng Lei was operating Han Xin and easily won the double kill.

Countless barrages rolled out in the live broadcast room.

[Bin Bin: It’s worthy of being a dream, it’s really awesome! 】

[Happy and happy: The operation is too cool! 】

[The person in the wind: When can I have this kind of technology? 】

[Xiaoyao Yimeng: That monkey is probably almost stunned, where is my wild? Why is my screen suddenly black? 23333. 】

[Brother Jiang: 666! 】

[Wuying: 999! 】

[Yang Long: Dream class, I’ll give you a reward, how about how many games do you play with me? 】

The dream class obviously saw these barrage too, smiled and said casually, saying: “I am afraid I don’t have much time to play games with everyone. As for the gift, everyone is free...I don’t care too much about this.”

This statement just came out...

In the live broadcast room, a golden reminder suddenly appeared: Welcome the emperor to fight workers, come to the live broadcast room.

then...

1 rocket.

10 rockets.

50 rockets.

100 rockets.

200 rockets.

...

In the end, a full 1,000 rockets flew through the screen.

The entire live broadcast room was completely exploded.

[Golden Goldfish: Fuck! It is the legendary striker god!]

[Sorrowful book: awesome Plath! The worker, Shenhao, has come to spoil the dream class]

[Illusory dream falling into a dream: working as a worker, working spirit, working as a master!]

[Love for life: Where are the workers? ! Our king is here!]

[Lover: Oh! I finally saw the worker Shenhao!]

...

Omi didn't pay attention to the barrage at all, and directly sent a message.

Fighter: Dream class, pay me to play a few games.

Meng Lei never expected that the legendary striker Shenhao would come to his live broadcast room.

He looked at the rocket full of screens, completely stunned.

After a while, the dream class shouted: "Dad, I will play games with you!"

Why don't you have time to play games with others?

Is Dad someone else? !

of course not!

...

A similar situation also happened in the live broadcasts of Atai, Lao Li, and Miao Shen.

As a result, a team composed of Omi and four top professional gamers took shape.

Gods block and kill gods, and Buddhas block and kill Buddhas.

Four top professional gamers surrounded Omi in a group, and continued to consume the blood of the opposite side, leaving only the last bit of blood for Omi to make up the knife.

One kill, two kill, three kill, four kill...

Omi played this game very happily.

A day's time is fleeting in a blink of an eye.

When Omi was walking on the school forest path, he happened to meet Hu Tian head-on.

For some reason, Omi suddenly felt that she seemed a little different from the morning.

At this time, Hu Tian's beautiful eyes flashed slightly like gems, and the whole pretty face was blushing.

Her small cherry mouth, although not open, seems to be telling her fascination with herself.

Looking at her appearance, Omi suddenly thought of Xia Bing and Xia Xue for some reason.

So, I couldn't help but use the Eye of True Sight on her.

[Face value: 98]

[Favorite degree: 99]

99!

Sure enough, Teacher Tiantian's favorability for herself has reached 99!

But when did this happen?

"Cuckoo!"

At this time, Omi's stomach let out a cry.

"Did Teacher Tiantian have dinner?" Omi asked.

Hu Tian said: "Not yet."

Omi smiled and said, "That's right, let's eat together!"

They went straight to the 26th floor of Zhongshang Building. UU reading

This is the place Omi and Hu Tian visited when they ate for the first time.

The two were eating steak and drinking red wine, and Omi stepped forward to play a piano music just like when they first met.

Although, this meal only cost 32,999 yuan.

However, the two also enjoyed eating very much.

When Omi sent Teacher Tiantian home, maybe it was because of the darkness that made Teacher Tiantian a little scared, so she turned around and hugged Omi.

The moonlight is like gauze, sprinkled lightly.

Omi's report meeting not only allowed the experts in the mathematics circle to recognize the hail conjecture he solved.

Hodge's conjecture was answered on the spot.

Generally speaking, when such a grand report is held, countless domestic and foreign media and reporters will rush to report on the scene.

However, Jiangbei University knew that Omi did not like interviews.

That's why he has the ease he has now.

The reporters were unable to interview Omi, so they focused their cameras on the mathematicians who participated in the report.

"Professor Barneton, are the hail conjectures and Hodge's conjectures solved by Omi correct?" a fair-skinned female reporter asked.

Barneton thought for a while and said: "I'm sure the Hail conjecture is correct, and Hodge conjecture, this question is too complicated, I need more time and more in-depth research."

The reporter seemed to have caught some news hotspots and hurriedly said, "You mean, there is a problem with Omi's Hodge guess answer?"

Barneton sternly said: "No problem! It's just because his math level far exceeds me, so I need more time to study. It's like a teacher explained a difficult problem, the students below need time to go. Same as digestion."

The reporter froze for a while, she didn't expect Barneton to say that.

To know...

He is the top big cow in mathematics!

And Omi is just a young man in his twenties...

This...

The reporter couldn't help but said: "You have such a high opinion of him."

Barneton looked up at Yuankong, as if recalling something, and said: "When I saw him, I thought of Grothendieck."

The reporter's pupils shrank suddenly.

Grothendieck!

The Pope of Mathematics!

I have to say that Barneton feels really good.

Omi... doesn't he just have Grothendieck's mathematical experience?

Jeffries and Edwin did not stay in China for a long time. After listening to the lecture, they ate some Chinese food and prepared to return to the United States.

At this time, a white-skinned male reporter came over and said, "Professor Jeffries, Professor Eddie, hello. I am a reporter, did Omi really answer the hail conjecture and Hodge's conjecture?"

"Yes!" Jeffries affirmed.

The male reporter said again: "But, he is only in his 20s? At this age, he has solved so many problems? Do you think someone answered in advance, and then he wrote it?"

"Hua Xia seems to have had such an example before, called...Yuejin, yes, that's the word."

"Otherwise, he would not stop accepting our interview."

Jeffries and Eddie, both looked at the reporter like a fool.

Answer it in advance, and then leave it to Omi to write it out?

Does this person have no brains?

Eddie said: "If you go to the report meeting, or if you have a little knowledge of mathematics, you will definitely not say such a thing."

Jeffries said: "Because he worked very hard! Race against time to study mathematics! I don't want to waste time on your boring interviews, and now... we must hurry back to the United States, and then, ask excellent teachers to teach us China early. language."

After speaking, he dangled directly from the side.

On the meager, it is also very lively.

[Minzu Daily: Congratulations to Omi of Jiangbei University for successfully holding the hail conjecture report meeting, and at the same time, the Hodge conjecture was answered on the spot!]

(It seems: Solve the four world mathematics problems, Omi? No! Lin Shen, are you still a human being?)

(Kaka: Do you know? My tutor initially studied Zhou's conjecture. It has only been studied for a year and has just made a little progress. Then, Lin Shen solved it.

