Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 201

Chapter 201

The woman's name was Hailey Young Like Rhode, she was also a celebrity, but she was not as famous as her.

Jocelyn remembered her name because of a popular drama that she was watching recently. Hailey was acting as one of the evil side characters in the drama. Some of the designers in the design department kept discussing her role in the drama.

Jocelyn nodded at Rhode and said, "Alright, Miss Ginn. Follow me to the reception room so that we can discuss your requests and thoughts. If everything's fine, we can sign the contract!"

Rhode nodded and smiled as she followed Jocelyn into the reception room. Jocelyn chatted with them for a while. She then realized that both of them wanted to own sets of customized jewelry of their own although they did not have much money. After all, they were celebrities, and they often had to attend all sorts of events. They did not want other people to outshine them in this aspect.

The customization fees were not too high, but they had a lot of requests and were rather nitpicky. Nevertheless, their requests could generally be fulfilled. Rhode was more easygoing than Hailey. Jocelyn soon signed a jewelry customization contract with her. Hailey was still listing down her requests endlessly. "About this, I'm looking for a uniquely designed set of jewelry that suits my personal aura. Besides, the jewelry's design must look good. It must be encrusted with diamonds as well. I would like the diamonds to have more facets. It must look extremely bright and shiny. People must notice my jewelry at first sight, Jocelyn looked at Hailey expressionlessly. "Your requirements are too high! Should I introduce another designer to you?" "No!" Hailey rejected her offer without even thinking twice. "I heard that you're the best at designing over her. How's that? Do you not want me as your client?" Jocelyn shook her head and said, "I'm just afraid that I won't be able to meet your standards, Miss Young Hailey was about to say something when Rhode tugged at her sleeve and said, Hailey, the bigger a diamond, the more facets it has. It's extremely difficult to cut a small diamond that way. It won't be worth it if you cut a small diamond too much, and a big diamond is way too expensive" After hearing what Rhode said, Hailey's expression changed. She finally stopped working Alright, just design a beautiful set of jewelry for me based on the price of my order! Jocelyn nodded and signed a jewelry customization contract with Miss Young, who had been making things difficult for her Although Jocelyn did not like judging her clients, she truly did not like Miss Young's personality

However, it seemed like Rhode did not have intentions to leave even after signing the contract. Hailey lowered her head and played with her phone. It seemed like she knew what Rhode intended to do. Jocelyn's gaze flashed as she asked, "Miss Ginn, do you and Miss Young still need anything else?"

Rhode smiled faintly and looked at Jocelyn with a gentle expression on her face. "Miss White, can I see President Moore? You were there at the gathering previously. You know that I'm... friends with President Moore!" Jocelyn instantly thought of the gathering back then. She then recalled the scandal between Rhode and Skyler.

Rhode had even contacted Skyler while he was in Greene City. Jocelyn did not know what happened to her. Her mood instantly dampened when she heard Rhode mention President Moore. She pursed her lips and spoke up expressionlessly. "I'm sorry, Miss Ginn. Only designers are required to serve jewelry customization clients. If you encounter problems that we can't resolve, the director of the design department, Mr. Lang, would be happy to resolve everything!"

She paused and added, "If you'd like to see President Moore, I'm sorry for not being able to help out with that. President Moore is extremely busy. You need to have an appointment to see him. I don't manage these things! If you're friends with President Moore, please contact him directly!" Jocelyn spoke to them in a courteous and distant tone. However, her attitude was cold and icy. She had already guessed that Rhode had just come along to customize a set of jewelry for fun. In truth, she wanted to meet Skyler. When Rhode heard Jocelyn's courteous words, she smiled unnaturally and said, "Yes, I got it. Then... let's contact each other if there are any problems with the jewelry customization." Jocelyn nodded and said, "Sure thing!"

Jocelyn sent both of them to the elevator. She then let out a sigh of relief when the elevator door closed.

In the elevator. Hailey touched her freshly manicured nails and looked at Rhode in annoyance. "You're way too timid. Isn't Jocelyn White just a small designer? I believe that she'll bring you to President Moore if you make things a little difficult for her!"

