

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 611-620

When only 10 meters from the lake...

"Wow!"

A sturdy tentacle suddenly jumped out from the bottom of the lake. The target... was Omi and Tiangu!

"Wang!"

Tengu let out a bark.

The figure instantly became 3 meters high, and at the same time, the sharp claws like steel knives stretched out and slammed.

"Wow!"

The sturdy tentacles, like sausages, were directly broken into several pieces, and blood was shot.

"hold head high!"

Suddenly, there was a roar from the lake.

Then, one, two, three...a dozen or so thick tentacles shot towards Omi and Tiangu.

Tengu either waved their claws or bit their mouths, struggling to resist, breaking their tentacles to the ground.

"hold head high!"

"hold head high!"

The roar of the monsters in the lake became more and more harsh.

At the same time, the broad lake surface was violently churning, and the water surface continued to rise and rise, forming a tsunami that was hundreds of meters high, like a towering water wall.

"hold head high!"

A growl.

The tsunami swept the terrifying power and slapped at Tiangu and Omi.

see this...

Tengu's pupils shrank slightly.

Such a terrifying tsunami, even Tengu felt a little bit of fear.

Studio.

Xiao Bing shouted, "Shenxian Lin, hurry up!"

【 My people: Hurry up! 】

[Little boy: Escape!]

[Boxer: Let's go! Danger!]

...

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Qin Yuxuan and the others clenched their fists tightly, praying in their hearts, " Omi, you must be fine!"

...

Perhaps it was the call of the crowd that played a role.

Omi, who had been motionless, finally raised his eyelids.

Just as the terrifying tsunami was about to hit, Omi opened his mouth and spit out two words: "Freeze!"

"Kakkaka!"

A cold air spreads rapidly.

The tsunami that is about to slap down instantly freezes and freezes!

No!

Not only did the tsunami freeze, the entire lake, UU Reading , all turned into a thick layer of ice!

In the ice layer, a huge octopus monster could be seen vaguely, and many small fish... all could not move.

At this moment, as if the space was frozen, it was extremely strange.

only see...

Omi slowly pulled out the Starfall Sword from his waist and waved a sword flower.

[Skill: Sword No. 2!]

"Wow!"

The next moment, the octopus monster trapped in the ice was directly cut into countless pieces.

And the thick tentacles that were originally wrapped around the tengu also fell to the ground.

At the same time, an emotionless voice sounded in Omi's ears.

"Be the first to kill a level 5 abyss octopus and reward a level 5 treasure chest."

"Being the first to kill a level 5 abyss octopus, Huaxia Minerals increased by 20%."

Omi froze, as if it wasn't just the lake and the abyss octopus.

It seems that all the viewers in the live broadcast room are also frozen.

so that...

For a long time, there was no barrage in the live broadcast room.

As the host, Xiaobing said something almost instinctively: "Okay...it's amazing."

Her voice was not too loud.

However, it made the entire live broadcast room completely boil.

[No. 1 in the world: * it!]

[Hello everyone: What the hell!]

[Bows head: What a trough!]

[Clear: What the hell!]

...

The entire screen was completely covered by intensive scolding.

After a while, some other barrages appeared.

[God of Death: Let the tsunami freeze instantly, it's so awesome!]

[Little Painter: Freeze!]

[Bai Boiled Water: So handsome.]

[There is no girl in my heart: The words follow the law, and the words follow the law!]

[Thunderbolt from the blue: This is simply better than watching fantasy TV series.]

[Rookie: Isn't this more * than bloggers?]

[Qiankun: Lin Shenxian, do you still say that you are not a fairy?]

...

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Qin Yuxuan, Hu Tian and the others stared at the screen with beautiful eyes.

When Omi froze the tsunami and easily killed the level 5 abyss octopus, his pretty face became flushed.

Excited and happy!

Omi looked at the frozen layer of ice in front of him, and there was an invisible tick at the corner of his mouth.

This is his first time using advanced ice control.

Very peculiar.

He is very satisfied.

After that, Omi focused his attention on the quaint box next to him, and opened it casually.

Immediately, an emotionless voice rang in his ears.

“Primary water control, is it used?”

At the same time, a clear prompt sounded in Omi’s mind.

【Ding! Congratulations, get a special red envelope, advanced water control.】

Omi’s body felt cool at first.

Then, in his field of vision, a lot of water elements appeared in the air.

As long as Omi thought about it, in an instant, these water elements could gather together to form a rainstorm, or even turn into a long river in the air.

Omi has already had similar feelings, so it can be regarded as having a good ability to accept.

Then, he turned to Tiangu and said, “Go and use this primary water control technique.”

Tengu was also taken aback by the sudden freezing of ice in the air.

After a while, he reacted and touched his paw on the ball of light.

“laugh!”

The ball of light enters the body.

Tengu’s eyes flashed a bright light, and the whole body became a little more refreshing.

After everything was over, Omi and Tengu didn’t stop there, and continued to walk forward.

But just after Omi walked very far, the ice melted into water in an instant, and then, not a single drop was left, it returned to the lake, which was extremely miraculous.

...

The chosen person from the island country is named Tanaka Taro.

Tanaka Taro has been extremely rebellious since childhood and likes to bully young children.

