

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 351–360

Earlier, Xue Baoguo saw Mr. Liu try to please this Wu Shao.

And when Wu Shao... was very respectful to Omi, Xue Baoguo was a little confused.

Now, the chairman of the dignified Qingkun Group is so polite to Omi.

To know.....

Qingkunji's subsidiaries include large supermarkets, hotels, daily necessities, real estate, clothing, etc., and it is the largest enterprise in Qingshi.

Even, because of Omi's words, the chairman of Qingkun Group shook hands with himself and gave the company's pork and beef to himself?

This this.....

Isn't Omi's family background very ordinary?

Omi's abilities are very strong, but, counting the days, he shouldn't have graduated for two years, right?

So... let Wu Shao and the chairman of Qingkun Group treat them like this?

this.....

What is going on here?

Could it be that I haven't woken up yet?

Naturally, Omi didn't know what Xue Baoguo was thinking, because he was already attracted by a sentence that suddenly sounded in his mind.

【Ding! Complete the hidden task, the grace of dripping water, the spring will return. Get 1 golden red envelope. 】

The kindness of dripping water, repay the spring?

This is...Is it the matter of helping Uncle Xue?

1 golden red envelope?

This is a surprise.

In fact, Omi didn't guess wrong.

This is indeed the reward for helping Xue Baoguo.

You know, Xue Baoguo used to ask him to eat some noodles and porridge.

Now, Omi cured Xue Baoguo's disease first.

Then, I asked him to get 1 million yuan.

Finally, let him supply pork and beef from Qingkun Group...

If this is not the return of the grace of dripping water, then what is it?

At this time, Li Wannian said: "It's almost time for dinner too, Qingkun Hotel is right in front, Mr. Lin, Mr. Xue... and Xiao Wu, how about going to have a casual meal together?"

Omi nodded and said, "Yes."

Wu Kai has always wanted to get in touch with Omi, so naturally it is impossible to disagree.

And Xue Baoguo was still in a daze, but followed dumbly behind.

After seeing Li Wannian, the Qingkun hotel attendants shouted respectfully: "Hello, Li Dong."

In a greeting, Omi, Li Wannian, Wu Kai and Xue Baoguo came to the luxurious box.

Immediately afterwards, a series of delicious food, high-end liquor, etc., were brought up one after another.

Li Wannian personally poured a glass of wine for everyone, and then had a drink with everyone.

This glass of wine irritated his throat with the strong pungency, which made Xue Baoguo realize...All of this is not a dream.

It's all true!

.....

After Omi came out of Qingkun Hotel, he returned home and stayed with his parents for a while, then drove Cullinan towards Jiangbei.

Although, he felt that it was okay to stay at home for a few more days.

But parents don't think so. They think that going to school is the most important thing.

When the day was getting darker, Omi had already returned to Panlong Villa.

He sat on the soft sofa and played with his mobile phone comfortably.

When I opened the WeChat Moments, I found that Chu Yunyue had just reposted an enterprise article.

Suddenly, Omi couldn't help thinking of Chu Yunyue's pretty, serious cheeks.

So she couldn't help but opened her dialog box and sent a message.

Omi: Haven't slept yet?

Chu Yunyue seemed to be using her mobile phone, and almost instantly replied to the message.

Chu Yunyue: Yes, for a while...I have been working overtime to process the materials for going to Yingguolun City to participate in the International Perfume Exhibition, and I have just returned home.

Omi could almost imagine Chu Yunyue's tired appearance.

So, a message was sent out.

Omi: You can leave it to the people below to do it, so you don't have to make yourself too tired.

Chu Yunyue: I have already explained many things, but this exhibition is very important. I have to preach it myself, so I have to prepare myself.

Omi: Go to Yingguolun City in person? When will it pass?

Chu Yunyue: The exhibition is held on Thursday, and I am going to pass tomorrow.

Omi: Then I will go with you.

Chu Yunyue: Really? !

Omi: Of course, take a good rest tonight. Tomorrow morning, I will pick you up.

Chu Yunyue: Hmm!

Omi decided to go to Eagle Country with Chu Yunyue.

First, it was because I hadn't been with her for a long time.

Secondly, he has never been abroad.

Taking the opportunity to look abroad, it seems not bad.

After finishing the chat with Chu Yunyue, Omi focused... on the golden red envelope he got today.

"A golden red envelope, see if you can get something." Omi muttered to himself.

"Turn on!"

【 Ding! Congratulations, you have gained Sun Simiao's medical experience. 】

See here...

Omi was slightly stunned.

Sun Simiao?

Isn't this a famous genius doctor and medicine king in history?

His experience?

When Omi was in a daze, countless complex and profound medical knowledge suddenly appeared in his mind.

After a long while, Omi slowly opened his eyes and muttered, "Do I have such a superb medical skill?"

It was night, and Omi slept very heavily.

When Omi opened his eyes, the sky was already bright.

He glanced at the phone, and a message appeared on the screen early.

"0:00, China Merchants Bank remits 7,589,020 yuan."

"Sign in!"

【 Ding! Congratulations, for getting the Eagle Country Royal Hotel. 】

See here...

There was a strange look on Omi's face. He was just about to go to Eagle Country, so he won the Eagle Country hotel?

Omi asked: "Xiaobai~ ~Do you know the Eagle Country Royal Hotel?"

"The Eagle Country Royal Hotel was built in 2002. After 8 years of establishment, it cost 3 billion Eagle Yuan to build. Because of its tall and luxurious appearance, it has become a super luxury hotel in one of the landmark buildings of Eagle Country. "Xiao Bai said in a very clear voice.

Omiyan heard that the weird look on his face became even worse.

It's a coincidence that this hotel is in Yingguolun City?

"Jingle Bell!"

At this moment, there was a brisk sound from the cell phone in his pocket.

He glanced at the call reminder, but it was an unfamiliar number from abroad.

If you are an ordinary person, you suddenly see an unfamiliar foreign call.

The first reaction is to directly choose to hang up.

However, Omi has already had many experience of answering unfamiliar foreign numbers.

Therefore, instead of hanging up, I simply pressed the answer button.

"Hello, is it Mr. Lin?" There was a very gentle and respectful voice on the phone.

Omi said: "It's me, are you?"

"Hello, Mr. Lin, this is Smith Jack, chairman of Eagle Country Royal Hotel, did you interrupt your rest?" The voice on the phone became more respectful.

Omi said, "No, I have already gotten up."

Jack Smith breathed a sigh of relief and said, "That's great..."

Not long ago, Jack Smith suddenly learned that the Eagle Country Royal Hotel had changed its owner.

Moreover, a Huaxia boss was changed.

This can make Smith Jack a bit awake and unable to fall asleep.

Therefore, when China time was 9:30 and Eagle Country time was only three or four, Jack Smith couldn't help but dial out.

He wants to talk to the new boss as soon as possible to establish a relationship.

otherwise...

He worried that after so many years of hard work, he finally became the chairman of Eagle Country Royal Hotel.

Maybe it won't be long before it's gone.

Jack Smith said: "Mr. Lin, I will report to you the situation of the hotel in the first half of the year and the plan for the next year. I wonder if you are free?"

Omi said directly: "Forget it now, today I will fly to Eagle Country..."

When Smith Jack heard this, his figure became serious and he said hurriedly: "Yes, I will prepare the reception work for you!"

"Okay, that's it." Omi said, "By the way, aren't you from Eagle Country? Why are Huaxia speaking so fluently?"

Jack Smith said: "Because there are more people from all over the world who come to visit our Eagle Country, I used to receive tourists from various countries, so I went to learn Chinese, Island, Russian, Spoken, German, etc. voice."

Omi Huanran said: "Not bad."

Although, it's just a simple two-word compliment.

But, in Smith Jack's ears, it was like a ding-dong of spring water. It sounded so good that his entire face was filled with a smile.

After breakfast, Omi brought his ID card, passport and other documents, and drove Cullinan forward.

Before long, he rang the doorbell.

"Ding Dong!"

The door opened slowly.

Chu Yunyue appeared in front of her with a pretty and feminine face.

The two have not seen each other for a while.

There is no need to say anything when we meet at this time, just like a magnet, embracing and attracting each other directly.

The sun keeps rising, the trees sway gently...

About three hours later, Omi and Chu Yunyue both changed their suits and walked out of the room.

When the two of them first sat on Cullinan, the mobile phone in Chu Yunyue's pocket rang a brisk ring.

"I'm on my way..."

Chu Yunyue simply said a few words and hung up the phone.

Then, she looked at Cullinan's interior with a curious look, and said: "It is indeed Cullinan. Regardless of material, comfort, and power, it is all top-notch..."

"There is also a lot of space in the back row, and I'm afraid it's fine to lie down and sleep."

Omi said, "Really? Then sleep here next time?"

Chu Yunyue seemed to have thought of something, and her pretty face was blushing.

While driving and chatting, I arrived at the airport after a while.

In the distance, a Guazilian woman in a dress couldn't help beckoning and shouting: "Chu Dong, Mr. Lin, we are here!"

Chu Yunyue and Omi walked forward together.

A group of people began to speak, "Hello, Dong Chu, and good Mr. Lin."

Obviously, these people are all employees of Huazhidi.

