

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 651–660

Then, the Cancer raised the tongs and slammed it towards Abraham.

Abraham's face changed greatly, and he hurriedly dodged to the side.

Finally, he ducked to the side in a dangerous and dangerous way.

"boom!"

Sand and stones flew horizontally, and the entire scene was immediately covered with gray.

One hit missed, and the Cancer raised the tongs again and hit it again.

"boom!"

Abraham dodged again.

"boom!"

"boom!"

Don't look at Cancer as big and bulky.

However, it is not slow at all.

But Abraham's response was a little slow after dodging several times.

so that...

"boom!"

When the Cancer smashed down with the steel pincers again, the sharp pincers hit Abraham's right leg.

"Pfft!"

The right leg fell neatly on the desert, blood shot, and a miserable howl rippling.

However, the Cancer simply ignored Abraham, who was screaming, and raised his steel pliers to give him a blow to the head.

“Wow!”

At this time, a dazzling brilliance shot from a distance.

“thump!”

The next moment, the steel tongs of the Cancer Crab broke directly and fell to the ground.

When the Cancer was in a daze and was a little overwhelmed, the Cancer’s body split in two from the middle and fell to the ground, making a dull sound.

Then, a tall, handsome figure, an animal resembling a dog like a wolf, and a man with brown skin strode over.

They... are Omi, Tengu and Gilku.

After Abraham saw them, he endured the pain of his broken leg and said, “Yes... it’s you...”

Omi waved his hand and shot out a golden streamer.

This golden streamer revolved around Abraham.

Then, the originally severed right leg grew rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye.

In just a dozen seconds, he actually grew a leg again.

[Skill: Advanced Light of Life!]

Abraham looked at his newly grown right leg and was stunned for a moment.

Then, he stood up in disbelief.

Then, he jumped a few times on the spot.

Finally, he was sure that his legs had really recovered.

Abraham exclaimed excitedly: “My legs, my legs are growing again!”

“Very good!”

“Very good!”

Soon, he thought of Omi’s actions just now, and said, “It’s you, it’s you who helped me, right?”

"It must be you!"

"Thank you, thank you so much! Omi."

Omi smiled and said, "You're welcome."

Omi had a good impression of both Xiong Guo and Abraham himself.

And it was just a matter of hand to save him.

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded from the scene.

"The first to kill the 6th-level desert golden scorpion and get the 6th-level treasure chest."

"The first to kill the 6th-level desert golden scorpion, and the Huaxia minerals increased by 10%."

.....

Xiongguo live broadcast room.

The host said, "Thank you Omi!"

[Alan: Who knows how the desert golden scorpion died?]

[Marvin: It was Omi, it was Omi who killed it with one sword! Too strong!]

[Maria: Killed the desert golden scorpion with one sword, and easily allowed Abraham to grow a leg, so handsome! Omi, I love you!]

[Hill: Omi, I want to marry you!]

[Aberke: Omi, I want to sleep with you in my arms!]

I have to say that foreigners are more open than Chinese in expressing emotions.

Huaxia live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing was stunned: "Reborn from a severed limb?"

[Active people: f*ck! Immortal art, another immortal art!]

[Unsung Hero: Invincible! Simply invincible!]

[Wenjiu: No wonder Lin Shenxian gave the light of primary life to Tengu at that time. I'm afraid he didn't like that thing at all.]

[Stone Man: Jumping dozens of meters high, freezing the desert, summoning divine thunder... Now it can even regenerate a broken limb! Immortal Lin, awesome!]

[Kite: I was still talking about how a person can solve several mathematical problems and invent high-tech in various fields! Now, I finally understand, because he is not a man, but a god!]

[Bai Boiled Water: Lin Shenxian, when will you return to Earth? Ask Mr. Lin to accept his apprentice!]

[Want to chase people: ask Lin Shenxian to accept his apprentice!]

【W: Ask Lin Shenxian to accept his apprentice! 】

.....

Naturally, Omi didn't know that many women in the Xiong country were starting to crave their own bodies~ ~, nor did he know that Huaxia had begun to worship him as a teacher.

He glanced at the level 6 treasure chest in front of him and chose to open it directly.

