Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 131

Chapter 131

Zayn sighed in exasperation. "The night before, a passerby sent Lynn to the hospital. It has been confirmed that she had been...gang-raped. She lost her child, but she isn't willing to say anything regardless of what the police and doctors asked her. The next day, she was discharged when I headed to the hospital to visit her. I don't know where she went to!"

There was an extremely unpleasant expression on Jocelyn's face. She had not interacted much with Lynn other than the time she customized jewelry for her.

However, she could imagine what a disaster it would be for a woman to encounter something like that.

She could tell that Zayn was very worried about Lynn. Jocelyn knew Zayn's personality well. Although he was cold to most people, he had an extremely kind heart. He was born with a sympathetic heart, which was characteristic of a doctor.

The Quirrel family had been exterminated after being split apart, and something like that had happened to Lynn. He must be extremely worried about her.

She pursed her lips and said, "Look for her. Otherwise, lodge a police report. She's the only one left in the Quirrel family. If you manage to find her, comfort her!"

Zayn let out a hum in response, but he seemed to be rather distracted.

Jocelyn exchanged a few more words with him and hung up on the call. She hung up on the call and planned to return to the design department. However, just then, she received a call from Michael.

Jocelyn frowned and accepted the call.

Michael spoke to her in a warm tone that made Jocelyn feel extremely uncomfortable.

“Jocelyn, I was in a business meeting with some other people when you called me just now. Is there anything?” Jocelyn furrowed her brows and asked, “Howard and Lily have already married. When do you intend to give me my mother’s letter?”

Michael laughed drily and started acting clueless. “What letter?”

An unpleasant expression instantly appeared on Jocelyn’s face. “What do you mean? You threatened me using my mother’s letter previously and made me ask Skyler to let Lily join Prosperity Jewelry. Don’t tell me you forgot everything that you did in such a short period of time!”

Michael’s voice was extremely strained. It sounded like he wanted to throw a tantrum, but did not dare to do so.

He said, “However, you didn’t contribute anything to Lily and Howard’s marriage!” Jocelyn felt her blood surge to her head in rage. “When will you be willing to give me the letter?!”

Michael thought about Skyler’s words. He pursed his lips and said, “About that...Jocelyn, let me tell you the truth. Don’t be angry!”

Jocelyn frowned as she suppressed the rage within her. “Say it!”

Michael spoke hesitantly, “Actually... I hired someone to fake your mother’s handwriting in the letter that you have right now and the pictures of the letter content that I sent you...”

Michael’s voice grew softer and softer. Jocelyn felt like ripping him into pieces. “What do you mean? Why would you lie to me when you don’t have a letter!”

She had had her mind set on getting her mother’s letter for such a long time. She had even withstood all of Michael’s threats.

However, Michael was now telling her that he had lied to her.

Jocelyn was so enraged that she felt like she was in a daze. “Why would you do that!”

Michael thought about Skyler’s face. He did not dare to yell at Jocelyn. He spoke weakly, “That’s all because...you weren’t willing to help me previously. I had no other choice!” Jocelyn was beyond angered. She gritted her teeth and told him, “Michael White, you deserve to die!”

After speaking, she hung up on the call straight away. She had never hated Michael as much as she hated him right now.

Ever since Michael told her about the letter, she had started thinking of it as the only thing that her mother had left for her before passing away. Everything was gone now!

Jocelyn's eyes turned red. She raised her head and tried to stop the tears from spilling out. She rubbed her eyes, turned around, and returned to the design department.

Jocelyn was distracted the entire afternoon.

When it was almost lunch time, Davis came out of his office and said, "Miss White, head to the president's office. President Moore said that one of our clients wants you to customize their jewelry!" Everyone in the design department had looks of admiration on their faces after hearing what Davis said.

Jocelyn glanced at Davis and nodded in a daze. She then got up and headed to the highest floor.

As soon as Jocelyn entered the president's office, she saw Jim and Yvonne seated inside.

Yvonne was dressed in a tight-fitting gown, which accentuated her voluptuous figure. There was also exquisite makeup on her face.

She raised her chin slightly when she saw Jocelyn.

Jocelyn moved her gaze away emotionlessly. She acted as if she had not seen her at all.

Yvonne instantly clenched her hands into fists angrily.

Jocelyn looked at Skyler and said, "President Moore, I heard that you were looking for me!"

Skyler raised his eyes to glance at her. "Miss Rand wants you to help her design a necklace. Yale has printed the contract out. Both of you should take a look at it. You can sign it if there aren't any problems." Jocelyn frowned. To be honest, she did not feel like taking on this job.

Yvonne was not friendly toward her. Besides, they had argued during the Claude family's dinner gala. She did not think that Yvonne would do any business that would benefit her. Skyler frowned slightly when he noticed that Jocelyn was silent. "What's wrong? Do you not want this client?" Jocelyn's gaze flashed. "President Moore, I didn't mean that." "What do you mean? Why aren't you saying anything when I'm asking you to sign a contract? Jocelyn White, you do have the right to select your clients, but you need to have a valid reason before you reject your clients. Do you understand?!" Skyler stared at her purposefully.

Chapter 132

Chapter 132

Jocelyn looked at Skyler and pursed her lips tightly.

After a while, she turned around to face Yvonne. "Miss Rand, can I ask you why you wanted me for the job? After all, we didn't get along well during Mrs. Claude's birthday gala!"

Yvonne stiffened after hearing what she said. She then burst out into laughter and said, "Miss White, why would you say that? I didn't take that to heart at all. It's just a small problem! I was angry back then, so I might have said some words that I didn't mean. However, that's all in the past. I would've forgotten about it if you didn't mention it!

"Besides, you're Skyler's star employee. I really liked the jewelry that you designed for Lynn. I would love to be your friend. I would like to be a customer at Prosperity Jewelry as well. What's wrong? Are you angry at me over that incident?" Yvonne had an innocent expression plastered across her face as she looked at Jocelyn.

Jocelyn frowned and said, "You're overthinking, Miss Rand. I wasn't at a disadvantage back then. I won't hold a grudge against you!"

Yvonne recalled how Jocelyn had poured red wine on her during the gala after hearing what she said. Her smile almost faltered.

She smiled stiffly and said, "It's good that there aren't any grudges between us!"