So, my mentor took us to change the subject and study the twin prime conjecture. We just planned the research steps. As a result, at this time, we suddenly learned that Lin Shen had solved the twin prime conjecture.

Then, my tutor thought for a long time and said that he was studying a different one, so he changed from prime numbers to abstract algebra—the hail conjecture.

Okay! We only studied for a few days, and Lin Shen solved the hail conjecture again.

Then, my mentor said that we can't let such things happen again. This time we will study a difficult question that no one may be able to answer in this century, the Hodge Conjecture of the Millennium Problem.

However, the subject was only determined yesterday, and now, Lin Shen has solved Hodge's conjecture again!

My tutor is already crying in the toilet now, not much to say, now I am going to send him to the hospital.)

(Little Wenzhi: Hahaha! Upstairs, are you trying to laugh at me?)

(Two Quinoa: In a word, Lin Shen is really awesome!)

(Qiqi Keqi: Damn it! I heard that if you solve the millennium problem, you can get 1 million dollars! Doesn't that mean that Lin Shen can become a millionaire soon?)

(Carefree: Smaller, smaller structure! Brother, Lin Shen has already won a bonus of 10 million yuan last time!)

(People come to pull: 10 million yuan?! Is it too late for me to start studying mathematics hard now?)

...

Omi paid no attention to the interviews with mathematics experts and the heated discussions on the Internet.

In a blink of an eye, two days passed.

Today is Saturday. After Omi ate breakfast, he drove a Mercedes-Benz big G straight to the airport.

The luxury aircraft of Xia Guo Airlines had been waiting here early.

When Omi arrived, he immediately welcomed the warm service of many flight attendants.

“Boom!”

After the plane made a loud noise, it flew towards the distant sky.

In less than two hours, Omi came to the magic city.

Today, he came to Qin Yuxuan on purpose.

After the Spring Festival, the two have not seen each other, which is really too long.

At this time, Qin Yuxuan took a brisk step and walked into the towering World Financial Building.

She has a perfect figure, beautiful facial features, coupled with the unique temperament of a female elite in the workplace, and she has amazing eyes everywhere.

A man dressed in anime clothes, carrying PRADA on his shoulders and holding a Porsche car key in his hand, slowly walked over, and said in a slightly puzzled tone: “This beauty, UU reading www. .com Have we met somewhere?”

However, before Qin Yuxuan could answer, a teasing voice sounded behind her.

“Guys, what age are you now? It’s too old-fashioned to talk like this! Let’s see me!”

After Qin Yuxuan heard the sound, her beautiful eyes moved slightly.

Because she is very familiar with the director of this voice— Omi!

Then, Omi stepped forward and couldn’t help but stop Qin Yuxuan’s slender waist and put her mouth together.

$o(\varepsilon^*)$

Then he smiled and said, “Beauty, be my girlfriend!”

Qin Yuxuan’s pretty face flushed slightly with shame, red lips opened slightly, and she whispered, “Okay.”

PS: Welcome to read my book ” “.

Then, Omi slowly turned sideways and looked at the man next to him with a smile on his face.

The man is not a fool, so why don't you understand that Omi is Qin Yuxuan's boyfriend?

There is nothing wrong with pursuing beauty.

However, it was too embarrassing to meet each other's boyfriend during the pursuit.

At this time, he just wanted to find a seam to get in, and hurriedly left with his head buried.

Qin Yuxuan didn't expect Omi to have such a weird side, so she couldn't help but smiled: "When did the magic capital come?"

"Just got off the plane." Omi said.

When Qin Yuxuan heard this, the smile on her face became even stronger. She took Omi's arm and walked towards the World Financial Building.

After a while, the two reached the 78th floor.

The four characters 'Fanyu Investment' immediately came into view.

When Omi helped purchase this floor, it was empty.

Nowadays, there are many desks, computers, and many men and women wearing white shirts, working hard in them.

After seeing Qin Yuxuan and Omi, the beauty sitting at the front desk was slightly stunned.

Although, Qin Yuxuan has just graduated.

However, she has no sense of immaturity at all in terms of being a person or doing things.

In everyone's minds, Qin Yuxuan is a strict boss.

When did the beauty at the front desk see Qin Yuxuan's gesture of such a small woman?

Besides, Qin Yuxuan is still holding a young man's hand?

This.....

After a long while, the beauty at the front desk said, "Good for Mr. Qin."

Qin Yuxuan smiled and nodded at her, and continued to walk inside.

Soon, other people in the company also noticed this scene.

There was a look of surprise on their faces.

However, he quickly followed up to say hello, and silently guessed Omi's identity in his heart.

"Ding!"

At this time, Qin Yuxuan's cell phone shook slightly.

She glanced at the news and said, "There will be a banquet later, do you want to accompany me to it?"

"I came to the magic city today, and I accompany you all the way." Omi smiled.

Qin Yuxuan's heart became even sweeter, and she couldn't help but snuggle in Omi's arms.

This scene was seen in the eyes of all the staff again.

"Crack!"

Some people seemed to hear the sound of their hearts breaking.

No way, Qin Yuxuan is so beautiful, she is the goddess in the hearts of many employees.

Now, the goddess is lying in the arms of another man.

Qin Yuxuan knew nothing about this, she returned to the office and took out a USB flash drive, and walked outside with Omi.

Shangri-La Hotel, 3rd floor banquet hall.

At this time, many men and women with big bellies and suits and shoes gathered together, chatting and laughing.

Sister Lu and Sister Fan, who accompanied Qin Yuxuan to select the company site, stood at the door, whispering something.

When Senior Sister Fan looked up, she happened to see Omi and Qin Yuxuan.

“Yu Xuan, Omi, you are here!”

Senior Sister Lu who was next to him also raised her head and said, “Omi, I was just talking about it. You bought the office for Fanyu Company at the beginning and then put out another 200 million start-up capital. It is really wise. Decision! Unexpectedly, you came right away.”

Omi said: “Really?”

“Take it...remove it!” Senior Sister Lu said.

“Since last year, we have contacted most of the companies in the World Financial Building, and have attracted dozens of investments!”

The more Sister Lu talked, the more excited she was, and she started dancing with her.

Sister Fan next to her followed: “The 300 million yuan you invested at the beginning should be able to bring you several times the benefits!”

Sister Lu saw that Omi’s expression was always plain, and thought he didn’t believe it.

Therefore, he said again: “Don’t believe it! The bosses who have investment cooperation with our company, as well as some big bosses who intend to invest, will all come over today... Among them, the chairman of Tiantian Bank! You will wait a moment. You have to greet you, and get to know it!”

“Tap!”

At this time, there was a sound of footsteps behind him.

When Senior Sister Lu heard the voice, she turned around and said, “Dong Liu, hello, please come inside.”

