Chapter 141

Zhang Fan vomited all the horse meat Naren he ate at night. After this vomit, he was comfortable and not so disgusting! It seems that I have eaten too much!

Xiao Hong knew why Zhang Fan threw up when she thought about it. She smiled and asked the nurse to bring Zhang Fan a bottle of Red Bull. They are all from the past. Zhang Fan's performance will not be ridiculed. Only those who come here can appreciate the new person's performance.

After the baby is rescued successfully, the mother must let the child's father thank Zhang Fan. Zhang fan leaves the hospital after work. The child's father is waiting for Zhang Fan at the door. A red envelope has to be given to Zhang Fan.

Zhang Fan said nothing. The child's father had no choice. The next day he brought milk, fruit and eggs to Zhang Fan in the Department. The child's parents really want to thank Zhang Fan. There is no way to refuse. Gynecology generally doesn't accept red envelopes, but we don't refuse such milk and eggs. They are all placed in the Department and eaten together by doctors and nurses.

Three days later, the baby who didn't cry was going to be discharged from the hospital. Before leaving, the child's family specially invited Zhang Fan to visit the child! Three days! The child's face opens in three days, not like a little mouse at birth. Zhang Fan gently touched the child's face.

"This is the child I treated!" Feeling the child's temperature and watching the child's sweet sleep, Zhang Fan's sense of achievement is full of his heart!

"Even if I spit out the gallbladder, I'll give him artificial respiration in case of such a thing." Zhang Fan, who sent out the door of the Department, looked at the happy figure of their family and thought. What is a doctor? This is a doctor. Move forward bravely in the face of illness!

If the child hadn't been rescued, their family wouldn't be like this today. It must be better to die than to be covered by dark clouds! Happy! Really happy, happy for this child, happy for their family, and happy for Zhang Fan himself!

Shaohua's family, Jingshu's things are almost packed. Shao Hua booked the plane ticket early. Tomorrow morning, first Feiniaoyang City, then Feilan City, and then take Zhang Fan's mother to Shanghai.

Jing Shu is a little reluctant to give up her brother. Zhang Fan is seven years older than Jing Shu. Zhang Fan loves his seven year old sister very much. Looking at her sister who is almost as tall as Shaohua, she thought of pulling his clothes and yelling for sugar when she was a child. In the twinkling of an eye, she grew up.

Go to the factory to steal iron and coal. I don't want to eat snacks, but I will buy some for my sister. Now grown up, going to college!

Early in the morning, at the airport of chasu City, Jing Shu said with red eyes, "brother, I'm leaving! I'll come to see you in the New Year! "

"Go ahead. You'll be an adult when you go to college. Don't grow old. I went to school and studied hard. I must eat well and wear warm clothes at ordinary times. Don't worry about money. You can see that your brother has a house and a car. You don't need the little things you save. If you want to reassure your brother, be generous to yourself. Don't buckle and search any more. Listen to your sister-in-law on the way. Call more often. " Zhang Fan nagged a lot.

"All right, Jingshu is very obedient. I will see her school with my own eyes, arrange everything, come back and report to you, hurry up, and then wait for the plane to catch up!"

"Brother!" To go, Jing Shu threw herself into Zhang Fan's arms and cried!

"Go, go! Grow up, Xiao Jingshu! " This time, Zhang Fan felt worse than when he left his hometown! I don't know why. What should be happy is that there is something hard to say.

Waiting to see Jingshu them, Zhang fancai secretly wiped his eyes and walked to the parking lot.

At noon, Jingshu they landed in LAN city. Because it was the first time for parents to come, Zhang Fan's parents booked hotels and restaurants in the county.

Zhang Fan and Shao Hua are already in love, and parents have nothing to be picky about. Although the conditions in Zhang Fan's family are ordinary, Zhang mortal himself is powerful, and Shaohua's mother can't see anything. The next day, Zhang Fan's father took several people to the airport and flew to Shanghai.

I was going to buy something for my daughter, but when I saw that I had bought a lot of small and large bags in the frontier, Lao Zhang was relieved that the old daughter was my father's heart. When I left, I secretly dressed the daughter for more than 1000 yuan while no one paid attention.

This is Lao Zhang's private money. He is usually reluctant to eat or spend. It's not generous to give to his old daughter. Watching several people enter the hall at the airport, Lao Zhang is much more than Zhang Fanqiang. His daughter goes to Shanghai to go to university. In the community, who doesn't envy and praise!

As soon as his daughter left, he went home. Everyone in the community said, "I sent my daughter to Shanghai to study in a plane!"

September is the best time for magic.

Wind, often from the East Sea.

Walking on the campus of Jiaotong University, there is a faint sweetness in the air, as well as the lawn. The unique sweet and clear taste of the grass just after being rehabilitated makes people can't help but take a few deep breaths, and then take a few deep breaths to feel the happiness of late summer and early autumn.

I looked up at the sky, blue sky and white clouds. The air was very clear. Without the heat of nearly 40 degrees in summer, and the famous cold and wet fog in winter in mordu a few months later, I felt very comfortable.

