

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 805

Then, the howling wind, pouring rain, the windows kept shaking, and the sound of 'popping' was heard.

I don't know how long it took before the sound slowly stopped.

Hu Tian slowly got up and walked out slowly.

After a while, Han Tian walked in.

She whispered: "I... also want children."

The heavy rain, which had just stopped, slanted down again.

"Clap clap clap!"

The rain kept hitting the glass, making a crisp sound.

Then, there were Chu Yunyue, Chen Xin, Xu Jingrou, Su Ningjing, Ling Rou, Qiu Ziqian, Huang Ling, Qin Yuxuan, Su Ningjing, Xia Bing, Xia Xue...these kept repeating.

Such days lasted for a year.

On this day, Omi suddenly felt life fluctuations in Hu Tian and Chu Yunyue's stomachs.

Gulu

His heart beat fast a few times.

At the same time, his whole person suddenly had some enlightenment.

The intersection of yin and yang, the creation of life and death!

Immediately, a black energy and white energy filled Omi's body.

With Omi as the center, these two energies revolved continuously, like two swimming fish, and gradually formed a gossip pattern.

This gossip array continued to expand, and after a while, the entire sky turned black and white.

Incredibly peculiar!

Everyone looked up, or took out their mobile phones to take pictures, or kept talking.

At this moment, a clear prompt sounded in Omi's mind.

【Ding! Congratulations, you have comprehended the laws of the Yin system (primary). 】

【Ding! Congratulations, you have comprehended the law of the sun system (primary). 】

【Ding! Congratulations, the number of the avenues of law has reached 10, and you have obtained 1 billion experience points, the primary law upgrade gem*1, the epiphany of heaven and earth*1, and the entrance to the long river of time*1. 】

Omi felt the two mysterious powers in his body, as well as the growing energy, and a faint smile appeared on his face.

“Wow!”

His breath faded, and the black and white colors on his body and the black screen disappeared without a trace.

Everything is back to normal.

“Tap Tap!”

At this time, Hu Tian and Qiu Ziqian trotted over.

They excitedly said, “Omi, we seem to have it!”

Most people, even if they are pregnant, can hardly notice it.

However, after more than ten years of cultivation, they are no longer ordinary people and can easily feel their own changes.

Omi said, “Yes, we are going to be parents soon!”

Speaking of which, a smile appeared on his face.

Han Tian, Su Ningjing, Huang Ling, Xia Xue, Xia Bing and others followed, and while they were happy about it, they were also a little disappointed.

Why don't you have it yourself?

On this day, the entire Panlong Villa was filled with laughter and laughter.

In the next period of time, Omi, like many soon-to-be fathers, took care of Hu Tian and Qiu Ziqian very carefully.

In the blink of an eye, 9 months have passed.

There is an old saying: in October you are pregnant.

However, this is not a complete word.

The whole thing is: at most October pregnancy.

Because, the vast majority of people will give birth to a child in 9 months of pregnancy, and at most 10 months of pregnancy, the child will definitely be born.

However, 9 months later, Hu Tian and Qiu Ziqian don't even have children, their stomachs show no signs of getting bigger.

This can not help but make everyone feel very surprised.

If it wasn't for the fact that there were still two lively beatings in their stomachs, everyone would probably think that they were not pregnant at all.

Dai Weixue comforted: "Good things take a long time! Maybe it's Xiaotian and Ziqian's children. They want to stay with their mother for a while, so don't worry."

Everyone just nodded in agreement.

10 months, 15 months, 18 months, 24 months passed.

Hu Tian and Qiu Ziqian's stomachs still haven't changed much.

At first, Hu Tian and Qiu Ziqian were not too anxious, they just felt at ease to raise the baby.

However, as time passed, they became a little anxious.

They began to eat spiritual fruit and began to cultivate with their hearts.

Because they are worried that the child in their belly may be undernourished.

It can't grow up.

Or, as the novel says, their own children inherit the strong blood of their parents and need to be brewed in the stomach for thousands of years before they can be born.

If it is the second case, they must be able to live for at least a few thousand years, right?

Otherwise, if the child is not born, he will die of old age first, so what should we do?

Originally, Han Tian, Su Ningjing, Huang Ling, Song Jiabin and others also wanted to work hard to break the child as soon as possible.

However, with the examples of Hu Tian and Qiu Ziqian, they began to suspend again and turned into more hard work.

Only with a higher cultivation base and a longer lifespan can successfully give birth to a child.