"400 mental power, do you want to use it?"

At the same time, a clear prompt sounded in Omi's mind.

【Ding! Congratulations, you will get a special red envelope, 4000 mental power. 】

Then, Omi said to Jill, "You can use it."

With a wave of his hand, the light group in the treasure box instantly disappeared into Gilku's body.

In an instant, Jill Ku's head was instantly clear and bright, and the whole person seemed to be sublimated.

Originally, many people wanted to take Omi as their teacher.

At this time, it has grown exponentially.

There was even an online apprentice forum, which reached millions of members in one day.

And, over time, it is still growing.

On the other hand, the Gilbevan family saw that their son had gained 400 mental strength points, and hurried to Omi's house again, thanking Lin Tao, Dai Weixue, and Lin Xiaoyao for a while.

For these...

Omi didn't know it at all.

He glanced at Abraham, his eyes moved slightly.

[Copy: Primary Sound Wave Technique.]

Omi only felt a slight itch in his throat.

Then, he had a very real feeling in his heart.

As long as the mind moves slightly, it can generate tyrannical sound waves.

In fact...

It was also Abraham who possessed the primary sonic technique, when he broke his leg, he let out a loud cry, which made Omi hear it and hurried over.

At this time, Abraham said, " Omi, can I come with you?"

Previously, he felt that he could face all dangers by himself, and then he continued to become stronger.

However, after experiencing what just happened, Abraham understood that he might not be able to resist the danger.

Omi felt good about him, otherwise, he would not have rescued people.

In addition, I have already followed Gilku next to me, and it is nothing to add another person.

So, he nodded and said, "Yes."

Abraham said happily: "Thank you!"

Three people and one dog, once again set foot on the road ahead.

“Tick tock!”

Drops of sweat kept rolling down Abraham’s forehead.

His lips became chapped and his head was a little dizzy.

He glanced at Jill Ku and Omi next to him, and said, “You... do you want to pee?”

Omi shook his head.

Gilcool said: “If you want to pee, just pee directly, and pee will not be broadcast live.”

Abraham said, “No... no, I’m just a little thirsty.”

Jill Ku and Omi couldn’t help being stunned.

So, he asked himself if he wanted to pee, did he want to... drink?

Omi coughed dryly and said, “Actually, we have water.”

Then, with a flick of his hand, a bottle of mineral water appeared in his hand.

Omi had prepared a lot of water in his inner space, so he didn’t have to worry about drinking it at all.

Of course, it doesn’t matter if you’re done drinking.

Omi has advanced water control skills.

He can easily condense water particles in the air to form an endless stream of water.

Abraham looked at the mineral water in front of him, his throat drier.

However, he did not go to get it immediately, but said with difficulty: “You...you drink first.”

I have to say, Abraham was a really good man.

Even if you are thirsty, you want to let others drink first.

Omi said: “It doesn’t matter, you drink, we still have a lot.”

When the words fell, his mind moved again.

Then, two new bottles of mineral water appeared in his hand.

This made Abraham dumbfounded.

what happened?

magic?

He didn't bother so much, he picked up the mineral water and drank it happily.

Then he said, "Lin... Omi, do you know magic?"

Omi smiled and shook his head without explaining much.

As time passed, the fiery sun finally seemed to have burned out the last fuel, and it began to become dim and dim.

The sky is getting darker.

Abraham took out a bit of minced meat from his dirty backpack and said, " Omi, Jill Ku, let's eat something."

Even though it's just a bit of ground meat.

However, for those who walk in the desert, it is also something that can save lives.

"Crash!"

At this time, a large bird half a human height, dragging a long shadow, flew by from a distance.

Omi said, "The food is here."

"Boom!"

As if to confirm Omi's words, the big bird fell straight down from the sky and could no longer move.

Gilcool had long been used to this situation.

So, it was very calm.

Abraham said excitedly: "Bird, a big bird fell from the sky!"

"We're so lucky too!"

"Unfortunately, there is no firewood here, and I am afraid we have to eat it raw."

Although it is said to be eaten raw.

However, Abraham couldn't help but swallow.

As long as you can fill your stomach, let alone eating raw meat, there is no problem with eating big *.