Jocelyn added, "I can help you to customize a set of jewelry if you wish to, Miss Rand. However, I must tell you this in advance before President Moore and Mr. Rand. If my design doesn't meet your expectations, let's terminate the contract in peace. Let's not make things difficult for each other!" Yvonne was infuriated, but she still forced a smile on her face and showcased her generosity in front of Skyler. "Alright, let's do as you say, Miss White!"

Jim watched both of them as he stood by the side. Fights between women were way too interesting!

He guessed that Yvonne must be completely enraged by Yvonne's straightforward attacks!

Jocelyn signed the contract with Yvonne expressionlessly. She scanned through the contract once. The contract would be beneficial for her.

It was no wonder Skyler had made her sign it.

One would be a fool not to earn money when presented with the opportunity to do so. If Yvonne caused trouble or breached the contract, she would have a way to attack her!

Jim felt that he had watched enough at this point. He spoke up, "Yvonne, don't forget that you came here for official business. Isn't there something that you'd like to give to Skyler?"

Yvonne immediately came to her senses and nodded. She took out an invitation letter from her handbag, got up, and walked toward Skyler's desk. "Skyler, it'll be my birthday in a few days. I'll be holding a birthday party in the evening. Come join us!" Skyler accepted the invitation and threw it to the side casually. "Alright, I'll head over if I'm free!"

Yvonne felt slightly upset when she saw how carelessly Skyler treated her invitation. Jim spoke, "It's lunchtime now. Let's have lunch together. How does that sound?" Jocelyn rejected his offer at once. "I won't go with you guys. You guys should have lunch with President Moore!"

Jocelyn wanted to leave after speaking. However, Skyler seemed to be rather unhappy all of a sudden. He said coldly, "I don't feel like having lunch!" Jocelyn stopped walking. This should have nothing to do with her, right? As soon as she walked to the office door, Yvonne grabbed her hand and said, "Hold it, Miss White!"

Jocelyn removed her hand from her grip instinctively and frowned. "Is there anything else, Miss Rand?"

Yvonne was not willing to do what she was about to do, but she needed to spend more time. with Skyler.

She had no choice but to say, "Miss White, I'm rather busy nowadays. I might not have time to come over to discuss the specifics of the jewelry pieces with you. I wanted you to customize a set of jewelry for me as a birthday gift for myself. If you have time in the afternoon, let's have lunch together so that I can discuss my requests with you!"

Jocelyn's gaze flashed as she asked, "We're going to discuss work over lunch?" Yvonne's delicate face almost lost its composure. "If you don't like it, let's discuss it after lunch!"

Jocelyn pursed her lips and said, "It's not that I don't like it. If you'd like to discuss it this afternoon, let's have lunch together!"

Jim looked at Skyler after listening to their conversation. There was a gleeful expression on his face as he asked, "How does that sound, Skyler? Let's go! It'll be fun with more people around!"

There was an unnatural expression on Skyler's face. He cleared his throat and said, "I'll join since you keep asking me to!"

Jim could not resist laughing Skyler obviously agreed to join them for lunch because of Jocelyn, yet he tried to make it sound like he was going just because they asked him to.

The four of them walked into the president's private elevator.

As soon as Jocelyn walked out of the elevator when it stopped on the first floor, someone called after her

"Jocelyn!"

Chapter 133

Jocelyn turned around and caught sight of Lexie's cold expression. There was a tight frown on her face

Lexie looked at the four people in front of her. She seemed to be stunned by the combination of people in the group

Jocelyn laughed as she read Lexie's mind instantly. She was just about to explain things when someone else rushed toward Lexie before she could. Jim smiled brilliantly as he called out, "Xixi!"

Lexie frowned in disgust and moved further away from him "Mr. Rand, my name is Lexie!"

Jim looked rather hurt. "Xixi, we haven't met in a few days. Don't be so cold toward me!"

Lexie looked at him in annoyance "Please behave yourself, Mr. Rand!"

Jim sighed in exasperation and said, "We've known each other for such a long time Why are you still so hostile toward me?"

Lexie said expressionlessly, "I wouldn't treat you that way if you acted a little more normally!"

There was an innocent expression on Jim's face as he turned around to look at Jocelyn and Skyler. "Am I not normal?"

Skyler fixed his gaze on Jocelyn. He completely ignored Jim.

Jocelyn did not want to stand there without doing anything. She said, "Lexie, we're going to grab lunch. Do you want to come with us?"

When Jim heard what Jocelyn said, an excited expression immediately formed on his face. Lexie looked at Jim, then looked at Jocelyn. "Alright, I'll come with you then!"

The few of them walked outside

Jim was overjoyed. "Xixi, you made the right choice to come with us for lunch. It'll be fun with more people around!"

Lexie chose to ignore him. The corner of Jocelyn's lips twitched as she said, "Mr Rand, don't be so excited. You're scaring Lexie!"

Jim was rather stunned. There was a confused expression on his face as he said, "That can't be! Don't they all say that women are afraid of men pestering them? How can women dislike men that treat them warmly? This makes no sense!"

Jocelyn laughed. "You're really experienced, Mr Rand!" "Right, back then, I was." He changed the topic when he noticed Lexie casting a sideways glance at him He immediately said, "Being the pure and innocent person that I was, I prevented a lot of flirtatious women from laying their hands on me!"

Skyler felt rather uncomfortable as he watched Jocelyn and Jim chatting and laughing together. He interrupted them instinctively without thinking twice. "You were a flirtatious playboy that accepted anyone's advances on you!" Jocelyn chuckled lightly after hearing what Skyler said. "What President Skyler said makes sense. How can a pure and innocent person share so much about his personal experiences?"

Jim glared at Skyler angrily. "Skyler, you did that on purpose!" Skyler glanced at Jocelyn. She was laughing in a carefree manner. Her eyes shone like there were stars in them.

He smirked and said, "Yes, I did that on purpose! I wanted to expose your lies!"

Jim did not expect Skyler to admit to what he had done so honestly. He was momentarily stunned.

Yvonne clenched her fists as rage boiled up within her. She was the one who had asked Jocelyn to eat together with them, but Jocelyn was not willing to go with them. After that, Skyler was reluctant to come with her as well. However, she was beyond enraged when she saw Jocelyn, Skyler, and Jim laughing and chatting away happily. They walked out of the Prosperity Jewelry building.

Yvonne could not conceal the rage in her eyes. She suddenly met Lexie's clear and cold gaze.

Lexie's clear eyes were filled with caution.

Yvonne stiffened and was about to withdraw her gaze when someone called out her name.