When Chu Yunyue and Omi were alone, they were like a little girl who didn't understand anything.

However, in front of the company's employees, it is like a cold-hearted president, extremely stern and imposing.

The Guazilian woman asked, "Chu Dong, I don't know which plane we are taking to the Eagle Country?"

Yesterday, she originally wanted to order a plane ticket, but suddenly she received a call from Chu Yunyue, saying that the plane ticket was already ready, and she could go directly to the airport tomorrow.

However, Chu Yunyue did not say which plane it was.

Chu Yunyue did not answer her, but instead set his gaze on Omi.

Because she didn't know which plane it was.

Yesterday, Omi only said that he would arrange the plane.

Omi said, "The plane should be in front, let's go."

Everyone didn't ask much, and followed Omi to move forward.

When arriving in front of Xia Guo Airlines, three beautiful flight attendants all bent over and said, "Hello, Mr. Lin."

The stewardess standing in the front smiled and said, "Mr. Lin, should I be boarding the plane now or in the VIP lounge, and take a break?"

Omi turned to ask, "Yunyue, do you want to take a break and eat something?"

Chu Yunyue shook her head and said, "It's better to go directly to the plane. There should be food on the plane."

Omi nodded and said, "Okay, then go directly to the plane."

As a result, the three flight attendants led Omi and others to verify passports and identity documents.

Then, strolled through the green passage, took a Mercedes-Benz bus, and went straight to the airport.

See here...

Several people could not help but talk in a low voice.

"Have you noticed? It seems we didn't collect and check the tickets?"

"Hey, it seems so!"

"Then how did we get in?"

"The shuttle buses at the airport used to be all battery cars, right? Why did we change to Big Ben today?"

Amidst everyone's discussion, the Mercedes-Benz bus stopped firmly in front of a luxury passenger plane.

Omi and the others just got off the Mercedes-Benz bus... A group of beautiful stewardesses with tall statures, exquisite features, and all facial values above 85 points stood in front of them. They stood in two rows and bent over together and said, "Hello, Mr. Lin."

This scene...

All the staff of Huazhidi, as well as Chu Yunyue, were a little startled.

This kind of scene, let alone the reality... It is in the TV series, UU reading has never seen it.

Then, everyone couldn't help but cast their gazes on Omi.

Omi touched his itchy nose and said, "Go, let's get on the plane."

After speaking, he directly took Chu Yunyue's slender jade hand and passed between the two rows of beautiful flight attendants.

this moment...

Chu Yunyue suddenly had a strange feeling, as if... as if she was wearing a snow-white wedding dress, under the witness of relatives and friends, holding hands with Omi, and walking to the podium.

Thinking of this, Chu Yunyue, who had always been indifferent and calm, had a red glow on her pretty face.

Omi asked, "You seem to be sweating, are you a little hot?"

Chu Yunyue squatted and said, "Yes...yes."

Omi said, "Then go quickly, and you'll be fine on the plane."

"Hmm!" Chu Yunyue nodded vigorously.

When everyone got on the plane, they saw...there was no one inside, and it looked very spacious.

The crowd just sat down, and the beautiful stewardesses who had stood in two rows walked over.

The flight attendant walking in the front smiled and asked, "Mr. Lin, are all the guests coming up?"

Omi did not answer, but looked at Chu Yunyue.

Chu Yunyue glanced at the people on the plane, and then said: "All are here."

The stewardess said: "Then I will ask the captain to contact the tower and prepare to go to Yingguolun City?"

"Yes." Omi said.

"Okay." The stewardess said.

Boom!"

Following the tremor of the luxury airliner, it slammed into the sky.

After a while, he passed through the overlapping clouds and reached the blue sky.

After the plane was stable, a beautiful stewardess walked over with a smile while pushing the small dining table.

The Guazilian woman asked, "What can I eat?"

"Australian lobster, breaded crab, premium wagyu, natural greens, premium abalone..." said the beautiful stewardess.

The Guazilian woman was a little confused when she heard the names of these dishes.

After a while, the Guazilian woman said, "Then...then I'll have a lobster and wagyu..."

She did not dare to say that it was Australian lobster, the best wagyu.

Because she felt that she might have been hearing hallucinations just now.

If the Australian lobster is mentioned, the premium Wagyu might make a joke.

The beautiful stewardess smiled and said, "Okay."

While talking, she put the elbow-long Australian lobster and the top-quality wagyu beef like snowflakes in front of the woman with the face of Guazi.

See here...

The Guazi face woman was completely stunned.

real!

This is really Australian lobster, top wagyu!

I didn't hear any hallucinations just now!

But what is going on?

At this time, the beautiful stewardess said again: "Do you need anything to drink?"

"We are preparing to have 2003 Lafite, Feitian Moutai, Louis XIII, Hennessy, natural juice, high-end coffee, high-protein milk, high-end yogurt, etc."

Guazilian woman said: "I...I want red wine."

The beautiful stewardess said: "Okay."

While talking, she took out a bottle of 2003 Lafite and poured it into a high-heeled glass carefully.

Then, he handed it to the woman with Guazi face.

Lafite!

It really is Lafite!

The Guazilian woman was stunned again.

In fact...

Those who were stunned were not only her, but also the staff of Huazhidi who were also on the plane.

They can be said to be the middle and high-level staff of Huazhidi Company. Perhaps, some people have never been abroad.

However, they have all taken a plane!

On ordinary airplanes, some food is indeed prepared.

However, most of them are very cheap foods such as bread, sirloin, potato shreds and so on.

Now all of this... Let's not talk about food, the 2003 Lafite alone would cost hundreds or thousands of dollars, right?

After eating this meal, I'm afraid it will be more expensive than the ticket price, right?

Don't airlines make money?

At this moment, someone suddenly said, "It seems that there are only us on the plane, and no other passengers."

Everyone heard it and looked around, only to find that...there was really no one else, and they couldn't help but look at each other a little.

Omi turned around and said, "What are you doing in a daze? Eat."

The Guazi face woman opened her mouth, and finally couldn't help but express her doubts in her heart.

"Lin...Mr. Lin, are you not packing this plane?"

Omi said, "No."

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Omi continued: "I am a major shareholder of Xia Guo Airlines, and I don't need to charter a flight."

quiet.

The whole plane was silent.

The Guazilian woman, the staff of Huazhidi... even Chu Yunyue were all dumbfounded.

You know, Xia Guo Airlines is China's largest private airline!

Omi... turned out to be its major shareholder?!

No wonder, no wonder those beautiful flight attendants treat Omi so respectfully and serve so attentively...

If this is the case, everything will be explained.

Chu Yunyue asked, "When did you become a shareholder of Xia Guo Airlines?"

Omi said, "It's been a while."

He didn't explain too much, when and how much money was used.

Because this is obtained from the system red envelope, it is not easy to explain at all.

...

Another ordinary passenger plane flying to Eagle Nation is completely unlike Omi's special plane, which is loose and luxurious.

This passenger plane was full of people, and the air was mixed with unpleasant smells including body odor and foot odor.

For lunch, they may eat fries, burgers, or sirloin rice with tomatoes and other cheap foods.

A round-faced white man named Jonah Roger swallowed the last bite of the hamburger, wiped the oil stains on his face, and exclaimed, "I am finally arriving in Eagle Country!"

Next to Li Li, with heavy makeup, a flash of excitement flashed on her face.

Jonah Roger rolled his eyes slightly and said, "Li Li, your Huaxia streets are full of rubbish, all kinds of dirty and messy, after you get off the plane, you will understand what is called an international metropolis, spotless streets. Beautiful buildings..."

"Don't you want to go to the Eagle Country Royal Hotel to check in? It just so happened that our family had done business with the Eagle Country Royal Hotel before, and my dad is also a good brother with the owner of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel!"

"Before I got on the plane, I told my dad that he would arrange for someone from the Eagle Country Royal Hotel to come and pick us up."

When Jonah Roger said this, he couldn't help but raised his neck, looking like a tall, mysterious nobleman.

In fact?

What family did business with Eagle Country Royal Hotel?

What kind of brothers are my dad and the owner of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel?

It's all he lied.

He doesn't have any family at all, and his father is only familiar with a general manager of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel.

Jonah Roger did tell his dad... to stay at the Eagle Country Royal Hotel.

Because, in this case, you can get a little discount from that supervisor.

As for picking them up... that's normal, because the Eagle Country Royal Hotel already has airport pick-up services.

Jonah Roger quietly glanced at Li Li's exquisite figure.

He believes that after he said this, Li Li must have admired him, and when he took her to the Eagle Country Royal Hotel, he would definitely be able to get her.

I have to say that Jonah Roger's control over Li Li's psychology is still very good.

Li Li is very interested in foreigners.

At this time, she heard Jonah Roger say that his family can do business with Eagle Country Royal Hotel!

And Jonah Roger's father is also a good brother to the father of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel!

In Li Li's heart, he was already imagining the huge family power of Jonah Roger...

Gradually, Jonah Roger himself began to grow taller and more stalwart in her mind, making Li Li staring in a daze, and a face covered with foundation began to show a hint of redness.

I...may have a chance to join a foreign giant!

"Boom!"

At this time, the passenger plane shook violently.

At the same time, a brisk voice rang out in the airplane broadcast.

