Chapter 146

When I got to the county, it was more than two o'clock in the afternoon, "what's going on?" Zhang Fan looked at the sullen old Chen and asked. Lao Chen's wife also looked worried.

"Here you are, master! I sued old Zou. Then the report letter was returned to the hospital by the superior! Then I had a quarrel with old Zou. " Old Chen said dejectedly.

"What is the specific situation?" Zhang Fan asked in wonder.

"Old Zou sold patients. There was a clavicle fracture yesterday. We could do it. As a result, old Zou sent both anesthesiologists out to study. We didn't have an anesthesiologist, so the patient left. I was so angry that I reported Lao Zou. "

"Hehe, how did you report it!" Zhang Fan thinks it's funny. Lao Chen is a little like a child.

"Just write that he sells patients!" Lao Chen is a little wronged.

"Did you write your name, too?"

"Well! I don't want to do it anymore. It's really boring. It's been more than half a year. I haven't even had an operation. "

"Think about it?" Zhang Fan asked.

"Well, if I can't, I'll go to the mainland. I heard there are many opportunities there!" Old Chen said sadly, the children at home go to school. They don't have surgery every day. If they don't have a patient, they will get a dead salary. Their wife doesn't have a job. Can't you worry!

"Forget it, don't go to the mainland. I'll find you a job. It's just a private hospital. Are you willing to go or not?"

"OK, I'll listen to you, if it's not appropriate. Anyway, old Zou has suspended me! " Chen Qifa said depressed.

"Then you clean up first. I'll get in touch with you. It's in tea vegetable market. You go to explore the way first. If you can, ask Li Liang if he wants to go. "

"OK."

Zhang Fan didn't stay long. He had to go to Yingmao, or he couldn't explain to Ouyang.

The decoration of Ma Wentao's hospital is finally over, because the director of women and children is the consultant. The decoration style is very similar to that of women and children, and a door to women and children has been opened on the wall. The counselor of the mother and child Dean is not for nothing.

Ma Wentao continuously recruited some newly graduated college students to do chores for these experts. The head nurse specially invited a retired old head nurse of a county hospital with rich experience.

Surgical doctors are hard to find. Young and strong people are either inexperienced or the backbone of their hospital. They have a bright future and are easy to give up their work. Moreover, having a formal job in the frontier is valued by people more than a millionaire.

With a million dollars and a formal and decent job, most people will choose work rather than money. So Ma Wentao is also a little difficult to do. He can't ask his father for this thing. It's too cheap and worthless!

Just as Ma Wentao watched the workers move things, Zhang Fan drove and stopped at the door of the hospital. Ma Wentao didn't know it was Zhang Fan's car. He hurried out and pointed to the car and said, "stop far away. Don't you see moving things!"

"Mr. Ma! It seems that it will be open soon!" Zhang Fan smiled and got out of the car, took off his sunglasses and said to Ma Wentao.

"Doctor Zhang, please, please, look at the mess here. Go to the office first, have some tea, and we'll talk slowly." Zhang Fan came to the hospital. He was happy. As long as he came a few more times, he might take Zhang Fan down.

Ma Wentao's office is not big, and the facilities inside are simple. It's just a table, computer, guest sofa and tea set. It looks like hard work.

"Come on, try it, Tie Guanyin. I'm drinking Tieguanyin instead. Try it. "

"Why drink Tieguanyin? Are you particular?" Zhang Fan asked in wonder.

"Layman, no! People in a certain field all drink Tieguanyin in the hospital! It is said that with Tie Guanyin, the hospital must be on fire." Ma Wentao takes a low attitude and jokes with Zhang Fan, deliberately making friends and asking for something.

The conversation between the two was the most harmonious ever. The tea has been drunk for three times. Zhang fan can't hold his breath. He originally planned to let Ma Wentao speak first. As a result, this guy's nonsense is not about the lack of surgeons.

This is the case when the goods arrive and die. Originally, Zhang Fan wanted him to open his mouth, so that he could strive for more interests for Lao Chen. As a result, Ma Wentao just didn't speak.

How can I say that Ma Wentao is a person from all over the world, who has walked several times at home and abroad, and was born in an official family. This kind of thing is too familiar. When Zhang Fan got off the bus and called him president Ma, he knew that Zhang Fan had something to ask him. He made up his mind to gossip without saying anything serious today.

Zhang Fan said, "Mr. Ma, how's the surgeon looking?"

"Oh, you don't want to come! I can't help it. I've found another surgeon. I'm still talking about it now, but the results will come in a few days. If you want to come, I won't talk to him. I still think you're suitable." Ma Wentao lied with his eyes open.

"Oh! Forget it." Zhang Fan has no choice. This small hospital can't afford too many surgeons. When Zhang Fan went upstairs, he took a look. It's a surgery. The others are internal medicine. It can't be difficult, so Zhang Fan plans to find another hospital for Lao Chen.

As a result, Ma Wentao sat down before he got up. Ma Wentao smiled bitterly and said, "Dr. Zhang, your Taoism is too deep, the operation is well done, and the people see through. No wonder my aunt is full of praise for you. To tell the truth, there is no candidate for a surgeon. Why do you have an idea?"