Omi picked up the big bird on his own, and when he reached out and grasped it, the knife appeared in his hand.

Soon, the big bird's hair was removed.

Then, Omi's thoughts moved slightly, and various seasonings appeared in front of him.

A burst of smear.

"laugh!"

The next moment, a flame appeared out of thin air under the big bird that had been smeared with seasoning.

see this...

Abraham's eyes widened, he stammered: "Fire...flame...a flame is burning in the air!"

Then, he said in an unbelievable voice, " Omi, you really know magic!"

Jill Ku, who was next to him, couldn't stand it any longer, and said with a smile, "My master, this is not magic, it's kung fu, Chinese kung fu!"

"Huaxia Kung Fu?" Abraham said blankly.

"Yes!" Gilku nodded vigorously, "Also, this is nothing to Master at all, and you will find out later!"

While speaking, Gil Ku's face couldn't help showing a look of fascination.

"laugh!"

At this time, wisps of strong fragrance permeated from the big bird, which was very attractive.

Abraham looked at the golden bird and couldn't help swallowing.

Omi took a knife and cut it a few times before saying, "Well, it's almost there."

He first cut a piece of meat into his mouth and muttered: "Sure enough, it is better to use wood to grill the meat, it will have a smoky taste."

In fact, this is also the reason why Omi asked Gilku and Tengu to pick up firewood every day.

Then, Omi said, "You guys eat too."

"Yes, Master." Jill said coolly.

While speaking, he stepped forward and tore a piece of meat.

Tengu bit off a thigh directly.

Abra rarely ate everyone, so he didn't hesitate.

"Bah, ahh!"

"Gollum, Gollum!"

The mouth of the roasted bird is full of fragrance.

Abraham exclaimed sincerely: "It's so delicious!"

Then, he took two sharp bites.

Then, he sighed again: "I can guarantee it! Even the chefs of our Xiongguo Hotel will never be able to make such delicious barbecue!"

"So delicious!"

The words fall, UU reading He took a hard bite of the barbecue again, and the fat shot out.

Huaxia live broadcast room.

[. . . : It's time to eat and broadcast every day.]

[Daze with you: Looking at the white rice porridge in the bowl, I want to say, why was I not selected? I don't want physique, I don't want mental power, I just want to eat Lin Shenxian's barbecue!]

[Yueer Wanwan: So fragrant!]

[Little painter: Master, can I eat the barbecue you made in the future?]

[Punch: Silently drooling.]

...

As more and more people like Omi's barbecue.

Some people seem to smell a business opportunity and hurriedly registered trademarks such as Lin Shenxian Roast Meat, Omi Roast Meat, and so on.

Naturally, Omi didn't know that his name was already tied to the barbecue.

After a full meal, the sky also completely darkened.

How hot the desert is during the day, how cold it is at night.

In the vast desert, a gust of wind blew, and the whole person trembled three times.

Abraham said: "There seems to be no bunkers nearby."

"Omi, you go to bed first, I'll watch the night, I still have a quilt here."

Sleeping in the desert is very dangerous.

Especially forbidden deserts.

No one knows if there will be a sudden sandstorm.

Then, all the sleeping people will probably be buried alive.

No one knew if a terrifying monster would suddenly appear.

Then, all the people who sleep may directly become food.

Therefore, in general, a vigil is a very necessary thing.

While others sleep, the night watchman has to stay awake in the cold desert.

Undoubtedly, the night watchman is very hard.

However, Abraham took the initiative to take it over.

Omi said, "There is no need for a night watch."

Then, he got up and drew a large circle of 300 square meters around it.

[Skill: Draw a circle for home!]

"laugh!"

Suddenly, the desert, which was cold and windy, suddenly stopped as if the wind had stopped.

temperature, began to rise.

When Abraham was puzzled, Omi moved his thoughts slightly and took out three sleeping bags.

“Go to sleep.”

Abraham widened his eyes again and said in disbelief, “This... sleeping bag?”

“my God!”

“Where did you get this from?”

“Your magic is so powerful!”

Gil Ku corrected: “This is Kung Fu! Chinese Kung Fu!”

Omi didn't explain any further, and got into his sleeping bag directly.

He slept very soundly tonight.