Liu Dong nodded, just about to walk inside.

At the next moment, he was stunned and said excitedly: “Mr. Lin, you are here!”

Omi didn’t know him, but when the other party greeted him, he couldn’t ignore it and nodded towards him.

Liu Dong said happily: “Haha! I didn’t expect to meet you today. I am so lucky!”

“By the way, our company is on the 35th floor of the World Financial Building...I will invest 20 million yuan in Fanyu Company later.”

Omi nodded and said, "Okay, your company's rent is 50% off."

"Thank you, thank you Mr. Lin." Liu Dong exclaimed excitedly.

50% off!

Their company needs 20 million yuan in annual rent.

In other words, 10 million yuan was directly reduced!

Although, he also invested another 20 million yuan.

However, investment is more often profitable, even if it loses, can it all be lost all at once?

What's more, it might also leave an impression in Omi's heart.

This is definitely a good deal.

Sister Fan and Sister Lu, who were standing next to them, looked dumbfounded when they listened to their conversation.

rent?

What rent?

"Tap!"

Originally, some of the bosses who were chatting and laughing in it seemed to have heard the conversation at the door and walked quickly towards the door.

"Hello Mr. Lin!"

"I have seen Mr. Lin."

"Mr. Lin, we invested 30 million yuan in Fanyu Company on the 29th floor!"

"Mr. Lin, we invested 20 million yuan in Fanyu Company on the 45th floor."

.....

Everyone surrounded Omi and kept talking.

Omi said, "As long as the investment is made, the rent will be 50% off!"

"Thank you Mr. Lin!" the bosses exclaimed happily.

Omi glanced at the entrance of the crowded banquet hall, and said, "Don't squeeze in the entrance, go and sit inside."

All the bosses said and heard that they all responded and found a place to sit down in the banquet hall.

However, Omi, who was always looking at their eyes, looked at it, full of flattering intentions.

When Senior Sister Lu saw that everyone was walking away, she was relieved and said, "The rent they said was..."

"Oh, didn't I tell you the rent of the World Financial Building? The entire World Financial Building is mine." Omi said.

His tone was so plain and relaxed~www.novelhall.com~ But, in the ears of Sister Fan and Sister Lu, it was like a thunderstorm, and their eardrums hummed.

To know.....

The World Financial Tower is the most high-end office building in the center of the magic city, with a market value of about 50 billion yuan!

Now, it is Omi! ?

No wonder, no wonder... The property seems to take special care of all the owners of the company.

It's no wonder that when my company negotiates cooperation with the company in the World Financial Building, it goes very smoothly.

Even some companies do not need to negotiate on their own, and they must cooperate with their own companies if they are very proactive.

Discount on rent?

Now it seems that all of this is something that Omi has already explained.

PS: Welcome to read my book " ".

"Tatata!"

At this time, there was another sound of footsteps outside the corridor.

A middle-aged man wearing gold glasses, who looked very gentle, walked in slowly.

When some bosses saw him, their expressions were a little serious, and they said, "Huang Dong."

"Hello Huang Dong!"

Huang Dong is Huang Jiayi, Chairman of Everyday Bank!

Also the most important person in today's banquet!

Sister Lu and Sister Fan followed, "Huang Dong, welcome you."

Huang Jiayi didn't seem to hear these greetings. He walked quickly to Omi, bent slightly, and said in a very respectful tone: "Mr. Lin, I'm sorry, I'm a bit late."

Omi said flatly: "It's okay, anyway, the banquet hasn't started yet."

Huang Jiayi heard this and heaved a sigh of relief.

This scene was all seen in the eyes of Sister Lu and Sister Fan.

What...what's going on?

Yes, they already know that the Global Financial Building belongs to Omi.

However, it seems that Tiantian Bank has not rented the World Financial Building.

Then why Huang Jiayi is so polite to Omi? Even, it can be said to be respectful? !

Finally, Senior Sister Lu couldn't help asking: "Lin... Omi, do you know Dong Huang?"

Omi replied, "See you for the first time today."

"See you for the first time? Then why..." Senior Sister Lu was even more puzzled.

Omi naturally understood what she meant, and smiled: "Probably, because I am the largest shareholder of Tiantian Bank."

quiet!

The whole scene suddenly fell silent!

Sister Lu and Sister Fan were completely stunned.

The largest shareholder of Tiantian Bank!

To know.....

Tiantian Bank is China's largest private bank, with a market value of more than 600 billion yuan.

The largest shareholder...

How much does it cost?

At the beginning, Omi randomly put out 100 million yuan to purchase the 78th floor of the Global Finance Building, and then used another 200 million yuan as the company's start-up capital.

Today, they learned that the entire global financial building belongs to Omi.

These...have already shocked the two of them.

As a result, it now has the status of Tiantian Bank's largest share.

This.....

This.....

This has completely exceeded the imagination and cognition of the two.

I just said that I want to let Omi have a long experience.

Is this... long insight?

When Senior Sister Lu thought about this, her pretty face blushed.

However, what Senior Sister Lu and Senior Sister Fan didn't know was that the strength that Omi showed now was just the tip of the iceberg that he possessed.

If you let them know that Omi is still the largest shareholder of many tens of billions of companies, such as Yinshan Group, Qingkun Group, Xiaowu Wholesale City, etc.

In addition, it also owns 5% of the shares of LV, Volkswagen Group, and other international companies.

Even, it is the second largest shareholder of Ari Group and Penguin Group...

As for residential quarters and high-end office buildings, there are even more.

I don't know what their expressions will be.

Qin Yuxuan, who was standing next to her, looked at Omi's eyes, which became brighter and brighter.

In her eyes, Omi's already tall figure is now getting bigger and bigger...

At the same time, it also bloomed with a breath that was as bright as the sun and as vast as the universe.

Qin Yuxuan... completely silly.

Amidst the noise, today's banquet officially began.

Omi... is undoubtedly the protagonist of today's banquet.

In contrast, the "Fanyu" company has directly received billions of dollars of investment.

If you put it in the past, Sister Lu and Sister Fan will definitely jump and jump happily.

However, at this time, they appeared very calm.

In fact, Omi just gave them too much shock.

.....

After the banquet, Omi and Qin Yuxuan did not leave the Shangri-La Hotel.

Instead, he went straight to the presidential suite on the top floor.

When entering the presidential suite, the two of them hugged each other like magnets.

The long-awaited reunion made Qin Yuxuan completely melt into Omi's arms as if she was about to turn into water.

No sleep tonight.

.....

The next day.

When Omi opened his eyes, it was already bright outside.

He was the only one on the white bed.

Omi habitually picked up the phone...

At this point, as usual, a text message appeared on the screen early.

"At 0:00, China Merchants Bank remitted 7.1 million yuan."