Rhode pursed her lips. "It won't be good if he knows. I don't want him to feel that I have no common sense!"

Hailey pouted. "Alright, do whatever you want as long as you're happy. Since we're already customers of Prosperity Jewelry, we can come a few more times with this excuse without being afraid that we won't run into the person!" Rhode nodded and said nothing more. Jocelyn had not seen Skyler all day.

After she got off work in the afternoon, she did not return to Villa No.1 and went straight to the hospital to see Abel. When she entered the ward, Abel was training his subordinates in a strict tone that Jocelyn had never heard before

However, when he saw Jocelyn, the coldness on his face immediately vanished and he looked nonchalant. "Lil Sis, you're here!" He immediately waved his hand. The rest of you can leave!" When his subordinates left, Jocelyn placed the flowers she brought aside. "How are you feeling? Abel looked at Jocelyn with a smile in his eyes. "I'm alright. Speaking of which, it's thanks to the beauty saving the hero otherwise I would be wrecked beyond words last night!"

Jocelyn smiled. "Are you the hero? Plus, it wasn't that serious!"

A dark light flashed through Abel's eyes and he raised his gaze to look at Jocelyn. "It doesn't have to be a hero, it can be a bear too. Either way, I was saved by you!"

Jocelyn smiled and said nothing She saved Abel because Abel saved her first Abel muttered to himself and bluntly said, "Lil Sis, about last night_ don't talk about it. It was really serious. Honestly, there are some things that I wasn't planning on telling you, but considering how you're so reckless, I'll worry if I don't say anything!" Jocelyn frowned "What is it? You're being so serious! Abel sighed softly "Dan caused what happened last night. It was probably to get revenge for the last time when I beat him at Evergreen Bar!"

Jocelyn's expression changed slightly. If you put it that way, I was the one who dragged you into this!

Abel looked at her in frustration "I lojew you would say that Just finish listening to me first. I'm telling you not bewuse I want you to take the blame, but for you to take precautions. Ever since this incident, It's not hard to see that Dan is vengeful and holds a grudge I've been Oye shadowed in my own territory so I'm honestly very worried about you. You musi be Cateful!

Jocelyn's gaze sank and nodded seriously. "Alright, I'll remember what you said!" Abel clenched his teeth in hatred at the thought of Dan. "Dan's grandson better not wait for me to get discharged, or else I'll kill him!" Jocelyn glanced at Abel. "What did the people he arranged do you last night? I saw that you couldn't even stand up last night!" Abel looked at Jocelyn with his eyes slightly averted. "Hey, it's fine!" Jocelyn frowned. "Abel, I consider you as a friend now so you can tell me the truth. I still owe you a meal too!"

Abel laughed. "It's my turn to treat you to a meal now that you've saved me. I'll treat you to a feast when I'm discharged, just wait!" "What happened to you?" Jocelyn looked serious. "If it was just what happened last night that made you saint on the spot, then you should have been discharged this morning!" Abel chuckled helplessly at Jocelyn's determination to get to the boltom of things. "Lil Sis, you're so pushy towards me, but I have no choice since I like you!" Jocelyn blushed. "Don't be ridiculous!" Abel did not continue and said seriously and helplessly, "I might need to have a detox because what they injected into me last night was addictive!"

Jocelyn immediately understood what they had injected into him when Abel put it that way

She looked incredibly guilty

Abel smiled and comforted her. "Don't be disheartened. I'll quit this and be a good person when I leave. It's just a shame that I can't go out often during this time and won't be able to see you!"

Jocelyn looked at him with a complicated expression "Then... quit it soon and stay strong!" Abel nodded. Jocelyn did not say much to Abel before she left the hospital and went home.

At the same time.

At Vintage Bar's exclusive room, Skyler leaned lazily on the sofa with a cigarette in hand. He took a puff and the smoke blurred his handsome face. Jim raised his eyebrows. "Didn't you quit smoking? Why did you start smoking again after not seeing you for a day?" Other people could not tell but Jim knew that Skyler had quit smoking and was no longer addicted for a long time. Skyler's expression was gloomy and he looked a little dispirited. "When I quit smoking, I felt like there was nothing in this world that I couldn't quit. But now I realize that I was too arrogant!"

