Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 21

Chapter 21

Skyler woke up after getting kicked off the bed. He hit his head heavily against something when he landed on the ground. The blow was so painful that he instantly woke up. Skyler rubbed the back of his head as he opened his eyes with a gloomy expression on his face. He then got up from the ground. After that, he caught sight of Jocelyn, who was staring at him with a hateful expression on her face. Her eyes were teary and red-rimmed. Skyler felt the urge to murder someone early in the morning. "Jocelyn White, are you out of your mind?"

High

Ali

He did not expect this woman to repay his act of kindness by kicking him off the bed after he just rescued her last night! Jocelyn froze the moment she saw the angry expression on Skyler's handsome face. She stopped crying as well. Her face was filled with shock. She stuttered slightly as she spoke. "Skyler...Skyler Moore, you... why are you here? Wasn't Chad Jones with me last night?" Skyler's expression darkened as he asked, "What's wrong? Do you wish for that Chad Jones to be here with you right now?". Jocelyn was at a loss for words. She recalled how she had kicked him just now. After some time, she lowered her head and said in a muffled tone, "I'm sorry!" The back of Skyler's head still ached. He was extremely furious. "How much is your apology worth?"

Jocelyn's bare foot was still suspended in the air. The more Skyler looked at it, the more aggrieved he felt. Jocelyn did not know what to say. "What do you want then?". She gritted her teeth and pointed at herself. "Why don't you kick me once in return?" Skyler almost laughed. "I'm amazed that you actually managed to come up with such an idea!" Jocelyn knew that she was at fault. She stole a glance at Skyler and said, "I'm really sorry. I mistook you as someone else!"

Skyler huffed coldly and asked, "Can't you take a clearer look at my face beforehand?" Jocelyn had a look of regret on her face. "My brain short-circuited just now. Besides, you still slept in the same bed as me after everything that happened last night. Of course, I'd misunderstand things!"

Skyler narrowed his eyes and revealed a dangerous gaze. He stared at her with a dark expression on his face. "Since that's the case, was everything my fault?"

Jocelyn immediately shook her head. "No, no, no, how can it be your fault? It's all my fault. You're a man with a generous heart. Can you forgive me?"

Skyler huffed lightly. He did not reply to her.

Jocelyn's gaze glimmered as she carefully climbed up from the bed. She took a step forward as she intended to apologize to Skyler.

However, she suddenly realized that Skyler's gaze had darkened while he looked at her.

She was suddenly stunned. She lowered her head and realized that she was completely naked. She froze and almost fell from the bed in shock. Why was she not wearing anything?! 1

Jocelyn retreated in panic. She wanted to burrow herself in the sheets, but one of her ankles was stuck in the sheets while her other foot was on the sheets. As she moved back, she lost her balance and fell backward. She lunged forward and tried to grab at something, but ended up falling directly on Skyler. She opened her mouth in shock as she fell. Her teeth clashed against Skyler's chin.

Skyler did not have the time to react to everything. A black shadow flashed before his eyes the moment Jocelyn fell down on him. What sin had he committed to deserve all of this?!

As Skyler felt a sharp pain in his chin, the back of his head crashed against the floor once again. He groaned in pain. Jocelyn, that d*mn woman, was still lying on top of him! Skyler's head had collided twice against the ground before the day had even started. He was so angry that he almost spit out a mouthful of blood. He shouted through gritted teeth, "Jocelyn White!" Jocelyn immediately raised her head. She was so frightened that she shrugged her shoulders and climbed up the bed in a hurry. She then wrapped herself up in the sheets. She cast an apologetic look at Skyler and spoke in a pitiful tone, "I didn't do it on purpose!"

DS SO

Skyler's chin was bleeding. His head still hurt. He closed his eyes. He got up once again. His voice was laced with rage. "Yes, you didn't do it on purpose. But those actions came from somewhere inside you! I shouldn't have f*cking..."

Skyler glanced at Jocelyn speechlessly. He was so infuriated that he turned around and left. He should not have climbed onto Jocelyn's bed yesterday midnight. This must be karma for what he had done!

Skyler still had a dark expression on his face during breakfast. It looked like someone had owed him millions of dollars.

Jocelyn had called Yale to ask him about everything that had happened last night while she was washing up.

Although she could vaguely guess what had happened, she still felt chills in her heart when Yale told her the whole story. She could think of a way to stop her father from threatening to harm her uncle in order to force her into getting married, but he had actually resorted to such filthy means instead. Jocelyn felt extremely dazed.

Was one's biological father capable of doing something so treacherous?