For a time, the cultivation atmosphere of the entire Panlong Villa was unprecedentedly strong.

Omi looked at the people who were cultivating hard, and there was a strange look on his face.

Then, he slowly focused his attention on the primary law to upgrade gems and the law of life (primary).

[Is it against the law of life (primary), use the primary law to upgrade gems?]

“Yes!”

Immediately, Omi’s whole body was filled with vitality like the sea.

Even the yard where he was located was covered with slate.

However, in the blink of an eye, a green plant grew on the rock slab at a speed visible to the naked eye, and splendid flowers bloomed.

Fragrant and beautiful!

This scene quickly attracted the attention of the hard-working people.

They exclaimed, “It’s so fragrant!”

“so beautiful!”

“So beautiful!”

...

Hu Tian asked, "Omi, are you breaking through again?"

Omi said, "There has been a breakthrough in the power of law."

When everyone heard the words, they were even more happy. Looking at Omi's beautiful eyes, they became even hotter.

This is the man you like!

It was night, and the wind whistled again, and the rain fell on the windows, crackling.

In the blink of an eye, a month has passed.

On this day, Omi sat alone in the bedroom and focused his attention on the entrance to the long river of time.

【Ding! Have you entered the long river of time? 】

A white hole appeared in Omi's mind.

He has a very real feeling that as long as his mind moves slightly, he can reach the unknown world.

Omi murmured in a low voice, "What is the long river of time?"

[The long river of time is a very mysterious river. Walking in it can increase your understanding of various laws, exercises, formations, etc., and increase your cultivation more quickly.]

Omi was stunned for a moment.

The system... actually still answering questions?

Omi hurriedly said, "Is it dangerous to enter the river of time?"

[There is a certain danger.]

"Will it die?"

【Will not. 】

"What kind of danger would that be?"

[Need to consume 100 spirit stones, do you answer?]

Omi said without thinking, "Answer!"

Now, he is on earth.

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 806

Spirit crystals may be difficult to obtain.

However, the spirit stone... still not difficult.

Because the earth has many spiritual stone veins.

"Wow!"

Immediately, the 100 spirit stones in Omi's inner space turned into a brilliance and disappeared.

[When encountering a strong person who is also walking in the long river of time, there is a possibility of being attacked. The time and the river is the soul that enters it, and the soul of ordinary people will be damaged if they are defeated. However, after entering the river of time, this system has a special power to protect the soul of the host, so the soul will not be affected.]

Omi felt relieved after hearing this.

Then, he again set his eyes on the entrance of the long river of time.

Thoughts move.

"Wow!"

The next moment, he felt as if his whole body was being pulled in by a powerful suction.

A whirlwind.

The next moment, Omi appeared in a vast white space.

Up and down.

Wisps of mysterious energy revolved around him constantly.

Omi looked around with curious eyes.

Then, he took a step forward.

“Wow!”

Immediately, the ground under his feet floated up and down violently, and a green road several meters wide appeared that stretched toward the endless distance.

The law of wood in Omi’s body surged quickly and was very active.

When Omi took another step forward, the Law of Wood became more active.

As he continued to move forward along the green road, Omi had a very real feeling that with each step forward, his control over the Law of Wood increased by one point.

Correspondingly, Omi’s footsteps became heavier.

When he walked out of 100 meters, he finally could no longer move forward.

But, even so, Omi’s Law of Wood has also grown considerably.

In desperation, Omi had no choice but to take a step and walk out of the green path.

“laugh!”

Immediately, a transparent road appeared in front of Omi that stretched into the endless distance.

In an instant, his water law became active.

Omi walked along the transparent road as before.

When he was unable to move forward, he changed another path, this time the sword-shaped path, the earth-type path, the gold-type path, the spear-shaped path, the life-type path, the death-type path, the yin-type path, the yang-type path...

When he came to the fire element road, he hadn’t waited for Omi to go far.

A loud voice came from behind.

“An ant-like cultivation base also wastes time cultivating various laws and exercises, hum!”

With a muffled groan, Omi only saw a man in fiery red armor flashing past from a distance.

Then, Omi fell out of the river of time.

“call!”

Omi couldn't help but let out a long sigh of relief.

“Then... who is it?”

[Zhu Yan: The cultivation base is unknown, the master of the Fire God Palace. Because your cultivation base is low and weak, but you practice a variety of laws and exercises, you think that you are not greedy enough, and thus have a bad impression on you. The current hatred is 1 star.]

see this...

Omi was a little surprised at first, his cultivation base was unknown.

Obviously, very powerful.

