

The Luckiest man in the world CHAPTER 813

Omi never thought about giving up the mission and still getting the reward.

These gains are simply like picking up for nothing.

Picking up is the happiest thing.

A faint smile appeared on Omi's face.

Then, he focused his attention on the Fire Spirit Crystal.

[Fire Spirit Crystal: A crystal that contains huge fire attribute energy. ]

Omi took out the spirit stones and spirit crystals, then drew a formation around him, and silently absorbed the energy contained in the fire spirit crystals.

Immediately, his whole person seemed to be ablaze with raging flames, his stature continued to grow, and he exuded an incomparably tyrannical aura, as if he had become a vast and sacred Fire God King, making his life come alive again.

Everyone was surprised when they heard the words.

Can a stone become a man?

Is the legend about Monkey King in "Journey to the West" true?

The crowd gathered around the small stone and kept asking questions.

As a result, there was another child in the huge Panlong Villa, full of laughter.

...

The central area of the Four Seasons Universe, the Temple of Heaven.

Many men and women exuding a tyrannical atmosphere all gathered together, or greeted each other, or whispered.

"Wow!"

At this time, a figure with a height of ten thousand feet, shrouded in golden light, appeared at the top.

When he appeared, the entire hall immediately quieted down.

The atmosphere became extremely solemn.

Then, everyone present bent down and said respectfully, "Meet the Emperor!"

The figure shrouded in the golden light nodded slightly and said, "All the ministers are flat."

His voice was incomparably loud, majestic, vast, and more and more awe-inspiring.

However, once he makes a move, he must hit it.

The wolf demon was in a state of extreme anger at this time, so he didn't realize it until Tang San's palm slapped the side of his eyes. Turning his head sharply, the wolf's mouth went straight to Tang San to bite.

Tang San's other hand grabbed his clothes at this moment, using the convenience of his small size, he pulled the wolf's fur and changed his direction. The position that was almost close to the third-order wolf demon's chest was flipped to the other side of the wolf demon.

The index finger and **** of the right hand were combined into sword fingers, and Xuanyu's hand urged, causing the **** to flash with a pure white jade color, piercing the eyes of the wolf demon who was turning back like lightning. 818

"Pfft!" The slender fingers were almost instantly engulfed in warmth. In terms of physical strength, Tang San was definitely far inferior to this third-order wolf monster, but if he was hit at the key, with the same level of energy, he would no longer be able to. There is no fluke.

Under the injection of Xuan Yu's hand, Xuan Tian Gong was almost spun into the wolf demon's brain. So that the other eye of the wolf demon also burst open in an instant, and the brain has been twisted into a mess. The roar came to an abrupt end as if the neck was stuck, and the strong body also fell to the ground.

Tang San kicked his toes on him, turning over and landing in a far place.

This blow can have such a result, or the rich combat experience in the previous life helped him. The child's thin body and the dark night are the best cover. In addition, the third-order wolf demon is in a rage, and the perception is weakened.

In a head-to-head confrontation, Tang San's mysterious jade hand might not be able to break through the thick skin of the wolf demon. However, the eyes are the most vulnerable places. If the eyes are pierced and injected with Xuantian energy, the dead can no longer die.

Both feet landed, and the third-order wolf demon on the other side had also stopped moving. Tang San breathed a sigh of relief. He didn't rush to check the human, but quickly lay on the ground, pressing his ears to the ground, listening to the surrounding movement to see if there were any chasing soldiers.

With his current strength, it is difficult to face the third-order wolf demon head-on. No matter how good his skills are, his young body is too weak. Once hit by a wolf demon, it is likely to be fatal. In the seemingly simple attack just now, he actually went all out to raise his spiritual will to the highest level.

There was no other movement around. Obviously, there were only two third-order wolf monsters who were chasing and killing those who could transform into humans. This also made Tang San heave a sigh of relief, otherwise, he would have to choose to escape.

Only then did he walk towards the human being, while remaining vigilant.

When he came to the man, he immediately found that the hair that had grown on the man had disappeared. Tang San's heartbeat couldn't help but increase a bit.

Given his childhood situation and the fact that he was not related to the man who turned into a human, the safest way to do this was to wait for the wolf demon to leave. In Tang San's original Douluo Continent world, there was a kind of spirit master with a beast spirit, capable of possessing similar abilities. You can also grow and become stronger by cultivating the beast spirit.

If there is a similar ability in this world, for him, if he can learn it, it will naturally be of great benefit to his own strength improvement, and it will be easier to integrate into this world!