"Yvonne Rand!"

All of them looked over at once.

Lynn stood nearby. Her face was deathly pale. She looked like a ghost that had just escaped from hell.

Yvonne almost failed to recognize her. "Lynn... Lynn Rand, what happened to you?!" Lynn looked at her from the distance and said, "Come over! There's something that I need to tell you!"

Skyler remained expressionless whereas Jim smirked and said in a purposeful tone, "Yvonne, head over and find out why she's looking for you!"

Yvonne nodded and walked over to Lynn. Jocelyn frowned. She kept having the instinct that something was slowly happening behind her back Yvonne walked in front of Lynn. Both of them took a few steps into the distance.

Yvonne lowered her voice with a disgusted expression on her face. "Why are you looking for me? Besides, how did you find me here?"

Now that the Quirrel family was out of power, Yvonne no longer had to butter up Lynn. She did not have to bear with her tantrums as well.

Lynn cast a dark gaze at Yvonne. It was as if she were a terrifying and evil ghost.

She spoke up in a light and soft voice, "There are reasons why I was looking for you! I heard from your servants that you came to Prosperity Jewelry to look for Mr. Moore together with Jim!"

Lynn knew that Skyler had handed out the evidence regarding her father.

However, there was not any bad blood between him and the Quirrel family. She finally understood why he did that after recalling the few men's words from that night.

It was all because of that b*tch, Lily White. She kept thinking of ways to get married to Howard. She had caused her family to be divided and eventually fall to their demise.

She was not a match for Skyler. She knew that clearly. However, she had never thought of seeking revenge on Skyler.

Instead of Skyler, she hated Howard and Lily more. She wished that she could skin both of them alive and rip them into pieces!

Yvonne was still feeling anxious under Lynn's gaze. She just wanted to get rid of Lynn as soon as possible. She spoke to her in a rather impatient tone, "Why are you looking for me?"

"Give me a car. Ask some of your men to monitor every action of Lily White and Howard Jung!" Lynn said directly and matter-of-factly.

Yvonne's expression stiffened as she asked, "Lynn, are you out of your mind? Why would I help you to do all these?"

Chapter 134

Chapter 134

Lynn was not angry. After losing her home, she started understanding a lot of things.

Yvonne's disgust and impatience were nothing to her.

She stared at Yvonne emotionlessly and said, "Yvonne, you like Skyler, right? If I told Skyler that you took advantage of me to go against Jocelyn White during the Claude family's night gala, what would he do to you?"

Yvonne's expression changed instantly. "You wanted to go against Jocelyn because Zayn likes Jocelyn. What does this have to do with me?" Lynn let out a bone-chilling laugh. "Is that so? I would like to see if Skyler would hear what I say. Anyways, I don't have anything now. I'm not afraid of anything either, Yvonne Rand!" Yvonne's expression changed again. She glared at Lynn harshly and said, "Alright, you win this time. However, I'll only help you once!" Lynn's frightening smile faded as she said, "That's enough!" Yvonne was angered and aggrieved. "Don't look for me anymore!" Lynn smirked mockingly and said, "My phone number is still the same. Ask someone to hand the car and relay any information over to me. That's all you need to do!"

After speaking, Lynn turned around and walked away.

She had lost her family, gotten raped, and suffered a miscarriage. She wanted Lily and Howard to pay a painful price for everything that had happened to her!

During lunch in the afternoon.

Just now, Yvonne had told Jocelyn that she wanted to discuss the customization of her jewelry set over lunch.

However, she kept getting distracted during lunch. She did not pay much attention at all. After lunch, Yvonne left. Jim kept pestering Lexie and refused to leave. They ate nearby the company. They walked back to the company after eating. Jim had no intentions to leave at all. He looked at Skyler and said, "Skyler, you're not a good friend. You didn't even tell me that Xixi was working at your company!" Skyler showed him a look of disgust. "I didn't know that she was working at Prosperity Jewelry!"

Yale knew that Lexie was working in the IT department of Prosperity Jewelry. He did not think that he had to report the news about a mere employee joining the company to Skyler.

Skyler only found out that Lexie was working at Prosperity Jewelry today. Jim smirked and fixed a dotting gaze upon Lexie. "Xixi, is it fun at Prosperity Jewelry? If it isn't fun, you can come to my company. I'll welcome you with open arms!"

Lexie glanced at him coldly. Her gaze made it seem like she was looking at a retarded person.

She ignored Jim and walked faster,

Jim did not pay her any mind. She laughed cheekily and caught up with her. Jocelyn and Skyler walked behind them. Skyler knew that Jocelyn's ankle hurt, so he did not walk fast.

When they were about to arrive at the company, Skyler asked, "Does your ankle still hurt?"

Jocelyn glanced at Skyler and said, "It no longer hurts. Thank you for your concern, President Moore!"

Skyler felt rather suffocated as a dark expression appeared on his handsome face.

Did he not want to maintain a contractual relationship with Jocelyn and keep his distance from her in the past?

Why did he feel exceptionally uncomfortable when Jocelyn was acting this way toward him?

Humans always found themselves in dilemma!

Skyler walked forward while feeling angry at himself. Suddenly, he thought about how Michael had called him in the morning.

He glanced at Jocelyn. He was suddenly clueless as to whether he would tell Jocelyn about that letter and let her know the truth.

Michael was not Jocelyn's biological father. Logically, Jocelyn would understand why Michael treated her so badly after he told her the truth.

However, at the same time, Jocelyn would also find out that Grace was not her biological mother.

Skyler found out that Grace had treated Jocelyn very well. If Jocelyn knew about this, she would definitely feel extremely upset.

Skyler did not sense that he had started paying attention to someone else's feelings.

Grace's letter would be able to give Jocelyn closure about some things, but it would break her heart as well. Skyler felt extremely conflicted. He stared at the back of Jocelyn's head and suddenly called out, "Jocelyn White!" Jocelyn stopped walking and turned around to glance at him emotionlessly. "President Moore."

Skyler stared at the cold expression on her delicate face and asked, "Have you hated Michael White since he treats you so badly?"

Jocelyn stiffened and lowered her eyes. She did not want Skyler to see the true emotions in her eyes.

"I hate him!" she said.

She wished that she could kill Michael after knowing that he had faked her mother's letter. She no longer treated him as her biological father right now. No father would ever treat their own child like that! Skyler's heart felt rather heavy. "How about your mother? What kind of relationship did you have with her?" Jocelyn suddenly raised her head to look at Skyler. "Why are you asking me about this?"