When he saw that he thought he was not greedy enough and hated himself, the corners of Omi's mouth twitched again.

He can practice as many laws and exercises as he wants to. What does it matter to him?

Is he a pacifist cop?

After a while, Omi put the matter aside.

He silently felt the power of the powerful laws and the rolling energy in his body, and there was a smile that could not be concealed on his face.

【Host: Omi】

[Repair: Stellar Level 9 (6.5 billion/10 billion)]

The experience value has increased by billions, and the time is really amazing!

“Squeak!”

Omi slowly opened the door, Han Tian, Xia Xue, Xia Bing, Su Ning and others were all waiting at the door.

When they saw Omi, they all said happily, “Omi, are you out?!”

Exit?

Omi couldn't help but be stunned.

It seems that I just walked a few distances in the long river of time, and it didn't take long in total, right?

How did it turn out to be out?

Wait, time is long?

Omi couldn't help but ask, "How long has it been since I came out?"

"It's been more than half a year." Han Tian said.

Omi was secretly shocked. As expected of something related to time, he didn't feel the flow of time at all.

At this moment, Chu Yunyue came over and said, "Omi, are you out? Come on, Hu Tian is about to give birth!"

Gu Jia

"Really?" Omi said excitedly.

Then, his mental power instantly covered the entire Panlong Villa.

Soon, he saw Hu Tian lying on the bed with a big belly, his face covered in sweat.

The life force in Hu Tian's belly is very strong, and even through the observation of Omi's mental power, he can see the baby's small hands and legs in the belly. He... is really about to be born!

Omi didn't think too much about why Hu Tian's stomach didn't change at all in the past few years.

Now, after a few months, it suddenly became such a big thing.

He directly flashed and came to Hu Tian's side.

Dai Weixue was startled and said, "Omi, why did you come in? Get out, get out!"

Omi held Hu Tian's hand and said, "Don't worry, I'm always here."

After years of practice, Hu Tian's body has long been different from that of an ordinary person, and giving birth to a child is not that difficult for her at all.

At this time, seeing Omi's arrival again, Hu Tian's pretty face became more relaxed.

She smiled and said, "Yeah!"

At this moment, Hu Tian's stomach shook.

Omi knew that the child was about to be born.

So, he said, "I'll wait for you outside."

"Okay." Hu Tian always kept smiling.

Sure enough, not long after Omi left the room, the cry of a baby came from inside.

"Wow wow wow!"

The sound is crisp and powerful.

"Squeak!"

The door opened, and Dai Weixue came out with a baby in her arms, smiling all over her face: "It's a boy! A very beautiful boy! I have never seen such a beautiful boy before!"

pretty?

Just beautiful!

Dai Weixue definitely did not exaggerate.

Because this baby is as crystal clear as jade, with * and bright eyes, fair skin, delicate mouth... Every part of the body seems to have been carefully carved out by God.

Dai Weixue said again: "Also, he would cry as soon as he was born, listen to this, it's too loud! Giggles!"

Lin Xiaoyao on the side said excitedly: "Hug me, Mom, give me a hug."

Dai Weixue said, "What are you holding? Give Omi a hug first."

After he finished speaking, he slowly handed the baby to Omi.

Omi held the baby in his arms and looked at his figure carved in pink and jade, and his face was full of smiles.

I have a son!

I have become a dad!

It's a very strange feeling.

Omi said, "Call Dad."

"Dad...Dad." The baby made a very clear voice.

Dai Weixue, who was next to him, said in surprise, "Oh my God! He can actually be called Dad! This is amazing! He was called Dad when he was born!"

"Prodigy! This is definitely a prodigy!"

"Hehehe!" The baby seemed to know that Dai Weixue was complimenting himself, and his whole face became a ball of laughter.

Lin Xiaoyao said unbearably, "Brother, you've been hugging for a while. Now it's my turn, so give me a hug."

Omi said, "Okay."

Dai Weixue said solemnly, "Be careful, don't drop the child!"

You know, Lin Xiaoyao is already a cultivator.

Her power control and reflexes are far beyond ordinary people.

Where will the child fall again?

Dai Weixue is concerned if she is concerned.

Lin Xiaoyao looked at the cute appearance of the baby and said, "Call me Auntie, dear, come and call me Auntie."

"Don't tell me yet?"

"Come, learn from me, little... aunt..."

"Little... aunt..."

However, no matter how Lin Xiaoyao taught.

The baby always just looked at her with a pair of black and bright eyes, and did not cry at all.
