

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 191

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 191

Chapter 191

Jim was rather stunned. His almond-shaped eyes widened as he asked, "That can't be. You like her and would like to pursue her, but you aren't willing to confess to her? Dude, what in the world are you trying to do?" A regretful expression appeared on Skyler's cold and elegant face. He added, "Previously, I told her not to harbor any ulterior motives toward me. I can still come up with an excuse to give her presents and eat with her without explaining things to her. If I confess to her straight away, won't I be a hypocrite?"

Jim looked at Skyler with an irritated expression on his face. "How can you make her fall for you if you don't want to lose your composure?" 1

Skyler did not say anything as he silently admitted to everything.

Jim stared at him with a complicated gaze in his eyes. "Speaking of which, this is the first time you went against your own words. You said that you'll just get married without falling in love. However, you fell in love after getting married. You aren't following the rules of the contract at all!"

Skyler cast a cold gaze at him. "Do you not want to live anymore?"

Jim immediately laughed out dryly and said, "How is that possible? I was just thinking about what you said. If you want to stay by her side like a silent knight, you should wait for her to confess to you on her own once your genuine heart touches her one day!"

Despite what he said, Jim complained about Skyler in his heart. Skyler was simply making things hard for himself. He viewed his reputation above anything else. It would be too late if his wife ran away with someone else one day!

Obviously, Skyler also knew that it was not a good idea for him to remain silent.

He leaned against the sofa and downed the hard liquor in his glass in one go. There was a cold and elegant expression on his face. He did not seem to be troubled by love at all.

Although Jim had a sharp mouth, he had a soft heart. He did not want Skyler to feel frustrated over this incident.

He wiggled his brows at Skyler and started coming up with ideas. "If things really don't work, you can always get drunk and do whatever you want!" Skyler opened his eyes and glanced at him lazily. He did not say anything. However, his mind was full of thoughts about how he had approached Jocelyn with liquid courage the past few times.

The first time that he got drunk, the butler had sent him back to the room. The second time that happened to him, he had gotten slapped across the face! Jim started panicking when he realized that Skyler was not saying anything. He started nagging after him. "I really think that this idea is pretty good. She can't blame you for what you've done when you're drunk. You did everything while you were drunk, so it wasn't exactly you doing all of it. At most, she'll ask you not to get drunk anymore. However, you shouldn't pretend to get drunk. You'll be exposed if your acting skills aren't up to par!"

There was an unreadable expression on Skyler's face. After hearing what Jim said, he glanced at him and asked, "Do you mean... I should really get drunk?"

"Uh-huh!" Jim said in a gleeful tone.

Skyler frowned and asked, "What if I forget everything that happened?"

Jim stared at him for a few seconds. He seemed to be thinking about something. "I recall that... you aren't the type to forget everything that happened even if you get drunk! That shouldn't happen to you!" When he noticed that Skyler did not retort against that, he could not help but try persuading him. "Try it out. What if it manages to make both of you closer? You can act recklessly while you're drunk!"

Skyler picked up his glass of wine and walked around. Finally, he placed the glass on the table and got up.

He tucked his tailor-made shirt into his suit pants to accentuate his sexy and sturdy waistline.

He unbuttoned one of the buttons on his shirt with a languid expression on his face. He then picked up his business suit and said, "Let's do this. I'll go fetch someone!"

Quintus Hotel, the gala hall. Renee got humiliated after challenging Jocelyn once again. She was angry that she gritted her teeth in rage. She had just thought of a means to regain the upper hand. However, just then, Jordan and Walter both walked in from outside. When Renee saw Walter, she panicked instinctively. She immediately got up and said, "You guys should play among yourselves! There's something that I need to do right now!"

After Renee finished speaking, she escaped at once. She did not want Walter to put her in a more difficult position. Walter still sat next to Jocelyn after returning this time around. However, he did not take the initiative to talk to Jocelyn at all. Jocelyn drank a lot back then. She then got up and said, "Senior, can you please excuse me? I need to go to the washroom!"

Walter glanced at her and moved his body sideways.

Jocelyn walked out in a hurry.

After going to the washroom, she walked out and was about to wash her hands when she suddenly saw a familiar face in the mirror in front of the basin.

She had not forgotten this face for the past two years. She even had nightmares when she thought about this person's face.

However, it seemed like this person had not sensed Jocelyn's emotions at all. She spoke to Jocelyn in a haughty tone. There was an ambiguous expression on her face. "Jocelyn White, what a coincidence!"

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 192

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 192

Chapter 192

Jocelyn's face stiffened as she called out, "Miss Sonnet!"

Snow Sonnet turned around and leaned against the basin. She cast a languid gaze at Jocelyn and said, "You're really refusing to leave my side! Walter and I ran into you when we just returned to the country. Can you not live without men by your side?"

There was an awkward expression on Jocelyn's face. She straightened herself stiffly and looked at Snow. "Pay more attention to what you say!"

Snow raised her freshly-manicured nails on one hand and caressed the gems on her nails with her other hand. She laughed nonchalantly. "Pay attention... What should I pay attention to?"

She paused and stared straight at Jocelyn. She spoke in a sarcastic tone, "To be honest with you, if I were to pay attention to something, I should be cautiously watching you to prevent you from seducing my fiancé instead!"

Jocelyn's pupils constricted as an unpleasant expression appeared across her face. "Miss Sonnet, I have a boyfriend. I hope that you can stop your persecution paranoia!" Snow put down her hand casually and glanced at her. "Are you referring to Howard Jung?" Jocelyn pursed her lips tightly. "No!" Snow huffed coldly and said, "You must have asked a random man to act like your boyfriend again. Do you think that I'll believe you?"

Jocelyn could not stand it anymore. "Snow Sonnet, don't cause trouble!"

After speaking, Jocelyn turned around and walked away. As soon as she walked to the entrance of the toilet, Snow's cold voice rang out, "Jocelyn White!"

Jocelyn froze. She still could not stand up straight in front of Snow Sonnet. That was because she had almost become an intruder into someone else's relationship back then. This was something that she found completely unacceptable.

Walter had not clarified things to her back then. However, Walter had protected her for many years. She could not really blame him for this.

Therefore, she could only distance herself from both of them. However, trouble was looking for her when she did not want any trouble in her life. She felt that she could not bear it anymore.

Jocelyn was about to leave. Snow felt humiliated. Her voice was tinged with rage as she shouted out, "Jocelyn White, back then, I thought that you would back off after I told you about my relationship with Walter! Now, it seems like you still aren't clear about where you stand!"

Jocelyn turned around with a heavy expression on her face. She glanced at Snow coldly and asked, "What in the world are you trying to say?"