When he grew up, he became a street bully, drinking heavily all day long.

After the Doomsday Declaration appeared, Tanaka Taro became the chosen one and became a hero of the island country in one fell swoop.

Most of the chosen go into the otherworld, taking as much food, water, and weapons as possible.

But Taro Tanaka stuffed a lot of wine in his backpack.

This caused Tanaka Taro to often get drunk in another world.

“Tap!”

Tanaka Taro gave himself another sip of wine, and scolded: “Why do labor and capital come to such a place?”

“Let the labor and capital go back!”

At this moment, a pitch-black cave suddenly appeared in front of him.

Tanaka Taro yelled, “Baga! Don’t you know that labor and capital are black?”

While speaking, he raised his machine gun and fired at the cave.

“Bang bang bang!”

The flames spewed, and the bullet casings flew!

Suddenly, there was a piercing roar in the cave.

Tanaka Taro heard the words, without the slightest fear.

He continued to shout, “Frighten labor and capital again!”

When the words fell, he took down several grenades from his waist and threw them all inside.

“boom!”

“boom!”

There was a loud bang and smoke filled the sky.

The entire cave collapsed directly.

Then, an emotionless voice sounded in Yamamoto Taro’s ear.

“The first to kill a 2-level Ironclaw Giant Mouse and get a 2-level treasure chest.”

“The first to kill a level 2 iron claw giant rat, and the area of the island country increased by 10%.”

Immediately afterwards, a quaint box appeared at the entrance of the collapsed cave.

see this...

Yamamoto Taro’s eyes lit up, and he instinctively felt that this was a good thing.

Maybe it’s an antique from another world!

Can be worth a lot of money!

So, Taro Yamamoto stepped forward, and couldn’t wait to open the box.

“Body petrification, is it used?”

Yamamoto Taro said: “What is this? Use it!”

“Wow!”

The ball of light in the box sank directly into his body.

Yamamoto Taro blinked.

The next moment, his right hand turned into a stone, and he punched the big tree in front of him.

“boom!”

The tree trembled violently, its skin shattered.

Yamamoto Taro looked at his right hand in disbelief, and laughed wildly.

In laughter, the right hand gradually returned to its original state.

...

The live broadcast room of the island country was boiling.

[Tōichi-kun: Yamamoto Taro threw a few grenades at random, and he killed a level 2 beast!]

[Mosimoxi: Moreover, opening the treasure chest also obtained the body petrification technique, petrifying the body, this is the real superman!]

[Takeda: Sure enough, the will of God is in our island country.]

[Masaki-kun: This time, our island nation definitely doesn't have to worry about the end.]

[Fetching water up and down: The body becomes petrified, who can stop it? Not even beasts!]

[Asai: Area increased by 10%! The waters around our island nation have dropped! Also, many trees have grown.]

[Heart: Great! I'm going to build a house by the sea!]

[Dream: I am also going to build a house by the sea.]

...

Omi and Tengu were still walking freely in the wilderness.

"Tap Tap!"

At this moment, there was a sudden sound of dull footsteps in the distance.

next moment...

Taro Yamamoto, who was combing his hair in the middle and holding a wine bottle in his hand, suddenly appeared in front of him.

Yamamoto Taro first took a sip of wine to himself, and when he saw Omi, his expression changed slightly.

It is a good thing for him to meet human beings in another world.

And when he saw the tengu beside Omi, Yamamoto Taro's eyes became even hotter.

These days, in order to survive, Yamamoto Taro has eaten the few compressed biscuits. He can only eat some tree roots and weeds every day, and a bird has long faded out of his mouth.

This wolf-like animal in front of him is simply the best meat!

After a while, he spoke to Omi in the island language, "I'm Taro Yamamoto, who are you?"

A look of disgust flashed across Omi's face, and he said indifferently, "Hua Xia, Omi."

Many people in China like to travel to island countries, and Taro Yamamoto often hears the Chinese language.

Therefore, he easily knew that Omi was from China.

Immediately, he became arrogant.

Taro Yamamoto pointed at the tengu and said, "What pets do you want in the wilderness? Kill them and eat barbecue!"

He seemed to think of the taste of barbecue and couldn't help swallowing.

A strange look appeared on Omi's face.

Kill tengu?

eat meat?

"Tengu, he wants to eat you." Omi said.

Tengu didn't know what Yamamoto Taro was talking about.

However, it could understand Omi's words.

Suddenly, the tengu became bared and grinned, looking extremely fierce.

Yamamoto Taro laughed without fear, and said, "Oh? The little guy seems to be quite fierce!"

"I like to resist!"

While speaking, he took off the pistol from his waist and slowly approached the tengu.

Because, if the distance is too far, Yamamoto Taro can't guarantee that he can hit.

And once you let the tengu run away, wouldn't you be able to eat meat?

...

Studio.

[Qi Tian: Can someone translate, what are the people of this island country saying?]

[Fish: My God! He actually wanted to eat tengu!]

[Relentless: Slaughter! He really wanted to eat tengu, and he took out his gun.]

[The thief in the forest: Eating tengu? Isn't this looking for death?]

[Yeyu: This islander is Taro Yamamoto. He seems to have just obtained the body petrification technique, which can turn part of his body into a hard stone, which is very powerful.]