Then, he turned his attention to the sign-in system.

"These days, it is all 10 million yuan, which is of no use. I hope I can change something else today."

"Sign in!"

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 296–300

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have obtained a Tomson first-class building. 】

Omi naturally heard the name of Tomson's first product.

Top luxury houses above 200,000 yuan per square meter.

There seem to be more than 40 sets in each building.

Each set is between 100 million and 200 million.

That is, this time, the sign-in conservatively received 5 billion yuan.

Omi nodded slightly, expressing his satisfaction.

Then he slowly got up and walked outside.

At this moment, Qin Yuxuan was sitting in front of the computer, taking care of her work seriously.

Fanyu Company is able to attract a lot of investment and develop rapidly.

On the one hand, it was indeed because of Omi's support from the companies that rented the World Financial Tower.

On the other hand, it was Qin Yuxuan's efforts.

Otherwise, no matter how much money you have, in the end, I am afraid you will only end up with nothing.

At this time, Qin Yuxuan also noticed Omi, and Qiao couldn't help but show a sweet smile on her face and said, "Wake up? I will be finished with my work today."

Omi said: "Okay! Then I'll send someone some food first."

"Hmm!" Qin Yuxuan answered.

Then, Omi picked up the phone and sent people bird's nest porridge, sea urchin egg tart, seafood noodles, shrimp, sea cucumber, and various exquisite snacks, and washed them away.

When Omi came back, the food was also delivered.

The two sat together, slowly tasting the food, very relaxed.

Then, Omi and Qin Yuxuan stayed in the presidential suite for another two hours.

When Qin Yuxuan went to the bathroom, Omi's phone shook slightly.

12:00!

Red envelopes appear!

"Ding! Congratulations, you got 5 yuan."

"Ding! Congratulations, you got 999 yuan."

.....

"Ding! Congratulations, you got 10,000 yuan."

"Ding! Congratulations, you got 3222 yuan."

.....

Omi continuously clicked the screen ~www.novelhall.com~ to get a total of 52,112 yuan, and then put the phone back into his pocket.

.....

In the magic city in March, the breeze was slow and refreshing.

Omi and Qin Yuxuan walked around the bustling streets, arm in arm.

At this moment, it seems that Omi is no longer a rich man with a net worth of trillions, and Qin Yuxuan is not the boss of a large-scale investment company.

They are like a pair of ordinary little lovers, unfettered.

When turning around an intersection, a loud noise suddenly rang in the distance.

Qin Yuxuan looked at the voice, her expression changed slightly, and said:
"Auntie, Cici!"

Then he said to Omi, "That's my aunt and niece!"

Then, hurrying up and walking forward.

at this time.....

A little girl, like a porcelain doll, was lying on the ground, crying, her body trembling unceasingly.

Very panicked and scared.

The aunt, wearing simple clothes next to her, hurriedly bent over and picked her up, her face full of care and concern.

After Qin Yuxuan ran over, she hurriedly asked, "Auntie, what's wrong with Cici? Is she okay?"

Since childhood, my aunt has been very kind to Qin Yuxuan.

Every time she returned to Qingcheng, the aunt would bring a lot of snacks and toys to Qin Yuxuan.

In fact, this is one of the reasons why Qin Yuxuan later chose to study in the magic city.

Since arriving in the magic city, Qin Yuxuan would go to her aunt's house to pay for Qianqian whenever she had time.

At this moment, she saw Cici's painful appearance, and she didn't know how distressed she was.

However, before the aunt could answer, the lady with a pearl necklace with fine fingers and heavy makeup on her face called out, "Is there anything wrong with her, I don't know!"

"But, my little Tai was scared by this little girl, and she is still shaking now! You quickly apologize to Xiao Tai, and quickly appease him! Otherwise, this is not over!"

Then, the lady pulled the dog leash, letting the dog who kept retreating walk forward a few steps.

“Bow!”

The dog yelled immediately.

My aunt has always had a good temper, but after hearing this, she couldn't help but rise three feet tall.

“What are you talking about? It was your dog that scared my daughter. We didn't ask you to apologize, but you asked us to apologize to your dog?!”

The conversation between the two quickly attracted the attention of many pedestrians.

Many people followed up in whispers.

“People apologize to the dog? Is there a mistake?”

“That little girl fell down.”

“What a poor little girl.”

“I saw her hand broke her skin...”

.....

The lady did not pay attention to the discussion of the people around, and she raised her neck and said: “What does your daughter eat every day? Radishes? Green vegetables? Pickles?”

“My little Tai eats top-quality beef and fruits shipped from abroad every day. Can she compare with my little Tai?!”

“Hurry up and apologize to my Xiaotai!”

When the lady talked about this, the whole person became more domineering.

Seeing that the auntie hadn't meant to apologize, she felt uncomfortable for a while, and raised her hand to push her aunt.

“Snapped!”

At this time, a big hand came over, directly blocking the lady.

It is Omi!

Omi has the ability of violent aesthetics, how powerful is he?

With a quick shot, the lady's arm immediately became red and swollen.

The lady called fiercely: "How dare you hit me!"

She was extremely annoyed, her eyes widened, the thick makeup on her face, followed by cracks.

It looked like he was going to swallow Omi alive.

"Snapped!"

Omi raised his hand again and patted.

but.....

This time, he didn't pat her arm, but directly drew it on her face.

Suddenly, the lady's entire face immediately became red and swollen.

Omi said coldly: "Apologize!"

This slap didn't wake the lady, but instead angered her even more.

"Ahhhhh! You are finished, I guarantee you are all finished!"

"The Michelin three-star Fumando Hotel in the back belongs to our house! I will make you completely finished!"

The lady snarled loudly, turning her whole person into a mad dog.

"Snapped!"

Omi did not speak, and slapped the lady's face again.

Suddenly, her faces on both sides became red and swollen, and her whole person seemed to bear a pig's head.

Then, Omi glanced at the Fumanduo Hotel not far away from the corner of his eye.

Then, he focused on the land coupons in the system.

【 Ding! Do you use land vouchers with Fumanduo as the center? 】

Omi has a total of 3 land certificates.

Last time, he always wanted to find opportunities to use it.

Now, there is finally an opportunity.

“Yes!”

【Ding! Successfully used! 】

The lady held her face like a pig’s head and shouted: “Okay! You guys wait for me!”

While talking, she took out her mobile phone and dialed out quickly.

“Husband, I was beaten at the entrance of Fumanduo Hotel. Bring someone over.”

After trying her best to comfort her daughter, the aunt said: “Yu... Yu Xuan, otherwise, let’s go.”

Although, she also wanted to apologize.

But, Fu Manduo... that is the top hotel in the entire magic city!

This lady can’t afford to provoke her at all.

