

Lycan Queen

Chapter 19: Luca's True Potential

Conrad

"Axel, slow up." I try to reason with my Lycan. "Axel, she's crying. We need to tend to our mate."

Just before the clearing Axel slowed and sat on the ground leaning his back against a fallen tree. It was too dangerous to shift with her this close so Axel let me come forward enough I could see her better and speak to her. Axel moves his arm slightly so we could see Blake. He retracted his claws and used his finger to gently rub Blake's back. He lowered his snout to lightly touch her arm. Finally her sobbing was slowing.

"Lift her up a little, her body might be stiff or hurting from being in that position."

Axel moves his large hand under her. I see her hands release his fur as he lifts her up. He brings her up onto his chest more and she lets out a groan when she stretches. She just lays there very still with her eyes closed. I know what's wrong I just don't know how to make this better.

"Baby girl?"

"I'm ok, my handsome guys. This Asher... He's mated to Bethany isn't he?"

Axel starts purring, making Blake giggle and relaxing her some more.

"You sound like a big cat."

Axel and I do our weird Lycan laugh. "Don't say that around the guys okay baby girl. My luck they will start calling me Alpha Kitten Rainbow Glitter Sparkles."

Blake let out a laugh as she sat up a little. As she wipes her tears away with the back of her hand from one side of her face, Axel decides to help and licks others away from the other side of her face.

"Really Axel, I was better off with the tears running down my face instead of all your slobber dripping from my face."

He snickers and touches his nose to her chest.

"I love you too my handsome Lycan." She puts her hands on either side of his snout. He lifts his head level with hers. "Thank you for taking the hit on the tree for me and also for keeping me safe from Asher."

He touches his nose to her chest again.

"I love you." She kisses the top of his snout and then puts her nose to his.

He lifts her up and places her on the ground beside him. He gets up, walks a safe distance away and let's us shift. I walk back over and sit down next to her.

"Baby girl, I'm so sorry I wasn't paying enough attention."

She leaned her head against my arm. "I know Handsome, we were just having fun and enjoying ourselves on our land. Right now flying off the four wheeler is the least of my worries. Bethany is mated to a damn stinky vampire."

"Blakely"

"Oh no, you saying my name that way tells me this is about to get even worse."

"He's the Vampire King."

Blake starts laughing. "Oh, that's good shit. So I'm the Lycan Queen and she's the Vampire Queen."

"It seems that way baby girl."

Blakely

After getting back to the house and taking another shower. I went to go get Everly from Alaric.

"Hey Blakely, how are you doing?"

I walk over and sit on the couch next to him. "I'm okay I think. The whole flying off the four-wheeler, almost hitting a tree, chasing a Vampire... was somewhat of a wake-up call for me."

"You almost hit a tree?"

"Yeah, Con shifted and Axel was able to intervene."

"I heard you handled everything extremely well."

"I tried, being around everyone in their human form makes it easy to forget just how dangerous this world can get. I just trusted my mate, his Lycan, and tried to stay as still as possible. I just knew they were going to protect me."

"They always will, it will get easier I promise. You're doing a great job though, you have nothing to worry about."

"Thanks, Pops, that means a lot coming from you."

"Awe, I'm just an old man calling it like I see it."

"If you say so."

We both laugh as we hear someone walking through the door.

"Oh, so you're the one that stole my girls." Conrad said with a tease smile towards Alaric.

"Guilty!"

"I'm watching you old man." Conrad says as he does his fingers to his eyes then towards his dad.

As he leans down to give me a kiss. I just laugh at them two teasing each other.

"What you got in the bag handsome?"

"My baby backpack!" Conrad says with a big smile.

He pulls it out of the box and puts it on. "Come on sweet pea let's give this thing a try!"

I stand up and get Everly all snuggled in the baby carrier.

"Oh yeah this thing is comfortable. Come on baby girl, you and sweet pea can help me with my afternoon meeting." Conrad says smiling at me while taking my hand.

"See you later pops" Conrad and I say to Alaric as we leave.

When we arrive at our office, Anders and Luca are sitting in there. Luca is rolling some papers around in his hands and Anders is lounging looking at his phone. Luca's face lights up when he sees Conrad wearing the baby carrier.

"Ha! Told you, you would love that thing."

"Yeah baby face this thing is comfortable and I can still get work done."

I just roll my eyes and walk to my desk. To my surprise Luca follows behind me.

"Hey B can I talk to you for a minute?"

"Yeah sure Luca what's up?"

He takes the long scroll look paper and places it on my desk. "Hold here as I roll it open." I look down and it's blue prints to something.

"What is this?" I ask looking up at him.