"Dear passenger, hello, there is a strong air current ahead, please don't panic, fasten your seat belt..."

The passenger plane vibrated for about 5 minutes, and finally became calm again.

When the plane went on for 2 hours, the broadcast sounded again.

"Dear passengers, hello, the plane is about to land in Yingguolun City. It is 14:10 in the city and the temperature is 23 degrees...Please don't leave your seats and fasten your seat belts. The plane is about to fall."

PS: Welcome to read my other book " " .

"Boom!"

With a burst of deceleration and turbulence, the airliner finally stopped.

The first time Li Li stepped off the plane, she took a strong breath and exclaimed: "As expected of the Eagle Country, the air is so fresh and sweet!"

Then, she looked into the distance for a circle, then took out her mobile phone and posted a dynamic on the forced call.

[On the impact of the environment on a person, how much. I was in London and just got off the plane.

The buildings in Lun City have a strong European and American style and a heavy sense of history. As long as they come here, even Huaxia people can't help but demand themselves with higher standards, improve their quality, and make themselves a polite gentleman and elegant lady...

Let me say so much first. My foreign friend Dad and the owner of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel are friends. He has arranged for someone from the Eagle Country Royal Hotel to come and pick us up.  】

Li Li's fingers flew, and in just one minute, she wrote an article of hundreds of words.

After putting down the phone, her eyes quickly noticed a prominent banner not far away-Welcome to Lun City, Eagle Country Royal Hotel.

Around the banner, stood many men in suits and leather shoes, and graceful women.

There were several Rolls Royces parked behind them, and even a helicopter!

See here...

Li Li excitedly said, "Jonah Roger, is that the one to pick us up?"

In fact, Jonah Roger also noticed the banner and the group of people.

He had some doubts before, whether this was the person who picked him up.

It's really... this formation seems a bit too big.

However, seeing Li Li's excitement, Jonah Roger straightened his chest and said: "Of course it is to pick us up! My dad is a good brother of the owner of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel!"

What he thought in his heart was that he spent so much money living in the Eagle Country Royal Hotel and using a big battle to pick himself up, that was normal.

Li Li heard this, with a smile on her face, and followed Jonah Roger to the banner.

"Is it from the Eagle Country Royal Hotel?" Jonah Roger asked.

Smith Jack, chairman of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel, who stood at the front, frowned slightly.

He is now focusing on waiting for the boss Omi, not wanting to be disturbed, so as not to miss Omi.

The general manager Edward Mullen next to him said: "We are from the Eagle Country Royal Hotel. Sir, what can I do for you?"

Jonah Roger raised his neck and said: "Yes, I have already booked a room. By the way, my dad is also a good brother with your owner of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel."

He said this without any pressure at all.

Because Jonah Roger didn't believe it, just a small matter would be reported.

Originally, Chairman Smith Jack didn't want to pay attention to Jonah Roger at all.

But after hearing this, my heart jumped and respectfully said: "Hello, I am Jack Smith, what do you call it?"

Jonah Roger saw that as he expected, the other party could not tell the authenticity of himself.

Moreover, he respects himself so much.

He quietly glanced at the side, admiring Li Li more and more, and said proudly: "I'm Jonah Roger."

When Chairman Smith Jack was about to say something more, his expression suddenly froze, and he said solemnly: "Everyone, line up, get ready for the welcome ceremony!"

As he spoke, he hurried forward to meet him.

Because he saw the boss... Omi!

Omi, Chu Yunyue, and the staff of Huazhidi slowly walked off the luxury plane under the gracious delivery from the beautiful stewardess.

"Welcome Mr. Lin to Yingguolun City!" Chairman Smith Jack exclaimed respectfully.

Immediately after him, a group of men in suits and leather shoes and a graceful woman shouted in unison: "Welcome Mr. Lin to Yingguolun City!"

Chu Yunyue and the staff of Huazhidi looked a little startled.

They unanimously turned their eyes on Omi.

Omi didn't have much discomfort, and said, "You are Jack Smith, right?"

Chairman Smith Jack standing at the forefront said: "Yes, Mr. Lin, we have prepared transportation for you. Would you like to go to the Eagle Country Royal Hotel for a break now?"

“Good.” Omi nodded.

Jack Smith respectfully said: “Mr. Lin, please...”

Therefore, Omi, Chu Yunyue, and Huazhidi employees, surrounded by a large group of foreigners, came to the helicopter.

At this time, Smith Jack seemed to have thought of something and said: “By the way, Mr. Lin, your brother’s son seems to be here, do you want to take him with him?”

Omi wondered: “My good brother’s son?”

There are not many of his good brothers.

Even if you give birth to a son, you might just be able to walk now, right?

Is this coming to Eagle Country?

Smith Jack pointed to a white-skinned Jonah Roger and said, “Yes, he just arrived.”

Omi looked up and down at Jonah Roger and said, “I don’t have such a big white nephew.”

After speaking, he turned and walked into the helicopter.

Jack Smith is a clever man. At this time, he still doesn’t understand that the son of a good boss is a deceit!

After he glared at George Roger, he also boarded the helicopter.

“Boom!”

With the roar of the helicopter, the propellers spun rapidly, forming a hurricane, and then rushed towards the sky.

The Rolls-Royce caravan parked next to it, constantly galloping in the direction of the helicopter on the ground.

The high-altitude helicopters and the Rolls-Royce fleet on the ground are all just for welcoming Omi~ ~ This is not luxurious.

The luxury plane is too fast and is located above the white clouds, so you can’t see the scenery of Lun City at all.

The helicopter’s speed is relatively slow, and the flying height is relatively low, just so that Omi and others can enjoy the beautiful scenery of Lun City.

They looked at the buildings full of European style, and their faces were full of curiosity.

“That seems to be Lun Dun’s eye!”

“Is that it? It seems...similar to our domestic Ferris wheel.”

“That’s Lun City Tower Bridge!”

“This... seems to be okay...”

“Is there a safety tower?”

“It seems to be more general.”

Everyone sent out comments from time to time.

They saw these buildings, although they were a bit , but they didn’t have too many surprises.

When Omi and the others got on the helicopter and looked down on the city of Lun, Li Li and Jonah Roger were standing on the ground. The gust of wind caused by the helicopter made their clothes and hair rattle, and the dust choked on the ground. They kept coughing.

After the helicopter was completely lifted off, the two men slowed down.

Li Li said, “Jonah Roger, didn’t you say that they were here to pick you up?”

“This...” Jonah Roger said awkwardly.

“Didn’t you say that your father and the owner of the Eagle Country Royal Hotel are good brothers?” Li Li shouted.

“This...” Jonah Roger didn’t know how to answer.

“You liar!” Li Li shouted.

After speaking, he turned around and left.

Naturally, Omi and others didn’t know about Li Li and Jonah Roger.

They were on the helicopter, overlooking all the way.

In about ten minutes, the helicopter slowed down slowly...

Finally, I landed on a tall tarmac...Here, it is the Royal Eagle Country Hotel!

“laugh!”

When Omi, Chu Yunyue, and Hua Zhidi employees stepped off the helicopter, two rows of delicate and graceful white beauties said in unison: “Welcome to Mr. Lin!”

This scene surprised Chu Yunyue and the staff of Huazhidi again.

Then, everyone’s luggage was sent to the luxurious suite on the top floor by the white beauty.

Omi, Chu Yunyue and others, under the personal guidance of Chairman Smith Jack, came to the VIP box.

At this time, on the VIP box table, top-quality foie gras, cheese snails, premium steaks, white truffle bagels, gold foil sundaes, caviar chocolate pudding, etc., are already placed on the table, many of which are exquisite in shape and rich in fragrance.

After seeing the Huazhidi employees, they couldn’t move their eyes directly.

In fact, not only them, but Chu Yunyue was also attracted.

Omi said: “Everyone has been on the plane for so long, should they be a little hungry or tired? Eat quickly.”

Generally speaking, flying is indeed hungry and tired.

However, this time I took a luxury special plane. The plane has the best food and the best service. Where can I be hungry and tired?

However, at this moment, when they saw these exquisite foods, they still inevitably picked up knives, forks, and chopsticks, and slowly began to eat.

Soon, their stomachs became a little round and straight, even if it was delicious food, they couldn’t eat it at all.

Chu Yunyue wiped the corners of her mouth with her napkin, and couldn’t help asking: “Omi, are you also a major shareholder of this hotel?”

All employees of Huazhidi raised their ears after hearing it.

Obviously, they also have this suspicion.

This is also normal.

In fact, the welcome of Eagle Country Royal Hotel is too big and the service is too attentive.

Omi shook his head and said, "That's not it."

Everyone was slightly relieved.

Fortunately, fortunately... Not a major shareholder of Eagle Country Royal Hotel.

They have just quietly searched the Internet, this Royal Eagle Country Hotel, a landmark building in London, is one of the most luxurious hotels in London, and its construction cost is more than billions of dollars!

Their little hearts can no longer stand the toss.

At this time, Omi continued: "I am the owner of this hotel."

quiet!

The whole box is silent!

The Guazilian woman, the staff of Huazhidi, and Chu Yunyue were all stunned.

Not a major shareholder, but the boss!

Listen!

Listen!

