

Lycan Queen

Chapter 15: Karaoke Night

Once Conrad was fully ready to go, he gave me a kiss bye and walked out the bathroom.

"About damn time!"

I look over and see Soph standing in the doorway. "Sophie... You look... stunning!" It came out in a whisper.

I've always thought Soph was beautiful but tonight she looked like an Egyptian Goddess. Her long dark brown hair was in big soft curls falling down her back, her mile long tan legs on full display from under the silver long sleeve sequin dress she had on. The tall silver strappy stilettos she had on made her legs look even longer. Her purple smokey eyed makeup made her hazel eyes look almost gold.

"What, are you going to give me your come hither eyes too?"

"What, I can't check you out? Then don't walk around my house looking all fine and I won't." I say with a laugh.

She rolls her eyes at me and grabs the straightener and starts to curl my hair.

"Alright, makeup done." I turn around to face Soph.

"What do you mean that's done? You barely have anything on your face, sit down."

"Dang! So bossy tonight."

After about another 30 minutes my hair and makeup is finally done, I start to turn around towards the mirror but Soph stops me.

"Nope not till the dress and shoes are on."

"My shoes aren't that tall are they?"

"Hell no, I'm as graceful as a Gazelle... you're about as graceful as a baby deer."

"What! I can walk better than a baby deer in heels."

"Yeah but not these tall babies."

I unzip my garment bag to see a beautiful long sleeved sequin dress. It looked dark green at first but as I pulled it out of the bag, the light hitting it at different angles it started shimmering in a dark green, purple and blue, it looked a lot like a mermaid fin.

"Thought those colors would go good with your blonde hair, tan legs and make your green eyes pop."

"Sophie this dress is amazing!"

"Plus these are from a top designer's new collection, no one has them and we are going to make Beth piss herself if she is brave enough to show up tonight." Soph gives an evil laugh.

"Hell yeah, love that plan now let me get this beauty on."

"I'll grab your shoes" I put the dress on and walk out of the bathroom.

"Um Soph where is the rest of the back of this dress?"

"What do you mean?"

"It's almost all the way down to my butt."

"Oh goddess no it's not, it's just past the middle of your back, calm down. Put your foot in here."

I slide one foot into a black heel that only has two straps one over my toes and one around my ankle. "Soph you really out did yourself today."

"Thanks, you make it easy for me, I just simply enhance your natural beauty. Now go take a look."

I walk over to the full length mirror. If I hadn't been able to see Soph standing behind me in the mirror I would have thought I was looking at a picture of someone else. My blonde hair was in big loose curls falling just past my shoulders. My eye make up had a gold sparkle shadow that faded into a dark pink then into a brown color, Soph had placed a thin line of black eye liner and the mascara magic she did made my lashes look like they were a mile long. My dress was very fitted to my figure showing off every curve I had. The sleeves stopped at the perfect spot on my wrists.

"Now that is someone who looks stunning. Here are the finishing touches." She handed me a pair of gorgeous diamond halo stud earrings.

"Those are a gift from Conrad, they are all real diamonds and 14k white gold." She slipped a ring on my right ring finger that was a diamond studded letter B. "That is the match to mine." She said as she lifted her right hand to show a diamond studded S on her hand.

I stepped forward and gave her a big hug.

"Thank you for all of this, this has been so much fun."

"Well you're like the sister I never had."

"So are you Soph."

"Alright come on the driver will be here any minutes now."

"Driver?"

"Yeah I had to arrive in style for my own event."

I just laughed and rolled my eyes. "CAB'S HERE!" I yell when we hear a honk from outside.

Soph

The limo pulls up into the bar parking lot stopping at the end of the red carpet I had laid out just for our Queen B.

I open a mind link with Con and Anders "The queen has just arrived."

The driver is actually a Lycan from our pack, but like every Lycan from the pack here tonight he is playing along with my fun and having a blast too, he opens my door and holds out his hand to help me out of the limo. I step out shifting to the side to wait for Blake to slide out as well. I see Con and Anders quickly making their way down the stairs.

"Soph you look gorgeous" Anders mind links me.

I could hear Con's gasp from across the parking lot as Blake stepped out of the car. She froze him at the end of the red carpet. She gave him one of her sweet beautiful heart stopping smiles. She glances over at me and I motion with my head for her to go on. She starts walking down the red carpet with that same sway in her hips she had the last time she was here. A voice caught my attention. I didn't turn my head, I just zeroed in on it.

"Are those dresses from the new Chanel line?"