He gives me a shy shrug. "After we left the orphanage I sat down and started drawing up some blueprints for a new place to have built for them."

"You drew this?"

"Yeah, it's kind of a hidden talent. This was your first big change after becoming Luna. So I named it "The Michaelson House"." He said pointing at the top of the paper.

"Luca this is amazing!" I stand up, walk around the desk and give him a hug.

A light growl is heard from behind us... "Hands off my girl" Conrad says looking at Luca.

"Oh hush Conrad. Come look at what Luca came up with." I tell Con and Anders as I go and sit back behind my desk.

"B, I would really like to help or even take over this project and maintain stuff for the orphanage. If that's okay with you."

"Luca, that is totally fine with me if it's okay with Con. I don't want to take you away from anything he needs you to do."

We both look at Conrad as he's hunched over looking at the blueprints as Everly tries to grab onto his beard.

"These are incredible, do you have a location in mind?"

"Between the pack house and pack neighborhood. That way it's close enough for the kids playing in the neighborhood but also close enough to have dinners at the pack house."

"That's perfect! Once us, mom and pops move out of the pack house that will open up more room for the coming of age lykes to move in here. Luca, I'm really proud of you, this is a well thought out plan. Absolutely you can take this over."

Luca was smiling from ear to ear and was so excited it looked like he was doing the potty dance. "Thanks big bro, thanks B I won't let y'all down."

"I know you won't baby face" I say, giving him a smile.

"Okay, my turn." Anders announces. "B is free... my attorney called me a little bit ago. He just got out of your court hearing. He waxed the floor with Mr Cooper. Guess Robbie wasn't aware there were cameras. It clearly showed Robbie started it way before you got between him and Bethany. Judge dropped all charges against you, he hit Robbie with disturbing the peace, assault for hitting you and defamation of character towards you and the bar. So he has to appear in court for that in a few weeks. But as far as your case goes, it's closed."

I let out the breath I didn't realize I was holding. "That's amazing news." I tell him.

Anders just gives me a high five and has a big smile on his face. The three guys go over to Conrad's desk to start their meeting.

"Ah, where in the world is Soph?"

"Oh she is decorating Everly's new nursery... shit I wasn't supposed to tell you that." Anders said with a very scared look on his face.

"It's okay your secret is safe with me." I say give him a wink as I walk out of the office.

I start walking up and down the halls yelling. "SOPHIE, SOPHIE..."

She pops out of a room and closes the door behind her. "STOP B! Don't use that name because then other people will start calling me that." Soph whisper yells as she looks around making sure no one hears me.

"Sophie, it's your name." I whisper yell back. "Why are we whispering?" I ask laughing.

"I don't know, lover why are you walking down the halls yelling?"

"Um, looking for my Beta, who has been MIA for the last two days."

"Oh yeah about that, I'm just finishing up a few things and then I'll be back in full Beta action."

"Okay, and what are these things?"

"Nothing, I'll show you and Con tonight."

"Okay I'll let it slide this time." I tell her, giving her a raised eyebrow look.

I turn to walk away, I turn around to face her as I walk backwards away from her.

"Hey one more thing, I need a white dress." She stops and looks at me with eyes wide.

"Did Con seriously propose to you, before Anderson proposed to me?"

I give her a giggle. "Not that I know of, I need a white dress for my Luna ceremony."

"Oh yeah, you do need one for that. Alright we will go shopping."

"Alright sweet cheeks it's a date."

Conrad and I just gave Everly a bath which she loves. As we are getting her jammies on we hear a light knock on the new door that was put in a few days ago. Conrad looks at me but I just give him a shrug. I pick Everly up as Conrad walks over towards the door.

"Oh hey Soph."

"Where are the girls?" Conrad steps back so Soph can see me walking towards the door with the baby.

"Y'all three ready for your surprise?"

"Absolutely"

Soph steps back and puts her arm out letting us know to walk into the room she was just walked in from. I walk through the door and into the most beautiful nursery I have ever seen.

"It looks like a picture right off of Pinterest."

The walls were cream, with big light purple flowers painted on the back wall above the crib. To the left of the crib was a canopy tent hanging from the roof and fell around the back of a big white recliner looking rocking chair. There was a multi purple colored round rug over the dark colored hardwood floor. On the wall to the right of the crib, was a wooden cut out of her name hanging over the dresser. I turn to the wall on the left of the crib.