Is this human?

In the past, many employees of Huazhidi felt that Omi just provided some perfume and beauty liquid technology, and he became the largest shareholder of Huazhidi, which was simply too lucky.

They guessed... I'm afraid that Omi would be happily unable to sleep every day.

Now it seems... Omi may not care about Huazhidi's shares at all.

Omi ignored the stunned people and asked, "Yunyue, are you full? Do you want to go to the room to rest?"

Chu Yunyue said: "I'm not too tired now, let's go to the booth and have a look."

She is not a person who likes to relax and hates to work, and can even be said to be a strong woman and a workaholic.

Otherwise, she would not have been able to build on the famous Huazhidi brand of China by her own efforts.

Omi said, "Okay, I'll go with you."

Then the two of them walked outside, shoulder to shoulder.

A Rolls-Royce was already waiting at the door, which was specially arranged by Chairman Smith Jack so that Omi could travel in Eagle Country.

The driver is a white man who is proficient in Chinese and English, and communicates effortlessly. At the same time, he has very good driving skills.

Omi expressed his satisfaction with this.

Before long, they arrived at the International Convention and Exhibition Center.

There is a huge LED display in front of the gate, which is playing different brands of perfume promotional videos in turn.

Obviously, this is the venue for the upcoming international perfume exhibition.

Since it is not time for the official exhibition, there are still some that are not ready.

Most people are not allowed to enter and leave casually.

However, as one of the participating companies, Chu Yunyue, as the chairman of Huazhidi, is naturally no longer among the 'ordinary people'.

When Omi and Chu Yunyue walked into the Convention and Exhibition Center, there was a burst of strong fragrance.

Obviously, many companies have brought in their own perfumes.

The two looked far away, and there were booths with different shapes.

After a while, they finally saw the Huazhidi booth.

Different from the previous booth in Jiangbei City, this time the Huazhidi booth is more youthful, vibrant and modern.

Two men and women wearing Huazhidi overalls are making adjustments and modifications to some small parts of the booth, very seriously.

As a result, they did not see the arrival of Chu Yunyue and Omi at all.

When a man turned around to adjust the other positions of the booth, he shouted in surprise: "Chu Dong, Mr. Lin!"

The other three people all stopped their work, turned around and respectfully said: "Chu Dong, Mr. Lin."

Chu Yunyue nodded and said, "You have worked hard, the booth is doing very well!"

The four people heard the words, and all of them showed a touch of joy.

"Thank you Chu Dong for the compliment."

"this is what we are supposed to do."

.....

Then ~ ~Chu Yunyue made detailed exchanges and reminders on certain places and matters needing attention during the exhibition.

When Omi and Chu Yunyue left the exhibition center, it was already two hours later.

At this time, the sky was already dark.

After a day's flight, and then went to the Convention and Exhibition Center non-stop to check the booth situation, all of these... all made Chu Yunyue very tired.

However, Chu Yunyue had some bed recognition, as long as she was on a business trip, even if she was tired, she couldn't sleep at all.

Generally, people who recognize beds are instinctively wary of unfamiliar environments.

But today, Chu Yunyue quickly fell asleep.

Because today... she has Omi.

.....

The next day, it was bright.

Omi slowly opened his eyes, and there was no one beside him.

He habitually picks up the phone.

A text message, as usual, appeared on the screen.

“0:00, China Merchants Bank remits 7,891,030 yuan.”

Since there were a lot of walking yesterday, the fund income was also higher than usual.

Of course, Omi didn't care about this little money at all.

Then, he turned his attention to the sign-in system.

I murmured in my heart: It's the first time to sign in abroad, and see what you can get.

“Sign in!”

【Ding! Congratulations, for acquiring 10% shares of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation. 】

PS: Welcome to read my other book ” “.

Eagle National Petroleum Corporation?

Omi didn't understand Eagle Country's company at all.

So he asked: “Xiao Bai, help me look up the situation of Eagle National Petroleum Company.”

The super smart watch on Omi's wrist flickered slightly and made a clear and pleasant sound.

“Eagle National Petroleum Corporation is a long-term top three company in Eagle Country and a top 100 company in the world. It has a current market value of 1,050 billion yuan. Chairman Jules Grant, the largest shareholder accounts for 14.1%, and the owner accounts for 10%. It is the second shareholder. ...”

When Omi heard this, he couldn't help but touch his nose.

Eagle Country's long-term top three companies?

The current market value is 1,050 billion.

I own 10% of the shares, that is to say, I signed in today to get 100 billion?

not bad!

Then, Omi slowly got up from the bed.

When he came to the living room of the suite, he saw Chu Yunyue in front of the computer, working hard.

“Ding Dong!”

At this time, a crisp bell rang outside.

Chu Yunyue couldn't help but slowly raised her head, as if she was about to get up and open the door.

Omi said: “Let me come.”

While talking, he directly opened the door.

Two waiters were standing in the corridor pushing a trolley, smiling and saying: “Hello, Mr. Lin, this is your breakfast.”

Omi nodded and said, “Okay, please come in.”

Then, a very delicate and fragrant breakfast was put on the table.

After the waiter left, Chu Yunyue said, “When did you get up?”

“It's only a while.” Omi said, “This breakfast looks pretty good, come and try it.”

“Okay.” Chu Yunyue replied.

As Omi said, the breakfast was really good.

White truffle slices, Saint Denis ham, new beans, high-end bread...

The high-end ingredients, coupled with the superb cooking techniques, directly make the food taste like a volcano and completely burst in the mouth.

Omi and Chu Yunyue were very satisfied with their food.

Omi picked up the black tea and asked, “Yunyue, do you want to try imported black tea?”

Although, Chu Yunyue was a little puzzled.

Can I separate imported black tea from abroad?

However, she still replied: “Okay.”

So Omi took a sip first, and then moved towards Chu Yunyue.

“Guru!”

.....

In a blink of an eye, it was two hours.

Chu Yunyue changed her clothes, returned to the living room, and continued to work hard.

No way, the international perfume exhibition will be held tomorrow.

She must prepare all the work.

Omi did not disturb Chu Yunyue's work. At the same time, this was his first time abroad.

Therefore, he chose to go out and stroll around.

Walking on the straight sidewalk, surrounded by houses made of steel and cement.

If it were not for the different skin colors of the people on the road, Omi even thought he was just in a certain city in China.

Of course, Eagle Country and China are still different.

Most people in Huaxia work hard and are very diligent, so even if they walk on the street, they seem to be in a hurry.

As for the Eagles, everyone seems very leisurely.

In the dark alley, someone was shaking with a wine bottle, almost falling to the ground.

Someone took the violin and played and sang on the street.

Someone finds a place, just lie down...

Omi walked all the way and looked all the way, but it was also leisurely.

"Ding!"

At this moment, the phone in his pocket shook slightly.

12:00!

Red envelopes appear!

"Ding! Congratulations, you got 3 yuan."

"Ding! Congratulations, you got 1999 yuan."

.....

“Ding! Congratulations, you got 188 yuan.”

“Ding! Congratulations, get a Ferrari 812.”

.....

Omi kept clicking on the red envelopes and got a total of 45,211 yuan and a Ferrari 812.

Omi is also familiar with this car.

Because, in order to complete the task, he also bought one specially.

Before, Omi’s car couldn’t finish at all.

Therefore, the Ferrari 812 has been left ashes in the Panlong Villa.

Now that I have come to Eagle Country, I don’t have a car, but I can drive it.

So Omi looked around, looking for Ferrari 812.

Not far away, the white-skinned middle-aged woman whispered: “My son often says he wants a sports car, what should we do?”

“Based on our family’s situation, we can’t afford a sports car at all.”

The white-skinned middle-aged man said lightly: “Don’t worry, I’m already prepared. Isn’t it my son’s birthday today? I bought him a refrigerator to let him calm down!”

“laugh!”

At this time, a courier truck drove over from a distance and steadily stopped in front of them.

The courier said: “Is it Mr. Lauren?”

The middle-aged man said: “It’s me.”

“Your express has arrived.” The courier said.

While talking, he slowly took out a half-person tall box from the carriage.

The middle-aged man smiled and said, “Did you see it? It’s already here.”

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 356–360

As soon as the express car left, a young man with blond hair stepped over.

In the next moment, his eyes couldn't be moved directly.

Because, he found a brand new supercar parked on the side of the road, his favorite convertible supercar Ferrari 488!

The middle-aged man smiled and said, "Son, I have prepared a birthday present for you! Do you like it?"

birthday present? !

Is it this Ferrari 488?

It must be like this!

The young man said excitedly: "I like it, I like it so much! Dad, I know that you love me!"

Then, he didn't wait for the middle-aged man to answer, he could not wait to come to the Ferrari 488, gently stroked the body of the Ferrari 488 fashion line, through the hood, touched the soft interior... his face was slightly imaginary. ~ ~ is full of enjoyment.

At this time, a tall young woman came over and said in surprise: "Is this your car?"

"Yes! The birthday present my father prepared for me!" said the young man.

"Great! Don't you want me to be your girlfriend? I agree!" the young woman said.

"Okay! Hahaha!" the young man yelled happily, and then he hugged the young woman in his arms.