[Easy: Awesome? No matter how powerful it is, is it comparable to Tiangou or Lin Shengxian?]

...

Island live broadcast room.

[Kawada: Yamamoto-kun seems to have met a Chinese person.]

[Jin Zhongyi: It's Omi! It's Huaxia Omi, and there are Tengu!]

[Mumeng: It's over, Yamamoto-kun wants to eat tengu.]

[Hashimoto Saburo: Tengu! That head can turn into a three-meter-high monster! Yamamoto-kun, don't be impulsive.]

[Chong: Yamamoto-kun seems to be about to start. However, he may not necessarily lose, don't forget, Yamamoto-kun can be petrified!]

...

Under everyone's attention...

Yamamoto Taro and Tengu are getting closer and closer.

The next moment, he grinned and said, "Yummy, here I come!"

When the words fell, he directly pulled the trigger.

"boom!"

It was also at this time that Tengu jumped up, stretched out its steel claws that shone with cold light, and swung it violently.

Yamamoto Taro's pupils shrank suddenly, and out of instinct, his entire body was protected by petrification.

However...

"boom!"

Under one claw, the petrified Yamamoto Taro was like a foam, directly shattered, and turned into a pile of powder.

quiet!

The whole place was silent.

Suddenly, an emotionless voice sounded in the ears of everyone in the island country.

"Taro Yamamoto died, and pollution in the island country increased by 20%."

...

Island live broadcast room.

[Windbell: No!]

[Kudou: Yamamoto-kun, is dead.]

[Shaji: Pollution, a lot of pollutants! I just had stinky water coming out of the tap.]

...

In the blink of an eye, two days have passed.

In the past two days, Omi relied on living in another world and obtained two special red envelopes, 400 points of physique and 300 points of mental strength.

The blazing sun is in the sky, and the breeze is gentle.

Omi and Tengu, as usual, walked freely in the wilderness.

In the distance, there is a tall forest, which looks very quiet.

"Crash!"

At this time, the birds that were originally perched on the tree, as if frightened, spread their wings and fled, stirring up a fallen leaf.

“Dong Dong Dong!”

Then, a dull sound came from the woods.

next moment...

A brown-skinned foreign man wearing a white shirt with a large backpack on his back ran out of the woods in a very embarrassed manner.

Behind him, he followed a 3-meter-tall lion with a pair of 2-meter-long sharp teeth. His imposing manner was terrifying.

The brown-skinned man saw Omi from a distance and shouted, “GO! GO! GO!”

Obviously, this was to remind Omi to run quickly.

Hearing this, Omi couldn't help but feel a little more favorable towards the brown-skinned man.

However, Omi did not run away according to the words, but continued to move forward unhurriedly.

When the giant lion and the brown-skinned man got closer and closer, the next moment, he was about to slap his claws directly to the ground...

Omi suddenly pulled out the meteorite sword from his waist.

[One of the swords: Cut the sky and draw the sword!]

“Wow!”

A stream of light flashed.

The claws of the giant lion, even the half of the body that went up along the claws, were very neatly broken from the middle.

“Pfft!”

The giant lion that turned into two pieces fell straight to the ground, causing a burst of smoke.

Hot blood shot freely.

This scene made the brown-skinned man look dumbfounded.

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded from the scene.

“Be the first to kill a Level 2 Megalodon and get a Level 2 Treasure Chest.”

“Being the first to kill a Level 2 Megalodon, China’s pollution is reduced by 10%.”

Omi didn’t care about the dazed brown-skinned man, he opened the treasure box casually.

“30 points of physique, do you want to use it?”

Omi didn’t look at it at all, and directly signaled the Tengu to use it.

Because, a clear prompt sounded in his mind.

【Ding! Congratulations, you will get a special red envelope, 300 points of physique. 】

...

After the tengu used 30 points of physique, the brown-skinned man also came back to his senses.

He hurriedly wiped off the blood sprayed by the giant lion on his face, turned around and said in English, “Are you from Earth?”

Omi said in Chinese language: “I am from China.”

When the brown-skinned man heard this, he seemed even more excited.

He said in a somewhat stumbling Chinese language: “Huaxia?!”

“It turned out to be from China, hohohoho!”

“You used kung fu just now, didn’t you?”

“I knew that Huaxia must have a kung fu!”

“so amazing!”

“Shh!”

“Shh!”

While speaking, UU read He also took the posture of holding a sword, constantly waving and beating.

Looking at his funny appearance, Omi couldn't help but want to laugh.

At this time, the brown-skinned man suddenly fell on his knees, knelt on the ground and said, "My name is Jill Ku, I like Chinese Kung Fu the most, please accept me as your apprentice."

His tone was very sincere and serious.

However, it was this move that made Omi a little stunned.

Omi couldn't help laughing and crying: "I haven't considered accepting an apprentice for the time being."

"Master, I can endure hardships very well, please, accept me as an apprentice." As Gil Ku spoke, he kowtowed loudly on the ground, causing dust on his forehead.

Omi shook his head and said, "I really don't want to accept apprentices. Besides, you don't need to call me master, just call me by my name. My name is Omi."