Towards the top, a wooden cut out hanging saying "This is Us" on the wall. Underneath it there are three rows of four pictures going down towards the floor. I step closer to look at the pictures. There was the same picture that was on my old vanity of Conrad, Anders and Soph. There was one of me singing at the bar, one of Luca dancing on the table at the bar. One of Anders and Soph together, one of Conrad and I. Conrad doing a Skype Alpha meeting while Everly was asleep on his chest, one of Anders and Everly asleep on his recliner, Soph giving Everly kisses on her belly making her giggle for the first time. The very first dance party Me, Luca and Soph had with Everly.

Luca wearing his baby backpack for the first time with Everly. A picture of Everly and I wearing the matching outfits and the matching big headband bows Soph bought us. Then right in the middle was a picture of all 6 of us. I walk over to the dresser and a fancy birth certificate with two tiny ink footprints on it. Showing her full name, birthday, weight, and time of birth. I look at the other picture on the dresser. It's somewhat smaller than all the other photos in the room and you can tell it's an older picture. I pick it up and look at it but I don't recognize the two people in the photo. I turn around and look at Soph and hold up the photo.

"That's a photo of her birth parents. Not long after our dance party I went to see the pack doctor and she gave me their information. I went to their house and tried to find anything I could keep for Everly to have one day. There wasn't much there I grabbed a few of the photos I could find and that was one of them. I think maybe her mom was planning on running. There was very little in the house, all the important stuff was packed into two bags by the front door.

But Blake, neither of the bags had any baby stuff in them; it was all in a nursery corner. I searched through everything I could trying to find out if there are any remaining family members but there was nothing."

Conrad gently takes Everly from me and walks over to the rocker and starts rocking her while she puts her tiny hands in his beard. I walk over to Soph and just hug her.

"Soph this nursery is beyond beautiful."

"She deserves a place to call her own. Luca painted the flowers and made the wooden cut outs."

"What! he did an amazing job."

We walk over to Conrad and Everly.

"Soph, you're sure she was a runner?" Conrad asked never looking up from Everly.

"Con, I know what it looks like when runners decide to go rogue, I even showed Anders and he said the same thing."

"Were there baby items in the nursery area?"

"Yes, the dresser was full of clothes, diapers and other essentials. The duffles only had items needed for an adult." Soph told Conrad with a very serious face.

I knew what that meant and it broke my heart knowing what had been planned before she was even born.

"I want the crib taken out and a new one purchased and set up in here for her."

◆◆◆I actually have a brand new one just inside mine and Anders' room."

Conrad slowly stood up, gave Everly a gentle kiss on the head and handed her to me. He picked up the crib that was in the nursery and placed it just inside our room. Then walked into Soph and Anders' and brought in the new one."

"Oh goddess Soph that thing is huge Everly and I could sleep in that thing."

"I wouldn't doubt it Bitsy." Soph says with a smirk on her face.

Conrad gets the new crib in place, gives Everly another kiss then kisses me on the head and walks back into our room and quietly closes the door.

"Her birth mom was going to go rogue after she had her wasn't she?"

"It's rare when there's a Lyke involved but there are times when Lycans lose their mates they can't handle it."

"Here take this too, please pack it with the other stuff you found and when the day comes if she asks about it we can show her." I hand Soph the picture of Everly's birth parents.

"Everly you tell Auntie Soph thank you so much!" I say in a silly voice.

"What about Uncle A, Soph had me putting furniture together for two days."

"Well if you read the directions it wouldn't have taken so long"

"I don't need those." Anders said as he came and took the baby from me to go sit in the rocking chair.

Not long after, Luca walked in from the door leading to the hallway.

"Where's sweet pea?" Luca said, holding up a fresh bottle.

He walked over and handed it to Anders.

"I love your table dancing picture." I say bumping Lucas' elbow with mine.

"Yeah it's not as badass as your concert photo though."

"I do have great hair in that picture."

"I'm not looking at the hair, I'm looking at my girl's sexy legs!" Conrad says as he walks back in the room looking at the picture of me on the wall. "Man I was so turned on watching you."

"We know" all four of us said at the same time.

"Pretty sure the whole bar could see." Anders said with a laugh.

"Hey, have Soph do what Blake did and see if you can hide it from everyone in the bar." Con says with a smile pointing at Anders.

"Come on Handsome I'll give you an encore." I say slapping Conrad on the butt.

He gives a low growl "Don't tease me baby girl."

"Oh I don't tease big boy." I say giving him a wink.

He laughs as he walks over and wraps his arms around me. "Alright lady and gentlemen, we will see you tomorrow. Me and my Luna have a concert to get to. Love you sweet pea, sleep good." Conrad said, waving at Anders, Luca and Soph as he started walking us backwards towards our door.

"Bye guys. Love you sweet Everly." I say quickly as he closes the door behind us.