Skyler's expression was rather self-deprecating. Jim's eyes flashed. "What do you mean?" He thought to himself, this situation seems to be quite serious! Skyler looked up at Jim lazily, and bluntly explained, "When I realized my feelings for Jocelyn, I couldn't quit anymore!" When he thought about his unprecedented anger from last night, he had not gone to eat with her and ended up using Abel instead. There was an uproar in the circle at the time and Skyler could not clearly tell what it was like at

Anger, worry and all his emotions seemed to have reached his peak like never before. He was afraid that he could not control his emotions if he saw Jocelyn again so he had been avoiding her all day.

However, the more he avoided her, the more anxious he felt.

Jim's face from and could not help but to roll his pair of attractive peach blossom eyes when he heard what Skyler said. "Holy shit, Skyler, I think you're here to torture the single people, right? You're already married to her so why are you showing off to del

Skyler glanced at him coldly and did not say anything.

Jim took a puff of smoke. "Tsk... what? Is your relationship not going well?"

Skyler dusted off the ash and sighed. "How can a relationship go well if it's one-sided?"

“D*mn, don’t say it like that, alright? Bro, I’m really worried! Have you completely fallen in love? How about I teach you a trick or two?” Jim stared at Skyler dubiously. Skyler put out his cigarette with a blank expression. “Don’t ask and don’t teach. I’m not like you!”

Jim was unconvinced. “How are you not like me? We’re both human and have emotions!”

Skyler raised his eyebrows as he opened a piece of mint candy and popped it in his mouth. “Your emotions can be shared with countless women, but I can’t, I can only share it with one person!”

Jim nearly vomited blood. “I feel like you’re making something out of nothing to maliciously slander me! Every time I fall in love, I only fall for one, okay? Even though I date a bit often, I’m definitely not the type of scumbag who cheats on their partner!”

Skyler glanced at him. “Yeah, I know you’re not a scumbag, you just catch feelings quickly and lose them even quicker!”

Jim choked when he heard Skyler’s words and just as he was about to defend himself, his phone suddenly rang

Chapter 204

Chapter 204

Jim groaned. “I’ll fight you three hundred times later!”

He answered the phone “Hello?”

“Mr. Rand, I have bad news, something happened to the company. Our source code was hacked and there are traces of the hacker controlling the computer from a remote location on the Internet they also left a distasteful middle finger on the computer. All of our computers aren’t responding now...” When his assistant finished speaking. Jim was completely stunned. Skyler noticed that something was wrong and his eyes darkened.

“What’s wrong? What happened?” Jim glanced at Skyler and regained his senses. “I’ll tell you later!” He said to his assistant on the other line, “Contact a hacker immediately, the stronger they are the better. We must find out who the other party is!” It was impossible for him to get hacked and not know who the other party was!

This tournament game was jointly developed by him and Skyler and it was now at the late stage and he had invested a lot of time and money into it. Now that the source code has been hacked, countless complications have arisen and their efforts for the past year would be in vain! They might still have hope if they can find the hacker! If they can find evidence that the other party left behind and catch them, then they will be able to use it as evidence in court! Jim hung up the phone and looked at Skyler with a serious expression. “Our game’s source code was stolen and they left a middle finger to spite us!” Skyler stood up and frowned slightly. “It was targeted towards us?” Jim raised his eyebrows. “Obviously!”

Skyler nodded “Can you find a good hacker or such short notice? The other party is so arrogant so I’m afraid that most people are no match for him!” Tim’s heart sank a little “There’s no choice. I can only fight fire with fire”

Skyler held his phone between his thumb and index finger and spun it around “I’ll give Yale a call and get him to look for one too. There should be someone capable if the price is right”

Jim nodded and Skyler called Yale to roughly explain the situation and what he needed

Yale responded with an oh’ “If you’re looking for a hacker, I know one that’s amazing!”

Skyler did not expect that Yale knew such a good figure “Are you serious? Then quickly get a hold of that person and tell them that the price is flexible!”