When they hugged each other, they didn't notice that a Chinese man came to the Ferrari 488, slowly opened the door of the car, and sat directly on it.

This person...is exactly Omi.

"boom!"

Omi naturally ignored the two people hugging each other, stepped on the accelerator and galloped away.

The young man seemed to hear the noise, and hurriedly let go of the young woman, staring wide-eyed and shouted: "Hey! My car! My car!"

He shouted while chasing.

But, where can the two legs catch up with the four wheels of the supercar?

The young man had no choice but to return and shouted: "Dad, call the police, call the police! The Ferrari 488 you gave me was stolen!"

The middle-aged man opened his mouth and said, "That...that's not my birthday gift for you. The real birthday gift is actually this refrigerator."

"What?" The young man stared directly.

The young woman next to her said: "So you don't have a sports car, then I'm not your girlfriend."

Omi had no idea about the misunderstanding between the young man and his father.

He drove a Ferrari 812, galloping on the streets of London.

Some people say that only those who have never seen the world in China will be attracted by those sports cars.

If it is placed abroad, a sports car is just an ordinary means of transportation, and no one will take a second look at it.

In fact?

Omi drove a Ferrari 812, galloping on the streets of Yingguolun City, wherever he went, many people were eye-catching and amazed.

Omi just went on a short day trip in Lun City.

...

In a blink of an eye, it was the next day.

Today, Chu Yunyue is wearing a white shirt on her upper body, black trousers on her lower body, and a pair of black high heels. She looks very capable.

Under the **** of Yingguo Royal Hotel's special car, Chu Yunyue, Omi, Guazilian woman, and the staff of Huazhidi soon came to the exhibition center.

Today's exhibition center is very lively.

Even at the door, you can easily smell the tangy fragrance, which is fascinating.

It seems... and it is precisely because of this that it attracts an endless stream of people, constantly pouring into it.

In front of many booths, a lot of people with different skins came to try, or inquire, or buy...

Except for the stem of the flower.

Seeing that the sky was getting darker, there was no one in front of Huazhidi's booth to ask questions from beginning to end.

Chu Yunyue and all the employees couldn't help but secretly anxious.

Although, Huazhidi is very popular in China.

However, there is no reputation abroad.

Therefore, they also know that they probably won't receive much attention.

It can be said that Chu Yunyue and others have already had some psychological preparations.

However, the current situation is far beyond their psychological preparation.

At this time, a white man in a suit and leather shoes slowly walked over and smiled at Chu Yunyue: "Beautiful lady, hello, my name is Brewerbid. I don't know what a beautiful lady is called?"

Chu Yunyue replied politely: "My name is Chu Yunyue."

When Brewerbid heard this, his eyes lit up slightly, and he admired: The voice is very good.

In addition, according to this method of naming, she should be a Chinese.

Brewerbid had cares in his mind, but his face did not change, and continued: "I see your booth as if no one has been patronizing it all the time."

"How about it. Would you like to drink two glasses at night, let me tell you some ways?"

This Brewerbid is the staff member of the GR perfume booth diagonally across from the flower pedicle booth.

Since Chu Yunyue arrived at the booth, Brewerbid was immediately attracted.

Chu Yunyue has the same full body as the top beauties of the Eagle Country, and at the same time, she also has a delicate facial features that far surpass those of the top beauties of the Eagle Country.

Coupled with the unique exotic temperament.

In Brewerbid's eyes, Chu Yunyue is simply the most perfect woman in the world.

Therefore, as long as he is free, he will peek at Chu Yunyue.

And when today's exhibition was about to end, he couldn't wait to come over.

Brewerbid knows that many yellow-skinned people, especially Chinese, are very fond of foreigners.

Now, I have proposed a way to increase booth visitors.

He believed that Chu Yunyue would definitely agree to herself.

As long as we drink together, then I have a chance!

Brewerbid's heart has begun to cheer and jump for joy.

However...

Chu Yunyue said, "No need."

Naturally, Chu Yunyue was not a fool to start the huge Huazhidi Company.

At a glance, she saw some of the little things in Brewerbid's heart.

Then, Chu Yunyue stopped paying attention to Brewerbid, and said, "Today's exhibition is about to end. Please pack your things and prepare to go back to rest."

After speaking, she took Omi's arm and walked outside together.

See here...

Brewerbid's body stiffened slightly, and his entire face looked a little unpleasant.

...

In a blink of an eye, it was the next morning.

Although, the Huazhidi booth was frustrated yesterday.

But today, the mental state of Chu Yunyue, Guazilian woman, and Zhonghuazhidi employees are still very full.

They expect that today will be different.

However, things...sometimes go against one's wishes.

One morning has passed, and the Huazhidi booth is still unattended.

During the lunch break, Brewerbid came to Chu Yunyue again and said, "Beautiful Ms. Chu, do you really want to have more guests in the booth?"

"By the way, I forgot to tell you that my uncle is Alan Peter, the director of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation. I think...you should understand...I have the ability to make your booth more guests?"

"Otherwise, have a meal together at noon and discuss it carefully?"

Although, yesterday Brewerbid saw that Chu Yunyue seemed to have a boyfriend.

However, this is nothing to him at all.

Don't say you already have a boyfriend, even if you are married... then there is no problem.

After Brewbed finished speaking, he couldn't help but straighten his chest and made a gesture that he thought was handsome.

When he wanted to come, Chu Yunyue saw how handsome she was, and then heard that she had an uncle who is the director of Yingguo Petroleum Company, and she was sure to be impressed by her charm immediately.

However...

As a result, it was still different from what he thought.

Chu Yunyue said: "My boyfriend and I are going out for dinner, UU reading don't get in the way!"

She is an entrepreneur, and at the same time, she can also be said to be a businessman.

Businessmen, follow and do not easily engage in evil with others.

Therefore, even the disgusting person should be relatively tactful and polite on the surface.

But Chu Yunyue... had no euphemism at all for Brewerbid, who was suspected of having a big background.

After speaking, Chu Yunyue once again took Omi's arm and walked outside.

Seeing this, Brewerbid's mouth twitched slightly, and his face became a little ugly.

Omi looked at Brewerbid with a slightly weird expression. There is an uncle of Eagle National Oil Company director?

interesting.

When Omi and Chu Yunyue had just finished their lunch and returned to the Convention and Exhibition Center, the mobile phones in their pockets rang briskly.

He glanced at the call alert, it was an unfamiliar number.

Omi didn't hesitate too much, and directly pressed the answer button.

Soon, a slightly dull, and somewhat crappy Chinese language sounded inside.

"Mr. Lin, hello."

Omi said, "Hello, who are you?"

Then, on the phone... it was replaced by a very clear and sweet voice.

"Hello, Mr. Lin, I am an interpreter for Eagle National Petroleum Corporation Chairman Jules Grant. The person who spoke with you just now is Chairman Jules Grant. He asked me to convey his greetings to you again. "

Omi has answered similar calls several times.

so...

This time, he was not too surprised, and said calmly: "Mr. Jules Grant, so are you."

Then, there was a fluent English conversation on the phone.

Although, Omi heard all these English conversations clearly.

However, he didn't break it either.

At this time, the interpreter said again: "Mr. Jules Grant said, thank you Mr. Lin for his trust in Eagle National Petroleum Corporation and become our company's second largest shareholder..."

Generally speaking, the tone of the translator should always be consistent.

However, when she said this sentence, there was obviously a slight change.

To know...

Eagle National Petroleum Corporation...but a super company with a market value of more than one trillion yuan.

And the man on the opposite side became the second largest shareholder in one fell swoop!

Big shot, this is definitely a big shot!

After a pause, the interpreter continued: "Mr. Lin, I don't know where you are now. Would it be convenient to make an appointment?"

Omidao: "I'm in Eagle Country now. As for the appointment...I'm at the Lun City Convention and Exhibition Center to participate in the International Perfume Exhibition. I'm afraid I don't have much time for the time being."

The voice on the phone was interrupted.

Obviously, Omi's answer surprised Jules Grant very much.

After a while, the interpreter said, "It turns out that Mr. Lin is in London, that's great! I'll come to visit him personally later."

Omi talked for a while, then hung up the phone.

As the translator just said, Jules Grant is indeed going to come to visit.

However, he just got in the car, and the phone in his pocket rang a brisk ring.

He glanced at the call reminder, looked slightly solemn, hurriedly connected to the phone, and respectfully said: "Dear Queen Yibai, hello."

"Queen?"

Jules Grant called twice, but no one responded on the phone.

When he didn't know what to do, a slightly hoarse voice finally rang on the phone.

"Huh? I seem to dial out by accident?"

"Little Grant, how are you!"

Little Grant?

You know, Jules Grant is 61 years old!

Plus... his status as the chairman of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation, how many people in this world can call him Little Grant?

Queen Yibai is obviously among these people!

Because she is the Queen of Eagle Country, and her age... is as high as 91 years old!

Jules Grant said hurriedly: "Queen Ibai is good."

"Your oil company...how is the situation lately?" Queen Yibai asked.

"Recently, the development has been stable and the overall situation is improving." Jules Grant said.

Queen Yibai nodded and said, "That's not bad...Today is a working day, are you still busy at the company?"

Jules Grant said truthfully: "I'm on my way to the convention center."