Chapter 22

Jocelyn was genuinely grateful toward Skyler. If he had not saved her last night, Lily would be in total control of her life right now. She felt extremely regretful when she recalled the mess that she had caused in the morning.

She cast a cautious glance at Skyler while having breakfast. "Thank you for everything last night!"

Skyler raised his head to glance at her. He looked like he did not want to bother her at all. Jocelyn pursed her lips and blinked her eyes. "Everything that happened this morning was an accident. I'm sorry!" Skyler huffed lightly and got up. "I'm full!" Jocelyn sat by the dining table dejectedly like a loser. After Skyler put on his shoes, he asked her in an icy tone, "Are you leaving? I'm going to work right now!"

After hearing what Skyler said, Jocelyn immediately sprung to action. He was implying that he would be fetching her to work! She immediately stood up and said, "I'm coming! I'm coming right now!" She changed her shoes in a hurry and grabbed her handbag. She smiled cheerily as she looked at Skyler, whose face remained emotionless. "Let's go!" Before they left, Jocelyn handed a plaster over to Skyler. Skyler raised his brows.

Jocelyn pointed at his chin and said, "Put in on your wound!"

Skyler's handsome face darkened as soon as she mentioned this. "Do you think that other people won't be able to guess what happened after I stick a plaster on?" After speaking, Skyler walked out angrily. He did not even bother to turn around. Jocelyn had an ashen expression on her face. What could other people guess from the wound?

Was his injury not caused by her mistake this morning? Jocelyn learned that she could only collect her work card in the afternoon after reporting for work.

Therefore, she headed to the design department to work. Once she arrived at the design department, a woman dressed in a light blue suit with exquisite makeup on her face walked over and greeted her curtly before she could say anything. The woman seemed to be extremely experienced "You must be the new designer assistant, right?" A glint of surprise flashed across Fiona Payne's eyes as soon as she saw Jocelyn.

Her expression changed slightly as she walked toward her desk without turning around.

Jocelyn wanted to clarify things to her and let her know that she was not a designer assistant. However, Fiona stuffed a stack of design drafts into her arms before she could say anything." Find a desk and categorize these drafts. We need to use them later!" Jocelyn looked at Fiona with a stunned expression on her face. She wanted to introduce herself to Fiona. "I..."

However, Fiona interrupted her with a domineering stance before she could finish speaking." Why aren't you doing it? Is this such a difficult task?" Jocelyn frowned slightly. She found a desk and started categorizing the drafts.

Although she felt uncomfortable about doing a task that she was not meant to, she did not want to get into a dispute with her new colleague since she had just started working at Prosperity Jewelry She quickly finished categorizing the design drafts. She handed them to Fiona and said, "I've finished categorizing the design drafts!" Fiona took the drafts from her and flipped through them. She cast a shocked glance at her and said, "Not bad! You work quite efficiently!"

Jocelyn nodded and was just about to say something when Fiona handed her a cup. "Pour a cup of water for me!"

Jocelyn frowned. She noticed the irritated expression on Fiona's face before she could say anything. "What's wrong? Are you not willing to pour a cup of water for me?"

Jocelyn did not want to argue with her. She took the cup from her and said, "No, I'm not!" After speaking, she went over to fill Fiona's cup with water. As soon as she placed the cup of water on Fiona's table, she overheard someone speaking next to her.

"Guys, where do you think Jocelyn White is? Look at the time! Why isn't she here yet? Is she planning to act all bossy in the design department since she rose to fame online yesterday?!"

"Who knows? Anyways, President Moore was the one who personally hired her. Nobody else in Prosperity Jewelry except Big Sis Josie has ever received such treatment!"

Fiona's face darkened as soon as she heard their discussion. "I don't care what you guys say, but don't just compare anyone to Big Sis Josie. Given Big Sis Josie's current position, how can Jocelyn White compare to her?!"

Jocelyn's expression changed. However, she did not say anything. After hearing what Fiona said, everyone agreed immediately. "Right, right, Fiona is right. Jocelyn White is nothing. Trash like her doesn't even deserve to carry Big Sis Josie's shoes for her! How can we even compare them?!"

"Yes, Big Sis Josie is now a globally renowned designer. Jocelyn White is nothing compared to her! I've never even heard of her before!"