Because the sleeping bag is already warm and comfortable, and the desert makes the sleeping bag a little softer.

In a blink of an eye, it was the next day.

The sun seems to have added enough fuel, and soon the entire desert becomes extremely hot.

The air... wriggled again.

Omi, Tengu, Gilku, and Abraham continued to move towards the unknown distance.

At this moment, a clear prompt sounded in Omi's mind.

【Ding! Live in another world for 864 hours and gain 600 Constitution points.】

Strength, grow again.

Three people and one dog walk every day during the day, eat meat and sleep at night, and live a very comfortable life.

In the blink of an eye, 5 days have passed.

In the past five days, they encountered three monsters, all of which were easily killed by Omi, allowing him to gain 10,000 physique and 6,000 mental strength.

Every day, Omi's power would skyrocket.

Huaxia live broadcast room.

[Remnant candle in the wind: Although I watched the desert for several days, I don't feel tired at all, it's still beautiful!]

[Youth: I also think it is very beautiful.]

[Tiantian: But, the desert is so dangerous.]

[Shang Shan Ruo Shui: It's really dangerous! I just watched the live broadcast on the Internet, and several heroes from Malaysia, the Philippines, and Agro have been eaten by monsters lurking in the desert. It's terrible.]

[Future: In the desert, there is nothing but sand... It's too easy to hide monsters.]

[123 Wooden Man: F*ck! The hero who founded the country just saw a building in the desert, but before he could walk in, he was eaten by a snake.]

[Just love you: I saw it too!]

[Chunchun: Could it be a mirage?]

[Feng: What are you talking about, is it the one in front?]

[Sweaty: What the hell! Lin Shenxian also encountered that building!]

...

Jill Ku, who was walking in the desert, shouted, "Master, there seems to be a building ahead!"

In fact, she didn't need to say much at all.

Omi had already seen it.

However, he didn't care too much.

Even, he not only saw.

And, also saw... the shape of the building, kind of like a temple.

Abraham next to him said in surprise: "There will be buildings in the desert?"

"Is it a mirage?"

"However, isn't this another world? There shouldn't be a mirage of this kind of building, right?"

At this moment, the tengu suddenly let out a loud bark.

"Wang!"

Omi understood what it said.

"There's something ahead!"

The next moment, a golden python several meters thick rushed out.

"laugh!"

The suffocating suffocation that permeated people, filled the air, making people's heart tremble.

Then, it opened its ferocious teeth and rushed towards the crowd, as if to swallow them all in one fell swoop.

To this...

Omi didn't lift his eyelids and drew his sword.

"laugh!"

A crescent-shaped sword light flew out.

next moment.

The head of the golden python, like a boulder rolling down from a mountain, landed on the desert and made a dull sound.

Blood shot!

No matter how powerful the monsters were, they couldn't resist any attack from Omi.

Then, an emotionless voice sounded from the scene.

"Be the first to kill a level 7 golden python and get a level 7 treasure chest."

"Being the first to kill a level 7 golden python, China's pollution is reduced by 10%."

Omi directly opened the treasure chest.

"600 mental power, do you want to use it?"

In his mind, a pleasant prompt sounded immediately.

【Ding! Congratulations, you have gained 6000 mental power. 】

Omi casually tossed the ball of light in the treasure chest into the Tengu's body.

Then, the group continued to walk forward.

After a while, they came to the quaint and dilapidated building.

Buildings have shadows.

It is not a mirage!

It is a building that really exists in the desert!

Simply, incredible!

Omi slowly raised his head.

The next moment, he was stunned for a moment.

Because, above the building, there is an ancient plaque.

On the plaque, there are several traditional Chinese characters written:
Xiaoleiyin Temple!

Huaxia live broadcast room.

Xiaobing covered her mouth and said, "Little Leiyin Temple? What's going on?"

The barrage in the live broadcast room was like a downpour, completely filling the entire screen.

[Cold salad: sh*t!]

[Misaka Mikoto: What the hell!]

[Shangguan Ming: What the hell!]

[Speed tester: What the hell!]

...

After a while, other barrages appeared on the screen of UU Reading .

[Jiang Cheng: Lin Shenxian and the others are not in the forbidden land of another world? How come there are Chinese characters?]