"Convention Center?" Queen Yibai wondered.

"Yes, because today there seems to be an international perfume exhibition, and the second shareholder of our company is exhibiting there." Jules Grant said.

"Perfume!" Queen Yibai sighed.

Then, she seemed to fall asleep.

For a long time, there was no more sound on the phone.

Jules Grant didn't dare to bother, just silently holding the phone.

At this time, Queen Yibai spoke again: "It's a really nostalgic day."

"Little Grant, let me go to the perfume fair with you."

"Huh?" Jules Grant was stunned for a moment, he didn't expect the queen to make such a request.

Queen Yibai didn't give him much time to react, and said: "Just so, you come to the palace first."

After hanging up, Queen Yibai made two more calls.

Immediately afterwards, the luxury convoy, the escort, etc., all moved quickly.

The queen is noble and must demonstrate the royal majesty and ensure safety!

The movement in the palace was quickly noticed by a little girl with pale skin and thin body.

When the little girl came to the main hall, Queen Yibai asked: "My lovely little Ruili, why are you here? How are you feeling?"

The little girl was named Yibai Ruili, the 15th great-granddaughter of Queen Yibai.

At the same time, she is also Queen Yibai's most beloved great-granddaughter.

It is a pity that not long after Yibai Ruili was born, she suddenly suffered from a very strange illness, loss of appetite, frequent vomiting, fainting...

The doctors have performed various examinations, but they are still unable to determine the symptoms...

Yibai Ruili said: "Ruili feels that her body is already very good."

"Okay, it's fine if Xiao Ruili's body is fine." Queen Yibai smiled kindly.

"You seem to have been sleeping late recently, so you should also pay attention to your body." Yibai Ruili said.

Queen Yibai said happily: "Okay! My little Ruili is so good, she already knows to care about me!"

Old and young, chatting in the main hall, the topic is very relaxed, and there is a burst of laughter from time to time.

At this time, Yibai Ruili finally said: "I heard that you seem to be going to the exhibition center ...to participate in the perfume exhibition, can you take me with me?"

When Yibai Ruili said this, a pair of big eyes flickered faintly.

Obviously, she is looking forward to it very much.

Queen Yibai opened her mouth, but did not agree to it in the first place.

Because she knew that Yibai Ruili's physical condition was actually very bad.

Even some doctors say that accidents may occur at any time.

With this physical condition, go to the perfume exhibition...there are many people with mixed eyes, UU reading in case...

Intellectually, Queen Yibai didn't want her great-granddaughter to go to the perfume exhibition site.

However, she looked at Yibai Ruili's expectant eyes, and her heart felt soft.

Since learning that Yibai Ruili had a strange and serious illness, she has stayed in the palace almost every day, like a canary in a cage, very pitiful.

Perfume, like flowers, has a charming charm.

The perfume exhibition, like a hundred flowers in full bloom, attracts all women.

Today, I happened to encounter a perfume exhibition...

If Yibai Ruili missed it, will she have another next time?

Thinking of this, Queen Yibai finally spoke: "Okay, then I will take Xiao Ruili to the perfume exhibition."

"Really?" Yibrili exclaimed excitedly.

When Queen Yibai saw her so happy, she also showed a smile and said, "Of course it's true."

"Great!" Yibai Ruili couldn't help but hugged Queen Yibai's arm.

"Tatata!"

At this time, a brisk footstep sounded outside.

Soon, a middle-aged man wearing the clothes of a European nobleman walked in slowly.

He bent down slightly, and said in a very respectful tone: "Dear Queen, Mr. Jules Grant, please."

PS: There is something today, there is only one update, sorry.

Welcome to read my book " " .

The Eagle Congress Exhibition Center in the afternoon was as lively as the morning.

As for the Huazhidi booth, just like the morning, no one cares about it at all.

Although, Chu Yunyue had very clearly rejected Brewerbid twice in a row.

However, after having some free time, he still came to Chu Yunyue.

“Beautiful Ms. Chu, it seems that your booth is still not being patronized. How about having a few drinks together in the evening and discussing it?”

“Yesterday, I may not have expressed it clearly. In fact, it will not be long before I will join Eagle National Petroleum Company and become its management. Therefore, you can absolutely trust my strength.”

When he said this, he straightened his chest again.

Eagle Country Oil Company is definitely one of the best-paid companies in Eagle Country.

Yesterday, he was showing his background.

Now, he shows his future again.

He believed that Chu Yunyue would definitely be attracted by herself.

.....

The continuous harassment made Chu Yunyue completely disgusted.

She frowned and was just about to speak.

At this time, the already lively Convention and Exhibition Center suddenly became extremely noisy, and there was a burst of exclamation from time to time.

“Queen, Queen Yibai is here!”

“Queen Yibai has come to the Convention and Exhibition Center to participate in the International Perfume Exhibition!”

“Oh my God!”

.....

As everyone said, Queen Yibai is indeed here!

At this time, Queen Yibai, Jules Grant, great-granddaughter Yibai Ruili, and a group of nobles were slowly moving forward in the exhibition center.

Queen Yibai did not change much on the surface, but she was full of nostalgia in her heart.

Yibrili seldom walks out of the palace due to physical reasons, and has never participated in a perfume exhibition.

At this time, she looked at the booths with different shapes, smelling the rich fragrance in the air, and the whole thin face was full of excitement.

At this time, Queen Yibai seemed to have thought of something, and said: "Little Grant, did you just say that your company's second shareholder?"

"His name is Omi, but I haven't seen him yet. If the queen wants to see him, I will let him come." Jules Grant said truthfully.

"Good." Queen Yibai nodded.

Even Queen Yibai cannot directly ignore Eagle Oil Company.

Jules Grant first dialed Omi's call, but unfortunately, no one answered it.

I just told the queen to find the second shareholder.

In a blink of an eye, he said that he couldn't find it again?

What would the queen think of herself?

Jules Grant was helpless and had to walk away quickly, since the phone could not get through.

Then, look for it yourself.

Jules Grant walked forward quickly and kept searching for Omi in the crowded crowd.

Fortunately, Jules Grant knew that Omi was a yellow-skinned Chinese, and he could be considered prominent among the many white-skinned and dark-skinned eagle countries.

Even so, Jules Grant also searched for nearly half an hour before he saw Huazhidi's booth and fixed his gaze on a tall, handsome yellow-skinned man.

"Mr. Lin!" Jules Grant exclaimed excitedly.

After screaming, he hurried to the Huazhidi booth.

Omi couldn't help turning around slowly when he heard someone calling himself.

Although, this is a strange foreigner with a beard.

However, Omi relied on his super memory to easily distinguish his identity from his voice.

Jules Grant just ran over, before he could continue speaking, Brewerbid, who was standing next to him, took the lead in a very respectful and excited tone, saying: "Good Mr. Grant."

Because, Brewerbid's uncle is the director of Eagle Oil Company, and he has always wanted to enter Eagle Oil Company.

Therefore, he pays more attention to the news and senior executives of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation than the average person.

Brewerbid didn't expect to meet the chairman of Eagle National Petroleum Company at the perfume exhibition today.

In his opinion, this is definitely a good opportunity of a lifetime.

If, I can leave a little impression in front of the chairman.

So, after some time, I successfully entered the Eagle National Petroleum Company, wouldn't it be possible to get promoted and make a fortune immediately?

Thinking of this, Brewerbid was thrilled.

I don't know how many people will say hello to Jules Grant every day.

Generally, Jules Grant just nodded in response.

Or, just pretend not to hear.

Because if you all respond one by one, it will be too tiring.

However, Jules Grant saw Brewerbid standing with Omi and thought he was Omi's friend.

So, he nodded and said: "Hello, hello."

Say hello!

The chairman of Eagle National Petroleum Company greeted himself!

Although it was just a simple response.

But, listening to Brewerbid's ears, it was like the sound of heaven, and the whole person was overflowing with endless joy.

Jules Grant ignored Brewer Beater.

Instead, in a more respectful tone, he said to Omi in English: "Mr. Lin, you are here."

The translator next to him directly translated the words.

Omi said, "I am the majority shareholder of Huazhidi Perfume, of course I am here."

Jules Grant said suddenly: "That's it, by the way, our Queen Ibe wants to see you."

"Why did Queen Yibai see me?" Omi wondered~ ~ In fact, it wasn't just Omi who was confused, but Chu Yunyue and others next to her were also puzzled.

However, before Jules Grant could answer, there was another noise not far away.

"Queen Yibai is good!"

"I have seen Queen Yibai!"

Everyone looked in the direction of the sound.

I saw...

A large group of luxuriously dressed men and women are walking towards this side.

The person walking in the forefront, full of flowers and peaceful faces, is the Queen Yibai who often appears on TV and the news.

Queen Yibai waved her hand gently in response to the greetings of people around her.

When she turned her head, she happened to see Jules Grant standing in front of the flower pedicle booth, and couldn't help but walk slowly toward the front.

"Little Grant, are you here?" Queen Yibai said.

"Yes..." Jules Grant respectfully said, "This is Mr. Lin."

When Queen Yibai heard this, she couldn't help but glanced up and down at Omi, revealing an unexpected look on her kind face.

When Jules Grant introduced Omi's name, she had already guessed that the other party was a Chinese.