Snow spoke to her in a haughty tone, "Let me tell you this. Walter's father, Zenith Keene, has five siblings. He's the youngest among his siblings. His elder siblings all dote on him a lot. The Keene family has four sons and two daughters. The eldest son of the family is involved in politics, the second son is working in the military, and the third and fourth sons, who both work in the military too, got into an arranged marriage with a prominent businesswoman and politician, respectively!" Jocelyn glanced at Snow expressionlessly. Snow continued speaking, "Meanwhile, Walter's father, Zenith, is a businessman. The Keene family is extremely prominent in Mauve City. You should know how powerful their authorities and statuses are. It's simply unimaginable. Besides, the Keene family is extremely close to each other. Their family background is exceptional as well. Each family member has achieved unattainable heights in the respective areas that they work in. Do you think that you can marry into such a family?"

Snow cast a sarcastic glance at Jocelyn and said, "Or do you think that you're a good match for Walter given the background of the White family? Jocelyn White, let me tell you the truth. You can only dream of marrying into the Keene family in your next life!"

Jocelyn stared at Snow. Suddenly, she felt like she could look past everything.

People loved showing off whatever they lacked the most.

Snow wanted to marry Walter and become part of the Keene family. She had been engaged with Walter for so many years, but she was yet to officially marry him. She was flaunting the one thing that she wanted but could not obtain.

Jocelyn suddenly laughed out loud and said, "You're right. I'm not worthy of being part of the Keene family. However, let me give you a kindly reminder. Snow Sonnet, you're the one who's going to marry Walter, not your family background. If you aren't clear about your own position, you're still a failure and a loser even if you get married to Walter as you so badly wish to!" Jocelyn left without turning around after speaking.

Snow shouted out in rage, "You're the true loser, Jocelyn White! What gives you the right to talk about me like that!"

Jocelyn had no intention to bother about her.

Back then, she could not stand Snow's belittling and mocking gaze. She felt like she had intruded into their relationship.

Actually, she did not get together with Walter. She simply had a crush on him back then.

She could not forget her crush on him. However, she felt like she had done something wrong. Snow had humiliated her love for him from a moralistic viewpoint.

She suddenly put down everything after hearing Snow's words today.

Why should she feel that way? Although Snow was making things difficult for her, she might not be able to obtain what she wanted as well. However, she really did not know about the Keene family's background. The Keene family was extremely authoritative and prominent. She could not imagine being part of such a family.

Jocelyn ran into Walter by coincidence when she walked to the entrance of the event hall. Jocelyn's gaze was much calmer when she looked at him right now."Senior, where are you going?"

Walter looked at her silently and spoke up after some time. There was a mocking gaze in his eyes. "Are you no longer willing to call me Walt anymore?" Jocelyn pursed her lips and said, "I was just following how the others addressed you since it's an alumni gathering. It's nothing like that, Walt!"

Walter's gaze flashed as he said, "Jo, I'm very happy to see you again!" There was a calm expression on Jocelyn's face. "I'm really happy to see you again too! However, we'd better go in! I've been out for some time!" Walter smiled and nodded. Obviously, he had gained courage after hearing Jocelyn address him by his nickname.

When Jocelyn and Walter returned to the sofa where they were seated just now, some of the alumni teased Walter. "Senior, didn't you go to the toilet? Why did you come back so soon?"

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 193

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 193

Chapter 193

Walter laughed as his expression softened. He smiled and said, "All of a sudden, I didn't feel like going to the washroom anymore." "Hohoho.... That's interesting bladder control!" "Hahaha... Did you control your urge to go to the toilet after seeing a pretty girl?" All of them teased Walter. Walter simply smiled without saying anything. Jordan clearly knew that Walter had gone out just to look for Jocelyn. He cast an ambiguous smile at Walter.

Everyone chatted for a while. Walter's phone rang when Jordan suggested that they should play a game of truth or dare.

Everyone exclaimed out loud and called him a busy man.

As soon as Walter left, Jordan tried to speak up again.

However, Jocelyn's phone rang as soon as she spoke up. Jordan was amused. "Jocelyn, are you and Walter here to cause trouble for me?" Jocelyn smiled in exasperation when she noticed that Skyler was calling her. "No, my boyfriend is here to fetch me!" Jordan's smile faltered slightly. "I see!" Someone by the side spoke up, "Her boyfriend is really handsome! Ask him to come up at once!"

Jocelyn picked up her phone. "Hello?"

Skyler got straight to the point. "Where are you?"

Jocelyn said, "I'm in the event hall on the fifteenth floor. I'll come down now!"

"It's alright, I'll go up to get you!" Skyler hung up after speaking. He had been working in the business field for such a long time. Of course, he knew what had happened. Jocelyn usually ignored him. Even if something happened, she would not tell him anything if he did not take the initiative to help her out. However, her voice was full of hesitation when she spoke to him today. Evidently, someone was making things difficult for her. Besides, people loved comparing their careers and significant others during such gatherings. Skyler could vaguely guess what had happened. Jocelyn hung up on the call. Everyone looked at her and asked, "Is he really coming?" Jocelyn nodded stiffly. Jordan started panicking. "I'll go out first!"

He had to look for Walter at once. Jocelyn really had a boyfriend, and he was coming here right now! Where had Walter gone?!

Not long after Jordan left, Skyler appeared at the entrance of the event hall. Skyler attracted the attention of countless people as soon as he entered the hall. He had always maintained a low profile. A lot of people knew of him, but they did not recognize him as the king of jewelry, Skyler Moore. He scanned the crowd and saw Jocelyn at first sight. He then walked straight toward her.

The alumni around Jocelyn had shocked expressions on their faces. They all whispered among themselves.

"Is that her boyfriend? He's way too handsome!"

"Oh God, he looks just like the male lead of a novel!"

"Tsk tsk, all of his clothes are customized. I've finally seen a tall, rich, and handsome young man in real life!" "D*mn it, that Patek Philippe 1518 stainless steel model costs nearly 12 thousand dollars. It's regarded as an antique. I'm about to pass out. I really don't understand the world of rich people!"

Jocelyn thought she heard someone gulp. She was so used to interacting with Skyler that she had never noticed these details.

Besides, Skyler had so many watches and cars. She did not even recognize some of them, so she had never kept them in mind.

Everyone widened their eyes when Skyler walked in front of Jocelyn. Skyler spoke in a clear voice, "I'm sorry for coming late. There was a traffic jam on the way here!"

Jocelyn chuckled and said, "It's fine, I'm not in a hurry!"

Everyone looked at Skyler in embarrassment. It seemed like they were all worshipping him.

Skyler sat down next to Jocelyn in an elegant manner. "Nice to meet you, I'm Jocelyn's boyfriend!"

He seemed to have no intentions to tell everyone his name. Everyone else did not ask him as well.