There was a rather unnatural expression on Skyler's face as he turned around to look in another direction. His gaze glittered. "It's nothing much. I was just asking for fun. After all, Michael treats you so badly, yet you haven't developed a vengeful personality. That means your childhood shouldn't have been too bad. That's why I'm curious about what kind of a person your mother was and how the relationship between both of you is!" Jocelyn stared at Skyler for a few seconds. "President Moore, why would you be curious about this? This doesn't sound like something you'd do!"

Skyler felt rather guilty. "Is that so? I was just asking you a random question. It's fine if you don't want to talk about it!"

There was a reminiscent gaze in Jocelyn's eyes when she thought about her mother. "It's not that I don't want to talk about it, but no words can describe the relationship between both of us. She treats me really well. I love her a lot. She's a really good person!"

Jocelyn did not say any other words. If she did not have her mother, she would definitely grow up to become a vengeful person!

Skyler felt mixed emotions. He wanted to comfort Jocelyn. However, before he could say anything, Jocelyn spoke, "President Moore, we're about to arrive at the company. I'll go first so that nobody will misunderstand the relationship between us!"

After speaking, Jocelyn started walking faster while ignoring the pain in her ankle.

Skyler looked at her silhouette as an unpleasant expression formed on his face.

From that moment onwards, he simply felt that she deserved it!

Chapter 135

Chapter 135

The next two days passed by rather quietly.

Jocelyn sought inspiration while preparing for the Ocean Heart Jewelry Competition that would be held in Greene City. At the same time, she started designing Yvonne's custom jewelry. Unexpectedly, Yvonne did not play any tricks on her this time around. She was extremely cooperative with her throughout the entire process.

She liked all the designs that Jocelyn came up with as well.

After completing the design draft, Jocelyn started the customization process. Everything seemed to be progressing in a good direction. However, Skyler was acting rather abnormal lately. He had developed a new hobby after coming home from work, and that was playing with their cat. He would spend time petting Whitie's fur and fostering a closer relationship with it every day.

Jocelyn was speechless toward his behavior. After all, he had brought Whitie home. He could pet it if he wished to. She had no right to interfere. However, other than petting Whitie, he also liked asking Jocelyn how he could make it like him more.

Every time he asked Jocelyn about this, she felt her heart lurch in shock!

Whitie always looked extremely lifeless while Skyler held it. Jocelyn pitied it a lot whenever she looked at it!

It was Yvonne's birthday today. In the afternoon, Jim came to Prosperity Jewelry again. Ever since he knew that Lexie was working at Prosperity Jewelry, he had visited the company for three days straight. Although Lexie always treated him extremely coldly, his passion was not extinguished in any way.

Skyler could not bother himself to say anything to him.

Jim loitered around Skyler's office and asked, "Are you going to attend Yvonne's birthday party tonight?"

Skyler said expressionlessly, "I'm not going!" "What are you going to do then?" "I'm going home to play with the cat!" There was a shocked expression on Jim's face. "Huh? You're going to play with your cat? Are you kidding me?"

Skyler glanced at him coldly and said, "You can leave if there's nothing else!"

Jim automatically ignored his words and said, "Right, you previously asked me on the phone if you'd be doing the right thing by purposely hiding the truth from someone for their benefit. I received a phone call then, so I had to hang up on our call, but I can tell you the answer now..."

Skyler was enraged when he thought about this. He interrupted him at once. "I don't want to know about it anymore!"

Jim laughed cheekily and said, "What's the problem? I haven't told you about it yet. I know that you definitely want to know my answer. Stop saying things that you don't mean. Do you think that I don't understand you?"

Jim was rarely this serious. "Actually, one would want to know anything related to themselves regardless of whether it's good or bad. Meanwhile, there won't be a good outcome if you hide something from someone else no matter your intentions. If they know that you're hiding something from them, they'll definitely get angry!"

Skyler raised his gaze to glance at Jim. "Really?"

Jim nodded and said, "Of course. It's a hundred percent true. I won't lie to you!"

Skyler's gaze darkened. It was unclear what he was thinking of.

In the evening, Skyler sent Jocelyn a text after work.

"Come to Jubilee Club tonight. There's something that I need to tell you."

Jocelyn frowned and drafted a reply. "What is it? Can't we talk about this at Villa No. 1?"
"We can't talk about this at home! It's about you!"

Jocelyn's eyes twitched when she saw this news. She did not continue asking him any questions.

"Alright, I'll head over after work!"

After work, Jocelyn drove to Jubilee Club.

Somehow, her right eye kept twitching today. She reached out to rub her eyes. She comforted herself. Skyler's mysterious attitude was making her uneasy. She wondered what he wanted to tell her.

At the same time, in Jubilee Club.

Skyler had arrived a long time ago. He stood before the floor-to-ceiling window and looked at the cars on the road outside. There was a rather dazed expression on his face. He had started acting against his principles under a lot of circumstances within a month. This was really uncharacteristic of him!

Initially, he had told Jocelyn not to have ulterior motives toward him. Jocelyn had fulfilled her promises. She had never once acted out of line from the very start. However, he could not control his emotions well. What was he doing right now?! He was trying to get closer to the cat at home, and he kept thinking about how it felt like to hug Jocelyn to sleep in the past, which caused his thoughts to race while he was sleeping. He could not resist getting involved in anything that had to do with Jocelyn regardless of what it was. He wondered what kind of spell he was under! Skyler had a headache. He could not be like this anymore!

After telling Jocelyn all about the letter today, he would put an end to all his odd behaviors! He would not interfere in Jocelyn's business anymore. Jocelyn was about to arrive at Jubilee Club.

She stepped on the brake as soon as she saw the red light. She then fixed her gaze in the direction before her. The traffic light turned from red to green. She started the car and sped up.

There were not many cars on the road. Jocelyn sped her car up to a speed of 37 miles per hour. However, a car suddenly drove past her. It seemed like the car was driving at a speed above 75 miles per hour. It drove past the yellow dividing line on the road and collided with the car driving in the opposite lane harshly. In that split second, the car in the opposite lane turned sharply after the other car collided with it.

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 136

Chapter 136

Chapter 136

Jocelyn clearly saw the speeding car colliding into the passenger's seat of the other car maniacally.