This bunch of people were all extremely quick to jump ship. They all knew that Fiona got along well with Josie. Josie used to be part of Prosperity Jewelry. Everyone in the design department called her Big Sis Josie. Josie had personally supervised Fiona in the past. Fiona had always viewed Josie as her idol. Once Josie left the company, Fiona had become the head designer of Prosperity Jewelry. Therefore, everyone showed her respect. Initially, Jocelyn had intended to introduce herself in front of Fiona. After hearing what they said, she gave up on this thought completely! She sat by the side quietly and listened to the few people around her as they gathered and started gossiping. “Do you guys think that Lily White really plagiarized Jocelyn White’s work? Everyone spoke about it like it was proved to be true last night!” “Everyone is just following the general trend. Nobody knows the actual truth. Besides, Jocelyn White might have buttered up President Moore to get back at Lily White!” “Nobody knows the truth about plagiarism. Besides, the lawsuit between them will last up to two years. Who knows what shady processes are going within? Right, have any of you seen Jocelyn White?” “Didn’t she previously appear in a press conference? Didn’t you guys watch it?”

“I’m always on Twitter. I don’t really pay attention to other social media. There weren’t photos of her on Twitter!”

“I saw a photo of her before. However, I don’t recognize faces well. Besides, she wasn’t that famous in the past! How can I remember what she looks like after looking at her photo once or twice?!”

Suddenly, someone glanced at Jocelyn, who was standing by the side and said, “This new assistant looks similar to Jocelyn. Don’t you guys think so?” The person took out a blurry photograph and handed it over to everyone else.

Everyone else was yet to register her words. They rushed forward to take a look at the picture. Just then, a girl suddenly ran into the design department. She clutched her chest as she panted. She looked like she could not catch her breath.

Chapter 23

The girl was dressed in jeans and a white t-shirt. After catching her breath, she spoke up, “I’m sorry, I’m sorry, something came up while I was on the way here. That’s why I was late! I’m really sorry!” Everyone fixed their gazes on her. Everyone had different expressions on their faces. Someone spoke up first. “Are you Jocelyn White?” The person asked with a heavy tone of distaste.

"You're late on your first day of work. How admirable!" "Also, why are you dressing like this? Do you think that this is a university?" "Tsk tsk tsk... Is this the legendary jewelry genius that everyone's been talking about? Hah!"

The people gathered by the side spoke in sarcastic tones. The girl was stunned. After some time, she came to her senses and waved her hands. "No, I'm the new designer assistant, Yvie Claud!" Fiona stiffened after hearing Yvie's words. She cast a hesitant glance at Jocelyn, who was sitting by the side. Her voice was full of shock and uncertainty. "Isn't she the designer assistant?" Everyone in the design department knew that Jocelyn White and the designer assistant were the only new employees at work today! Yvie was slightly dazed. She did not really understand what Fiona was talking about. Jocelyn raised her head slowly after hearing what Fiona said.

She stood up elegantly and looked around at everyone.

She then showed them a smile that did not reach her eyes. She spoke at an even pace, "Nice to meet you, I'm Jocelyn White, the garbage that managed to receive special treatment and the person that isn't worthy of carrying Josie Sonnet's shoes for her!"

The looks on everyone's faces were really sights to behold! They did not expect to have badmouthed her thoroughly right before her. Although they wanted to butter up Fiona, they would only say such things when Jocelyn White was not here. After all, President Moore had recruited Jocelyn.

If Jocelyn was standing right in front of them, they would not have dared to badmouth her so recklessly!

Jocelyn did not seem to care about everyone's reactions. She continued speaking calmly, "I know that Josie Sonnet is an extremely outstanding designer. I don't dare to compare myself to her either. I simply view her as my senior and my role model! As for the plagiarism incident, you're right. You can't believe everything they say online. I'll show everyone who the true plagiarizer was through my own abilities!"

After speaking, Jocelyn sat down. It was as if everything that had happened just now did not happen at all.

The atmosphere grew awkward and stilted.

All the designers and assistants standing around her seemed to have gone mute. They lowered their heads and pretended to continue working. Fiona was the first to badmouth Jocelyn. Just then, she felt flames of rage surging within her. She fixed a heavy stare upon Jocelyn's back. "Since you're Jocelyn White, why didn't you say so when you arrived here just now?" Although Jocelyn was pretty, she was acting much more humble than they expected her to be. Fiona did not even think of associating her with the designer that was famous online right now.

Jocelyn turned around and raised her eyes to cast a glance at her. "May I know if you ever gave me the chance to speak?"

Fiona stiffened. She thought about her domineering attitude from just now. She felt even more furious!

She knew that Jocelyn White would be starting work today. She also knew that Skyler Moore had recruited her personally to take Josie's place. She was already angry at her over this.

Furthermore, she had mistaken Jocelyn as a designer assistant when she arrived today. Meanwhile, the newly-hired designer assistant would be working under Jocelyn. She was venting her rage at Jocelyn through her previous behavior. She did not even ask about her name! Her face stung and heated up when she recalled all of this. Jocelyn had won this first round by retreating to advance. She had outright embarrassed her in front of everyone in the design department.