Someone suggested that they should grab a drink together. Before Skyler could say anything, Jocelyn rejected their offer. "He hurt his back. He can't drink!"

Someone teased her. "That can't be, Jocelyn White. Wasn't your boyfriend drinking in the bar when you called him?"

"Tsk tsK tsK, you're way too concerned about him!"

Skyler's gaze flashed. He guessed that Jocelyn might have been forced to turn on her speaker while talking to him on the phone just now.

There was an ambiguous expression on his face. He placed his arm on the sofa behind Jocelyn's back. It looked like he had his arm wrapped around her.

Jocelyn felt rather exasperated. She could not help but frown. "I'm telling you guys the truth!"

"Even so, we can't do that. How can we not drink if we're meeting your significant other?" One of the men blurted out.

Skyler leaned against the sofa and raised his gaze slowly to glance at him. The man immediately went silent. He lowered his head and stopped talking.

Skyler's gaze made everyone feel pressured.

There seemed to be an invisible wall between him and these people.

Jocelyn did not intend to stay for long. She told them that she still had work tomorrow. She then left together with Lexie and Skyler.

As soon as she left, the event hall erupted into a state of frenzy.

“A goddess always scores herself a target whenever she shoots her shot! Look at her significant other. Given his aura, one can tell that he isn’t an ordinary person at first sight!” “That man looks rather familiar. Have any of you seen him before? I feel like I’ve seen him before somewhere!”

“Stop making things up! Someone like him is way beyond our league. He looks like someone that would appear on television. You might not know him even if he walks in front of you!”

Everyone started discussing about him. When Jordan returned to the hall, he realized that Jocelyn had already left. However, he was yet to find Walter.

At the same time, in one of the rooms in Quintus Hotel.

Walter frowned as he stared at Snow. “Didn’t you agree not to appear in front of Jocelyn White before we returned to the country?”

Snow glanced at Walter and said, “Walter, I just said that out of respect for you. Besides, I agreed to terminate our engagement if Jocelyn agrees to get together with you. Don’t stir up the facts!” Walter frowned and said, “Anyways, you shouldn’t appear in front of her ever again. I don’t want her to get affected like back then!”

Ma’am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 194

Ma’am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 194

Chapter 194

Snow felt somewhat awkward. Filled with rage, she spoke up emotionally, “She’s not that weak! She isn’t made of glass!”

Walter’s expression turned icy. “Snow Sonnet!”

Snow immediately made a gesture with her hands. "Okay, okay! I'll listen to you. I'll avoid her as best as I can in the future!"

She was confident that Jocelyn would not tell Walter about what she had told her just now.

In her eyes, Jocelyn White was a fragile girl that valued her own dignity. She was not a match for her!

Walter glanced at her, turned around, and left with a heavy expression on his face!

When Walter returned to the event hall, he realized that Jocelyn had already left. Jordan glanced at him in annoyance. "Where did you go? You didn't pick up your phone either. I've been looking for you outside for such a long time!" Walter said expressionlessly, "Something came up!"

One of the juniors had a starry gaze in her eyes. "Senior, Jocelyn's boyfriend is extremely handsome! He has an excellent aura as well. He can debut as a celebrity at any time!" There was a cold expression on Walter's face. "Is that so?" The junior nodded at once. "Yes, I have a photograph here. I took it secretly just now. Would you like to take a look?"

Walter felt somewhat annoyed. "No!"

The junior choked and said to Walter in an embarrassed tone, "Actually, you're about the same as him, senior. However, both of you are different types of people!"

Walter felt that he was inflicting pain upon himself.

He found out that Jocelyn had a boyfriend, yet he was still unwilling to give up. He asked numbly, "Really? What type of person is he?" The junior was invigorated after hearing Walter ask her this question. She said, "Jocelyn's boyfriend looks like the dominant and cold-hearted president of a company. Meanwhile, you look like a gentle, considerate, and wise president! Both of you have different styles!" Walter smiled in a self-mocking manner after hearing what he said. He remained silent. Jordan cast a worried glance at him. He did not say anything either. Jocelyn and Lexie came to the venue hall of the alumni event in Lexie's car.

Skyler came over to fetch Jocelyn in her Volkswagen Polo. Lexie did not drink either. She then drove home herself.

Jocelyn glanced at the car. She then looked at Skyler in shock. Skyler explained. "I drove your car when I went to the bar!"

Jocelyn nodded to indicate that she understood.

The butler had prepared an extra for all the cars in Villa No.1 for Oliver. That included Jocelyn's Volkswagen Polo.

Both of them got into the car. The chauffeur, Oliver, started the car.

Oliver was Skyler's personal chauffeur. However, Skyler usually drove his own car to the office and back. Oliver only drove when Skyler had a busy schedule or when he was feeling extremely tired. Oliver usually listened to Yale's orders and helped Skyler to handle some miscellaneous tasks.

The car drove in the direction of Villa No. 1 under the street lights. Jocelyn remained silent for a while. She then thanked Skyler. "Mr. Moore, thank you for tonight!"

It was dark in the car. Skyler was leaning against the back seat as he pretended to take a nap. He opened his eyes as a dark expression appeared on his face after he heard what Jocelyn said. He spoke in a heavy tone, "You don't need to thank me!" Jocelyn pursed her lips and said, "I still need to thank you. You had to come so far away just to fetch me because of my alumni gathering!"

Quintus Hotel was nearly half the distance further away from Villa No.1 as compared to Vintage Bar.

Jocelyn was extremely courteous toward him. Skyler felt mixed emotions. It was dark in the car, so he could look at Jocelyn however he wished to. He did not need to worry about her finding out about him.

After some time, he spoke up, "Jocelyn, we're married. Even if I'm acting, I have the greatest right to be there among everyone. Similarly, I'll let you know if I have such needs!"

Jocelyn instantly understood what Skyler meant. She immediately nodded and said, "Yes, you can ask for help if you need it any time. I'll definitely try my best to help you out!"

Skyler remained silent. He turned around and looked outside the car window. He then smiled self-mockingly.

Jocelyn received a notification on her phone. Jocelyn lowered her head and realized that Walter had sent her a text. Everyone had added each other's contacts on WhatsApp as soon as the alumni gathering had begun. Although Jocelyn did not really feel like adding Walter's contact, she had no choice but to do so in such a situation.

Walter: (Jo, why did you leave?)

Jocelyn: (My boyfriend came over to fetch me!) Walter: (Yes, I heard about it from the others. I'll be staying in Mauve city in the future. Let's keep in touch!)

Jocelyn: (Yes, let's see!]

Skyler suddenly turned over to cast a glance at her. He asked, "Who are you texting?"

Jocelyn told him the truth. "It's one of my seniors. He went out when you went over just now. He was asking me why I left all of a sudden!" Skyler did not say anything after hearing what she said. Jocelyn kept her phone and muted it. She ignored her phone when she noticed her screen light up.