I recognized that voice as the mousey face girl that was here with Beth Saturday.

"Yeah"

"Oh my god Beth.. that's Blake."

"Robbie told me Blake got fired, there's no damn way that's her in a dress that expensive."

I don't know if Blake is doing this on purpose or if she's just that naturally savage. But she does a high fashion model move. She takes her hand and slowly slides her bangs out of her face right when she passes by where Beth is standing. When she reaches Conrad, he wraps his arms around her and gives her one hell of a kiss.

"When did him and Blake start dating?"

"I DON'T KNOW KATIE! But I sure as hell am going to find out who he is."

"Doesn't look like he will be interested in anyone else Beth."

"I will fix that."

I see Beth watching Con and Blake's every move as he escorts her up the stairs. That bitch better watch herself, I won't think twice about kicking her ass in these Chanel shoes. Then kick her ass again if she causes me to mess them or my dress up.

"Soph if you don't get your ass down here I'm going to throw you back in that limo and rip that dress off of you."

"Oh sweet face I'll make it worth the wait for sure." I mind linked Anders as I gave him a wink as I made my way down the red carpet into his arms as well.

"Sweetface, Beth is here and she's got her eyes on Con, have a feeling she's going to try and get to him when Blake isn't around."

"Let her try. Con will clean the floor with that whore."

"True!" I say through our mind link as I give him a sweet kiss.

Conrad

Watching her walking towards me left me completely breathless, she was absolutely stunning. She's always beautiful to me but this confidence in her walk was making me weak in the knees. She had her head held high, shoulders squared and that sway of them goddamn hips was driving me wild. Finally able to wrap my arms around her, I felt the intoxicating tingling shoot through my hand and up my arm as my hand made contact with the bare part of her back. My lips crashed into her as I pulled her in as tightly as I could.

"You look amazingly beautiful tonight baby girl."

"Thank you. You look extremely handsome yourself."

She gave me one more sweet kiss. I offered her my elbow, she wrapped her small hand in the bend of it and we made our way up the stairs.

When we got to the top we were greeted by Luca.

"Hello Alpha," he said, looking at me then turning to Blake. "Hello Luna".

"Hey baby face" Blake said with a smile as she stepped forward letting her hand fall from my elbow into my hand as she gave him a quick side hug. I felt her tug my hand a little so I stepped up right behind her.

"Luca, Robert (Robbie) Cooper Jr is not allowed in the bar tonight." She looked up at me almost like she was asking for permission or my backing for this to be aloud.

Giving her hand a light squeeze, I gave Luca a sharp nod.

"Absolutely Luna I will let all the staff know." Luca said towards Blake.

"If there's any issues let me know."

"There won't be any issues, I'll make sure of that Con. I won't allow what happened to Blakely on Saturday night to ever happen again."

"I know you won't let it little brother, we will see you inside shortly you're off tonight. We are enjoying the bar not working it this time."

Blake and I walk into the empty bar and I hear her giggle a little.

"Soph really went all out didn't she."

"Yeah she came in here last Sunday and went on a remodeling rampage."

I pointed to the roof. "She had glass panels installed. She said it gave a more rooftop feel if you could see the sky. She had Anders and I put up all those strings of cafe lights earlier. She had that short round stage in the center of the dance floor built so everyone can see the singer and dance around them. Cool thing about it, we can move it out of the way for non karaoke nights."

We make our way across the dance floor towards a new area Soph had made just for us.

"What happened to the wall length bar?"

"Soph had them cut an end off and made a little side bar area."

I stop us right in front of a roped off area.

"Welcome to the Lycan Lounge." I say with a laugh, I move my hand out in front of us like Vanna White showing off a prize.

"What in the world! This girl is nuts!"

"To our left, against the wall, we have some comfortable single seat "accent chairs" as Soph kept calling them with a small table between them. Back there against the back wall we have a big leather couch that could easily hold 7 Lycans on it. Then to the right we have our own personal section of the bar that will have two bartenders at all times. Then the table in the middle if you want to dance and need to leave your drink or personal stuff."

I look down at Blake who has her mouth slightly open in amazement over the area Soph made for all of us.

"This is incredible. So are we like top VIPs in this place huh." She said with a laugh and a playful poke of the elbow to my side.

"Yeah something like that."

"So Bitsy what do you think of the Lycan Lounge?"

"Um it's amazing!"

"Well don't just stand outside staring at it let go sit and get some drinks. We can people watch as they walk in."

"Oh I love doing that."