Fiona could not bear her rage. She stomped her foot in anger and stood up. She then stormed outside.

Nobody dared to say anything after Fiona left in a fit of rage. They finally realized that Jocelyn White was not someone to take lightly although she seemed quiet and reserved. Yvie walked in front of Jocelyn cautiously and said, "Nice...nice to meet you. I'm Yvie Claud, your assistant!"

Jocelyn glanced at her and nodded lightly. "Yes!"

Yvie felt even more uneasy right now. Was she asking her to go away? She looked at Jocelyn timidly and asked, "Big Sis, did I do something wrong just now?" 1

Jocelyn looked at the pitiful girl. She could not help but think about herself from two years ago. She smirked playfully and asked, "How old are you?"

Yvie pursed her lips and said, "I'm twenty years old!"

Jocelyn chuckled lightly and said, "I'm twenty years old as well!"

"Ah!" Yvie did not understand what she meant.

Jocelyn's gaze sparkled as she teased her. "Perhaps you're older than me!"

Chapter 24

Chapter 24

Yvie shook her head in fear at once. She spoke in a fluster, "No, no, I didn't mean to say that!"

Jocelyn laughed and said, "I was just teasing you. You actually took it seriously. You can just call me Jocelyn. Since you're my assistant, make sure to work hard under me and fight for the opportunity to become an assistant designer as soon as possible!" Yvie nodded repeatedly in an anxious manner and said, "I'll definitely work hard!" Although the title of designer assistant and assistant designer sounded similar, the work scopes were completely different. Designer assistants could only help out in miscellaneous chores whereas assistant designers could produce their own design drafts. They were eligible to participate in all sorts of design competitions as well. Jocelyn gave her a once over and said, "Also, dress more formally when you come to work tomorrow!" Yvie was dazed. She nodded at once. The top floor of Prosperity Jewelry. As soon as Skyler walked out of the elevator, Yale rushed over and said, "President Moore, the turnaround of the plagiarism incident has been trending online since yesterday. Century Jewelry Competition has achieved a new level of popularity as well. More than a dozen of advertisers have been contacting me from yesterday afternoon to today morning. They want their advertisements to be played during the competition. Take a look..."

Skyler walked toward his office and said, "Select three renowned advertisers and carry out a collaboration with them. The more investments, the better. However, having too many advertisements would bring about a decline in the quality of our competition!"

Yale immediately nodded and said, "Also, everyone's attention is fixed on the identical design draft that has been submitted as an entry for both Starlight Jewelry Competition and Century Jewelry Competition. Although Miss. Jocelyn designed this draft and she has sued Lily White for plagiarism, the lawsuit is yet to commence. Regardless of how much evidence Miss Jocelyn has, a controversial piece of work as such cannot be submitted as stated in the rules of our competition! How should we handle this incident?"

Skyler paused in his steps and said, "You mean that Century Jewelry Competition's popularity cannot be maintained without this design draft, right?"

Yale nodded at once. "Yes, that's why I wanted to ask for your opinion on it."

After remaining silent for a while, Skyler placed his hand on the handle of his office door and cast a sideways glance at Yale. "As you said, although the lawsuit hasn't commenced, Jocelyn White already has plenty of evidence. What are you afraid of?"

"I..." Yale looked at Skyler. Suddenly, he noticed the wound on his chin.

After that, he started stuttering, "I..... I wanted to say that the competitions made it a rule that such work will not be eligible to be submitted as an entry!" Skyler frowned and looked at him unhappily. "Why are you stuttering?" Yale lowered his head speechlessly. "It's nothing!" The more he acted that way, the more suspicious Skyler found him. "What in the world is going on?" Yale pursed his lips awkwardly and pointed at his own chin. "Your...chin is injured!" The location of his wound was extremely fishy. Yale could not help but overthink. However, Skyler did not conceal the wound at all. His frank demeanor shocked Yale! Skyler immediately recalled everything that had happened in the morning after hearing what he said. A terrible and unpleasant expression formed on his face. "I cut myself while shaving. What kind of expression is that?" Yale shook his head at once. "You don't need to explain yourself. I wasn't overthinking!" Skyler's expression darkened as he said, "I don't care about whether you were overthinking or not: What's in that head of yours?!" Yale curled up upon himself when Skyler lashed out in rage. He did not dare to say anything. Skyler was furious when he thought about the wound on his chin. He spoke up in a heavy tone. "The rules are fixed, but we're human beings with flexible minds. Since we can confirm that Jocelyn didn't plagiarize Lily's work, why can't we use her work? Let them know that this was my decision. An exception can be made for Jocelyn so that she can participate in this competition. Meanwhile, remove Lily White from the competition for plagiarism!" Yale nodded at once. "I'll do it right now!" He tried to escape after speaking. However, Skyler called after him. "Stand right there!" Yale immediately turned around. He looked at him cautiously and exclaimed, "President Moore! Do you have any other orders?"