After a while, Skyler's phone rang again. Skyler picked up his phone slowly and glanced at the caller ID before accepting the call. "Hello, what is it?" Skyler spoke in a calm and emotionless voice. A man's clear voice rang out from the other end of the call. "The lobby manager told me that you visited the hotel just now?"

Skyler was momentarily stunned as he recalled something. "Yes, I went over to fetch a friend!"

"Right, Skyler, you're an adult now. You should consider getting married. Yesterday, mother asked me what happened to you and Josie. Why did Josie suddenly leave the country? Previously, didn't you mention that both of you were about to get married? What happened?" Skyler said calmly, "I've broken up with her!" Jocelyn glanced at Skyler instinctively. She withdrew her gaze at once when she noticed that Skyler was also looking at her. "You've been together for a few years. Why did you break up?" The man on the other side of the call sounded extremely shocked.

However, after a pause, he added, "It's also good that you've broken up. To be honest, mother told me that she didn't really like Josie. Yesterday, she even asked me if you got along well with the daughter of the Sullivan family!"

One of the reasons why Skyler's mother disliked Josie was due to the fact that she was Snow Sonnet's cousin. His mother did not want the brothers to marry girls from the same family. Skyler did not expect his mother to be worrying about these things behind his back. He frowned and said, "Ask her not to do such things anymore. I already have a girlfriend!"

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 195

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 195

Chapter 195

"Is that so? Invite her out one day so that we can have a meal together. Anyways, I'll be staying in Mauve City in the future!"

Skyler glanced at Jocelyn, who was daydreaming with her head tilted to the side. He nodded and said, "Yes, sure!" They arrived home at night.

Jocelyn took a shower and lay down on her bed. She turned around on her bed, but she could not fall asleep.

She thought of how Walter treated her. It was as if nothing had changed from two years ago. She felt rather upset.

Initially, she thought that she would be extremely nervous tonight. However, after seeing Walter, she suddenly realized that she had already put down her bitter crush on him after knowing that he had a fiancée back then.

However, she still could not treat Walter like an ordinary friend.

Walter was not just someone that she had once had a crush on. Disregarding the crush, Walter was still like family to her.

Michael had been giving her a difficult time back then. She got bullied everywhere. Walter was the one who protected her as she grew up during the toughest few years of her life. He taught her how to fight and brought her around to have fun. He was still different from everyone else... The next morning, Jocelyn was still yet to come down when Skyler came downstairs. He sat down at the dining table and suddenly thought of the chat he had with Jim last night. Jim had given him some tips on how to pursue women, and one of them was the fetch them to work and back home.

However, Skyler thought about how Jocelyn insisted on driving to work herself yesterday morning. Finally, he convinced her to fetch him to work by using his wound as an excuse!

Skyler frowned and pondered upon it for some time. Suddenly, he crooked his finger and gestured for the butler, who was arranging some of the porcelain by the side, to come over.

He gave the butler some orders in a hushed tone. The butler's face twitched slightly as he asked, "Sir, must I really do that?" Skyler said coldly, "Don't ask so many questions, and just do as I say!"

The butler nodded and left.

Jocelyn could not sleep last night. There were dark circles under her eyes the next morning.

She used some concealer to cover up the dark circles beneath her eyes before going downstairs.

Skyler ate his breakfast slowly. If it were not for the fact that Jocelyn knew that he definitely would not fall for her, she would have thought that he was waiting for her to go to the office together with him!

After having breakfast, Jocelyn grabbed her car keys and handbag before leaving the house.

Skyler took his car keys and followed behind her at an even pace.

Jocelyn glanced at the car keys in his hand in shock. "Are you driving to the office yourself?"

Skyler let out a lazy lium.

Jocelyn did not continue asking him questions. Skyler's gaze flashed as he told her, "I'll fetch you to work today!"

Jocelyn shook her head and raised the car keys in her hands. "It's alright, I can go to the office myself!"

She was aware that she had to keep her distance from Skyler at all times. Skyler glanced at her without saying anything. He walked at an even pace while looking at Jocelyn's silhouette. A glint flashed across his eyes. Both of them walked to the garage. Jocelyn pressed clicked her car key fob and was about to get in her car when her gaze suddenly landed on her tires. She was instantly stunned. She had a flat tire? Her car was evidently slanted at an angle. However, it had been fine last night! Skyler had already opened his car door and gotten into the driver's seat.

Jocelyn glanced at her car tires as a distraught expression appeared on her face. Skyler had already started his car. It seemed like he was about to leave at any time. Jocelyn took out her phone and looked at the time. If she walked right now, she would not be able to make it to work in time.

She instantly started panicking.

She gritted her teeth and rushed toward Skyler's car. "Mr. Moore, wait for a while!"

Skyler looked ahead of him. He seemed to be focused on driving. He smirked as a satisfied smile appeared on his face. "Oh, what happened?"

Jocelyn panted as she ran to the side of his car. "Mr. Moore, can you please fetch me to the office today?"

Damn it, she was going against her own words!

Skyler sat down in the passenger's seat and lowered the half-opened car window. He said in a languid tone, "Didn't you say that you could go to work on your own?"

Jocelyn's face instantly flushed red when she thought about what she had previously said." Mr. Moore, my car has a flat tire. Perhaps the tire got pricked yesterday, but I don't have the time to look into it right now. I'm really not intentionally looking for an excuse to approach you!"

At first, Skyler had a faint smile on his face as he listened to what she said. However, after hearing the last sentence that she said, his face darkened slightly.

He spoke to her in a cold tone, "Get into the car!"

He was rather angry. It was unclear if he was angry at himself or Jocelyn.

Why did she remember the words that he had said at the very start so clearly?

Jocelyn could clearly sense that Skyler was suddenly in a bad mood. There was a dazed expression on her face.

However, she could not care about so much right now. She walked past the front of the car and got into the passenger's seat. The butler stood at the entrance of the villa and watched as Skyler's car drove away into the distance. There was a complicated but comforted expression on his face. Mr. Moore finally knew how to appreciate Miss White and his marriage! However, Skyler was being childish and mean for asking him to give Miss White's car a flat tire. Was he still a child?!

The car drove out of the villa. Skyler noticed that Jocelyn was rather bored, so he spoke up," You can connect your phone to Bluetooth and listen to some music!" Jocelyn pursed her lips and nodded. "Alright!"

She felt rather bored. Besides, it seemed like Skyler did not listen to music while driving,

She linked her phone through Bluetooth and started playing music. She started playing with her phone while listening to music in the passenger's seat.

She posted a photo on her Instagram story. She included an upset emoji on the photo.

“An unlucky day starts from a flat tire...”