We all walk in. I take a seat in one of the accent chairs and Blake sits down in my lap.

"Baby girl" I quietly say to Blake.

She looks over at me.

"I want you to know you didn't need my permission to make the call that Robbie couldn't come in tonight."

"I know I just didn't want Luca to feel I was bossing him around like I owned the place."

Usually at this point Blake would be looking down and picking at her fingers but she wasn't. She was sitting up straight and looking right into my eyes. Man this new found confidence is so sexy on her.

"Well if that's the case I don't have the say in the order either. But you're their Luna if you don't feel uncomfortable or something doesn't feel right to you, you don't need my permission to make the call. I trust you will do the right and best thing for us as a couple and what is right and best for our pack."

Blake put her hand on my cheek.

"Thank you Conrad" then she leaned down and kissed me.

"Alright love birds, enough of that it's time to have some fun." I hear Anders yell in our direction.

"What would you like to drink Handsome?"

"Bourbon would be great Baby girl."

Blake gave me one last kiss and got up to walk to our sidebar.

I mind linked Soph "Soph I don't know what you did after I left the house but my girl is dripping with confidence tonight."

"I don't know what I did, I just put her in a Chanel dress and shoes and you saw what stepped out of that limo."

"Oh I definitely saw it, you buy that woman all the Chanel stuff in the world if that's what did it."

"I can definitely take care of that for you." We both laugh and close the link.

"Here's your drink handsome." Blake hands me my glass and sits back down on my lap with her back facing the dance floor.

"You look stunning tonight."

"Thanks, it was all Soph. I didn't even know you could curl hair with a hair straightener and apparently, per Soph, I'm really bad at doing my makeup." She said shrugging her shoulders and laughing.

"I still don't know where she got the dress but I love the colors. Reminds me of a mermaid tail." She said laughing a little harder which makes me laugh too.

"Yeah I guess you do look like a mermaid." I say teasing her.

"It's a Chanel dress" I say as I hold open my suit jacket showing her the sewn in tag on the inside of my jacket. As her eyes catch sight of the label she chokes on her drink which almost came out her nose. After coughing a few times.

"This is Chanel? The shoes too?" I give her a nod.

"Yeah, Soph likes to keep us looking sharp. Plus very few places will make suits and business clothes in the sizes Anders and I need."

"That makes sense. Well this Chanel set makes me feel pretty."

"You're always beautiful."

"Thank you handsome. Want to hear something funny?"

"Yeah"

"when I was walking down the red carpet I caught Beth out of the corner of my eye and I'm pretty sure she still hasn't picked her jaw up off the ground." Blake gave a giggle as she covered her mouth.

"Good, I hope it hurt when it hit the ground." I said giving her a wink.

After about an hour of the four of us, Luca and about 6 other Lycans all hanging out in the Lycan Lounge, Soph bounces over with a big binder in her hand. She sits on Anders' lap who's sitting in the other accent chair next to Blake and I.

"That's right B I thought this was your thing?"

"Oh it is! Y'all want to see Beth turn as red as a tomato?"

"Hell yeah" Anders says with a big smile.

"Alright" Blake writes something down on a piece of paper, walks away and a few minutes later comes back.

"DJ said he would throw it into the rotation. What about you Soph?" Blake said as she sits back down on my lap wrapping her arm around me.

"I don't know yet"

Blake leans back and starts rubbing her nose lightly across my cheek and to my ear causing goosebumps to erupt all over my body.

"You look so hot in that suit"

I lean towards her and rub my hand up the exposed skin of her thigh. She gives me a moaned giggle. I lean back and start making out with my girl.

"Alright now this is the Lycan Lounge not the smush room" Soph says, not looking up from her binder.

"Con here's your drink, Queen B yours, Soph, Anders and mine. Here's to the first of many nights of fun."

"Babyface that was a horrible toast..."

"like you could do better Queen B?"

"Yeah I can Babyface. Here's to new friends, that have become family. To new adventures and new memories being made."

"Now that is a toast Babyface." Soph says with a laugh as we all down the shot Luca just gave us.

"Alright I can't have any more of those or Conrad will be peeling next up off the floor." Blake says with a wrinkled nose pointing a finger at Luca.

I mind link Luca "she's not Lycan she can't handle as much as we can."

Luca laughs "I know that's why I gave her the double and we all got quads"

I just laugh. "Okay no more doubles for her."

Blake's cheeks were starting to get a little flushed so I knew the alcohol was in her system.

"You okay baby girl?"

"Yeah, why?"