If the people who waited for the hotel came, it would definitely be a disaster.

The lady said: “Want to go? No way!”

After speaking, she took a few steps forward, blocking the path of Auntie, Qin Yuxuan and others.

Qin Yuxuan hugged Cici into her arms and couldn’t help but calmed down, and then turned her gaze on Omi.

Obviously, she was seeking Omi’s opinion.

Omi cast a relieved expression at her, then gave the lady a cold glance.

The lady dared to snarled at the aunt and dared to stop Qin Yuxuan.

However, facing Omi who had slapped her twice in a row, she was shocked and couldn’t help but step back a few steps.

“Tatata!”

At this time, there was a rush of footsteps in the distance.

Then, a large group of tall men in security uniforms came over.

The lady became extremely excited when she saw this group of people, especially the middle-aged man who walked in the forefront with a suit and leather shoes, who was about 50 years old.

Yelled: "husband, here I am!"

When the middle-aged man saw what the lady looked like at this time, he couldn't help but stunned.

When he saw the person standing next to the lady, his pupils suddenly shrank.

Omi!

Boss Lin!

Many people think that Fu Mandu belongs to the middle-aged man himself.

However, the middle-aged man himself knew very well that he was just a person in charge.

The real boss has someone else.

And just today, or just now...

The middle-aged man learned that the boss of Fu Manduo had changed and replaced him with a young man named Omi who was only in his twenties.

Unexpectedly, I saw the new boss himself in a blink of an eye.

At this time, the lady pointed at Omi and shouted, "It's him, it's him! Husband, it's him who beat me like this!"

"Don't say that this little girl is not as good as my little Tai, even if you all add up, it is far less than my little Tai! She even dared to beat me!"

"Asshole, didn't you just be arrogant? Go on! Fight!"

She... dare to say ~www.novelhall.com~ Omi and the people next to her, combined...can't compare to her own dog?

Then, still scolding Omi as a bastard?

How dare she?

How dare you?

Damn it!

“Boom boom boom!”

The middle-aged man was extremely annoyed, and hurriedly walked forward.

In the next moment, he raised his hand with a thunder and thunder.

“Snapped!”

This slap was once again on the face of the lady.

The lady’s face was already red and swollen, and when she slapped it, a trace of blood overflowed from the corner of her mouth.

PS: Welcome to read my book ” “.

This sudden slap directly slapped the lady in a daze.

What...what’s going on?

Why did my husband hit me suddenly?

Didn’t he come to support me?

However, I haven’t waited for the lady to ask...

“Snapped!”

Another slap hit the lady’s face.

This time, it was not the middle-aged man who shot, but Omi.

Omi said lightly: “You let me fight, I just satisfy you.”

This slap seemed to have slapped the noble lady sober again, and she shouted: “My old lady is fighting with you!”

When the words fell, she stretched out her hands like nine-yin white claws, and was about to grab Omi.

“Asshole!”

The middle-aged man shouted.

Then, kicked her to the ground.

Then, he bent down and said in a very respectful and perturbed tone: "Mr. Lin, I'm sorry, I didn't take care of her, and let her run into you. I'm sorry..."

Omi said coldly: "Crossed into me? She said that my girlfriend's aunt's daughter can't even compare with her dog! She wants them to apologize to the dog!"

The middle-aged man shivered with fright, cold sweat on his forehead.

He kicked the lady again and shouted: "Hurry up and apologize!?"

The lady cried in pain, and she couldn't help rolling on the ground, but she didn't apologize immediately.

The middle-aged man kicked again and said, "Quickly apologize! Quickly apologize to the labor and management!"

At this time, the lady also understood that Omi absolutely possessed an extremely terrifying identity.

She lay on the ground and cried: "I'm sorry, I'm sorry...I was wrong just now...I was talking nonsense..."

This huge change made Auntie and Cici feel a little at a loss.

Omi snorted, and then said, "Yu Xuan, auntie and Cici, now it's time for dinner too, let's go eat together first."

The aunt looked at Qin Yuxuan hesitantly.

Qin Yuxuan smiled and said, "Auntie, Cici, go and eat delicious food together."

After speaking, she hugged Cici in her arms.

Next to him, the middle-aged man, who had been bending over, hurriedly said, "Mr. Lin, I will arrange a place for you in Fumanduo."

Omi glanced at him and said indifferently: "No need. Indulge his wife's reckless behavior, Fuman doesn't need someone like you."

Then, strode forward.

Omi has no mercy at all.

Because he knew very well, if it wasn't himself who shot today.

Then, the outcome of the other party may be very miserable.

An apology is enough?

how is this possible!

“Patter!”

The middle-aged man felt that the strength of his whole body was drained in an instant, and he fell directly to the ground.

Gone...

It took me so many years to become the general manager of Fu Manduo, and now... no more...

When he looked down and saw the lady lying on the ground, he was angry and shouted: “It’s you! It’s all you bitch!”

“Boom!”

Then, the middle-aged man punched and kicked the lady again.

For these...

Omi didn’t care.

...

Omi, Qin Yuxuan, Auntie and Cici were greeted by Fu Manduo’s deputy general manager and the high-level executives, who came to sit down in the luxurious box.

Qin Yuxuan introduced: “Auntie, this is my boyfriend Omi.”

The aunt quietly looked at Omi, and could not help but nodded secretly, very satisfied.

In fact, Omi is too handsome and has a special temperament.

After a while, the aunt said: “Omi, I really thank you just now...If it weren’t for you, neither Cici and I would be embarrassed?”

Omi said lightly: “It’s just a small matter, you don’t have to take it to heart.”

At this time, crispbone fish, puffer fish, phoenix soup, bergamot golden rolls, Buddha jumped over the wall... a series of delicious foods were quickly brought up.

"This... so many dishes?" The aunt asked in surprise. She could not help swallowing while smelling the scent of food.

Omi said, "So, we have to work hard to eat more!"

"Let's move the chopsticks together, it won't taste good when it gets cold later."

When the words were over, Omi picked up a piece of meat and put it into Qin Yuxuan's bowl.

With Omi taking the lead, other people no longer hesitate.

"Haw, haw!"

When everyone put the food in their mouths, they couldn't stop at all.

Cici couldn't help saying: "It's so delicious!"

Qin Yuxuan smiled and said, "Cici, then you have to eat more."

"Hmm!" Cici nodded vigorously.

Everyone was very satisfied with this meal.

At this time, Qin Yuxuan said: "By the way, Omi, you and this Fumanduo Hotel..."

"Oh, I took down this hotel a while ago, and now I am considered the owner of it." Omi said, "In the future, you can use this as a free cafeteria to eat."

His tone is very relaxed and plain.

It's like saying, oh, I just had a meal.

However, Qin Yuxuan and her aunt's ears were completely different.