The two cars collided against one another, and a loud crash resonated through the air. The cars broke as fresh blood splattered across the car windows. The scene before Jocelyn was gruesome and terrifying. Jocelyn never knew that a human being could bleed so much.

She was stunned for a few seconds. She then stood on the brakes at once.

However, the car behind her was yet to realize what had happened. It continued driving forward and collided with the back of her car. It had been driving at a rather high speed.

Jocelyn's car got pushed forward by the car behind. Her car then collided with the car in front of her. Jocelyn's car shook. She hit her forehead against the steering wheel, and she felt a piercing pain in her forehead. There must be an open wound on her forehead.

She did not pass out, but she felt rather dazed. It felt like she could not control her limbs.

The sirens of an ambulance rang out in her ears.

The loud yells and cries on the road felt extremely distant from Jocelyn. The sounds seemed to be nearby and far away from her at times.

She did not contact anyone when she got sent to the hospital. The doctor bandaged the wound on her forehead and handed her a form. He then asked her to undergo several examinations to ensure that her organs or head were not damaged. Jocelyn took the form and headed off to receive the examinations in a daze. Her mind was filled with images of the bloody scene of the car crash. It was just like a nightmare. The doctor could not help but give Jocelyn a reminder when he realized that she did not seem to be doing well. "Do you want to call a family member over to accompany you while you are examined?"

Jocelyn then realized that she had left her phone in the passenger's seat.

She knew that she was not in a good state of mind right now. She borrowed a phone from the doctor and called Lexie. She then asked her to come to the hospital to accompany her while she is examined.

On the other end.

When Skyler received the news, he was still in the midst of convincing himself to completely cut ties with Jocelyn this time around. He would not involve himself in her issues anymore.

However, when he just started thinking that way, Yale rushed in with a pale expression on his face. "President Moore, I have bad news! Miss White got into a car accident!" Skyler's expression changed slightly. It was as if he had not clearly heard what Yale said. "What did you say?" Yale felt rather upset. "Lily White came to the Jubilee Club just now to pick up Howard Jung, who was drunk. On their way back, Lynn Quirrel drove her car and crashed it into their car straight away. A few other cars got involved in the accident. Miss White was among them as well!"

An unpleasant expression appeared on Skyler's face. "Why didn't you tell me about this sooner?"

Yale had a somber expression on his face as well. "I just found out about this!" Skyler rushed outside with large strides. "Let's head to the hospital!" On the way to the hospital, Yale drove while Skyler kept trying to dial Jocelyn's phone number. However, nobody picked up his calls. Skyler's expression darkened as the atmosphere in the car grew icier.

Yale wanted to comfort Skyler, but he did not believe that Jocelyn was safe and sound either.

After all, he could tell just how gruesome the scene of the car accident was from his men's description. Skyler finally stopped dialing Jocelyn's phone number. He looked at Yale with a pained expression on his face. "What happened back then?"

There was an awkward expression on Yale's face. "President Moore, we still don't have news about Miss White right now. It's good news since there isn't any news about her. Perhaps she didn't bring her phone with her!"

“Tell me!” Skyler’s voice was terrifyingly dark and heavy.

Yale took a deep breath. He felt extremely panicked right now. “Lynn sped up her car and drove past the dividing yellow line on the road. She collided with Lily White’s car. Back then, Lily was driving, and Howard was in the passenger’s seat.”

“The moment Lynn collided with Lily’s car, Lily tried to turn her steering wheel around frantically. Lynn crashed into Lily’s car so badly that Howard’s corpse was found in pieces! Lynn and Howard passed away on the spot, and Lily was sent to the hospital for an emergency operation. I heard that she had lost one of her legs when they dragged her out of the car!”

Skyler closed his eyes in pain. He did not dare to imagine what happened to everyone involved in such a large-scale and serious car accident.

He regretted it. In the past, he did not cause that kind of psychological trauma no matter how cruel or harsh his actions were.

That was because the ones that he wanted to punish were not good people!

However, he really regretted everything that had happened this time around.

He should not have tried to scheme against them. He should have taken care of Howard, Lynn, and Lily straight away!

He should not have involved Jocelyn in this matter. He regretted asking Jocelyn to come to the Jubilee Club today evening and making her drive past that road. He clearly knew that everything that had happened today was within his plan. However, he did not expect anything to happen to Jocelyn! This might be fate! Regardless of how flawless one was, they would make mistakes as well!

Yale felt even more upset when he saw Skyler with his eyes closed. Others might not be able to tell how emotional Skyler was, but he could clearly tell that Skyler was truly panicking this time around.

After arriving at the hospital, Skyler rushed in immediately. He usually remained expressionless regardless of how catastrophic the problems that he faced were. He seemed to, be as panicked as a lost fly right now. Yale followed behind him and quickly asked the receptionist, “Where’s Miss White? She just got sent in after being involved in a car accident!”

The nurse at the receptionist’s desk looked at him sympathetically and said, “She’s in the operation theatre on the fourth floor!” Skyler and Yale immediately headed to the fourth floor. The moment the door of the elevator opened, Skyler rushed to the operation theatre. Just then, a nurse came out from the theatre. His uniform was splattered with blood. Skyler felt chills spread all over his body. He stared at the nurse stiffly and asked, "How's she?"

The nurse glanced at him. He seemed rather shocked. "Who are you?" Yale immediately spoke up, "He's Miss White's husband!" The nurse glanced at Skyler and said, "We should be able to save her life, but she'll lose both her legs. Let go of me first. The patient is still in surgery right now. She lost too much blood. I need to get more blood from the blood bank!"

There was a terribly unpleasant expression on Skyler's face. He stumbled a couple of steps back

The nurse left in a hurry after speaking.

Skyler's body swayed. He held onto the wall for balance. He then slumped down on the bench next to him.

He stared at Yale, stunned. "What did she say just now? Jocelyn White lost both her legs? How is that possible? She must be lying to me!" Skyler could not imagine how would someone as prideful as Jocelyn live after being handicapped! There was a pained expression on Yale's face. He did not know how to comfort Skyler." President Moore, take care of yourself! Nothing bad will happen to Miss White since she's a good person!" Skyler let out a mocking laugh. "Nothing bad will happen to her... The car collided with her car although there's only a terribly small chance of something like that happening!" Skyler suddenly wondered if this was karma. If he had not schemed against Lynn, Lily, and Howard, this might not happen right now. Yale looked at Skyler in exasperation. He then raised his head to glance at the operation theatre. "President Moore, don't make things hard for yourself. This was an accident!" Skyler raised his hand and said, "Stop talking! I need some peace and quiet!"