However, she did not expect Omi to be so young.

After a while, Queen Yibai said, "Mr. Lin, hello."

Omi responded: "Queen Yibai, hello."

When he said this, his eyes fell on Yibai Ruili who was standing next to Queen Yibai unintentionally, and his brows wrinkled slightly.

Looking, smelling, asking, and cutting are the diagnostic methods of Chinese medicine.

Some savvy Chinese medicine practitioners can judge a person's physical condition with just a glance.

Omi gained the experience of Sun Simiao, the king of medicine, and he naturally belongs to a skilled Chinese medicine practitioner.

At a glance, he could see that Yibai Ruili had a physical problem.

Moreover, the problem is still very big!

Queen Yibai saw that Omi had been staring at Yibai Ruili, and couldn't help asking: "Mr. Lin, this is my great-granddaughter Yibai Ruili, what's the matter?"

Even staring at an ordinary girl is not a very polite thing.

What's more, he is his great-granddaughter.

Omi said: "In one minute, maybe one minute or so, she will faint and be critically ill!"

Chu Yunyue, Guazilian woman, and the staff of Huazhidi...

Originally, they were also excited by the arrival of Queen Yibai.

However, after hearing Omi's words, everyone's bodies became stiff.

What does Omi mean?

You know, Queen Yibai has just said that Yibai Ruili is her great-granddaughter, the princess of Eagle Country!

As a result, Omi said that she had one minute to faint and was critically ill!

what is this?

Curse?

Cursing the princess of Eagle Country?

If Queen Yibai blames it...

The air at the scene became a little dull because of Omi's words.

"Patter!"

At this moment, Yibai Ruili, who was still looking around with curious eyes, suddenly rolled her eyelids and fell straight to the ground.

Queen Yibai's heart was tight, and she hurriedly said: "Doctor!"

The nobles nearby also yelled.

"The doctor is coming!"

"Princess Yibai fainted!"

...

The queen travels and follows the doctor with her.

He ran over quickly.

The doctor first rolled Yibai Ruili's eyelids, and then listened to heart sounds.

Then, he took out the syringe and shot Yibai Ruili Xuebai's arm.

Obviously, this doctor has a very deep understanding of Yibai Ruili's condition.

After finishing this, the doctor breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Your Royal Highness, I should wake up soon."

In the past, doctors have always treated Yibai Ruili in this way.

The effect is also very good.

However...

After his voice fell this time, Yibai Ruili suddenly started to vomit foam at the corner of her mouth, and her eyes kept turning upwards.

See here...

The doctor's heart tightened, and a layer of cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

He hurriedly bent over and began to give emergency treatment to Yibrili, but it was of no use at all.

Queen Yibai said anxiously: "Doctor, how is it?"

The doctor hurriedly said: "But...maybe the medicine is not enough, I will give the princess another injection."

After speaking, he took out a syringe again, and was about to continue injecting into Yibrili's arm.

At this time, Omi suddenly shouted: "Don't inject! Do you want her to die?"

Omi is not a Virgin.

But when he saw Yibai Ruili fell ill in front of him.

For some reason, Omi suddenly thought of the scene of his sister falling ill.

While talking, he overthrew the doctor to the ground.

The guards thought that Omi was a dangerous man, and he had to step forward to stop him.

At this time, Omi said again: "I can save her!"

Every sentence of Omi is synchronized by the translator.

When Queen Yibai heard this, she suddenly thought of what Omi said earlier.

"One minute, maybe one minute or so, she will faint and be critically ill!"

So, Queen Yibai hurriedly said: "Everyone, step back!"

Don't dare not follow the Queen's order!

The guards retreated one after another.

Suddenly, Queen Yibai, Jules Grant, Chu Yunyue... and everyone on the scene all focused their attention on Omi.

I saw...

Omi opened a bottle of flower pedicle perfume and placed it next to Yi Bai Ruili's Qiong nose.

After about half a minute, Yibai Ruili stopped foaming.

Obviously, her condition has been alleviated.

Omi thought for a while and spent 10 million yuan to purchase a bottle of medical water from the system and poured it into Yibrili's mouth.

In fact...

With Omi's current medical skills, even without the use of medical water, Ibrili can be completely cured.

However, if Omi took the treatment, it would be too troublesome to prescribe prescriptions, grab medicine, and so on.

And Omi hates trouble.

After the medical treatment, Yibai Ruili slowly opened her eyes soon.

Yibai Ruili saw herself lying on the ground, while Queen Yibai and everyone around them all looked at her, a little timidly said: "I... am I sick again?"

See here...

Jules Grant couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

When Omi pushed the doctor away, and then said that he could save Yibai Ruili, his whole heart could be said to be directly in his throat.

You know, Omi is the second shareholder of Eagle Oil Company.

At the same time, he introduced himself to Queen Yibai.

If something happens.

Then, I can never escape the relationship!

The consequences are absolutely terrible!

Queen Yibai said happily: "Okay, okay, it will be fine if Xiao Ruili wakes up!"

After a pause, he said, "Thank you, Mr. Lin, he is the one who saved you."

Yibai Ruili said timidly: "Thank you...Mr. Lin."

Omi said, "You're welcome."

Queen Yibai asked: "I don't know what Mr. Lin used to rescue my little Ruili?"

As she spoke, her somewhat muddy eyes fell on the flower pedicle perfume in Omi's hand.

Omi didn't hesitate, UU read and handed it over, saying, "A bottle of perfume."

Queen Yibai was taken aback for a moment.

A bottle of perfume?

Wake up your great-granddaughter with perfume?

With the doubt in her heart, Queen Yibai slowly took the perfume, put it on her nose and sniffed it lightly, and nodded slightly.

Although, it was far away just now.

However, Queen Yibai still smelled the scent when Omi opened the flower pedicle perfume bottle.

At this time, after smelling it again, he couldn't help but exclaimed: "It's a really good smell, with distinct layers. I like it very much."

After a pause, he said again: "Mr. Lin, I don't know... If Xiao Ruili gets sick in the future, can she just smell this perfume? Is there a way to cure her?"

When she said this, Queen Yibai had always seen Gu Jing Wubo's face with an obvious look of expectation.

She loves Yibai Ruili very much and feels very uncomfortable every time she sees her sick.

Unfortunately, no doctor can cure her.

Today, Queen Yibai saw a glimmer of hope.

Omi said calmly: "Don't worry, she won't get sick again in the future."

After Queen Yibai heard this, even her voice couldn't help becoming excited.

"Really? She is completely cured?"

Omi said: "Yes."

“That’s great!” Queen Yibai exclaimed excitedly.

As Queen Yibai spoke, she couldn’t help but cast her gaze on Yibai Ruili.

I saw...

Originally, Yibai Ruili, who was pale, now has a healthy ruddy color on her small face.

All right!

Yibai Ruili is really good!

Queen Yibai thought for a while and said, “Mr. Lin, don’t you know if you can buy a batch of this perfume?”

Her idea is simple.

It doesn’t matter if Yibrili is completely cured.

However, one thing is certain.

This perfume will definitely help Yibai Ruili’s condition.

Smelling perfume is more suitable than getting injections. Obviously, smelling perfume is more suitable!

In addition, Queen Yibai also likes the smell of flower base perfume very much.

When Chu Yunyue, the woman with Guazi face, and the staff of Huazhidi heard this, their faces all showed excitement that could not be concealed.

Finally, someone finally wants to purchase Huazhidi’s perfume.

and.....

This person is still the Queen of Eagle Country!

good news!

This is definitely great news!

Compared to the excitement of Chu Yunyue and the others, Omi seemed much calmer.

He said relaxedly: "Yes! The name of this perfume is called Flower Stalk. In fact, the Queen, you have only one of Flower Stalks. We have many different perfumes for Flower Stalks."

While talking, Omi put different kinds of perfumes on the table in turn.

Queen Yibai sniffed all the perfumes, nodded slowly and said: "The taste is very good. I purchase 100 bottles of each perfume."

Omi said: "Okay."

At this time, a lady whispered something in Queen Yibai's ear.

Queen Yibai gave a faint expression, and then said, "Mr. Lin, thank you for saving Xiao Ruili. Now there is something in the palace that needs to be dealt with. After two days, I will host a banquet and thank you very much."

"The queen is welcome." Omi said.

The two said a few more words, and Queen Yibai turned and left.

However, all the people who had been watching before, still focused their attention on the Huazhidi booth.

Jules Grant, chairman of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation, looked at Omi, full of admiration and envy.

"Mr. Lin, you are amazing! You even used perfume to wake up our Princess Ruili! In the future, your perfume will be famous all over the world!"

Omi said: "Famous around the world? That's probably difficult!"

Then, he pointed to Brewerbid, and said: "This uncle of Mr. Brewerbid, but Alan Peter, director of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation."

"And he himself is about to become the management of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation... He has repeatedly used these identities to ask my girlfriend to date him as a condition to help us attract customers. Woolen cloth."

The translator next to him quickly translated all Omi's words.

Use your identity to invite Mr. Lin's girlfriend on a date?

A nephew of a director, a man who is about to become management?

How dare you?

How dare he?

Not to mention, Omi is the second largest shareholder of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation.