To know...

Fumandu is the only Michelin three-star hotel in the city!

Per capita consumption is above 5000!

Even so, the people who made reservations at Fu Manduo are already lining up until next month!

One can imagine how amazing this store is.

Now, this store belongs to Omi?

But, in Omi's mouth, it was this store?

How does this feel like opening a small shop.

When Omi and the others walked out of the box, Fu Manduo's high-level group waited beside them as before.

Omi glanced at the man standing in the front position and wearing black-rimmed glasses and said, "What's your name?"

"My name is Jiang Chao, and I am Fu Manduo's deputy general manager." The man replied respectfully.

Omi nodded and said, "Okay, you will be responsible for Fumandu from now on."

Jiang Chao excitedly said: "Yes! I will definitely manage Fumando well in the future..."

Omi didn't wait for him to say a bunch of promises, and waved his hand directly: "Okay, so be it."

My aunt knew that Omi and Qin Yuxuan were dating.

Therefore, after leaving Fumandu, the aunt took Cici to say goodbye to Omi and Qin Yuxuan, UU reading www. . com allows them to enjoy the two-person world of couples.

Just after eating, Omi and Qin Yuxuan didn't even think about where to sit.

The two of them just walked along the road, wandering and digesting at will.

Before they went far, they were attracted by a European-style castle not far away.

On the top of the castle, it says "PATEK-PHILIPPE".

"Patek Philippe." Omi said silently in his heart, and then his gaze fell on Qin Yuxuan's smooth Hao Wan.

Therefore, Omi did not hesitate, took Qin Yuxuan's jade hand directly, and strode into this castle-like shop.

"Ding, ding, ding!"

As soon as I walked into the store, there happened to be a sound like the ding-dong of spring water, which was very pleasing to the ears.

At this time, the clerk also noticed someone coming in and said with a smile: "Welcome, Patek Philippe."

Then, the female clerk standing closer to the door slowly greeted her.

She asked softly, "Excuse me, can I help you?"

Omi pointed to Qin Yuxuan and said, "I'm here to buy a watch for my girlfriend. Do you have any recommendations?"

The female clerk first glanced at Qin Yuxuan quietly, and was first amazed by her appearance.

When she saw the Heart of the Deep Sea on Qin Yuxuan's neck, her eyes lit up slightly.

But when the female clerk moved her gaze to Omi and accidentally saw the Vacheron Constantin Tourdel'ile he was wearing, her heart jumped wildly.

She knows... She definitely met a big customer today.

As a result, the attitude of the female clerk became more respectful.

It's not that the female clerk faces the customer with colored eyes.

After a simple screening, the service can be better.

"This lady has fair skin and refined temperament, which matches our Patek Philippe's Tiannian, KJ, and floral fragrances."

The female clerk pointed to the crystal counter, each piece of very beautiful and unique watches, and kept introducing them.

However, Qin Yuxuan didn't seem to have caught a cold with these watches, and her face was always the same.

The female clerk seemed to have noticed this, and said: "And this style...in my opinion is the most suitable."

The female clerk pointed to a watch in the middle.

Qin Yuxuan looked in the direction she pointed, her beautiful eyes lit up involuntarily.

This change is also seen in the eyes of the female clerk.

She smiled and gave a more detailed introduction, saying: "This style of elegance was designed and produced by the famous watchmaker Mr. Launtham after 5 years. It is issued 15 yuan globally, and we have only this one in China."

“Therefore, it can be said to be unique in the country.”

“The surface of the glass made of blue gemstones is transparent, bright and noble... The strap and case are inlaid with 99 natural diamonds. Under the light of the light, they are bright and splendid, like a majestic young girl...”

The female clerk introduced the watch while putting on rubber gloves and took out the watch very carefully.

“Wow! What a beautiful watch!”

At this time, there was a cry of surprise from the door.

A man with a big belly, holding a gorgeous woman, walked in slowly.

The gorgeous woman said coquettishly: “Husband, people want this watch.”

The man looked in the direction the woman was pointing, he just glanced at his watch casually.

However, he was immediately surprised by Qin Yuxuan’s beautiful appearance.

Exquisite facial features, perfect body!

Goddess, this is definitely a goddess!

In the past, the man thought that his new girlfriend was very beautiful.

Now it seems, shit! It’s just a mess of shit!

The gorgeous woman hadn’t noticed the change in the man’s expression. She shook the man’s arm and said, “Husband, do you want that watch...”

The man came back to his senses and said, “Ah, ah...”

Although, the gorgeous woman has always been loud since she entered the store.

However, the female clerk was unable to reprimand at all, so she had to explain in a respectful tone: “Sorry, this watch is being selected by these two customers...”

If the female clerk did not say this, the man would hesitate to buy this watch.

Because he also knows the name of Patek Philippe, just a piece of watch may cost hundreds of thousands of yuan.

But now, hearing the female clerk say this, on the contrary, it made the man firm in his idea of buying this watch.

Buying a watch by spending a lot of money on his own, immediately showed his wealth and billions.

It would definitely attract Qin Yuxuan's attention and make her marvel and admire herself.

Wait a while, find a reason for yourself to contact Qin Yuxuan's contact information. In the future, will there be many opportunities?

The man has done similar things several times, and it can be said that he is familiar with the road.

So, the man raised his neck and said: "Choose? That means you haven't bought it yet? In that case, let's buy it now!"

After that, the man directly took out a Phnom Penh bank card.

Seeing this, the gorgeous woman said happily: "Wow! My husband is awesome! Mua!"

The female clerk did not pick up the card immediately, but looked at Omi and Qin Yuxuan hesitantly.

The man frowned and said: "What? Do you need me to talk to your leader?"

The female clerk had to say: "No...no, I will give you a credit card."

"drop!"

However, after the bank card was swiped on the POS machine, there was no consumption bill.

The female clerk said: "Sir, sorry, your balance is insufficient."

The man took the card, glanced around, and said: "How is it possible? There are still 2 million yuan in this card! You must have swiped the wrong card! Try again!"

The female clerk said patiently: "Sir, sorry...maybe you didn't hear my introduction just now."

"This watch is called Fenghua and consists of 99 natural diamonds and sapphire glass. It is limited to 15 pieces worldwide and the price is 8.89 million yuan."

8.89 million yuan?

The man's heart was slightly startled.

All his assets add up to tens of millions.

Among them... also includes real estate.

If you spend hundreds of thousands to buy a watch and bite your teeth, you can still accept it.

But what if you spend 8.99 million yuan on a watch?

That's crazy!

What's more, he doesn't have so much liquidity.

The gorgeous beauty next to her said softly: "Husband, don't you have a company with a market value of several billion? It's only 8.99 million. People want this watch."

Market value in billions?

Is this bragging? !