She had not slept well last night. She was listening to music. Besides, Skyler drove extremely smoothly. She fell asleep before she knew it.

Skyler glanced at her when he stopped the car at a red light. He saw her sleeping soundly with her head tilted to the side. He could not resist lowering the volume of the audio in the car.

When the car was about to arrive at the company, the song being played on the radio ended. An odd conversation suddenly rang out in the car.

“Aren’t you quite close with Davis? Lexie knows that you like Davis, but...”

“Men are just like clothes, but best friends will always be there for you...”

Ma’am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 196

Ma’am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 196

Chapter 196

Skyler’s gaze darkened. He knew that this was probably Jocelyn’s voice recording. He could vaguely guess what had happened as well.

When Jocelyn woke up, the car was parked in the underground car park.

Her voice was rather languid as she spoke in a dazed tone, “Have we arrived?”

Skyler leaned back against the driver’s seat and stared at the steering wheel expressionlessly. It was unclear what he was thinking about.

Since he was silent, Jocelyn spoke up, “Since we’ve arrived, I’ll head upstairs first. Thank you for sending me to work, President Moore!”

Jocelyn opened the car door while speaking.

Skyler suddenly looked at Jocelyn. “Wait!”

Jocelyn looked at him in confusion and asked, "Huh?"

Skyler stared at Jocelyn's delicate face with a complicated expression on his face. "I want you to hear something!"

There was a curious look on Jocelyn's face. "What's that?"

Skyler clicked on the audio play button, and the recording that he had heard just now repeated once again. "Men are just like clothes, but best friends will always be there for you..."

Skyler cast a dark gaze at Jocelyn as he listened to the recording.

When Jocelyn realized what he was playing, a pained smile appeared on her face. She stammered, "How... why is this playing? I just recorded this for fun!"

Skyler turned around and leaned his body slightly toward her.

Jocelyn was intimidated by his aura. She could not help but retreat backward. She leaned against the car door and laughed drily. "I..." There was a rather dangerous expression on Skyler's face. He interrupted her. "Are men just like clothes to you?"

Jocelyn's smile stiffened as she said, "No, no, no, men will always be there for you, women are just like clothes!"

She felt like dying right now. How could Skyler have heard this recording?!

Skyler's gaze flashed slightly as he asked, "Don't you think that it's a little too late for you to say that now?" Jocelyn felt that Skyler looked rather frightening right now. It looked like he was about to gobble her up.

She gulped with much difficulty and tried her best to explain herself. "Mr. Moore, I really didn't mean that!"

Skyler's voice was heavy and low. "Am I considered your man?"

Jocelyn was stunned. Her face instantly flushed bright red. Her neck stiffened as she said,

"This was my mistake, but... but this isn't a reason for you to tease me!" After Skyler heard what she said, he chuckled lightly and spoke in a low and husky tone, "Did I tease you? We're married. I'm your man, aren't I?"

Jocelyn's face flushed bright red. "Anyways... Anyways, I can't win an argument against you. I'll go upstairs first!"

After speaking, Jocelyn opened the car door in a liurry and escaped. Skyler let out a low chuckle when he saw her running away frantically.

It was... rather interesting to pursue Jocelyn White! Jocelyn rushed into the elevator. Her heart was still pounding rapidly.

Somehow, her face heated up when she thought of the look of dark amusement on Skyler's face and his low and heavy voice. She immediately shook her head and stopped her imagination from running wild.

She managed to clock into the design department at the very last minute.

Skyler headed upstairs in a good mood. He had just opened the documents that Yale had sent over when Jim sent him a screenshot via text.

He clicked into the image. It was a photo that Jocelyn had posted on her Instagram stories.

Jim: (Your wife has a flat tire. This is a great opportunity. Hurry up and fetch her to work. It's a call for you to do so!)

Skyler's gaze darkened as his expression stiffened. He had been married to Jocelyn for almost two months, but he has yet to add her on Instagram!

When had this rascal added Jocelyn on Instagram?

When Skyler replied to Jim, the tone of his text was filled with a strong sense of dissatisfaction.

Skyler: [I was the one who caused the flat tire. I don't need you to tell me what to do. Why are you friends with her on Instagram? When did you follow her?"] Jim looked at Skyler's text and laughed so hard he almost fell down from the sofa.

T

OT Jim: (Oh gosh, you're really a genius! You actually came up with such ingenious means to send her to work! I truly respect you! Meanwhile, I followed her and Lexie on Instagram when I was admitted to the hospital due to my injury back then. What's wrong? Do you mind?)

Skyler: (Send her Instagram username to me!)

Jim: (Tsk tsk, how pitiful. You don't even follow your own wife on Instagram!)

Skyler: (Quit the nonsense!) Jim: (I'll share Jocelyn's profile with you!) Jocelyn's nickname on Instagram was Jojo. It was a rendition of the abbreviation of her first name.

At first glance, Skyler could tell that Jocelyn's profile picture was a photo of Whitie. Whitie was lying on the sofa in the photo. Its eyes were sleepy, and it looked extremely adorable and soft. Skyler immediately clicked into her profile and added her as a friend.

The design department.

Jocelyn had just sat down when Lexie walked in with red-rimmed eyes. Jocelyn had never seen such an aggrieved look in her eyes.

Jocelyn instantly got up and walked over quickly. Worry flooded her face. "Lexie, what's wrong?"

Lexie raised her head and glanced at Jocelyn. "Jocelyn, can we talk?"

Jocelyn frowned and held her hand. "Let's head to the pantry!"

When they arrived before the water dispenser, Jocelyn poured a cup of water for Lexie. There was a worried expression on Lexie's face. "What happened to you?"

Lexie pursed her lips tightly as she looked at Jocelyn.

The next moment, tears suddenly spilled out from her eyes. "Jocelyn, Davis and Yuni got together!"

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 197

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 197

Chapter 197

There was a look of shock on Jocelyn's face. "How is that possible? When did this happen? Does Yuni not care about the audio recording that I have?"

Lexie cried desperately. Jocelyn had never seen her so upset before.

She looked at Jocelyn and started crying even harder. "Why does she have to care about that? They're already together. If I tell Davis then I like him right now, do you think they will break up? I'll just be putting myself in a more difficult position. Yuni must have guessed that this would happen!" Lexie hugged Jocelyn and cried out loud, "Jocelyn, what should I do? I've liked him for almost seven years. It's been seven years. How can I let go of him? I can still comfort myself when he didn't have a girlfriend back then. I can't even comfort myself right now. Am I way too weak? Am I being a coward for not daring to confess my feelings to him? Is that why someone else got together with him first? I'm such a fool, right?" This news was way too sudden. Lexie cried in devastation. Jocelyn felt rather panicked. "Xixi, don't cry. Tell me everything first. What happened? How do you know that both of them got together?"