At this time, Gil Ku seemed to have thought of some Chinese martial arts TV plots, and hurriedly said: "I...I...Master, if you don't agree, I won't get up..."

Omi took a deep look at Jill Ku.

After a while, he said, "You want to kneel all the time?"

Jill Ku said seriously: "Yes!"

Omi said: "Okay, then you can kneel, I'm leaving."

After speaking, he walked straight forward.

Jill Ku knelt on the ground and looked at Omi's retreating back. He couldn't help shouting, "Master, Master..."

However, as if Omi didn't hear it, he continued to move forward without looking back.

"Ow!"

At this time, in the wilderness in the distance, there was a roar of a beast.

Jill Ku was so frightened that his whole body trembled and shouted, "Master, wait for me."

When the words fell, Gilku almost rolled and climbed, and quickly chased after him.

...

Studio.

Xiao Bing said excitedly: "Professor Lin is still so powerful. With a single sword, he killed the beast! Moreover, it also allowed us to reduce the pollution of China by 10%."

[Forgiveness: Slash with one sword!]

[Zhao Dahai: Chinese Kung Fu, shhhhhh! That Jill Cool is so funny.]

[You are not happy: That's right! Jill Cool, Chinese Kung Fu is so powerful!]

[You will be cold without my embrace: Want to worship Immortal Lin as your teacher? It's not even close.]

[Clearly: Jill Ku, don't you want to kneel all the time? Hahaha!]

...

Paiguo, luxurious manor.

The Gilbevan family, sitting in a luxurious 200-square-meter living room, stared at the screen without blinking.

When Gilku walked to sweat, the whole family felt distressed.

When Gilku accidentally fell to the ground, the family felt the same and almost didn't shed a tear.

And when Gilku was chased by the mega-toothed lion, the whole family burst into tears, and it looked like they had been eaten by the mega-toothed lion.

"Why, why does our family Gilku suffer so much?"

"Why was he chosen?"

"God, what did we do wrong?"

"Please God, don't let him have any trouble."

...

It was not until Omi appeared and killed the giant lion in one fell swoop that Gilbevan's family stopped crying and shouted excitedly.

“Very good!”

“Thank God, thank Huaxialin!”

“Thank you Huaxialin!”

“Hua Xia, yes! I have to go to Hua Xia now, thanks to Hua Xia Lin’s family.”

“Jil Ku will be Huaxia Lin’s apprentice in the future, let’s go to visit his family together!”

The Gilbevan family left as soon as they said it, and took the luxury plane directly and flew straight to Huaxia.

On the same day, the news that the family of the richest man in the country went to Huaxia together made the headlines of international financial news.

When they arrived at Jiangbei International Airport, they were immediately greeted by many media interviews.

However, the Gilbevans did not have any idea of being interviewed.

They directly got into the Rolls-Royce team and headed for Qingshi.

At this time, Lin Tao, Dai Weixue, and Lin Xiaoyao were sitting in front of the TV as usual, watching the live broadcast carefully.

“Dong Dong Dong!”

At this moment, there was a light knock on the door outside.

Dai Weixue responded, “Come on!”

“Squeak!”

The door opened, but there were many foreigners in white clothes and brown skin.

This can’t help but make Dai Weixue a little stunned.

what’s the situation?

Why do so many foreigners suddenly come to my home?

Is this...Is it because I haven’t woken up yet?

At this moment, Gilbevan, who has a beard, said excitedly, “Are you... grandma?”

grandmother?

Dai Weixue's forehead turned black.

What is grandma?

Do you look that old?

Gilbevan said seriously: "Hello, grandma."

Then, everyone followed in unison: "Hello, grandma."

Dai Weixue's forehead darkened a bit.

Lin Tao, who was sitting in the living room watching the live broadcast, heard the sound of the door and asked, "What happened?"

While speaking, he slowly left the sofa and came to the door.

Gilbevin called again: "Good morning, Grandpa!"

Immediately afterwards, everyone shouted in unison, "Hello, Grandpa!"

Dai Weixue and Lin Tao have black lines on their faces.

Originally, Lin Xiaoyao, who was concentrating on watching the live broadcast, also came out curiously.

Gilbevan exclaimed: "Hello, Auntie!"

The crowd shouted, "Hello, Auntie!"

Dai Weixue, Lin Tao, and Lin Xiaoyao all had black lines on their faces.

Are you that old?

After a while, Lin Tao resisted the urge to hit someone and said, "This... these foreign friends, are you mistaken?"

Gilbevan asked back, "Are you Lin Shenxian's father?"

Lin Tao nodded.

"That's right!" Gilbevan said happily, "I'm Jill Cool's dad, this is mom..."

Gilbevan introduced them one by one.

Then, he said: "Jil Ku and we all have to take Lin Shenxian as our teacher, so from now on, you will be our grandfather, grandma and auntie!"

Subscribe

Lin Tao, Dai Weixue and Lin Xiaoyao heard the words, and the corners of their mouths twitched slightly.

When they watched the live broadcast earlier, they thought Gilcool was very funny, and they thought their family must be funny too.

Now it seems that this has nothing to do with fun at all!

"Tap Tap!"

At this moment, there was another sound of footsteps outside.

Then, a middle-aged man in a white shirt strode over.