"You're a little flushed"

"Yeah that happens when I drink. But I haven't had too much just the one drink when we first got here and that shot. So I'm still good. Lightly buzzed maybe." She laughs.

"Y'all are going to have to go out there and dance it up while I'm singing." Blake says with a fake serious look on her face pointing at all of us.

"Oh Queen B I've already started," Luca says as he steps up on the coffee table and starts dancing.

"Yes that's what I'm talking about Babyface!"

"Now up we have Queen B." The DJ announces.

"Did you write that on the paper?" Soph said with a laugh.

"Hell ya I did!"

"B here." Anders tosses her a wireless mic that matches her dress and hands one to Soph. "Had these made for you two."

"Awe Sweet face!"

"SWEETFACE FOR THE WIN!" Blake says, giving Anders a fists bump.

Blake leaves to go get on the round stage as all of us make our way through the crowd to a good spot to see.

"Why am I so nervous she's the one singing not me."

"I am too Soph, we all just want her to do good and piss Beth off."

Everyone laughs nodding their heads agreeing with me.

"OHHHH SHHHIITTT!"

"What?" I look down at Soph nervous.

"She's about to do a Christina Aguilera song."

"Is that difficult?" Anders asked as he wrapped his arms around Soph.

"No one can sing like Christina!"

The music starts and Blake is standing there looking as calm as ever, I zone in on her heart rate and it's not even elevated at all. It's like she's not even phased by this whole club staring at her. She gives me a little smile and a slight laugh in the mic.

"Oh okay, make your own stage girl!"

Blake starts singing and starts walking off the stage on beat to the song using her right hand to point at the crowd. The crowd parts like the red sea making room for her; she stops, sings a few lines with a sassy sway in her hips. She takes a few steps backwards then turns to the right and starts singing to that side.

"Damn she's working this crowd like a damn pro!" Soph is losing her mind beside me cheering.

Blake really didn't need much help, but Soph is getting this crowd extremely hyped up. She does this cute sassy spin to face the other side walking to that side, she gets to the edge and does a little dance with some girl standing there and moves back to the middle.

"DAMN! Didn't know Queen B could sing like that. She's giving a damn Christina concert better than Christina." Luca comments with a cheesy grin as he slaps my chest.

Blake starts walking over towards us as we've been able to make our way to the front of the crowd at the end of the path stage she has created for herself. She's doing this sexy ass strut like the models do on a catwalk, making my pants extremely tight. She and Soph do a little dance move in front of me. She turns giving me those sexy swing hips rubbing her ass on my already tight pants. She turns around, gives me a wink and goes to walk away. I lean forward and give her a good smack on the ass for that dirty little trick. She looks over her shoulder at me with a big smile on her face. She goes back to singing high notes no one could ever dream of hitting. Sops bumps her elbow against me and gives a little head nod up towards the lounges. I see Beth leaning on the railing, and she is so mad she's red from her hair line down to her arms. I see the girl next to her lips moving so I zone in my hearing on her.

"Beth you know she's doing this on purpose."

"Yeah she knows this is the only thing she is better at than me. That's alright he won't be smacking her ass when the night is over. She can have her moment, it will be short lived anyway."

I look back at Blake as her song is coming to an end, she's standing in the middle of the floor looking right at Beth singing the last part that has almost no music.

Blake points right at Beth singing the last line "So thanks for making me a fighter" turns around and throws her hand up in the air flipping Beth the bird as she walks away with those sassy sexy hips swagging.

Soph and Luca are going nuts as we go back to the Lycan Lounge. Blake gets there a little after us. Anders had mind linked some of the bodyguards to help her through the crowd since we weren't able to. She's breathing a little heavy, a little bit a sweat beaded up on her cheeks. But she is smiling from ear to ear, Soph runs over and hugs her as she squeals.

"That was so badass Bitsy! I didn't know you could slay like that!"

"Man that felt so good! There's a lot of things you don't know about me. I'm a woman of mystery!" Blake says to Soph.

"Ok ok, move it Soph give me my girl."

I lean down, wrap my arms around her waist and pick her up, she wraps her arms around my neck and tucks her face between my neck and her arms.

"You were incredible out there baby girl."

"You think? It was so fun, I love singing like that."

"I don't think I KNOW that it was amazing."

She leans up giving me a kiss as I put her back on her feet. When she finally steps into the Lycan Lounge everyone goes nuts screaming and cheering, everyone in the bar turned to look in our direction. Blake gives a laugh and does a curtsy.