Lexie tried her best to stop crying. She then told Jocelyn everything that had happened in a disorderly manner

Jocelyn made a vague inference about what happened.

Yesterday night, Davis had attended the alumni gathering as well. However, he was at the buffet held in the conference hall on the top floor of the hotel.

He had disappeared for three years after his graduation. His ex-roommates made him drink a lot.

Yuni happened to call Davis just after he got drunk.

His ex-roommates thought that Yuni was his girlfriend, so they asked her to fetch Davis. After that, everything took its course naturally. They headed to the room that Davis's ex-roommates had prepared for him in Quintus Hotel. It was unclear if Yuni had taken advantage of Davis or if things just led to another as they were intoxicated.

Davis was a responsible man. When he saw the red marks on the mattress in the morning, he asked Yuni to be his girlfriend.

Lexie went to the office early. There were not many people in the office. She then caught sight of Davis and Yuni kissing in the design department.

Back then, Lexie had felt extremely distraught and defeated. After that, Yuni started acting more haughtily. She taunted Lexie with her new status and even spoke to Lexie in an arrogant and mocking tone. she told Lexie that she thought that it was extremely difficult to pursue Davis! Davis was a pure-hearted man. They had just slept together once, and he immediately took responsibility for his own actions! What an easy man!

Lexie had pursued Davis for such a long time, and yet she still did not dare to say anything to him. How pitiful!

Yuni had won by obtaining the title of Davis's girlfriend. She had crushed the feelings that Lexie had for Davis for several years.

Jocelyn hugged Lexie tight and comforted her. However, she could not tell her anything useful.

One could only get over heartbreak on their own.

However, Jocelyn was also considering if she should expose Yuni for who she was and let Davis take a closer look at her this time around.

Or should she use this opportunity to convince Lexie to give up on Skyler? To be honest, she favored the latter option. After all, Davis was a good man. He was capable and responsible. He also had a righteous heart.

However, he did not seem to suit Lexie well.

He had a bad eye for women, and he was terrible at detecting scheming b*tches. Jocelyn did not want Lexie to be with a man that Yuni Shaw had dumped. It had been six years. Lexie has yet to take a step forward to Davis. The problem might not be on Lexie.

Actually, the way Davis treated her directly affected her decisions and feelings for Davis.

Although one had good self-judgment regarding their own relationships, Jocelyn did not look upon Lexie's crush on Davis favorably.

Jocelyn was about to say something when her phone rang.

The call was from Abel. Jocelyn was deciding whether to pick up the call or not.

Lexie let go of Jocelyn and whimpered, "You should pick up your phone!"

Jocelyn pursed her lips and accepted the call. "Hello, Lil Sis, you're back in Mauve City, right?" Jocelyn nodded and said, "Yes, I'm back!" Abel raised his brow and said, "Why do you sound rather down? Did anything happen?"

Jocelyn shook her head and said, "Nope, are you alright?" Abel went straight to the point. "Congratulations on winning an award in the Ocean Heart Jewelry Competition! Let me remind you of something. Did you forget that you promised to treat me to a meal after the competition?" Jocelyn glanced at Lexie, pursed her lips, and said, "I didn't forget. However, I might not be free nowadays!"

Abel was slightly stunned. He said in a disappointed tone, "I see, we can talk about having a meal together later on. However, I opened a bar. It'll be launching tonight. I wanted to invite you over so that we could have fun!"

Jocelyn rejected his offer without even thinking twice. "Congratulations on the launch of your bar! However, I really don't have the time. I won't be coming over tonight!" As soon as she finished speaking, Lexie looked at her. Her face was stained with tears. "Go ahead! I'll come with you! I feel like drinking!" Jocelyn was stunned. She then said, "In that case, I'll come over tonight. My friend isn't in a good mood. I can drink with her tonight!"

Abel's mood instantly brightened up. He nodded and said, "Alright, I'll wait for you guys. I'll send the address over to you in a bit!"

Jocelyn nodded and hung up on the phone. She then glanced at Lexie instinctively. Lexie had already stopped crying. "Jocelyn, I'm fine now. Don't worry!"

How could Jocelyn believe what she said? She said, "Alright, you should go wash your face first. I'll bring you out to have fun tonight. If you can't bring yourself to work today, take a day off!"

Lexie shook her head in dismay. "It's alright, something like this... Anyways, it won't kill me!"

Jocelyn wanted to say something, but she could not bring herself to say anything. She did not know what she should say.

She accompanied Lexie to the washroom and washed her hands. Finally, she could not resist telling her, "Xixi, keep an open mind. Things that are meant to be with you can't be snatched away by anyone else. Things that don't belong to you will never stay by your side even if you chain them to yourself!" Lexie was still extremely down. "I got it!"

After sending Lexie to the IT department, Jocelyn returned to the design department. Jocelyn returned to the design department. She noticed that Abel had sent over an address. When she clicked into her notifications, she realized that someone had requested to follow her on Instagram.

The account's profile picture was black in color, and its display name was a full stop. It was as simple as it could get. Jocelyn felt extremely frustrated. She declined the request without giving it much thought.

She did not expect that account to request to follow her again as soon as she declined their previous request. Jocelyn could not resist frowning. She declined that account's follow request at once. That person seemed to finally give up this time around. Jocelyn picked up her design draft and intended to start sketching her draft.

However, she received another follow request.

This time, she received a message along with the request. "This is Skyler Moore."

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 198

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 198

Chapter 198

Jocelyn raised her eyebrow. Suddenly, she understood where this person's relentless courage came from.

On closer look, this profile picture and display name really matched Skyler's characteristic style.

She accepted his follow request at once. She then followed his account as well.

She had just accepted his request when Skyler sent her a message on Instagram. He sent over a smiling emoji.

Jocelyn was rather speechless.

Jocelyn: (President Moore, are you mocking me?)

Skyler: [Since when have I mocked you?]

Jocelyn: President M

: (President Moore, are you an alien? The smiling emoji that you sent over is usually used when one is being sarcastic. Do you get it?) Skyler: [... I didn't know that!]

Jocelyn: (I get it. After all, you just found out about the internet recently!

In the president's office, Skyler could not help but burst out into laughter after reading this text.

Suddenly, he realized that Jocelyn was a little... different from usual when she was online. She was quite funny! She was more humorous when talking as well!

Jocelyn had just finished texting Skyler when she realized that she had been added to a group.

Group name: The Fantastic Four.

The group had four members: Jocelyn, Lexie, Skyler, and Jim.

Jim was the one who created this group.

As soon as Jim created the group, he sent over a bunch of emojis.

Jim: (Hello, everyone!)

As soon as he sent this text over, a line of small words showed up.

Lexie had left the group.

Jocelyn knew that Lexie was not in a good mood. She did not want to bother Jim.