He clasped his face with his hands. It felt like someone was clenching his heart tightly. It felt hard for him to even breathe. He did not dare to look at the door of the operation theatre.

At this moment, he had long forgotten the decision that he had made at Jubilee Club. He planned to return the letter that Jocelyn's mother had written for her and cut ties with her.

Yale stood beside Skyler quietly.

After some time, the sound of rushed footsteps rang out.

Skyler raised his head at once. He then caught sight of Michael running over with a panicked expression on his face. Yennis, whose eyes were red-rimmed, followed behind. Skyler could sense that something did not feel right, but he did not think much about it. He fixed a dark gaze at Michael and shouted, "What were you doing? Why are you only caring about her now?!"

When Michael heard what he said, a panicked expression appeared on his face. He was rather stunned. "President Moore..."

Since when did Skyler care so much about Lily? Why had he never known about it? Skyler got up with a fierce expression on his face. It looked like he wanted to devour Michael up alive. "Grace is dead, and you've been venting off all your rage on Jocelyn all these years. What's wrong? Now that she's gotten into a car accident, are you here to get your share of the advantages by asking for some car accident compensation?"

Skyler felt extremely angered and heartbroken when he thought about Jocelyn's current condition and how Michael had treated Jocelyn in the past.

When Michael heard Grace's name, he finally came to his senses. Skyler was not worried about Lily White. He was worried about Jocelyn instead.

He felt extremely upset, but he still explained himself at once. "President Moore, isn't Lily in this operation theatre?"

Yennis, who was standing beside him, burst out into tears as soon as she heard what he said. Skyler was stunned. He turned around stiffly to look at Yale. Yale was momentarily dazed as well. He suddenly recalled that Skyler had been asking about Miss White all along! The nurses all assumed that he was asking about Lily White. That way, everything seemed to match up. Lily had gotten seriously injured during the car accident. She was now handicapped! Obviously, Skyler soon realized this as well. His expression changed quickly. Skyler never would have expected himself to make such a mistake. He glared at Yale with an unpleasant expression on his face and said, "Go check where Jocelyn White is."

Yale immediately headed off to check where Jocelyn was. Skyler had a stony expression on his face as he looked at Michael and said coldly, "I thought that you suddenly felt some concern for Jocelyn after realizing your conscience. It seems like I've overestimated you. You don't have a conscience at all!" After speaking, Skyler turned around and left with a cold expression on his face. Michael stood on the spot stiffly. He suddenly thought about everything that had happened recently.

The more he thought about it, the worse his expression got. It seemed like Skyler was helping Lily when he helped her marry Howard. However, look at the outcome they got right now!

Skyler was not surprised at all when he heard that Lily had gotten into a car accident just now.

Chills crept up Michael's back. Skyler might have been aware of all of this for a long time.

Unlike what Lily said, he actually cared about Jocelyn. He cared for her a lot. That was the reason why he wanted to make the Whites pay for everything that they have done through such means.

Howard had almost raped Jocelyn through the scheme that he had set up previously. Lily had been bullying Jocelyn ever since she was young. Meanwhile, Lynn had definitely done something to offend Jocelyn. Otherwise, Skyler would not choose to take action against the Whites!

The Quirrel family was now dead. Lynn and Howard had passed away. Lily was handicapped. She was now both a joke and a widow.

Nobody had a good ending! If Skyler Moore had planned for all of this to happen, he was way too terrifying! Michael felt chills spread across his heart the more he thought about it. He had finally come to a realization. He had offended Skyler by treating Jocelyn so badly in the past.

Skyler would not let the White family go. He had to come up with a plan to prevent this from happening

At the same time, Jocelyn came out of the doctor's room after completing a CT scan of her head. Zayn then rushed toward her in a hurry.

Chapter 138

Lexie stood by the side while waiting for Jocelyn. She did not walk forward either. Jocelyn raised her brow. "Director Claude!" Zayn was beyond worried. "Jocelyn, are you alright?"

Jocelyn shook her head and said, "I'm fine. I just have a wound on my forehead. The doctor was afraid that I'd suffer from a concussion, so he asked me to get a scan of my chest and head."

Zayn sighed in relief and nodded. "The doctor was right. You should receive a thorough examination. After all, some people experience concussion a long time after getting into a car accident!"

Jocelyn nodded and said, "Yes, I'll receive all the examinations!"

Zayn looked at Jocelyn and tried to say something. However, he stopped himself before he could ask her anything. "You should get examined first. After that, there's something that I'd like to discuss with you!" Jocelyn frowned. "What is it? Can't we talk about it here? It's late now. I think the sky will be dark once it's all over. She had gotten off work at half-past five, and the car accident had taken place at six. It was now seven in the evening.

Zayn looked at her in exasperation. "This... has something to do with the car accident!"

Jocelyn recalled the gruesome scene of the car accident, and she felt her stomach heave. Her gaze flashed as she said, "Wait for a while. I need to receive one more examination. Let's talk after that!"

Zayn nodded. To save time, he walked Jocelyn to the examination room himself. It was all over shortly.

Jocelyn brought Lexie to Zayn's office.

Zayn looked at Lexie and felt rather hesitant. Jocelyn said, "It's alright. Say anything you want, Director Claude. Lexie won't go around spilling the details. I never hide anything from her!"

Lexie stood by the side. It was as if she had not heard the conversation between both of them.

Zayn sighed after hearing what Jocelyn said. "I'll tell you this straight away then. Jocelyn, what's the relationship between you and... Skyler Moore?"

Lexie and Jocelyn looked at Zayn at the same time after hearing what Zayn said.

There was a rather unnatural expression on Zayn's face. An awkward expression flashed across the delicate features of his face. "I don't mean anything else by asking you this question. I'm just... looking for a starting point! If you don't feel comfortable answering this question, you don't have to!"

"What starting point?" Jocelyn frowned as she looked at Zayn. She did not answer his question at all.

Zayn pursed his lips and said, "While I was looking for Lynn in the past two days, I also carried out an investigation on the exact situation that happened to the Quirrel family previously. Skyler Moore has been involved in this incident from beginning to end. Although he didn't do anything illegal, it seems like he was the culprit that has been egging things on behind the scenes!"