The man was a little embarrassed: "This...I didn't put so much money in this card. Next time...Next time, we will buy it again."

Omi, who hadn't spoken all the time, sneered and said, "If you don't have money, you have no money. Are you looking for so many reasons?"

When the man saw Qin Yuxuan, he showed the kind of red fruit eyes... Omi immediately knew the other party's idea of buying a watch.

That being the case, Omi naturally wouldn't want to say something.

The man became angry and said, "Boy, what are you talking about?!"

However, UU reading www. . Com quickly, he slowed down again, and sneered: "Okay, I have no money!?! Didn't you look at this watch first? Then you pay!"

In the eyes of the man, Omi was just a young man in his twenties.

Where did he put out 8.99 million yuan?

As long as he can't take it out, it will be time for himself to taunt him a little later.

Omi said flatly: "When did I say I want to buy this watch?"

The man sneered: "If there is no money to buy, just say that there is no money to buy. Some young people like to hold on."

"Don't you think this looks handsome? In fact, in the eyes of the understanding person, how ridiculous. It is simply a clown!"

Omi glanced at the man, then pointed to the watch on the counter in the middle, and said to the female clerk: "Hello, please take this watch out, we want to buy it."

PS: Welcome to read my book " " .

What kind of eyesight is Omi?

When the female clerk introduced Fenghua, Qin Yuxuan's eyes did indeed light up slightly.

But, Omi knows...

She is not at all heartbeat, but the watch next to...that is, the middlemost position.

The female clerk looked in the direction Omi was pointing, and she was slightly surprised.

Then, I was busy introducing everyone: "This is our Patek Philippe watch with a global limit of 5 pieces-the queen!"

"The Queen of Heaven. It was researched and designed by the famous Patek Philippe designer George Nifro for 10 years. The strap and case are inlaid with 365 natural colored diamonds, representing 365 days of permanent protection and support..."

Omi nodded, and without waiting for her to finish, he took out a bank card and said, "Swipe the card."

"what?"

The female clerk was taken aback for a moment.

The reason why she introduced so much without telling the price directly is to say that this watch is very expensive and very expensive.

She had a good impression of Omi and didn't want her to be laughed at by men.

However, the female clerk did not expect that Omi, just like the man, took out the bank card directly.

The female clerk hesitated and said, "The price of this watch is 31 million yuan."

Before Omi spoke, the man next to him already yelled.

“Swipe your card! Why... let me find your leader?”

The female clerk glanced at Omi again, and seeing that he hadn't spoken, she had to put the bank card on the POS machine and swipe it lightly.

“Ding!”

With a soft sound, a bill of 31 million yuan also appeared.

Debit Success!

At the same time, there were 3100 red envelopes in Omi's phone.

Originally, the man had already prepared to look up to the sky and laugh.

At this moment, the whole person was completely frozen.

Wh... what's the situation?

The deduction was successful! ?

He has 31 million yuan!

How can this be!

Omi glanced at the man and said lightly: “What you just said is correct. If you don't have money to buy, just say that you don't have money to buy. Some people just like to hold on.”

“Don't you think this looks handsome? Actually, how ridiculous in the eyes of understanding people. It's just a clown.”

This is what the man said to Omi just now.

As a result, now Omi returned it to the man intact.

The man only felt... the whole face seemed to have been slapped severely.

pain!

It's so painful!

The man wanted to refute, but he was unable to refute, so he had to lower his head and walk outside.

As soon as she walked out of the Patek Philippe store, the gorgeous woman next to her shouted: "I always thought you were a rich man, you turned out to be a poor man! I have never been so embarrassed!"

After speaking, he walked directly from the other direction.

The man opened his mouth and his face was full of helplessness.

When he saw Qin Yuxuan, he felt that the gorgeous woman was shit.

As a result, there is no more * now.

...

For these, Omi didn't pay any attention to it.

He took the dazzling Patek Philippe diva watch and slowly put it on Qin Yuxuan's white as jade Haowan.

Smiling and said: "Do you like it?"

Qin Yuxuan nodded vigorously, and then couldn't help throwing herself into Omi's arms.

At this time, her whole person has been completely filled with sweetness.

After leaving Patek Philippe, the two of them held hands and moved on, letting the river breeze come, refreshing and leisurely.

When Omi lifted his head, he could easily see the tall building erected not far away-Tomson Yipin.

Isn't this a house that I just acquired?

Omi was also full of curiosity about the famous house of Tomson Yipin.

So, he directly took Qin Yuxuan's hand and walked towards the community.

The price of Tomson's first product is high.

On the one hand, because of the good location, on the other hand, the management and environment are all very good.

The gate of the community is equipped with a face recognition function, and outsiders cannot enter at all.

"drop!"

When Omi walked to the door, the door opened with a soft sound.

The two security guards standing by were busy standing upright, as if they were soldiers who saw the chief.

Omi didn't pay too much attention to it, and went straight to the building closest to the river.

"drop!"

The door of the building opened automatically again.

See here...

The security guards looked at Omi's gaze, and they were even more respectful.

Because this building was bought by a mysterious man a long time ago.

After that, no one was there except for cleaning and security.

This is one of the reasons why Tomson Yipin has very few listings.

At this time, Omi stepped up, and the answer was obvious!

Naturally, Omi didn't know the security guard's thoughts.

He led Qin Yuxuan into the extremely spacious and gorgeous elevator.

"Whoo!"

The elevator went up, as if walking on the ground, almost without a trace of shaking.

In just ten seconds, Omi and Qin Yuxuan came to the top floor.

Omi locked his hand by the code.

"Crack!"

With a soft sound, the door opened.

The living room of nearly 100 square meters immediately appeared in the vision of the two of them.

The setting sun shines through the floor-to-ceiling windows, illuminating the luxurious modern furniture, and at the same time, it also completely illuminates Qin Yuxuan's beautiful eyes.

Omi said, "Yuxuan, you can live here in the future."

Qin Yuxuan's body trembled slightly, this is happiness, it is happiness!

She opened her little cherry mouth gently, and whispered: " Omi."

Then, he couldn't help opening his arms and throwing himself into Omi's embrace.

(3)(ε)

...

Tomson Yipin, who has been silent for a long time, has become extremely lively today.

...

The next day, when Omi opened his eyes, Qin Yuxuan was still lying on the bed, sleeping very heavily.

This is also normal...

In fact, she was too tired these two days.

Therefore, Omi did not bother her.

I crept into the hall alone.

First, he called to ask the Fumanduo people to send some food.

Then, he set his sights on the sign-in system.

"Yesterday, I got the first grade of Tomson. Today, let's see what's there."

"Sign in!"

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have got a Solange luxury yacht. 】

See here...

Omi's eyes lit up slightly.

Not long ago, he accidentally saw the news about Solange Yachts.