Ma Wentao thought Zhang Fan had seen through his ideas, which really wronged Zhang Fan! But Zhang Fan is not stupid. Although he doesn't understand what he said, the most important thing is that he understands. The surgeon didn't find it.

"I'll forget it. I haven't thought about it yet, but after you told me last time, President Li is good to me and I'm also interested. I have a friend in the county. He's ten years older than me. He's the year of playing. He's very stable when he's the director of surgery in the county hospital. There's no big problem with general orthopedic surgery. Do you want to contact him if you want to leave the county recently?" Zhang Fan said everything that should be said and didn't say anything that shouldn't be said. Compared with Ma Wentao, he is closer to Lao Chen. Lao Chen is a master, so Zhang Fan wants to strive for more benefits for Lao Chen.

"Well! OK, how about we meet tomorrow?" Ma Wentao said after a little thought.

"OK, I'll tell him to come to you tomorrow." When the matter was over, Zhang Fan didn't have time to gossip with him. Shaohua is still waiting for him at home.

Hushang, the economic center of China, will not say much about how prosperous it is. Shao Hua came back from Hushang as if he had moved and brought a lot of things. The first is to wear.

Bought a suit, leather shoes and tie for Zhang Fan! There is also a handbag or something. I bought a suitcase just for Zhang Fan. She also bought some clothes for her father, but woolen sweaters and so on.

Shaohua took Zhang Fan to try on his clothes for a long time. Looking at the handsome Zhang Fan in the mirror, his heart is very sweet. Men are born to conquer the world, while women are born to conquer men. If you can change a man, then this woman is successful ~!

The habit of being cultivated by parents since childhood may have to be corrected by his wife after marriage! There is no right or wrong, only the right!

The next day, Lao Chen took a bus to the tea vegetable city. After Zhang Fan reported to Ouyang, he didn't report in first. He had to accompany Lao Chen to see Ma Wentao.

This time, Ma Wentao's attitude is different again. A boss's posture, "director Chen, why did you leave the unit?" After greeting Zhang Fan and Lao Chen to sit down, Ma Wentao asked.

"The Dean sells patients. The Department has no surgery and can't stay any longer!" The old stereotype replied. When he is middle-aged, he supports his family. Lao Chen also cares about his work at the door of his home. He really wants him to go to the mainland. His wife and children are also a lot of things.

"Oh, that's right. Director Chen has carried out those operations in the hospital? "

"Fixation of limbs and treatment of some simple hand and foot injuries."

"In our hospital, although orthopedic surgery is also done, we are mainly preparing to carry out some hand and foot surgery, such as limb replantation. I wonder if director Chen has studied this aspect. "

"No, the hospital has no equipment and has not been carried out." Lao Chen felt that he had little hope and was a little discouraged.

"Oh, well, does director Chen have any requirements for salary?"

On the way here, Zhang Fan and Lao Chen discussed a salary issue, but they didn't discuss other things. One was an old doctor who had been in the hospital for many years, and the other was a young doctor who had just graduated from the hospital. They really didn't study this interview.

As soon as Lao Chen answered his first question, Ma Wentao knew Lao Chen's current situation. There was no place to go. What good results could there be in quarrelling with his boss! He's ready to push down the price!

Zhang Fan and Lao Chen discussed that the salary was fifteen thousand. As a result, when asked a few questions, Lao Chen had no bottom, and Zhang Fan had no bottom. Lao Chen looked at Zhang Fan, bit his teeth and said, "ten thousand!"

Ma Wentao smiled and said, "originally, director Chen's major didn't match our hospital's business, but you were specially introduced by Doctor Zhang. I can't say anything, but the salary is a little more than 10000. How about 7000."

Lao Chen is in the county hospital. He can get seven or eight thousand kickbacks for some drugs and equipment a month. It's not worth taking seven or eight thousand even if he changes jobs.

At this time, Zhang Fan said: "well, Mr. Ma, I will do the operation of replantation of severed limbs in the future. As long as the operation volume can go up, I will try to let director Chen do the operation of replantation of severed limbs independently within half a year. This amputated limb replantation is actually a small subject in orthopedics. Doctors are easy to find, but it's hard to find a doctor like director Chen, who has been in the hospital for more than ten years. The salary is 12000. You take care of all kinds of insurance! "

"OK, give you face and do as you say. However, at present, it can only drive 10000, no more, and it will be tried for one month! We'll talk about it when director Chen can replant the severed limb independently! ~ " Ma Wentao ate Zhang Fan to death this time.

"Lao Chen, look!" Zhang Fan turned to ask Chen Qifa for his opinions.

"Yes, but I have no place to live. And the child's wife's ~ ~ "although he said to Zhang Fan, his eyes looked at Ma Wentao. Lao Chen's character is like this. If you can get more cheap, you still have to find a way to get it.

"Don't worry about this. I have several expert dormitories. I can give you one." Ma Wentao smiled. This was what he had prepared for these doctors.

Old Chen Mei agreed with a smile. The rent for a month was seven or eight hundred, enough for his son's two months' living expenses.