There was an unnatural expression on Skyler's dark face as he asked, "Do you have a plaster?"

If he knew, he would have accepted the plaster that Jocelyn had handed to him. That way, Yale would not have noticed his wound.

Yale shook his head.

Skyler felt slightly impatient. "Buy a box of plasters back for me!" Yale immediately nodded. He then headed off to buy them. After a while, Yale came back with a box of plasters. Skyler did not think that he would garner even more attention than before by sticking a plaster on his chin.

Skyler had a plaster on his chin during the meeting in the afternoon. Everyone could not resist stealing glances at his chin.

Skyler got annoyed by all the glances. Every time someone's gaze flitted across him furtively, he felt the urge to strangle Jocelyn to death.

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 25

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 25

Chapter 25 Impatience filled Skyler as everyone stared at him. He tore off the plaster straight away.

However, not only did everyone stare at him even more blatantly, but they even started gossiping among each other.

Perhaps they were not gossiping about Skyler, but in his eyes, they were discussing where he got his wound from. He then recalled everything that had happened in the morning once again.

Rage surged within Skyler as he announced the conclusions of the meeting grumpily. He told everyone that the meeting was adjourned and left the room.

Not long after the meeting, Yale looked for Skyler and said, "President Moore, Jocelyn..."

Skyler interrupted him coldly before he could finish his sentence. "Don't tell me anything about Jocelyn White today. I don't want to hear anything related to her today, got it?"

Yale was stunned. He looked at the unpleasant expression on Skyler's face. He had no choice but to nod and leave the room.

When it was time for lunch in the afternoon, Jocelyn suddenly noticed that everyone was stealing glances at her.

She felt slightly confused, but she did not take the initiative to ask them what was going on.

She then received a call from Lexie. Her voice was cold and full of anger. "Jocelyn, did you see the trends online?"

Jocelyn was slightly confused. "What trends?"

Lexie did not expect Jocelyn to still be oblivious about it. She huffed. "Who else can it be? of course, it's Lily White, that b*tch! You'll know after going online!"

Jocelyn hung up on the call in confusion and opened Twitter straight away.

After that, she saw everything that Lexie had mentioned. She finally realized why everyone was stealing glances at her.

Lily was trending online. To be more accurate, Lily and Jocelyn were trending online. There were four hashtags on the trending list.

#LilyComitted suicide #LilyWhiteAndJocelyn WhiteAreBiologicalSisters

#Ruthless Jocelyn White

#StayStrongLily Jocelyn clicked into the hashtag regarding Lily's suicide. She then saw a video of a reporter interviewing Lily.

The background of the video was a hospital. Lily was looking at the camera with a pale face. The cameraman zoomed in on her wrist.

Her thin wrist was wrapped in a bandage. It seemed to be soaked with blood.

The reporter looked at Lily and asked, “Miss White, may I know why you decided to commit suicide? You simply plagiarized someone’s work. Everyone does something wrong in their lives at least once.”

After hearing the reporter’s question, Jocelyn instantly understood what was going on. Lily had hired this reporter to act the entire thing out with her. Actual reporters would never be so gentle!

Lily looked at the camera weakly. She avoided making eye contact with the camera. “I...That wasn’t the only reason...”

The reporter slowly cued her. “What’s the reason then? Don’t be afraid that tell us the truth boldly. Everyone will help you!”

Lily sniffled sadly and said, “I don’t know why everything turned out this way... You might not know that Jocelyn White is my biological sister!” The reporter stared at Lily in shock. “Oh, you’re sisters!”

Lily’s eyes were red-rimmed as she reached out to wipe at her teary eyes. She’s my biological sister. I always knew that she was together with Howard Jung, but after that, Howard told me that he was just putting on a show with my sister. They were acting as a couple outside just for the benefit of Oasis Jewelry. At first, I didn’t believe it!” Lily’s voice grew whiny as she spoke, “However, he started treating me better. He doesn’t have a good relationship with my sister in private. Therefore, I foolishly believed in his words. He gave me all the work that I submitted in the competitions. I didn’t even know that they belonged to my sister. He told me that he loved me and wanted me to rise to fame. If I wanted to be with him, I had to make a name for myself in the jewelry industry and become a great designer to help him out. Although I objected against his plans, I finally agreed to his requests and submitted these design drafts to join all those competitions!”