Conrad picks me up, throwing me over his shoulder. Quickly crosses the large bedroom and throws me on our bed. We both start quickly pulling off our shirts and shorts. I heard Conrad give a low growl when I threw my shorts at him, he caught them easily and threw them over his shoulder. He just stands at the foot of the bed in his boxer briefs just staring at me as I sit with my legs pulled up to my chest and my back against the propped-up pillows.

He keeps staring as he slowly walks towards the side of the bed like an animal stalking its prey. I let out a squeal, jump off the bed and take off running across the room. He lets out a playful growl, clears the bed and has his arms wrapped around me before I could even make it 10 steps.

"Oh I do love me a good chase." He says as he nibbles on my ear, sending chills down my spine.

I turn around putting my arms around his neck. "Oh is that right?" I say with a flirty smile on my face.

"Oh I do, baby girl." He says as he starts kissing me on my neck causing my body to shiver.

He wrapped his hands around my sweet meat just below my butt picking me up and slowly making his way back to the bed. I wrap my legs around him as I kiss him on his lips, then slowly make my way down his neck kissing and lightly biting as I go. He lets out a moan as he releases the clasp of my bra strap. I slide one arm out of it and then use the other to toss it on the floor as well. I press myself to him, loving the feeling of his warmth against my cool breast and the tingles he causes when his body touches mine. I wrap my hand in his hair at the nape of his neck as he lightly nips at the lower part of my neck and shoulder, causing me to lean my head backwards letting out a soft moan. He slowly leans over, laying me down on the side of the bed.

He puts his hands on my hips holding my lower half pressed against his. He slowly starts kissing down my chest, up my breast, then licks around my nipple before he sucks it into his mouth, causing a shiver to flow through me. I grab the comforter with both hands. I start to slowly move my hips up and down as my need for him pulls in my core. He grabs the lacey waistband of my panties and literally rips them off of me. He continues kissing down my body across my stomach and from one hip bone to the other. He has me so tightly wound up, I can't even think straight. He lowers himself onto his knees throwing my legs over his shoulders as he starts exploding new areas with his tongue.

"Keep moving those hips baby girl." I start slowly rocking my hips up and down again.

Conrad lets out a low growl sending shockwaves up through my body.

"Conrad" I moaned.

This caused him to increase his moves and mine. He runs his hand up my body, taking hold of my breast and pinching my nipple between his thumb and finger. That did me in, I grabbed his hair with one hand as loud uncontrollable moans tumbled out of my mouth as I rode out my release on his tongue. My breathing was ragged. I couldn't think straight. I was in a moment of pure bliss. He slowly lowered my lower half back onto the bed and slowly kissed back up my body. He kissed and nipped at my neck up to my mouth. I slid my tongue across his bottom lip and he shook his head no.

"Not this time baby girl, I want your taste on my tongue as long as possible." Conrad said against my skin as he kissed and nipped down the other side of my neck.

"Roll over" he says in my ear as he nibbles on it.

"Oh, is this my first alpha order?" I tease as I roll over onto my stomach.

He gives me a little laugh "No baby girl, that's a husband order for you."

"Okay handsome" I give a little giggle when I realize I'd have to be on the tip tops of my toes to be bent over the side of the bed.

So I bring my knees up onto the bed. As I'm still up right Conrad comes up right behind and wraps his arms around me. I lay my head back on his shoulder becoming consumed in the feeling of his hands roaming all over my body. He brings his hands up the insides of my thighs, stopping one hand to feel my wetness with his fingers and bring the other up to roll my nipple between his fingers again.

"You're so wet," he says through a growl.

"You're what makes me so wet." I say throwing a hand back behind his head as I start to sway my hips back and forth moving my butt along his now very tight boxer briefs.

After a few moments of him working my body with his fingers I couldn't take it anymore.

"Conrad I need you, now" I moan out in desperation.

He gently leans over as he moves his one hand to my hip, gently runs the tip of his nose down my spine as tingles spread throughout my whole body as he stands up. He put his other hand on my shoulder, I feel him lightly pull me towards him as he slowly enters my body sending electricity coursing through our bodies. His pace is slow and steady at first. But his movements become faster and more erratic as he chases his release. He thrust himself deeper and I felt another wave of pleasure flow through my body.

I lean downward, laying my forehead on the bed as his name comes out in another loud moan. He releases my shoulder, gripping both hips tight as he thrust himself harder as he finally reaches his release letting a loud moaning growl fill the room. After his movements had stopped I felt him slide from my body and we both collapsed on the bed. He pulls me to him wrapping his arms around me.

"Mine" he whispers in a husky voice "mine" I whisper back in a raspy voice.