[The Depression of the Wind and the Depression of the Cloud: Xiaoleiyin Temple? Isn't this the temple in Journey to the West?]

[Red and swollen: Could it be that another world is the world of Journey to the West?]

[Unification of the world: hiss! The fairy tale is the otherworld?]

[At the beginning of human beings, nature is good: what a trough! If the other world is Journey to the West, then, aren't we reading fairy tales before? Are you looking at history?]

[The faint scent of tea: If you say this, the people in the fairy tales also exist? Is there an old gentleman? Is there a Jade Emperor? Even Sun Wukong? Nest that big grass!]

[Hello tomorrow: My blood is suddenly boiling!]

[Mi Fan: Do you think that Lin Shenxian will meet Buddha in Xiaoleiyin Temple later?]

[Simple and honest: This... should be impossible, right? Moreover, Xiaoleiyin Temple seems to be the catastrophe and trap in "Journey to the West".]

Abraham seemed to notice the change in Omi's expression, and couldn't help but ask, "You... recognize the words above?"

"Little Leiyin Temple." Omi said.

Hearing the cool words of Jill next to him, a pair of eyes instantly lit up.

"Temple? Temple?! The world's martial arts come out of temples! Master, are there many powerful martial arts secrets in here?" Jill Ku exclaimed excitedly.

Omi twitched the corners of his mouth slightly.

Gil Ku was afraid that he was not watching martial arts TV dramas every day?

Omi shook his head and walked forward.

He was also curious about this little Leiyin Temple.

Generally speaking, a temple is a place where the Buddha is worshipped, and it should be long-lasting and majestic.

However, the moment everyone walked into the Xiaoleiyin Temple, they only felt a gust of wind hit them, which made them shiver.

The light inside is extremely dim, and if several people are far apart, they can't even see each other's figure clearly.

Several people keep moving forward...

Abraham frowned and said, "There seems to be something ahead..."

The crowd continued to walk forward with doubts.

The next moment, a giant statue with a height of about 10 meters and a hideous face with 10 snake tails appeared in front of him.

In the temple, there is no Buddha statue, but a monster statue is erected. How strange?

When he saw this statue, Abraham's heart trembled inexplicably, and his hair stood up involuntarily.

He whispered: "I don't know what's going on, I suddenly feel a little palpitations."

Gilku said in a trembling voice, "I...Me too."

"Tap Tap!"

At this moment, a dull voice suddenly appeared in the darkness.

Jill Ku said in horror: "What... what sound?"

"Wang!"

Tengu followed and called out into the darkness.

Omi's expression was always calm.

Others can't see the situation in the dark, but he can see clearly.

Because he has night vision eyes.

The next moment, a skinny man slowly appeared in front of everyone.

He is a white-skinned person, and in this dark space, he looks extremely dignified and strange.

...

Huaxia live broadcast room.

[123 Wooden Man: Isn't this Anthony Lawson, the hero of the country? He died not long ago!]

[Kite flying in the sky: That's right! It's Anthony Lawson! He's a painter, and I've seen interviews with him before.]

[Heart: Wasn't he eaten by snakes? Why is it here again?]

[Forced by life: Could the snake just swallow him? not digested?]

[Great, good: how is it possible? ! I watched him get his head broken by a snake! All hands and feet were bitten off! Very bloody!]

[Clear Sky: This... Could it be a ghost?]

As soon as these words came out, the barrage in the live broadcast room suddenly stopped.

When Gilku saw that it was a white man, he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief, and said in English, "Hello, I'm Gilku from Baiguo, who are you?"

The white man grinned, revealing a set of sharp teeth.

The next moment, he suddenly opened his mouth wide...

The entire mouth turned out to be several meters in size, and behind it, a snake body several meters thick stretched out!

This... turned out to be a giant python!

The giant python slammed into Gilku, Omi, Abraham, and Tengu.

That look...

As if to swallow them all in one bite.

Evil, terrible!

Gil Ku, Abraham and the others all turned pale.

Omi drew his sword very calmly.

"laugh!"

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 656-660

A sword light flashed.

The huge mouth... and the sturdy silver snake body behind it, split into two straight from the middle.