Jingshu's campus is in Minhang District. Here is the general school. Shao Hua specially took Jing Shu to see the general campus. After all, the reputation of Shanghai Jiaotong University is too loud.

Shaohua's mother and Zhang Fan's mother get along well. Both parents are also satisfied with Zhang Fan and Shaohua. After settling down, Shao Hua took the two old people around East China for half a month. This time, thanks to Wang Qian, otherwise it wouldn't be so long.

After seeing off Jing Shu, Zhang Fan is about to graduate from obstetrics and gynecology. It's the slack time in the frontier. There is no cotton here. After the summer harvest, farmers enter the slack time. Those who go out to work and those who see a doctor.

Several county hospitals contacted Zhang Fan, and many patients have gathered together. Zhang Fan's journey to the cave began again, and he didn't have much time to rest at the weekend.

For ordinary businessmen, it is difficult to obtain an access certificate for the medical industry. Local taxes, industry and commerce, fire control and health, especially the last two, are very difficult to do.

In industries involving dense crowds, fire control is particularly strict, coupled with the medical industry. It's really difficult, but for Ma Wentao, as long as the quality passes, there's nothing difficult to do. Green light all the way.

Ma Wentao has talked about the cooperation with the women's and children's Hospital, how to divide it and how to operate it. The negotiations have been completed. Now we are waiting for the decoration to be completed and start business.

Medical experts have been in place, there is a shortage of hand and foot surgeons. Zhang Fan is either working overtime or walking. He is busy all day. His plan to find Zhang Fan failed. There was no way but to let Li Xiao ask Zhang Fan out.

Li Xiao asks Zhang Fan. Zhang Fan has to take time no matter how busy he is. This time, it's not at home, but in a hotel. It's the only hotel with stars in frontier tea vegetable city. There are only Li Xiao, Ma Wentao and Zhang Fan in the private room. The private room with few people is wider.

As long as you don't want to develop into an official career, you really don't have to care about some people with background. I don't ask you. I don't have to flatter you.

Zhang Fan is just like this. No matter how old your background is, I'm a little doctor. So dealing with Ma Wentao is on an equal footing. If Kang Hua knew this, she would really like to replace Zhang Fan.

"Doctor Zhang, try the famous West Lake tea. It's the best drink in midsummer!" After dinner, Li Xiao left. Ma Wentao is afraid of Li Xiao's presence and buys Zhang Fan naked with money. Zhang Fan is a little embarrassed.

"Good! thank you. Ma always has something to say. I'll go to Teka County later. "

"To Teka county?"

"There are several Laparoscopes to do!" Zhang Fan tells the truth.

"Aren't you an orthopaedic?"

"No, I haven't decided yet!"

"Well! All right. " The conditions originally prepared seem to be floating upward.

"Well, I opened a small hospital next to the maternal and child hospital. This is just the beginning. I plan to expand the hospital to the whole frontier within five years. There's a particularly powerful surgeon missing now. I want you to join in and give you 5% of the shares and a monthly salary of 50000 a month. "

Ma Wentao is very clear. If he talks with such people without background, he has to take it down at once. If he hesitates, he will have problems. Zhang Fan shook his head without thinking about it.

Before he spoke, Ma Wentao's face was bad. "Dr. Zhang, you can't have too much appetite. Really, you can't imagine the development of this hospital in the future."

"Oh, no! I really don't have a big appetite. I haven't thought about going to a private hospital. I'll be a little transferred doctor to be your chief surgeon, so that the insiders won't laugh at you! "

"Do you really have no idea. Your current income is estimated to be less than that in ten years. " Ma Wentao sees that Zhang Fan doesn't have a big appetite and his face is much better.

"It's really not about income. You don't know about medicine. We have to go step by step. It's no use worrying. If there is no suitable candidate in the near future, I can help you! ~ " Zhang Fan is coming and making money!

"How can I help you?"

"You see, there must not be many operations in your new hospital, and there won't be serious illness numbers, will there? However, you haven't found a surgical expert yet. Don't worry about it. As long as there is an operation, you can call me. We'll book a time and I'll come and do it. Don't worry! My asking price is not high, and the expert fee is half! "

"Well! That's the idea the bastard had! " Ma Wentao scolded secretly“ Hehe, that's OK. But do you really not consider my proposal? "

"Some doctors with high professional titles should be invited, otherwise they will really be laughed at by their peers!"

Ma Wentao is a little confused. A little doctor is not interested in such good conditions!

That's why he doesn't understand the medical industry and doctors. True doctors, doctors born in a professional class, who have no ambition and no expectation, are only slowly eroded by life and work.

But it is such a group of people who always maintain the mentality of a doctor. Go to a certain hospital all over the world to see which is a serious professional background!

After a lot of hard work, I was admitted to the University, boiled out of the medical school, and then admitted to the practice certificate, and then went to do the business of adding money during the operation! Then he's really sorry for his hard work for more than ten years!