After seeing Gilbevin and his party, he smiled and said: "Welcome to the Gil family to Qingshi, I am Zhao Jiaqi, the leader of Qingshi."

Previously, Gilbevan was grovelling when he spoke.

At this time, he straightened his waist and said, "It turned out to be the big leader, hello."

After a pause, he added: "Qingshi is a good place. It raised our master Omi, as well as my grandfather, grandmother and aunt. I am willing to spend 100 billion yuan to invest in Qingshi."

When they heard the first half of the sentence, the foreheads of Lin Tao, Dai Weixue and Lin Xiaoyao turned black again.

But when they heard the second half of the sentence, the three of them jumped in their hearts.

100 billion yuan investment?

Who is this foreigner who looks a little silly in front of him?

Zhao Jiaqi was extremely excited: "Okay, I thank you for all the citizens of Qingshi, thank you for the Jill family!"

Gilbevin waved his hand and said, "You don't need to thank me. If you want to thank me, thank my master Omi."

"Yes, yes, thank you Omi! Thank you Omi!" Zhao Jia said in unison.

This thank you was absolutely sincere.

As a result, a few months ago, Omi had already brought in many major projects, including the airport, to Qingshi.

Second, Omi has solved several mathematical problems, invented earthquake predictors, carbon-based lithography machines, super batteries, prosthetics, and controlled nuclear fusion. He has won four Nobel Prizes.

Thirdly, Omi is China's hope and China's hero!

Now, because of Omi, Qingshi has received an investment of 100 billion from the Baiguoqier family!

How can this not thank him?

At this time, Lin Xiaoyao couldn't help but say, "That...what does your family do? Is it very profitable?"

Gilbevan immediately changed a humble smile and said, "Our family has a state-owned oil company, several hotels, a supermarket, and several real estate companies in Bailey, which can earn tens of billions of dollars every day."

Lin Xiaoyao's mouth immediately turned into an 'O' shape.

Naturally, Omi didn't know that he rescued a foreigner and made a small disturbance in reality.

Of course, even if he knew, he probably wouldn't care.

An investment of 100 billion may seem like a lot to others.

Earning tens of billions of dollars every year is even more unimaginable.

However, 100 billion was nothing to Omi.

And Omi now earns more than tens of billions of money every month.

At this time, Omi, Tengu, and Jill Ku, the two and one dog, were walking in the wilderness.

The sun went down slowly, and with all its strength, the last rays of light bloomed.

Omi glanced at the woods not far away and said, "Let's rest there today."

"Yes, Master!" Jill Ku responded.

Omi shook his head.

He has said many times, don't call yourself Master.

However, Jill Ku is still self-sufficient.

Now, Omi is too lazy to correct it.

After a while, they came to a big tree.

Jill Ku hurriedly opened the completely empty backpack, took out a can of beef, and said, "Master, please eat."

see this...

Omi nodded inwardly.

You know, now it is not the earth, but in a desolate world.

Omi was naturally not short of food.

But, for Gilcool, a can of beef is definitely the most valuable thing on his body.

This can save lives!

However, Omi didn't say anything more.

Tengu said nothing, bowed his head silently and walked into the distance.

It didn't take long for a one-meter-high rabbit to be picked up by it.

Omi took out the knife and quickly dissected it.

Tengu was very skilled, and he brought dead trees from a distance.

see this...

Jill Ku was stunned.

These days, Gilcool thinks he'd starve to death if he hadn't brought a lot of compressed biscuits and tins.

He also thought about catching rabbits and birds from other worlds to eat meat.

But, never succeeded.

But what's the situation now?

Now... an animal that looks like a dog like a wolf has returned with a one-meter-high rabbit in its mouth.

And, are you still holding firewood?

This...

It's hard to understand, I'm dreaming again?

At this time, Omi said, "Want to eat meat later?"

Jill's conditioned nod.

Omi said, "Then go with Tengu and pick up some firewood and come back."

"Oh...Okay." Jill Kui said hurriedly.

Although the tengu is powerful, its size is not suitable for picking up firewood.

Gilcool is the exact opposite.

Helping each other out can do wonders.

Soon, a large pile of firewood was placed next to the big tree.

Omi skewered the meat and smeared it with various seasonings.

"Fire!" Omi said.

The tengu spewed out a flame, and the dead branches immediately ignited a raging fire.

see this...

Gilku's eyes widened, and his face was full of horror.

Tengu... Spitfire?

However, his astonishment did not last long, and the whole person was attracted by the strong aroma of meat.

Jill Ku's saliva kept flowing down the corner of his mouth involuntarily.

how long?

How long has it been since you smelled this scent?

Omi glanced at the golden skin and said, "It's almost there."

When the words fell, he first gave the Tengu a large piece of meat.

The tengu was unceremonious, and immediately ate it up, his tail wagging.

Then, Omi tore off another piece of meat and handed it to Jill Ku, saying, "Eat it."

Jill Ku swallowed and said excitedly, "Thank you, Master."

Then, impatiently, he stuffed the meat into his mouth.

Omi glanced at Tengu, then at Jill Ku, smiled and shook his head.

With two fragrant people around, it seems that it is easy to affect the appetite.

Today, Omi ate a little more than usual.

After eating, Gilku's face was full of contentment.