The fact that Omi just saved Yibai Ruili is not something he can offend!

Jules Grant finally shouted: "What a courage! I tell you, if Alan Peter is really your uncle, he will be punished as he deserves. Besides, you don't want to enter Eagle Oil Company in your life! "

"Wow!"

Brewerbid's entire face was instantly whitened.

Eagle Country Oil Company is one of the best-paid companies in Eagle Country.

In order to be able to enter it, he did not know how much effort it took.

there's no more?

In addition, his uncle will be punished because of himself?

Uncle will kill himself.

Most definitely!

Thinking of this, Brewerbid yelled in horror: "No...no...Dong...Mr. Chairman, please, let me go..."

However, Jules Grant seemed to have not heard it, and didn't mean to pay any attention at all.

Then, Brewerbid pleaded to Omi again: "Mr. Lin, I'm sorry, I am shameless, I am despicable... Please, the adults don't remember the villain's fault, please..."

"Get out!" Omi spit out a word coldly.

Although, there is only one word.

But, also scared Brewerbid's heart trembled.

When he gritted his teeth and wanted to beg again, Jules Grant said directly: "Didn't you hear it? Mr. Lin told him to get out!"

The two black men with strong physique next to him, like two beasts, directly stepped forward and drove Brewerbid and headed out.

The whole world fell silent immediately.

Jules Grant apologized: "Mr. Lin, sorry, such an unpleasant thing happened..."

Omi said lightly: "Every company will have some moths, but it still needs more management."

"Yes...Mr. Lin rest assured, I will definitely demand more of the staff." Jules Grant said hurriedly.

Then, he continued: "I don't know if Mr. Lin is free now? I will give you a brief report on the situation of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation last year and the development direction of the next year... If you have other suggestions, You can also bring it up..."

Omi waved his hand and said, "No, I'm not interested in this. Professionals, do professional things... Everything is done in the direction you set."

Jules Grant was slightly relieved when he heard this.

Omi is too young ~ ~ but has too many shares in the company.

In case he arbitrarily directs certain strategies of the company, it is definitely a very troublesome thing.

According to the way Omi said, it couldn't be better.

Jules Grant thought this in his heart, but said: "Is that so? Okay... If you have any suggestions for the company in the future, you can always tell me."

When the two were chatting, Huazhidi's booth was already full of people.

"Hello, I want to order perfume."

"I want 100 bottles!"

"I want 200 bottles!"

.....

The sky is getting dark.

Chu Yunyue, Omi, and the staff of Huazhidi finally returned to Yingguo Royal Hotel.

Everyone was very busy this afternoon.

However, their faces were all filled with smiles.

Guazilian woman excitedly said: "Today, it can be compared with the popularity of our country!"

"Yeah! If it weren't for closing, those people wouldn't want to leave at all."
Another humanity said.

"Before, people said that foreigners are of good quality and never jump in the queue. In the afternoon, I saw several foreigners jump in the queue to buy our Huazhidi perfume." The man in the white shirt said.

Guazi face woman said: "Then did you stop it?"

"Of course!" said the shirt man, "I just let them queue up again, otherwise, I won't sell it to him!"

"Good job!" Guazi face woman cried.

Everyone in Huazhidi talked and laughed, and the atmosphere was extremely hot.

Even Chu Yunyue couldn't help but raise her mouth slightly.

It has always been Chu Yunyue's dream to make Huazhidi the world's top perfume brand.

What happened this afternoon made her a big step forward from this dream!

At this time, Chu Yunyue asked: "How many orders have we received in total?"

"108,900 bottles!" Guazi face woman said.

"Not bad!" Chu Yunyue nodded in satisfaction.

Then, she looked at Omi with a very curious look, and couldn't help asking: "Omi, why can the perfume of our flower pedicle heal the princess Yibrili?"

After saying this, everyone in Huazhidi pricked their ears.

Obviously, they are also very curious about this matter.

They had seen with their own eyes...Ibrili's pitiful appearance at the time.

His face was pale, fainted and foamed...

Even the doctor seems to have no idea what to do.

As a result, Omi took out the flower pedicle perfume and put it next to Yibai Ruili's nose for half a minute. She immediately stopped the foaming and her complexion improved a lot.

After drinking a certain liquid for Yibai Ruili, she immediately became sober.

In the eyes of everyone, this is simply incredible.

Omi said, "Iberuili should be a dystocia. She is relatively weak and can easily catch colds and get sick."

"So, the Eagle Kingdom imperial family kept her in a confined space for a long time and gave her a lot of supplements."

"However, the child's body simply cannot absorb so many supplements, and the long-term lack of air circulation...makes her respiratory system, digestive system, etc., all have problems."

"And Yibai Ruili was in the same closed today, and she was still walking for a long time in the convention and exhibition center filled with many different fragrances, which increased the load on the respiratory system and eventually caused her to fall ill."

Chu Yunyue asked again: "Since this is the case, why did she get better after smelling the perfume of our flower base?"

Omi said, "Because, I took the Flower Style Series."

"The wind series added mint."

"Menthol has the effects of clearing the boss and relieving the pharynx, thereby reducing the load on the respiratory system, or in other words, making the respiratory system think that it is out of the open..."

Omi is a perfume expert and knows all kinds of perfumes well. Coupled with his experience in medicine king Sun Simiao, he can easily come up with a simple treatment plan.

After Omi explained this way, everyone showed a new look.

At this time, Chu Yunyue seemed to have thought of something again, and asked, "By the way, why did the chairman of Yingguo Oil Company know you and treat you so respectfully?"

"Are you the owner of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation, or the largest shareholder?"

The Guazilian woman, and the Huazhidi employees present, pricked their ears again.

They are equally concerned about this.

Omi said: "That's not the case."

When Chu Yunyue and everyone heard this, she breathed a sigh of relief.

Omi is already the owner of Eagle Country Royal Hotel and the largest shareholder of Xia Guo Airlines.

If, again, the owner of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation, or the largest shareholder.

This makes their little heart unacceptable.

At this time, Omi continued: "I only have 10% of Eagle National Petroleum Corporation's shares, so I can be regarded as their second largest shareholder."

quiet!

The whole scene was silent!

Chu Yunyue, the Guazilian woman, and the staff of Huazhidi were all dumbfounded on the spot.

With only 10% of Eagle Oil Company's shares, is it the second largest shareholder?

Good one only!

To know...

Eagle National Petroleum Corporation, but a super company with a market value of more than one trillion!

10% of the shares, that is, the market value exceeds 100 billion!

Well, you are indeed not the largest shareholder, nor the boss!

However, 10% of the shares are also a lot, okay? !

Seeing everyone in the same place, Omi couldn't help but said, "What's the matter with you? Hurry up, the food should be ready."

"Ah...good, good." Chu Yunyue replied.

Then, the group continued to walk forward.

As Omi said, the food is indeed ready.

When they opened the VIP box, a series of very exquisite and hearty dishes were all neatly placed on the table.

Today, everyone is very busy, and indeed a little hungry.

After they saw these delicacies, they all feasted on them.

When Omi and Chu Yunyue returned to the luxurious suite, it was already an hour later.

Sitting in front of the tall floor-to-ceiling windows, they looked at the busy road outside and the dark river in the distance. They felt extremely relaxed and lonely.

This feeling is as if not in Yingguolun City, but returning to Huaxia Jiangbei's home.

Family?

When Chu Yunyue thought of this term, her heart felt soft.

She couldn't help but slowly tilted her head and turned her gaze on Omi's body, a pair of jewel-like beautiful eyes faintly flickering.

At this moment, Chu Yunyue couldn't help thinking of Omi's use of perfume knowledge far beyond ordinary people to make fascinating perfumes.

I thought of Omi picking up the microphone and singing a natural song.

I thought of Omi's use of perfume to save people, and it made the flowery pedicle perfume that no one cared about become extremely popular...

These things, like movie screens, kept rippling in Chu Yunyue's mind.

Gradually, Chu Yunyue's beautiful eyes changed from shining to a little blurred.

Then, she couldn't help but keep approaching Omi, approaching...

o(ε*)

(*3)(ε*)

...

There was a strong wind blowing outside the window, and the river couldn't help beating against the dam, and there were bursts of crisp sounds.

...

The next day.

It's dawn.

Omi slowly opened his eyes, the whole suite was empty, and there was a note on the table.

[Today is the last day of the perfume exhibition, I will go to the exhibition center first, remember to have breakfast later! kisses! Chu Yunyue. ]

After Omi saw the note, the corners of her mouth raised slightly, and she could almost imagine Chu Yunyue's sweet smile when she wrote the note.

Then he glanced at the phone habitually.

A text message appeared on the screen early.

"At 0:00, China Merchants Bank remitted 7493100 yuan."

"Look at what you can sign in today." Omi murmured.

"Sign in!"

[Ding! Congratulations, you got 10 million yuan. ]

Omi curled his lips and said, "It's bad luck."

Then, he picked up the phone on the table again and said, "Bring some breakfast up."

The luxurious suite where Omi lives has long been requested for the best service.

After a while, slices of truffled meat, toast, ham, M5 beef, black tea, etc., an exquisite breakfast was served.

Omi was eating breakfast and playing with his mobile phone. It was very relaxing and cozy.