She glanced at it and left the group as well. Skyler and Jim were the only ones left in the group.

Jim: (Skyler, your wife and her best friend isn't showing me any respect at all!)

Skyler: (Do people ever show you respect?) Skyler: [You should continue entertaining yourself!]

After Skyler sent the text over, Jim noticed that Skyler had left the group.

Jim was the only one left in the group right now! Jim was speechless. What kind of people were these?

This was not fun at all!

Skyler left the group and sent a private message to his wife.

Skyler: (Let's have dinner together tonight!)

Jocelyn: (I'm sorry, I have plans tonight!) Skyler: (What plans do you have? I've already told my brother that I'll be introducing you to him!) Jocelyn: (Thank you, President Moore! However, I really have plans tonight! I can't come with you!) Skyler: (Do as you wish!]

After reading his text, Jocelyn knew that he was unhappy again.

Jocelyn could not help but frown and type out a text in exasperation. She tried her best to explain everything nicely.

Jocelyn: (I really can't make it tonight! My friend just went through a breakup! She's not in a good mood. I promised her that I'll have a drink with her tonight. President Moore, I understand your good intentions. We can have a meal together in the future!]

Skyler's mood improved greatly after reading her text He replied to her immediately.

Skyler: (Alright, I'll arrange for another day!]
Skyler: (Don't... drink so much!)
Jocelyn: (Yes, I'll keep that in mind!)
After reaching a compromise with Skyler, Jocelyn started working. After work in the evening.

Jocelyn ate some food with Lexie. Lexie had a terrible appetite.

Jocelyn did not force her to eat either. After having some bites, they headed to Abel's new bar in Lexie's car.

On the way, Walter called Jocelyn. Jocelyn was driving. She glanced at Lexie, who had her eyes lowered. She seemed to be extremely down. Jocelyn rejected the call at once. However, Walter continued calling her persistently.

Jocelyn massaged her forehead and accepted the call. Her voice was rather tired. "Walt, I'm busy right now. Is there anything?" Walter's voice was extremely gentle. He smiled faintly as he said, "It's nothing much. I just wanted to treat you to a meal tonight. Is that alright, Jo?" Jocelyn rejected his offer without thinking twice. "No, I have plans tonight!"

Walter sounded rather down. "Are you... with your boyfriend?"

Jocelyn shook her head and said, "No, I'm with Lexie!"

Walter seemed to let out a sigh of relief. "I see. In that case, you should accompany your friend. Let's have a meal together when we have time. It seems like I'm fated to be alone tonight. I had plans to have dinner with my younger brother, but he stood me up. You can't eat with me either!"

There was an uncharacteristic grumble in Walter's voice.

Jocelyn's gaze flashed.

She remembered Walter's younger brother. Walter had once told her that his brother was a cold and handsome young man.

She frowned and suggested, "If you don't want to be alone, you can invite Miss Sonnet to have dinner with you!"

Walter held his breath and his voice stiffened. "Are you still upset over what happened back then?"

Jocelyn's voice was emotionless. "You're overthinking. I just felt that Miss Sonnet is a pretty good choice! I'm busy now. I'll contact you when I'm free!" After speaking, Jocelyn hung up on the call. Lexie would usually show some concern if something happened between her and Walter. However, she did not say anything. She simply sat in the car silently. It was as if she was detached from the world.

They finally arrived at Abel's bar.

Jocelyn glanced at the name of the bar. It was called Crain's Bar.

As soon as both of them walked into the bar, Abel laughed and greeted them. "Lil Sis, you and your friend can drink as much as you want. Everything is free of charge!" Just then, one of Abel's friends interrupted. "Abel, you're a disloyal friend. The pretty girls can eat for free, but why do we all have to pay half the price for everything?"

Abel turned around and glared at him. "You'll know if you look at yourself in the mirror. Are you as good-looking as Lil Sis?" His friend laughed out loud at once! Abel led Jocelyn and Lexie to a seat in the corner and started working. Lexie remained silent the entire night. She kept drinking nonstop.

Jocelyn did not stop her either. She simply accompanied her silently. Jocelyn did not drink any alcohol. Lexie was drunk. She had to be sober so that she could look after Lexie.

Around 9 o'clock at night.

Lexie went to the washroom after drinking a lot. She did not return for a long time.

Jocelyn got up. She wanted to head to the washroom to take a look.

However, when she walked to the corridor of the toilet, she suddenly saw two men lifting a man. They walked toward the back door of the bar in a hurry.

Jocelyn's pupils constricted slightly. She was pondering about what to do when she suddenly noticed the purple gem-studded earring on the person being lifted. The purple light reflected off the earring glimmered in the corridor.

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 199

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 199

Chapter 199

Both of them carried the man to the back door. They were about to walk out of sight.

Jocelyn's eyes instantly widened. She got a closer look at the person's face. The man being carried away was Abel, and his eyes were shut.

Jocelyn's expression changed greatly. She turned around frantically and pushed open the door to the room by the side.

The man that was joking with Abel when Jocelyn arrived at the bar was inside the room. He was Abel's friend.

Jocelyn could not care much anymore. She shouted out quickly, "Abel is in danger!" After Jocelyn shouted out, she rushed toward the back door. Abel's friend ran out after her. The people in the room ran out as well. Jocelyn ran out of the bar and came to the alley outside the back door of the bar. The men were carrying Abel toward an SUV parked a short distance away.

Jocelyn grabbed hold of a mop beside the door and rushed over at the fastest speed possible. She threw the mop toward one of the men. It hit him straight in the face.

The man's face hurt as she thrust the mop toward his face. The mop stank as well. He reached out to cover his face with his hands.

Abel's legs fell to the ground. The other man realized what was going on. He took out a knife and thrust it toward Jocelyn.

Jocelyn took a step back rapidly. She raised the mop and thrust it out toward the man instinctively. Just then, all of Abel's friends ran out.

Once the men realized that they were caught, they retreated immediately. They dumped Abel and sprinted toward the SUV at once.

Abel's friend ran over. The two men had already rushed into the SUV and sped away.

Abel lay down on the ground. His eyes were shut. He tried his best to open them.

He felt extremely dazed. Actually, he had not completely passed out. He did not know what those two thugs had injected him with. He felt extremely dizzy. His thoughts were stilted as well.

However, he still saw Jocelyn standing up to rescue him. She had raised a mop in her hands and helped to delay things till his friends came out and scared away the two men. Abel felt extremely weak and lethargic. He shouted weakly, "Jocelyn... White!"

Jocelyn threw the mop away and looked down at him.

Abel's friends helped him up at once. They then brought him into the bar immediately. Abel had encountered something like this on the day of the bar's launch.

The bar manager looked after the guests. Abel had been injected with an unknown substance. He was sent to the hospital at once.