Yale’s tone was hesitant. “I’m afraid that they don’t do it for money I heard Miss White say that she’s not short of money!”

Skyler furrowed his brows. “Jocelyn? she knows the hacker too? Yale laughed in embarrassment. “You know her too. She’s Miss White’s best friend, Miss Lexie. She came to our company purely for fun and I heard that she’s wealthy and incredibly impressive. The last time Miss White’s design draft was switched, she was the one that recovered the surveillance video. Our entire technology department is incomparable to her alone!”

Skyler’s expression changed as his only impression of Lexie was that she was cold and did not speak much. Skyler contemplated and said, “Then let her give it a try. Meanwhile, keep on looking for good hackers unless we can catch the one that hacked us!” Yale nodded. “Alright, I’ll go look now. However, if you want to look for Miss Lexie, I’d suggest you look for Miss White first. It’ll probably be easier to negotiate if Miss White is involved!” Skyler nodded. “I know!” Skyler picked up his jacket and glanced at Jim. "Let's go to the game company first!" Jim did not what he had spoken about on the phone and had his head in the clouds. "What did you say to Yale? Did you find a good hacker?" Skyler was silent for a moment. "I don't know how good she is so we'll find out when she comes over and tries!" Skyler got into the car and Jim drove. Skyler sent a message to Jocelyn through Whatsapp Skyler: (Are you there?) Jocelyn was about to eat dinner when she saw Skyler's message. Her first reaction was to think that he was no longer angry and quickly replied. Jocelyn: (Yeah, what's wrong?!

Chapter 205 Skyler: [Lexic is a hacker?!

Jocelyn: (Yep, she is!) Skyler: [Is she good?) Jocelyn: Did something happen? Skyler. (Yes, something happened and I need to ask her for a favor but I'm not close to her so wanted to ask you to help me!) Jocelyn: (Sure, what do you need? Tell me!) skyler: (How about this, I'll send you an address and I'll tell you about it when you two arrive so that she can help right away! Jocelyn: Alright, send me the address, and Lexe and I will be there soon!) Skyler sent her the location and Jocelyn sighed slightly after their awkward conversation

Skyler helped her to get her another's letter back so she still owed him a favor, let alone the fact that she made him angry last night. No matter what the problem was, she would ask Lexie to help as much as she could When Jocelyn arrived at Lexie's place, Lexie was still lying lifelessly in bed because she was drunk last night Jocelyn dragged her out of bed and drove to the game company On the way, Jocelyn could not help but to try and persuade her. "This time is to simply pay the favor back to Skyler so you must do your best!" Lexie nodded lifelessly "Yeah, I know!" Jocelyn and Lexie parked and got down the car and saw Skyler and Jim at the entrance of the company Jim could not help but frown when he saw the two of them walking over. "Where's the godly hacker

Skyler had not told him that Lexie was the hacker! Lexie looked at him coldly as if she was looking at a fool.

Skyler straight away ran through the situation and then asked, "Miss Lane, how far can you help us

Lexie's tone was cold "It depends on your request!"

Skyler raised his eyebrows "You can achieve whatever we request"

PH was a little impatient because she did not sleep well. "What do you need me to do?"

"I'd be ideal if you retrieve the source code, find tracks of their online activities as evidence and lastly destroy the source code that they stole including the backed-up copy they had saved to other computers!" Skyler said straightforwardly. Honestly, he felt that he was forcing her to do something impossible since it was likely impossible to destroy something that was stored in a USB flash drive and saved in another computer!

In the end, Lexie nodded. "No problem!"

Jim the fool only just realized and said with a shocked expression, "Xixi is the godly hacker you were talking about?"

Jocelyn gave him a speechless look. "Who else would it be?" Jim looked at Lexie worriedly as they were attempting an impossible task "Xixi, if you can't do it, just say it, and don't embarrass yourself!" Lexie looked at him as if he was an idiot. "Crazy!" Skyler defended him "He's just afraid that you can't solve it, that's all!"

Jocelyn quietly looked at Lexie and did not say anything.