Jocelyn frowned and said, "Director Claude, I don't really understand what you mean!"

Zayn took in a deep breath and said, "I found out that Skyler Moore was the one who provided the evidence for Mr. Quirrel's police report. Of course, the evidence had not been faked. He was carrying out his duties as a responsible citizen!"

"Is there anything wrong with that?" Jocelyn looked at Zayn in confusion.

Zayn glanced at Jocelyn and said, "I also found out that Skyler was the one who caught the person that spiked the alcohol during my mother's birthday gala. Besides, the Quirrel family met with a crisis the very next day!"

Jocelyn raised her brows slightly. There was an unpleasant expression on her face. "Do you mean that Skyler had been taking revenge for me as Lynn was the one who had instructed that person to spike the alcohol?" Jocelyn was extremely shocked. If that was the case, she had guessed everything correctly back then.

Lynn had ordered someone to spike the alcohol, and she had poisoned herself to prevent others from being suspicious of her.

She had poisoned so many other people just to distract their attention from her!

Zayn felt rather exasperated. "I made many guesses, and this is the only guess that seems valid and makes more sense!"

Jocelyn sat on the sofa quietly without saying anything.

Zayn added, "Also, Lily could marry Howard back then because Skyler gave the Jung family a project. Skyler has been involved in this all along. I can't help but be suspicious of him!" Jocelyn raised her head to glance at Zayn. This incident had truly shocked her.

However, she still took Skyler's side instinctively. "Did he do anything illegal?" Zayn shook his head and said, "No, he just gave the Quirrel family the rightful punishment that they deserved and made Lily and Howard's marriage possible! However, Lynn was forced to the brink of despair. She went mad and tried to end Howard and Lily's lives with all her might. Eventually, all three of them were met with terrible outcomes. Skyler must have known about all of this in advance!"

"Jocelyn, I don't know what grudges he holds against three of them, but the three of them have all hurt you before, right? Lily plagiarized your design drafts whereas Lynn spiked your drink and almost hurt you. Meanwhile, Yvonne brought Howard to Prosperity Jewelry, and he apologized to you, right?". Jocelyn raised her gaze to glance at him. "Since you've found out everything, why are you still asking me about this? Do you think that I asked Skyler Moore to do all of this?"

Jocelyn smirked sarcastically and said, "of course, he'd have to be willing to listen to what I say in the first place for that to happen!" Zayn looked at Jocelyn in exasperation and shook his head. "Jocelyn, don't say that. I didn't mean anything like that. I know what kind of person you are. I just feel like all of this is part of a major scheme against Howard, Lily, and Lynn!" "Skyler Moore is a very smart person. He should've expected all of this to happen when he went against the Quirrel family and urged Lily and Howard to get married! Jocelyn, if he was the one behind all of this, and yet he still managed to keep his hands clean, that just shows how much of a terrifying person he is!"

Chapter 139

Jocelyn believed most of what Zayn had said. However, she still insisted on being stubborn." He's not God. How can he know that all of this would've resulted in such an outcome? Do you think that he was behind Lynn's miscarriage and rape as well?!"

Jocelyn took Skyler's side instinctively. Even if this incident really had something to do with Skyler, she would still take his side in front of Zayn. Zayn sighed in exasperation and said, "That's why I think he's extremely skilled. Three of them were met with terrible outcomes, but Skyler did not do anything illegal. Lily was the one behind Lynn's rape and miscarriage. Lily deserves everything that happened to her. Jocelyn, Skyler is a terrifying person. You... you should keep your distance from him!"

Lexie glanced at Jocelyn instinctively after hearing what she said. Jocelyn pursed her lips as she looked at Zayn. "Director Claude, these are all just your guesses. You can't deem him guilty just because of your personal views!"

Zayn could tell that Jocelyn was not willing to believe what he said.

He laughed bitterly and said, "Alright, this is just my suggestion. You're the one who gets to decide what to do based on your own thoughts. To be honest, doctors don't differentiate between good and bad people. We just try our best to rescue the injured even if they're treacherous murderers!"

Zayn stared at Jocelyn and said, "Even if someone gets hurt in jail, we'll try our best to save them as well! If someone has really done an evil deed, the law will naturally make sure that they get punished. Although I don't have any evidence, Skyler Moore is obviously involved in this series of incidents. I'm telling you all of this just because I treat you as a friend!" Jocelyn glanced at Zayn and said, "Director Claude, you're a good person!"

Zayn smiled bitterly. He did not expect Jocelyn to just think of him as a good person after he spent so much time investigating these cases.

A lot had happened today. Jocelyn felt rather mentally pressured and traumatized. She told Zayn, "Director Claude, it's getting late. I'll leave with Lexie first. I won't hold you any longer!"

Zayn looked at Jocelyn with a complicated expression on his face. He then nodded. As soon as they left the office, Lexie looked at Jocelyn and asked, "Do you think all of these incidents have nothing to do with Skyler?"

Jocelyn's expression was unreadable. She said, "I can't cut ties with him right now regardless of whether he's done it or not. No matter what happens, we're still husband and wife!"

She paused and looked at Lexie. “Besides, everything that Zayn said was just his guesses! Moreover, based on what he found out, Skyler didn’t commit any crimes. He did not murder anyone or do anything against the law!”

Lexie’s cold face remained expressionless. “I respect your decision. It’s good enough if you believe in him!”

Just then, Yale’s voice rang out, “Miss White!”

Jocelyn raised her gaze and looked over. Skyler, who had a stony expression on his face, was striding over with Yale

Skyler walked over in large strides when he saw the bandage on Jocelyn’s forehead.

He stood in front of Jocelyn He did not seem to be as panicked as he was previously. “Why didn’t you call me when you were involved in a car accident?”

Jocelyn pursed her lips and said, “I left my phone in the car. Another car hit the back of my car. A tow truck towed my car away!”

Skyler looked at her and asked, “Have you received a detailed body examination?”

Jocelyn nodded and said, “Yes, I’ve done everything!”

“Let’s go back then!” There was an extremely calm expression on Skyler’s face. It was as if nothing had happened just now

Lexie thought about what Zayn had just said. She glanced at Skyler with a complicated expression on her face.

If what Zayn said was true, Jocelyn might be in terrible danger

Jocelyn was just about to leave with Skyler when she suddenly spoke up in shock. “Mr. Ziegler, what happened to your eyes?”