Lexie was drunk as well. She was lying down on the bar.

Jocelyn could only ask Abel's friend to let her know when Abel was in a stable condition.

When Jocelyn sent Lexie home, she received a call from Abel's friend. His friend told her that Abel was fine, and he had just woken up. Abel would personally tell her about the specifics of his condition tomorrow.

Abel's friend even teased her for being a beauty that rescued the hero tonight.

Jocelyn made sure that Lexie was in bed. She then took a taxi back to Villa No. 1.

Jocelyn did not know that everyone within the circle had found out about her rescuing Abel heroically. This news spread out extremely quickly.

She wanted to keep a low profile, but Abel's friends kept spreading the news about what she had done.

Everyone said that they should make friends like Jocelyn. She was both pretty and tough. She had great looks, but the key thing was she could stand up for her friends and help them out righteously in times of need.

It was already 11 o'clock at night when Jocelyn reached Villa No.1.

She was already exhausted. She opened the door. The living room was pitch black. There was smoke in the house. It was as if there were a fire.

She could not help but cough out loud. She took a step forward and tried to open the lights.

Suddenly, she caught sight of sparks of fire nearby the sofa.

Jocelyn turned on the switch at once. The lights in the living room all lit up.

At first sight, Jocelyn noticed Skyler leaning against the sofa.

He was still wearing a shirt. His collar had been loosened casually. There was a lit cigarette in his hands.

His eyes were half-lidded as he stared at the door. He exuded a suffocating and pressurizing aura.

Jocelyn finally noticed the countless cigarette stubs on the coffee table. It was no wonder the living room was so smoky.

Jocelyn pursed her lips and said drily, "Mr. Moore, didn't you quit smoking?" Skyler stared at her coldly. There was a dark expression on his face. He remained silent. Jocelyn frowned. She wondered who had offended him.

She said, "Go upstairs and sleep early after you've finished smoking. I'll head up first!"

After speaking, Jocelyn changed into slippers and walked to the stairs.

However, Skyler's deep voice rang out. "Can't I smoke again after quitting smoking?"

Jocelyn was stunned. She then slowly came to her senses. He was replying to her first question.

She nodded and pursed her lips. "You'd better smoke less. Smoking isn't good for your health!" Skyler suddenly laughed out quietly. Although he was laughing, his voice was extremely icy. He did not sound happy at all. "Are you showing concern to me right now?" Jocelyn did not know why Skyler seemed rather odd tonight. She stood in the living room and frowned. "Mr. Moore, I'm just stating facts!"

Her words seemed to have triggered Skyler's emotions.

He suddenly stood up and fixed a dark gaze on Jocelyn. "You're just stating facts? Are you stating facts by standing me up and telling me that you'll be drinking with your friend when you actually went to support the launch of Abel Crain's bar?" Jocelyn finally understood why Skyler was acting this way. He thought that she had lied to him.

She immediately explained herself. "I didn't lie to you. Everything that I said was real. I simply went to Abel's new bar to drink with my friend..."

Skyler did not want to listen to her explanation at all. He interrupted her in a cold and heavy voice. "Jocelyn White, you're really something else! You stood me up for another man. Hah... you're a beauty that rescued a hero. How righteous! How loyal! Are you not afraid of death..." Jocelyn could not bear it anymore. Skyler's tone and expression made it seem like he wanted to devour her alive. She gritted her teeth and shouted, "Mr. Moore, please calm down! I don't have intentions to stand up for another man and put you in an awkward position! However, back then, I couldn't just be a bystander!" Besides, Abel had saved her life once. Was it not only natural for her to take the initiative to help him out?

Skyler suddenly sneered. There was a look of extreme rage on his face. It looked like he wanted to devour Jocelyn alive. "Jocelyn White, do you really think that I'm angry at you just because of my own reputation?"

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 200

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 200

Chapter 200

Jocelyn was slightly stunned. Was that not the case? No one had ever made Skyler so angry before. He wished that he could strangle Jocelyn to death.

His eyes were red-rimmed. There was an enraged and dark expression on his face. "Jocelyn White, I know everything. One of the men had a knife in his hands. Are you f*cking not afraid of death? what if he hurt you?"

"Jocelyn White, I wasn't there tonight. I don't have any f*cking superpowers to make it there immediately and protect you from getting stabbed like what happened previously. Are you in your right mind?!"

Skyler almost roared out the last sentence in rage.

Whitie, who was lying on the sofa, suddenly ran to the corner in shock. It tried to look for safety in the corner.

Jocelyn was stunned. She was extremely clear-minded right now. She seemed to understand everything that Skyler meant at once. He was worried about her. He was afraid that she would get injured.

He was angry because she had stood up to rescue someone else while completely disregarding her own safety.

She stared at Skyler with widened eyes. There was a rather panicked expression on her face." Skyler... Skyler Moore, I... I'm sorry!" Skyler fixed his gaze on her and huffed coldly. He then turned around angrily and went upstairs.

Jocelyn looked at his cold silhouette. Suddenly, her heart felt rather empty. Jocelyn kept thinking about the expression on Skyler's face the entire night. The more she thought about it, the more guilty she felt.

The next morning, Jocelyn woke up early and had breakfast. She then waited for Skyler so that they could head to the office together.

She had planned out everything. Even if Skyler did not want to fetch her to work today, she had to take the initiative to take his car to work. After that, she could clarify everything that had happened last night and apologize to him sincerely.

She could tell that Skyler was genuinely concerned about her. She did not want to be an unappreciative person! However, Skyler was still yet to come down even though it was almost time for work. Jocelyn intended to go upstairs when she saw the butler walking over. He looked at Jocelyn in shock. "Miss White, aren't you going to work?" Jocelyn raised her brow and asked, "What about Mr. Moore? Hasn't he woken up? We're about to be late to work!"

The butler had a look of exasperation on his face. "Mr. Moore left before you came downstairs!"

"..." Jocelyn was speechless. She nodded and said, "I got it. I'll go to work first!" Jocelyn kept thinking about how Skyler was really infuriated this time around. He had left early so that he would not have to see her!

Jocelyn made her way to the office with complicated emotions. In the afternoon, she looked through some fashion elements that she could incorporate into her jewelry designs. Yvie ran over in excitement. "Jocelyn, we have clients!"

Jocelyn blinked her eyes and raised her gaze to look over at Yvie.

Rhode and another foxy woman walked in. That woman looked rather familiar.

She was stunned. She then got up. Rhode smiled as she walked over. "Miss White, we meet again. I'm here because my friend would like you to customize a set of jewelry for her!"

Jocelyn was stunned. She did not expect Rhode to remember her after meeting her once in the gathering that Jim organized previously.

She suddenly recalled why the woman next to Rhode looked so familiar.