Slash it with one sword!

"Clap!"

Blood flowed freely.

There was an emotionless voice at the scene.

"Be the first to kill a level 7 silver python and get a level 7 treasure chest."

"The first to kill a level 7 silver python, the number of endangered animals in China has increased by 50%."

...

Huaxia live broadcast room.

Xiaobing patted her chest lightly and said, "It scared me to death."

[Above the Mountains and Rivers: Fool! That person turned out to be a silver python!]

[Wind: No wonder, how do I say that the person who ate the hero of the country before seemed to be a silver python, and it turned out to be this one.]

[Essence of Life: Fortunately, Lin Shenxian responded quickly enough.]

[Optimus Prime: Immortal Lin, invincible!]

[Swaying trees: Hey, the number of endangered animals has increased by another 50%! So, I might be able to raise pandas soon? Immortal Lin, Ollie here!]

...

Omi opened the treasure chest in front of him.

"500 mental power, do you want to use it?"

At the same time, a clear prompt sounded in his mind.

[Ding! Congratulations, you will get a special red envelope, 5000 mental power.]

Mental strength, growth.

Omi turned and said, "Tiangu, use these 500 points of mental power."

Tengu wagged his tail a little, and went forward to touch the light ball with his dog scratcher.

When Omi opened the treasure chest and Tengu used 500 mental power, no one noticed the ground of the rock slab, like a sponge, and quickly sucked the blood of the sound python into it.

Soon, there was nothing left.

On the other hand, the huge statue not far away, its dark eyes swayed slightly, very strange.

“Crack!”

Then, a slight crack appeared on the surface of the statue, and a wisp of dust fell down, landing right on Gilku’s head.

He couldn’t help rubbing his head and muttered, “A lot of gray.”

“Wang!”

The tengu, who had just used his mental power, suddenly opened his mouth and let out a loud bark.

At the same time, all the hair on its body stood up.

It is ready to fight at any time!

Jill Ku said, “Tengu, what’s wrong with you?”

“Crack!”

“Crack!”

At this time, the cracking sound became louder and louder.

“Boom!”

“Boom!”

The stones on the surface of the statue fell one after another, hitting the ground with a loud noise.

Gilku cried out in horror, “Master, this place seems to be collapsing!”

However, Omi didn’t seem to hear it, just quietly raised his head and looked forward.

Gilku couldn’t help but look up.

In the next instant, Gilku’s eyes widened and his mouth opened, and he was completely stunned.

Because, he saw the giant monster statue erected in front, UU reading www. . com came alive.

After dropping the stones on the surface, the monster revealed its golden skin.

10 sturdy snake tails are constantly twisting, and on their hideous heads, a pair of sharp eyes are filled with scarlet rays of light.

A terrifying and terrifying aura turned into a cold air visible to the naked eye, and spread to the surrounding area.

this moment...

Everyone...even the entire space seemed to be frozen by this terrible aura, unable to move at all.

At this moment, the giant monster made a loud sound.

"You are so brave!"

The sound was like thunder, making everyone's ears buzz.

The entire Xiaoleiyin Temple also shook.

It actually spit out words!

Moreover, it still speaks Chinese!

Huaxia live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing's eyes widened, and her pretty face was full of disbelief.

So much so that she didn't explain it right away.

[Heart of the Void: Lying trough! That statue turned out to be alive!]

[Three watch in the middle of the night: Moreover, he can speak and speak Chinese dialect! What the * is going on here?]

[Dongfanghong: Little Leiyin Temple, Journey to the West... Could it be that the other world is really Journey to the West? Journey to the West is a history of another world!]

[Zi Mei: It's terrible! That monster is so scary! Even across the screen, I was shaking with fear.]

[Magic Scorpion: This is definitely not an ordinary monster, I hope Lin Shenxian can defeat it!]

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Hu Tian and others watched the live broadcast without blinking.

They clenched their small fists and said seriously, " Omi will definitely be able to defeat it!"

Obviously, they were also shocked by the momentum of the giant monster, and felt its horror.

...

Alien.

The giant monster said again: "You are the first human beings to come to me, it is rare."