Lily seemed even more upset now. More tears seemed to be falling from her eyes. She hiccupped while she cried and said, “I only knew that my sister was the one who drew all the design drafts after we got our marriage certificate. We were already husband and wife. He wanted me to help him one last time. After getting the grand prize of Century Jewelry Competition, he would stop forcing me to do so. Therefore, I still used my sister’s design to join the competition although I knew that it belonged to her this time around!”

Lily cried sorrowfully in front of the cameras. The reporter handed her a tissue.

Lily wiped her tears while she said, “The moment the incident happened, I was completely stunned. Howard Jung said that he would protect my reputation for the sake of Oasis Jewelry. Although I objected to his idea, he still used my name to ask the company's lawyer for help. He sued my sister. After that, my sister attacked him in return. Finally, all the netizens online started hating on me. I don't know what I should do anymore!" Lily covered her face with both of her hands and raised her head. Her eyes were extremely swollen. "I know that it's my fault. I shouldn't have agreed to Howard's request and used my sister's design draft to join the competition although I knew that it belonged to her. I can apologize to my sister and ask for her forgiveness!"

Lily looked straight into the camera. She looked immensely pitiful. "However, my sister won't give me a chance at all. She isn't willing to forgive me. She won't pick up my call or reply to my texts either!"

Ma'am, The World Is Waiting For Your Divorce Chapter 26

Ma'am The World is Waiting For Your Divorce (Skyler and Jocelyn)

Chapter 26

Chapter 26 "Besides, Howard Jung wants to cut ties with me and get a divorce as soon as he saw me being attacked by everyone online. My parents have scolded me terribly as well. They wonder why they have a daughter like me since I did something so unethical by plagiarizing someone else's work. Everyone has abandoned me. There's no reason for me to be alive anymore!" Lily had a look of desperation on her face. Lily finally finished speaking. She buried her head in her arms and cried out loudly. The reporter hugged her and said, "Don't be sad, Miss White. This isn't your fault. You have simply been fooled by Howard Jung. You're a young girl that has been blinded by love. Your mistakes are understandable. However, regardless of everything, you need to stay strong. You cannot easily give up on your life just because of this!"

After the reporter finished speaking, he let go of Lily and looked at the camera with an emotional expression on his face. "I believe that all the netizens would certainly stand on your side like me after hearing the entire truth. They'll help you ask for forgiveness from your family and sister. Meanwhile, you should leave scumbags like Howard Jung. Everyone has come across a few scumbags in their life. You're still so young. You shouldn't give up on the beauty of life!"

The video then came to an end.

However, Jocelyn instantly understood Lily's intentions. Lily publicized her attempted suicide online to gain everyone's sympathy. She had attracted everyone's attention and stirred up everyone's sympathy toward her immediately. The netizens online instantly turned into detectives that were the personification of justice.

(I stand with Lily White. She seems genuine and not pretentious. She is not a devious and scheming woman. Besides, you guys should have realized by now that the evidence online only consists of the texts between Jocelyn and Howard. It has nothing to do with Lily. Lily is innocent!]

(That's right, I think so too. Previously, people were talking about the video in the restaurant. What's wrong with a couple playing footsie underneath a dining table? Lily didn't know that Howard Jung was fooling her!) [I think so too. Lily is so pitiful. A scumbag has dumped her after taking advantage of her. Her biological sister and family aren't willing to forgive her either. How can she continue living that way? If I was her, I'd try to commit suicide after being pushed to the brink of desperation like her!]

can a sister act like that? I'm really ashamed of her!) 1 (If a stranger knew about the truth, they would withdraw the lawsuit as well. However, they're even sisters! Jocelyn White is such an evil woman!]

(Lily, you must stay strong. Don't give up. You have our support. Leave scumbags far away and protect yourself well!]

There were a few clear-headed netizens that commented that although there was not sufficient evidence to prove that Lily was lying, they could not be sure that she was telling the truth just from her side of the story alone! 1

It was a pity that everyone liked taking the side of the weaker party. Nobody was willing to calm down and think things through.

Jocelyn looked at the whole act that Lily had put on. She then looked at the anonymous netizens that were supporting her. They thought that they were executing justice by typing a few words on the keyboard. She found it extremely ironic!

Lily was truly brilliant. She had found a gap in the evidence that Jocelyn had presented and blamed everything on Howard Jung. She had succeeded in portraying herself as an innocent victim.

Besides, her failed suicide attempt had won over everyone's sympathy. She had succeeded in clearing her name in the public eye!

Howard was now infamous for being a scumbag. It would be easy to just blame everything on him!