Lexie briefly explained. "Don't worry, this isn't difficult I'll destroy the entire source code that they stole and find out their identity. I'll also install a virus similar to a search engine on their computer which can automatically search for the source code through the net and infect the computers with the source code!

"After the computer is infected with the virus, an automatic destruction program will automatically be installed. The next time they open the source code, the program will be triggered and the source code will be destroyed! Whether it's on the computer or USB flash drive, the source code will be invalid as long as they dare to open it. It'll be useless in their hands!"

Chapter 206

Chapter 206

When Skyler heard it, he roughly understood what Lexie meant.

Even if he did not understand, he knew that it was not easy to pull off. His admiration for her grew. "This requires a high proficiency in computer skills!" Jim pouted. "Are you that good?" Skyler gave Jim a cold look, but he remained nonchalant. He just kept staring at Lexie. Lexie replied calmly, "Oh, it's no big deal." Jim rushed forward, trying his best to get her attention "Thank you for your help, Xixi!" Lexie turned away indifferently "You can thank me after it's done. Besides, I'm not the one you should be thanking. I'm just helping Jocelyn return a favor." Jim turned towards Jocelyn, shocked.

Jocelyn felt a little uneasy and explained. "Mr. Moore previously helped me retrieve a letter, it was from my mother. So, I am indebted to him!"

Jim paused for a moment, then he turned to look at Skyler sympathetically. Apparently, he and his wife are still the type of couple that kept track of the favors they owed to each other. It's no wonder he got so depressed that he started smoking! Tsk tsk... how pitiful!

Skyler's mood suddenly dampened.

He looked at Jocelyn, then walked past Jim to say to Lexie, "Miss Lane, you can use Jim's computer. His setup is a lot more advanced!"

Jocelyn suddenly felt somewhat at loss. Skyler seemed unhappy again!

She could not understand a man's thinking at all!

She truly could not figure him out!

Lexie entered Jim's office and turned on his computer. The moment it started up, Lexie's gaze

She glanced up at Jim and asked, "Who else touched your computer?" "Huh?" Jim was confused. "What Lexie did not waste her time with small talk and jumped straight to the point "A virus was planted in your computer using a USB device. It could only be done by someone close to you. You should investigate this thoroughly. After all, don't you think that hackers could attack your computer, steal your source code and stop all your computers from running that easily? Judging by the other party's inhumanity, without this virus, this wouldn't have been possible!"

xpression was filled with shock A look flashed across Skyler's gaze Only a professional could Identify the problem so quickly!

Lexie was a professional indeed. It certainly seemed like she would be able to handle this! However, there was a traitor on Jim's side!

Skyler glanced over at Jim and spoke with a solemn tone, "Go. Investigate every single person who has ever touched your computer!"

Jim nodded seriously. "I'll go ask someone to conduct the investigation now!" Skyler frowned, "Can't you do it yourself?"

Jim lowered his voice, clutched his chest, and turned to whisper in Skyler's car. "No way, look at Xixi right now. She's so cool and handsome, I must stay and watch! I can't miss a single moment!"

Skyler was speechless. Well, there would be no difference is the investigation was conducted afterward, so he did not loi her to say anything Jocelyn sat on the couch at the side, trying her best to not draw attention to herself. She did not want to accidentally upset Mr Noore again. Just as Lexde was about to track down the lacker, they slowed up unexpectedly to launt her. She understood why they were doing this. Usually, top-notch hackers like these were highly arrogant and looked down on others, Naturally, with their arrogance, they did not think that they could be defeated by any ordinary person elther. They did manage to gain control of all the computers in Jim's company after all, so they felt like they were invincible! It's a shame that Lexie was no ordinary person! With a glance, Lexle's long fingers began to type across the keyboard swiftly. jlm could barely see the movement of her fingers He was in awe. He did not know when he started having a hand fetish. As he looked at Lexie's hands, he almost drooled

Lexie had a preliminary estimate of the other party's abilities. They were but a small-time Hacker, yet they were so arrogant and conceited. No wonder lhry dared to show up again! Unfortunately for the lacker, Lexie was here this time she was going to make sure to teach them a lesson!