This yacht is cool in shape, 86 meters long, and has 8 VIP rooms...it is a yacht, rather than a water fortress!

And his price has reached 1.2 billion yuan!

Now, UU reading www. .com, this luxury yacht, belongs to his own?

Omi owns high-end communities, luxury villas, super sports cars, and even helicopters!

But let's be honest... this is the first time a luxury yacht has been acquired!

"Tatata!"

At this time, Qin Yuxuan walked to the hall and hugged Omi from behind.

Omi patted her Hao Wan lightly, and said, "You have been working hard these past two days, why don't you sleep more?"

Hard?

Qin Yuxuan's pretty face blushed slightly, and then whispered, "I have already rested."

"Jingle Bell!"

At this time, the mobile phone in Qin Yuxuan's pocket rang a brisk ring.

PS: Welcome to read my book " " .

Qin Yuxuan glanced at the call reminder. It turned out that it was from Senior Sister Lu.

Therefore, without any hesitation, she directly pressed the answer button.

"Yuxuan, are you still with Omi?" Senior Sister Lu asked.

"Yes, is there anything wrong with Senior Sister Lu?" Qin Yuxuan asked back.

Senior Sister Lu said: "Oh, it's like this...Isn't this recently I took a lot of big orders? Yesterday, everyone added a day of shift and basically finished the preliminary work."

"Behind, there will be a lot of things...So, I wondered, otherwise, in the last one or two days, organize a team building for everyone to have fun and relax...what do you think?"

Qin Yuxuan is a motivated, and at the same time, a person with great management talent.

She knows very well that in the management of employees, there must be relaxation and discipline.

Otherwise, there will be problems with people's hearts.

Since the establishment of the company, there has never been any team building.

In addition, as Senior Sister Lu said, the entire company will be very busy soon.

Prior to this, team building made it easier for employees. At the same time, it can also cultivate the tacit understanding of employees and increase future work efficiency. This is indeed a good thing.

So Qin Yuxuan replied: "I think it's pretty good."

Senior Sister Lu said happily: "Haha! I said Yuxuan would agree!"

"Okay, you young couple continue to be sweet, I won't bother you."

After speaking, she hung up the phone.

These conversations were all heard in Omi's ears.

"If it's team building, I would have a good place... I'll help arrange it, how about?" Omi said.

Qin Yuxuan can be said to have absolute trust in Omi, so without any consideration at all, she nodded and said: "Okay!"

"Jingle Bell!"

At this time, Omi's cell phone also rang a brisk ring.

However, it is an unfamiliar number.

"Hello, is it Mr. Omilin?" There was a slightly respectful voice on the phone.

Omi said: "It's me, are you?"

"Mr. Lin, hello, I'm Wanbo, the manager of Milepu Company..."

"The Solange luxury yacht you ordered has arrived at the Port of Magic City and can be inspected at any time... In addition, do you have any other questions or need any help from Mr. Lin?"

Wanbo has a certain position in Milepu Company.

However, he knew very well that he couldn't see enough in front of a person who ordered a luxury Solange yacht.

Therefore, his tone is always very respectful.

Omi had such an expression on his face and said, "Okay... I may use it to go out to sea and hold a party in the next two days. Can you help me find some crew members and waiters?"

"Of course no problem! If you need, you can call me at any time." Wanbo said.

After Omi hung up the phone, he said to Qin Yuxuan: "I have arranged it. Now it's up to you when you want to build a team."

Qin Yuxuan said: "Then I will ask Senior Sister Lu and the others."

Today, Omi and Qin Yuxuan did not go out all day.

They are like a young couple on vacation, eating together, watching TV together, and...

Very relaxed and warm.

...

In a blink of an eye, it was the next day.

When a ray of morning sun rose, Qin Yuxuan drove Omi to the World Financial Building in a mini car.

At this time, all the employees of Fanyu Investment Company, carrying school bags, sunglasses and hats, with smiles on their faces, waited downstairs.

Because today is the day when the Fanyu company team is built!

When they saw Qin Yuxuan and Omi walking out of the BMW mini car, they shouted heartily: "Hello, Mr. Lin, Mr. Qin!"

Obviously, everyone has some understanding of Omi's identity.

Qin Yuxuan cleared her throat and said, "Today is the day when our Yufan company team is built. There are no bosses and no leaders. Everyone is friends. Later, we can eat together and have fun together!"

"Good!" everyone shouted in unison.

“laugh!”

At this time, a Mercedes-Benz luxury bus drove over from a distance, and steadily stopped in front of everyone.

Qin Yuxuan said: “The car has arrived, then we will set off!”

The World Financial Tower is not far from the pier. In just half an hour, everyone can already see the blue sea.

After getting out of the car, everyone faced the sea breeze, their faces full of coziness.

At this moment, a man in a suit and leather shoes walked over from a distance and respectfully said to Omi: “Mr. Lin, please here.”

He...it was Wanbo, the manager of Milepu who called Omi yesterday.

Omi nodded and walked forward.

It belongs to the dock area, and there are many ships and yachts docked against the river bank.

Everyone was walking and watching, and there was a burst of discussion from time to time.

“That ship is pretty good-looking.”

“There are so many boats stopped here...”

“Modu houses are so expensive, you say, how about buying a boat and putting it here as a house in the future?”

“How about? Then you are really rich. Because, if you stay here for a year, you have to pay at least a 6-figure management fee.”

“Hiss! Hasty.”

At this time, someone shouted: “Wow! Look, a ship over there is so handsome! Even more handsome than the ship in the movie!”

“It’s so cool! It would be nice if I could go up and take a look.”

“Go up? Don’t think about it.”

“This is the Solange luxury yacht! That’s right! It’s the Solange! I saw this yacht in the magazine two days ago. The price is 1.2 billion yuan!”

"1.2 billion yuan? Hiss!"

Omi listened to everyone's words.

He smiled and touched his nose, and said: "Since everyone likes this yacht so much, then go up."

Many employees all showed a touch of doubt.

Omi smiled and said, "We are building a team on this yacht today."

quiet!

The whole scene was silent!

Everyone's faces were full of horror.

To know...

They just heard it, UU reading this yacht is called Solange! Worth 1.2 billion yuan!

Of course, even if you don't know this, just looking at the appearance of this yacht is very shocking.

Yesterday, everyone already knew that the team building would be held at sea today.

This makes everyone happy.

However, everyone thought that it was just renting a dilapidated boat or buying tickets for some big ships...

Now... is it turned into a tall luxury yacht?

This...Isn't this dreaming of myself? !

Everyone still couldn't believe it.

At this time, the attendants on the Solange luxury yacht seemed to affirm Omi's statement. They got off the boat, bent over, and said in a very respectful tone: "Welcome everyone! I wish you all a good time!"