Jocelyn did not expect Lily to come up with such a brilliant plan after her failed attempt to drug and film a blackmail video of her that she could use to threaten her in the future.

She stared at her computer with a heavy expression on her face. She wondered what she should do next.

If she continued suing Lily, she would be able to win the lawsuit. However, the netizens will continue criticizing her. Just as Jocelyn was pondering upon it, she received a call from Michael. Jocelyn's gaze flashed as she took her phone and walked outside. As soon as she left, a heated discussion began in the design department. "What do you guys think about the incident online?" "What else can we think? It's obvious that Jocelyn White's designs were plagiarized, but everything has changed after Lily White tried committing suicide!" "That's right, she's an innocent plagiarizer that was oblivious to the truth the entire time. She did everything because she was blinded by love. She got tricked by a scumbag and ended up attempting to commit suicide. Even if Jocelyn White wins the lawsuit, it's no different from losing it! The netizens aren't even on her side!" "This is what they call 'winning a battle, but losing the war!'"

"Since there's no difference regardless of whether she wins or loses the lawsuit, is she going to proceed with the lawsuit?"

"Who knows? You should ask President Moore!"

Chapter 27

Chapter 27 A sense of indignance filled Yvie's heart when she heard the discussion going on among the employees in the design department. These evil people did not know what a nice person Jocelyn was. Jocelyn picked up her phone in the stairway. She spoke to Michael expressionlessly, "Hello, is there anything that you need?" Michael huffed coldly. "What's wrong? Are you not even going to bother calling me your father now?"

Chills erupted in Jocelyn's heart when she heard his voice. She replied in a sarcastic tone, "Are there fathers that drug their own daughter and try to gift them to other people?" Michael choked when he recalled everything that had happened last night. There was an uneasy expression on his face as he asked, "Jocelyn, what's the relationship between you and Skyler Moore?"

"Does this have anything to do with you?" Jocelyn asked in a harsh tone. "Are you not afraid that I'd touch your uncle's company?" Michael's voice was laced with a sense of threat.

Jocelyn scoffed and said, "If you think that you can win over Skyler Moore, be my guest!" Michael remained silent for a few seconds before speaking. "It seems like Skyler was telling the truth last night. Did both of you get married?" Jocelyn remained silent with a heavy expression on her face. Michael did not continue pestering her about it either. "Alright, let's not talk about other things. You should withdraw the charges that you've filed against Lily now!" Michael spoke to her in a confident tone. It was as if he was sure that Jocelyn would definitely withdraw the charges that she had filed against Lily.

Jocelyn felt beyond repulsed. "Why should I withdraw the charges? She plagiarized my work. Shouldn't she be punished for what she's done?"

Michael remained nonchalant as he said, "Do you think that the netizens would think so? Do you think that Skyler Moore will help you? No matter how powerful he is, he can't change the minds of so many people, right?"

Jocelyn was so disgusted by his words that her lips started trembling. She clenched her fingers around her phone tightly. Michael added, "Don't expect Skyler Moore to help you. Let me tell you what's going to happen. You forced Lily to attempt suicide. Even if you win the lawsuit against her, you won't gain anything. At most, everyone will think that you're cold and ruthless. Besides, if you don't withdraw your charges, I'll release the news about your marriage with Skyler Moore as soon as you win the lawsuit! What will everyone think about you? They'll only think that you're abusing your power to bully Lily!"

Jocelyn was so angry that she felt her innards hurting. "Aren't you afraid that I'd post everything that you said online?"

Michael did not seem to care. "Post it. What can you show by doing that? I'm just trying to persuade you to withdraw the charges against Lily. As a father, I'm just trying to help you and your sister make amends with each other. Do you think the netizens will take your side?"

“Also, don’t think that you’re the only one that knows how to take audio recordings! I know how to do that too. I can prove that you’ve married Skyler Moore through this conversation alone. If you don’t want to lose your reputation, you’d better think this through!” Not only did Michael disregard her relationship with Skyler, but he even used it to threaten Jocelyn in return.

Jocelyn did not expect Michael to be completely on Lily’s side. She hung up on the call with a heavy expression on her face.

It was not forbidden for her marriage with Skyler to be revealed to the public, but it cannot be done so right now!

Lily White had just attempted to commit suicide. She had just won over everyone’s sympathy. If the news of her marriage broke out, everyone would think that she was abusing her power to make things hard for Lily!

At the same time, something happened in the hospital. Lily received a call from Howard.

“Lily White, you b*tch! How dare you blame everything on me?!”

Lily rolled her eyes and looked at her freshly manicured nails as she said, “Your reputation is completely ruined now. It won’t affect you much if I blame it all on you, right? Besides, aren’t we husband and wife? Can’t you share some of my burden?”