Then, he took out a wool blanket from his bag, handed it to Omi, and said, "Master, here's a quilt for you."

Omi nodded secretly again.

However, he still waved his hand and said, "Use it yourself."

When the words fell, his mind moved slightly.

Two sleeping bags appeared in front of him and said, "You use this sleeping bag at night."

see this...

Gilcool was stunned again.

sleeping bag?

He had been with Omi all the time, and he was quite sure that the other party didn't have a big backpack at all.

Not to mention large backpacks, there are no small backpacks.

So, where did these two sleeping bags come from?

Then, Ji Kuo seemed to have thought of something, and said excitedly: "Huaxia Immortal Law, Master, this is Huaxia Immortal Law? That's right!"

"Shhhhhh!"

"Huaxia Immortal Technique!"

While speaking, Gilku stood up and danced again.

Omi's mouth twitched slightly.

Respect teachers, respect Taoism, and have a good heart.

Unfortunately, the brain is not very good.

Omi shook his head secretly, got up, and prepared to draw a circle around him as a place to sleep today.

However, Omi just took two steps...

In his mind, a clear prompt sounded.

【Ding! Walk 300,000 steps in another world and get the Eye of Disaster. 】

see this...

Omi's expression moved slightly, and he directly focused his attention on the Eye of Disaster.

[Eye of Disaster Luck: You can see the disaster or luck of the other party in the future. Black, purple, gray, white, yellow, red, and gold represent the disaster and luck level of the other party respectively. Among them, black is the disaster of death, and gold is the luck of miracles. It is easy to see the disaster and luck of the other party, which can show a stronger charm.]

Immediately, Omi felt that his eyes were slightly cold, and he felt very comfortable.

Then, Omi looked up at Jill Ku, who was beside him, and saw a red light filled his head.

It seems... the other party's future luck is not bad.

Then, Omi looked at the tengu lying on the ground again, and saw a red light permeating its head.

It seems... Tengu's luck is also good.

Eye of Disaster, good ability.

The corner of Omi's mouth twitched slightly, and his mood became a little better.

Then, he drew a circle of about 200 square meters around it.

[Skill: Draw a circle for home!]

Suddenly, UU read www. . com The cool breeze in the mountains and forests at night, the roaring beasts in the distance... all disappeared without a trace.

Jill Cool hasn't slept well recently.

First, it was because it was empty and cold.

Second, it is because of noise.

As a result, now these downsides are all gone?

Jill Ku said excitedly: "It's not cold anymore!"

"Don't be noisy!"

"So comfortable!"

He quickly put the reason for this peculiar change on Omi, and said excitedly, "Master, is it you, is it you who used the Immortal Technique again?"

"Master, you are amazing!"

"Shhhhhh!"

So, Gilcool started his dancing again.

PS: .

In the next few days, Omi started walking, watching the scenery every day, eating meat at night, sleeping, and the days were very relaxed.

This kind of life even made Gilku, who was thin, gradually rounded his face in the wilderness of the other world, which was really different.

...

There are more than a dozen candidates in the United States, and Augustus is one of them.

Augustus is a seasoned outdoor explorer.

After many people enter the other world, they start to starve when the food they prepare is finished.

However, Augustus still lived a very nourishing life by using his extraordinary outdoor adventure ability.

Even when I encountered a level 2 iron armored rhino not long ago, I used the terrain to kill it skillfully, thereby increasing the air quality in the United States by 10%.

And he himself got 20 points of physique.

This made Augustus a little fluttering.

Augustus believed that he was chosen entirely by God's approval.

Today, Augustus, as usual, wakes up and keeps moving toward the unknown distance.

As he moved forward, he kept making some introductions and sighed from time to time.

"Look... This tree is too thick and too long! If it were the earth, I am afraid that this kind of tree must be in the Amazon forest to have a chance to see so many trees. It can be seen everywhere! It's incredible!"

"What did I see? This flower is too big, um! It's very fragrant, even a little sweet."

...

Augustus knew that all his life in another world would be broadcast live on Earth.

This is a great opportunity to show.

Maybe it will make you gain countless fans.

As a veteran outdoor adventurer, he knows all too well that fans represent endless benefits.

...

Augustus' prediction was not wrong.

With his explanation and his wonderful performance in the other world, he has a faint march towards the most popular hero in the United States.

Every day, countless people come to watch his live broadcast.

At this time, the US live broadcast room.

The tall and thin host held the microphone and said excitedly: "Look! Our hero Augustus has begun to explore again, let's see what he will encounter in another world today?"

[Jenny: Augustus is still so powerful!]

[Kukenweito: Others regard the other world as hell, only our Augustus, it is like coming to an amusement park!]

[SN: Augustus is the real hero and the greatest hope of the earth!]

[SSSSS: Augustus, rush!]

[FFFF: Not only powerful, but also very gentle... Augustus, I love you!]

...

"Dong Dong Dong!"

Just as Augustus silently introduced, a dull voice suddenly sounded in the distance.

next moment...

The three-meter-tall rhino with sharp tentacles slowly stuck out its head from the woods in the distance.

The big eyes of the one-horned rhinoceros faintly flickered with cold light, and exuded a palpating aura.