"I haven't talked to humans for a long time. Logically speaking, I should have a good chat with you, and it can be considered to relieve my boredom."

"After all, I've been here too long and it's so boring."

"However, you actually killed Xiaojin and Xiaoyin... You guys are so courageous!"

A terrifying overcast wind spurted out, blowing all the falling rocks on the ground and hitting the wall in the distance, turning them into dust.

At this time, Omi, who had not spoken for a long time, finally opened his mouth and said indifferently, "Have you heard a word?"

"Villain, die for talking too much!"

When the words fell, Omi suddenly pulled out the Starfall Sword.

[One of the swords, draw the sword and cut the sky!]

"laugh!"

A stern sword light shot out from the air and slashed at the monster.

"boom!"

A metal crashing sound rippled through the scene.

The terrifying sword energy made Xiaoleiyin Temple begin to crack, as if it were about to collapse at any time.

On the monster's golden skin, there was a huge scar and blood was spilled.

However, it did not fall down, but let out a frantic roar.

“Roar!”

“How dare you hurt me!”

“Roar!”

The deafening roar made the entire palace tremble.

the first time...

It was the first time that Omi failed to kill the enemy with one sword.

Then, the 10 hideous snake heads behind the monster all opened their * mouths, swept away with a terrifying breath, and slammed into Omi.

Fast and terrifying!

Ambush from all sides, nothing more than that!

Omi’s expression didn’t change, and he didn’t even have any thoughts of dodging.

dodge?

No!

He directly greeted him head-on!

Omi stepped out one step at a time, and at the same time, waving the Starfall Sword.

“Boom!”

A mountain-like snake head fell heavily to the ground.

Blood spilled!

Take another step.

Another snake head fell to the ground.

One step to cut a head, 10 steps to destroy!

It was at this time that Omi had appeared right in front of the monster.

He raised the Starfall Sword again and spit out a word: "Cut!"

[Skill: Eighth of Swords!]

"boom!"

A dazzling sword beam spewed out, instantly splitting the monster from the middle, splitting it into two!

No!

Not only the monsters, the Little Leiyin Temple, and even the entire land, all split into two from the middle!

Xiaoleiyin Temple... collapsed!

The earth...a deep ravine appeared!

The power...is terrifying to such an extent!

Huaxia live broadcast room.

Xiao Bing opened her mouth wide and was completely stunned.

Countless barrages fell like a torrential rain.

[Sorrow after getting used to it: 666!]

[Newcomer: 666!]

[Slim words: 66666!]

...

Countless '666' words are densely distributed throughout the live broadcast room.

After a long time, other barrages began to appear.

[Banxia Weiyang: Lin Shenxian is so awesome! Sword God! That's right! Lin Shenxian must be a sword god!]

[Zhou: Heaven does not give birth to my immortal Lin, and kendo is like a long night!]

[Frozen Wolf: I don't even know what words to use to describe Lin Shenxian, I just want to say, * it, awesome!]

[Everyone: The blood is boiling! This is definitely a special effect that no game, movie, or anime can do! Cool!]

[Grand: Immortal Lin, invincible!]

...

The entire screen was filled with praise and admiration for Omi.

Xia Bing, Xia Xue, Hu Tian and others, with their beautiful eyes, were always staring at the screen.

They recalled Omi's sword swinging movements in their minds, their breathing became rapid, and their pretty faces turned crimson.

This is the person you like!

amazing!

...

Among the countless excited barrages, there was an inconspicuous barrage that was quickly wiped away.

[Hmm: Strange, why haven't the treasure chests appeared yet?]

...

Alien.

The monster's body was broken in two, and blood was gushing out.

At this time, a strange picture appeared.

"Crash!"

The gravel in the distance, as if attracted, flew to the middle of the broken body of the monster.

Then, dragging the two halves, they merged together.

And, quickly repaired all its wounds.

The rift that was cut in the middle disappeared, and the 10 snake heads were reattached to the monster.

It... came to life!

The monster's eyes were scarlet, and he said: "The strength is not bad! It killed me once, very good!"

Omi said lightly, "What's the use of being alive?"

When the words fell, he swung his sword again.

"boom!"

The dazzling sword light once again divided the monster into two from the middle.