Yale immediately turned around unnaturally. He did not dare to look at Jocelyn. “Miss White, it’s nothing! My eyes just feel a little tired!”

His eyes were bloodshot when he and Skyler thought that Jocelyn had lost her legs while they were in front of the operation theatre!

It would take some time for the redness in his eyes to fade away

He did not expect Jocelyn to notice his red-rimmed eyes.

Jocelyn still felt rather worried. “Mr Ziegler. Don’t mind me. Did anything happen?”

Yale glanced at Jocelyn. He could tell that she was truly concerned about them, so he intended to tell her the truth. "Just now, President Moore and I thought that."

Skyler interrupted him with a dark expression on his face. "Yale, you can go home now!"

Jocelyn looked at Yale curiously and asked, "What did you guys think?"

Skyler had a heavy expression on his face as he stared at Yale.

Yale glanced at Jocelyn and glanced at Skyler. He gaped and said, "President Moore."

He wanted to tell Jocelyn that Skyler genuinely cared about her. However, President Moore did not want him to tell her about it.

There was an uneasy expression on Skyler's face. "Why aren't you going? Are you waiting for me to send you off?"

Yale gulped down and said, "Alright, I'll leave first!"

The atmosphere was rather odd after Yale left.

Jocelyn dragged Lexie over. She wanted to leave with Skyler.

However, the door of the hospital director's office suddenly opened. Zayn shouted out in shock, "Jocelyn!" He did not expect Jocelyn to still be here.

Jocelyn and Skyler turned around at the same time when they heard his voice.

Zayn's expression immediately changed when he caught sight of Skyler.

Chapter 140

Zayn stared at Skyler. There was a hostile gaze in his eyes. Jocelyn felt rather exasperated. Zayn was obviously just worried about her. She was afraid that Zayn would say something inappropriate in front of Skyler. She immediately explained things to him. "Director Claude! Mr. Moore purposely came over to visit me after he found out that I got into a car accident!"

After speaking, she explained things to Skyler again. "Director Claude found out that I got into a car accident. He used his authority to help me receive a full body examination in advance!" Skyler looked at Zayn expressionlessly after hearing what she said. He spoke in a lukewarm tone, "Thank you, Director Claude!"

Zayn, who was always calm and gentle, had a dark expression on his face. "Jocelyn got into a car accident because of Lily White!"

Skyler seemed to sense something strange as well. He took one step ahead and stood in front of Jocelyn instinctively. "Is that so? If that's the case, this doesn't have anything to do with you either, right? Director Claude, you're just in charge of helping the sick and injured!" Zayn had a rather unpleasant expression on his face. "Skyler, regardless of how capable I am, I can't compare to people that keep causing trouble and inflicting harm to other people!" Skyler raised his brow as an icy expression appeared on his face. "Is that so? Since that's the case, everyone would've died. You won't need to help any sick or injured anymore!" Zayn's expression darkened as he said, "Skyler, are you admitting..." Jocelyn immediately interrupted Zayn's words. "Director Claude!" She really did not want Zayn and Skyler to get into a fierce argument just because of something that was yet to be proven! Zayn was stunned. He looked at Jocelyn and noticed the tight frown on her forehead. He took in a deep breath and stared at Skyler with a gloomy expression on his face. "Your thoughts might be rather extreme, Mr. Moore. I'd recommend you to pay a visit to a psychologist!" Skyler retorted, "I've had such thoughts ever since I was young. I've never seen a psychologist, yet I'm still living well!"

Zayn laughed sarcastically. "I hope you can continue living well without any mental pressure or guilt!" Skyler huffed coldly and completely disregarded Zayn's words. "I didn't do anything that goes against my conscience. Naturally, I won't have any mental pressure or guilt!" Jocelyn immediately stopped Zayn from saying anything when she noticed that both of them had started bickering.

She said, "Director Claude, I'm going home first. Contact me on my phone if anything happens!"

Zayn pursed his lips. It looked like he wanted to say something, but he remained silent. Finally, he stopped arguing with Skyler. "Take care on the way back home. I won't see you off!"

CA

Jocelyn nodded and dragged Lexie after her. She then turned around and left. Skyler cast a heavy gaze at Zayn. Zayn fixed a sharp and piercing gaze on Skyler in return. Skyler huffed softly and turned around to catch up with Jocelyn. After arriving at the car park, Lexie drove her own car away. Jocelyn's car had been sent to get repaired. She did not act cooly either. She simply got in Skyler's car. Jocelyn thought about what Zayn said while they were leaving the hospital in the car. She could not help but ask, "President Moore, how did you know that I got into a car accident?"

The implications behind her words were extremely obvious. Skyler knew about the car accident although she had not told him anything about it. That could only mean that he had been paying attention to Lily's car accident beforehand. He then discovered that she had been involved in the accident as well.

Skyler had a rather heavy expression on his face. "Yale told me about it!"

Jocelyn stared at Skyler's side profile and asked him, "How did Mr. Ziegler find out about it?" Skyler sensed that Jocelyn had other intentions. There was a stiff expression on his handsome face as he asked, "Jocelyn, what are you trying to ask me?" After hearing what he said, Jocelyn's courage instantly dissipated. She pursed her lips and said in a deflated tone, "It's nothing!" Skyler was rather shocked. He was all prepared to tell Jocelyn about how he had schemed against Lily, Howard, and Lynn. However, he did not expect Jocelyn to retreat at the very last moment.

The light turned red. He could not help but steal a glance at Jocelyn.

After catching sight of the bandage wrapped around her forehead, he thought about the immense regret that he had felt and how foolish he had looked in front of the operation theatre just now. He instantly felt rather awkward. He cleared his throat and asked, "Did you hurt your forehead? What did the doctor say?" Jocelyn glanced at him and said, "Yes, the injury isn't really serious. It's just a small wound. I got a slight concussion as well. It's nothing much!" Skyler let out an affirmative hum and stopped speaking.

Jocelyn backed off and stopped asking questions.

However, Zayn's words kept echoing around continuously in her mind.

After returning to Villa No. 1, Jocelyn went back to her room and took a shower. However, she did not feel sleepy at all.

She felt that she definitely would not be able to sleep if she did not get things clear tonight.

chap 140

She went downstairs to drink a cup of water. She told herself that she could do it. She planned to look for Skyler to ask him to clarify things.

She put down her cup and turned around. She then saw Skyler standing in front of the stairs. He was looking at her with a stony expression on his face.