If it were another Earthling, I am afraid that my legs would go weak with fright, and I would turn around and run away without hesitation.

However, Augustus' eyes brightened slightly.

He was not afraid but rejoiced: "Look what I saw? Another rhinoceros monster!"

"On the other end, because the cliff was too high, I couldn't eat meat. This time, my physique has grown, so there should be no problem!"

"I'm afraid the size of this rhinoceros monster is enough for me to eat for a month... When I taste it, I will tell you how it tastes."

"hold head high!"

The one-horned rhino seemed to be provoked by Augustus' words, and let out a roar in the sky.

Then, the limbs exerted force and rushed towards him.

quick!

fierce!

It looked like a fast-moving truck, extremely terrifying.

Augustus' heart skipped a beat.

Obviously, he did not expect the one-horned rhino to have such a speed.

However, he has used 20 points of physique, and his speed and strength have all been greatly improved.

Dodging the impact is no problem.

...

US live broadcast.

The tall and thin host said excitedly: "What did we see? Augustus has encountered a rhino monster again! Haha! Let's look forward to his next wonderful performance!"

[JJ: Great, Augustus finally met a monster again!]

[Kenlai Mud: I still clearly remember the duel between Augustus and the Ironclad Rhinoceros, it was wonderful!]

[MMM: Augustus, come on!]

[HOME: This one-horned rhino is unlucky when it meets Augusta.]

【H: Chong Chong Chong! 】

...

Augusta was indeed rushing.

The speed of this one-horned rhino was somewhat beyond imagination, and it almost hit him several times.

Gradually, Augusta's forehead was covered with beads of sweat.

...

At this time, Omi, Tengu, and Gilku were still wandering in the wilderness.

Jill Ku said: "Master, are you bored? Otherwise, I'll sing a song to relieve your boredom?"

Omi said unexpectedly, "You can still sing?"

Jill Ku said seriously: "Yes! My song teacher said that I have a talent for singing. By the way, I can also sing Chinese songs."

Omi nodded and said, "Okay, then you can sing."

Jill Ku said happily: "Okay!"

"Two brain axes, two brain axes, run fast, run fast, one has no eyes, the other has no tail, the tip is weird, the tip is weird..."

This is a brisk children's song, but he used a very heroic voice.

At the same time, he was extremely serious and iron-blooded.

It looked like it was singing a battle song on the battlefield, and it seemed very nondescript as a whole.

Gilku asked, "Master, how did I sing?"

While speaking, he focused his eyes on Omi tightly, and his eyes were full of anticipation.

Omi gave him a deep look, and said, "You sing very well, don't sing in the future."

"Huh?" Jill Ku was stunned for a moment.

He was just about to ask.

Why do you sing well, but don't sing again in the future?

At this moment, a loud voice sounded in the distance, attracting his attention.

next moment...

A huge one-horned rhino appeared in the field of vision.

In front of the one-horned rhino, there was a white-skinned man who kept running away.

He is Augustus!

Jill Ku hurriedly said: "Master, there are people being chased by rhinos, and they are about to be chased!"

In fact, UU reading does not need Jill Ku to say, Omi has already noticed it.

Moreover, he can also calculate that according to the current state, at most one minute...

Augustus is about to be hit by a rhino.

"Crack!"

At this time, Augustus accidentally kicked a stone, and the whole person had a faint tendency to fall down.

The exclusive rhino seized the opportunity and slammed into him.

see this...

Omi directly pulled out the long sword from his waist.

[One of the swords: Draw the sword and cut the sky!]

"laugh!"

A flash of brilliance flashed, and the head of the one-horned rhinoceros fell heavily on the ground like a boulder, making a dull sound.

Blood, shoot!

The entire space was instantly filled with a strong smell of blood.

Then, an emotionless voice sounded from the scene.

“Be the first to kill a level 2 one-horned rhino, and reward a level 2 treasure chest.”

“Being the first to kill a level 2 one-horned rhino, Huaxia’s air quality has improved by 10%.”

Jill Ku shouted excitedly: “Kung Fu!”

“Chinese Kung Fu!”

“Shh!”

“Shh!”

“Shh!”

Jill Kuxu held the hilt of the sword and kept dancing the sword, followed by a sound effect in his mouth, which was very funny.

“Master, what kind of move is this? It’s amazing!”

“Can I learn this trick?”

“How long would it take to be like Master?”

“Master, when did you start practicing?”

“Master...”

Gilku was so excited that he asked several questions in a row.

Originally, Omi wanted to choose an answer.

In the end, he chose to give up.

Because Omi didn’t know if Gilku would ask more questions after answering one.

That would be too noisy.

Omi opened the treasure chest on his own.

“20 points of physique, do you want to use it?”

At the same time, a clear prompt sounded in Omi’s mind.

【 Ding! Congratulations, you will get a special red envelope, 200 points of physique. 】

Omi's muscles squirmed slightly, and his strength increased a little.

Then, he glanced at Gil Ku and said, "Put your hand on this light group."

A physique of 20 points is of little use to Omi, and it is also of little use to Tengu.

Simply cool to Jill.

In this case, the efficiency of picking up firewood every night should be much faster.

Gilcool had no idea what 20 physique was.

Because he couldn't watch the live broadcast, and he had never killed a beast.