But soon, the gravel moved again, as if to re-bond and repair the monster as before.

Omi's eyes narrowed slightly, and the Star Meteor Sword danced a sword flower in the air.

In the next instant, countless sword lights with dazzling brilliance condensed in the air.

[The Nine of Swords, ten thousand swords come out!]

"Go!" Omi shouted softly.

"call out!"

The sword light that filled the sky, like a gust of wind and rain, rushed towards the two halves of the monster's body.

"Boom boom boom!"

With a loud noise, the monster's body was cut into countless pieces.

The whole world was quiet.

"rustle!"

However, the silence did not last long.

The grit moved quickly. UU reading

Gradually, they combined all the broken monster bodies together.

Not long after, a complete monster reappeared in front of Omi.

The monster laughed loudly: "Want to kill me? What a joke!"

"You know, my body is made of gravel!"

"As long as there is grit, I can be resurrected!"

"This level 9 forbidden area is all made of gravel, so I am immortal here!"

It was not worried at all that Omi knew his secret.

Strength, fear nothing!

Omi's expression did not change at all, and he was always indifferent.

"Can the gravel be resurrected? If so, let the gravel disappear."

PS: "

The quaint and majestic Little Leiyin Temple had already completely collapsed during the battle between Omi and the monster, turning into a pile of ruins.

Gilku, Abraham, and Tengu, from beginning to end, just stood silently by the side without any movement.

Gilku and Abraham were taken aback by the terrifying aura of the monster.

On the other hand, Tengu received a signal from Omi not to use it for help.

The sun shot out a dazzling light, making the entire forbidden area seem to be in a big furnace, extremely hot.

A gust of wind blew, and a wisp of hot grit was thrown.

The monster laughed: "Make the gravel disappear? Hahaha!"

It seemed to have heard the funniest joke in the world, and its whole body shook.

Omi said indifferently, "That's right!"

When the words fell, the cloudless sky suddenly became densely covered with dark clouds.

"Boom!"

A blast of thunder sounded, forming countless ferocious thunder snakes, swimming frantically in the air, as if tearing the entire sky into countless pieces.

“Crash!”

Then, pea-sized rainwater slapped down.

Heroes of all countries have long been thirsty.

This sudden torrential rain was a life-saver for them.

The heroes opened their mouths one after another and drank contentedly.

“Wow!”

The next moment, the soft sand under your feet gradually condenses and hardens!

From golden yellow to gray!

The heroes were quickly surprised to discover that all the gravel had turned into normal soil!

When they were astonished, the gray surface grew at a speed visible to the naked eye... green grass and sturdy trees!

Endless meadows and overlapping forests!

Everyone was stunned.

Lifeless desert, a forest at a glance!

miracle!

In fact, it is not just the heroes of various countries who are stunned.

Tengu...even that gigantic monster was equally stunned.

Disbelief was written all over their faces.

After a while, the monster shouted, “Where’s the desert? Where’s my desert?”

“No!”

“No! It must be an illusion!”

“Yes, hallucination!”

The desert is the foundation of its life!

The desert is gone...then it...

Omi said, "Whether it's an illusion, you'll know after you experience it."

When the words fell, Omi raised the Starfall Sword aloft and suddenly fell.

[Skill: Eighth of Swords!]

A vast sword glow swept out with a terrifying breath.

This sword glow completely illuminated the monster's eyes.

the first time.....

On its hideous face, fear appeared for the first time.

The monster hurriedly moved its body, trying to avoid the sword glow.

However, the speed of Jianmang is too fast, and its response is too late.

"No!"

"boom!"

Jianmang falls!

The body of the monster, as well as the solid ground, was divided into two.

The hot blood sprayed and fell into the bottomless ravine.

For a long time, not a single piece of gravel flew to the monster's side.

And the monster's body has never been closed or repaired.

In fact, this is also normal.

To know.....

Omi has advanced soil control skills, which can easily change the properties of the land, such as turning deserts into land, turning land into rocks, and so on.

However, this forbidden area is too large.

In addition, Omi was on the safe side.

He also used advanced mine control and advanced water control to make the sky pour downpour.

Then, using the advanced wood control technique, the entire land grows dense forests.