However, he has always been obedient to Omi.

So, without any hesitation at all, he reached out and touched the light group.

"Wow!"

Suddenly, Gilku's power skyrocketed.

He glanced at his obviously thickened muscles, and his face was full of disbelief.

Then, Jill Ku said excitedly: "Chan Gong, this is Chuan Gong, right?"

"Thank you Master!"

"Master, you are finally willing to accept me as your apprentice."

After speaking, he fell to his knees directly on the ground.

Omi looked at his excited appearance, and suddenly wondered if it was a mistake to give Gilku 20 physique points.

Omi sighed and said, "This isn't about spreading the arts, and it's not about accepting you as a disciple, it's just a reward after killing a beast in another world..."

"Get up first."

Gilku seemed to have not heard the previous words and said, "Yes, Master."

At this time, Augustus, who almost fell to the ground, finally recovered after gasping for a few breaths.

He wiped the sweat on his forehead, recalling his previous embarrassed appearance, all of which must have been broadcast live.

no!

You must find a way to reverse it, otherwise, your image will plummet and you will lose a lot of fans.

Thinking of this, Augustus shouted at Omi in English, "Who told you to do it? Mind your own business!"

Omi raised his brows slightly, and a coldness flashed across his face.

Ji Kui immediately shouted back in English: "What did you say? My master saw that you were being chased, so he came to save you. You are not grateful, but you even insulted my master? Who gave you the courage?!"

Augustus said without giving up: "Save me? Who wants him to save it? I'm just playing with this one-horned rhino on purpose, like a cat playing a mouse!"

"If I want to kill it, I can do it easily!"

"The reward for killing him should belong to me!"

"Our air quality in the United States should be improved by 10%!"

Augustus's tone became more and more high.

These words were originally intended to deceive viewers watching the live broadcast.

However, at this time, it seemed that even he himself had chosen to believe it.

Omi's expression became colder.

How sharp is his eyes?

Cat and mouse?

ridiculous!

At this time, Omi suddenly found that the top of Augustus's head was completely shrouded in black energy.

The catastrophe of death is coming!

The anger in Omi's heart dissipated instantly.

After all, there is no reason to be angry with someone who is about to die.

So, Omi said to Tengu and Jill, "Let's go."

While speaking, he stepped forward.

Seeing that Omi was leaving, Jill Kui didn't say any more, and hurriedly followed.

Augustus shouted: "What? I stole someone else's things, so I just left?"

When Omi heard this, he stopped slowly, and a pair of eyes that were as cold as knives swept across.

If he said one more word, Omi wouldn't mind letting his bad luck come earlier!

Do not know why.

this moment...

Augustus seemed to have fallen into the abyss, his whole body trembled, and he was so frightened that he dared not speak any more.

see this...

Omi turned around slowly and continued to walk forward.

After Omi was completely gone, Augustus secretly let out a long sigh of relief.

Only then did he realize that his entire body was completely soaked in sweat.

Augustus murmured in his heart: "Who... is he?"

...

US live broadcast.

[Carl: It turns out that Augustus has been playing with the one-horned rhinoceros, so let me just say it.]

[Fendi Gaia: Augustus is simply an excellent actor, my idol!]

[YY: Augustus is right! The reward for this one-horned rhino should belong to him, and the air quality in our country should have improved by 10%! hateful!]

[Mickland: That person seems to be Omi, he is called Lin Shenxian.]

[Red: What Lin Shenxian? He also killed two beasts by luck, and only accumulated strength in the early stage, how can we Augustus be so powerful!]

[Hungary: If Augustus killed the beast this time and gained 20 physique points, he would definitely not be worse than Omi! hateful!]

[Gini: Omi, thief!]

[Mihit: Exactly! thief!]

...

Huaxia live broadcast room.

Xiaobing said angrily, "What! Professor Lin obviously saved him, but he even blamed Professor Lin in turn!"

As a host, UU reading generally should not bring personal emotions.

However, at this time, Xiaobing was a little bit uncontrollable.

The barrage in the live broadcast room was like pouring rain covering the entire screen.

[Boiled water: * it! That white-skinned person is too unhuman!]

[The man doesn't cry: What's the matter, he was about to be hit by a one-horned rhinoceros, and Lin Shenxian only took action, and he's such a cat and mouse, don't have a B-face!]

[Grace: It's simply a slut!]

[Mr. Huang: ah ah ah! Pissed off labor! The labor and management just took a look at the US live broadcast room, and many of them said that Lin Shenxian was a thief!]

[Hong Fu Qitian: Thief? What the hell! Do you want to lose face? !]

[Su Yan Wuxiang: Are their eyes blind? Didn't you see the white-skinned man being chased so embarrassed?]

[Xiu Xin: This kind of person with a wolf-hearted and dog-lung lung will definitely not have good results, watch it!]

Huaxia, Qingshi.

Gilcool didn't know what 20 points of physique meant at first.

However, the Gilbevan family knew it all.

They all shouted excitedly when they saw that Gilku had gained 20 physique points.

"Superman, Gilcool has become Superman too!"

"God bless!"

"Thank you, Master!"

Gilbevan said: "Master is not on earth, let's go, let's go to thank grandpa, grandma and aunt together!"