“Let’s get a divorce. I want to get a divorce right now. You’re a toxic b*tch!” “Hah!” Lily scoffed and said, “If I’m a toxic b*tch, what are you? You tried to ditch me as soon as something happened. Since you were so cruel toward me, I had no choice but to take drastic measures. Otherwise, how can I be a match for you?”

Howard was outraged. “Lily White, just wait. I won’t let you have a good ending. Don’t you like acting like a pure and innocent young girl? I’ll show everyone your true face!”

Lily’s heart lurched. She had been together with Howard for two years. He must have something on her.

If Howard attacked her online in return, would her entire plan not go to waste? Her gaze flashed as she sniffled in an upset manner. Her attitude instantly changed completely. “Howard, I have no other choice. Jocelyn has married Skyler Moore. It’s easy for her to destroy me with Skyler’s power. I didn’t want to blame everything on you, but she still insists on suing me. I’ve been forced to the brink of desperation. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have tried to commit suicide!”

Lily’s voice grew whiny as she spoke.

Howard froze in shock “What did you say? Jocelyn and Skyler Moore are married? What nonsense are you spouting?!” Jealousy flashed across Jocelyn’s gaze as she said, “If that weren’t the case, did you think that I’d try to commit suicide that easily?”

Howard was stunned. His expression changed as he hung up on the call at once. He then dialed Jocelyn’s number.

Nobody picked up the call even after he called a few times.

The design department of Prosperity Jewelry.

Jocelyn hung up on Michael’s call in disgust. As soon as she walked into the design department, she heard Yvie arguing with the other employees in the department from a distance away.

“What gives all of you the right to talk about Miss White that way? She’s not the kind of person that you’re making her out to be!” Yvie’s face was flushed with rage.

Fiona scoffed and said, “If she isn’t that kind of person, would she have been able to force her own sister to the point of desperation that she attempted to commit suicide? How long have you known her? Why are you taking her side?” After speaking, she added in a meaningful tone, “Besides, even if you’re trying to butter up someone, you need to do it to the right person!”

Chapter 28

Yvie’s face paled as she puffed out her face in aggravation and spoke angrily, “I wasn’t buttering up anyone. I knew her a long time ago. She’s definitely not the type of person that you’re making her out to be!”

Sadly, nobody listened to her at all. Everyone was influenced by Fiona’s words.

“Ignore her. She’s Jocelyn White’s assistant. Of course, she’d speak for her. Anyways, if I had her capabilities in drawing designs, it’ll be nothing for me to gift a few drafts to my sister. She doesn't have to force her own biological sister to such extents. She must have lost her conscience!"

"Besides, did you guys realize that she always wreaks havoc in her wake? Because of her, Oasis Jewelry's reputation is now down the drain. The company's facing plenty of lawsuits as well. I didn't expect something to happen as soon as he joined Prosperity Jewelry!"

"Tsk tsk tsk, what an inauspicious person!"

"You guys are spouting nonsense!" Yvie was so enraged that she started shaking.

All of them were just speaking from an outsider's point of view. Of course, they would act all generous since it was not their own design drafts that they were talking about.

Fiona cast a contemptuous glance at Yvie. Her lips curled up in scorn. Jocelyn walked over with a heavy expression on her face. She grabbed Yvie and said, "Don't argue with them. It isn't worth it even if you win the argument!"

After speaking, she looked at everyone and said, "Don't be in such a hurry to take a stand. There's still much more to come. If you take a stand too soon, I'm afraid that you'll all be humiliated!"

After speaking, Jocelyn dragged Yvie outside.

Yvie's eyes were as reddened as that of a rabbit. She followed Jocelyn into the elevator and apologized to her with red-rimmed eyes. "Jocelyn, I'm sorry!"

Jocelyn glanced at her and said, "Why are you apologizing? You didn't do anything to wrong me!"

Yvie bit her lip and said, "I shouldn't have argued with them. I must have annoyed you!"

Jocelyn sighed in exasperation. "You didn't annoy me. It's meaningless even if you win the argument against them. However, regardless of everything, I'd like to thank you for speaking up for me!"

Yvie glanced at Jocelyn with a pitiful expression on her face. "Jocelyn, I...I knew about you two years ago. I know that you were joining Prosperity Jewelry. I submitted my application for the job yesterday afternoon. I really like your designs from two years ago!"

Jocelyn laughed and said, "However, I didn't draw any other design drafts after that!"

“Isn’t that because Lily White stole all your work and plagiarized them?” There was an angered expression on Yvie’s face.

Jocelyn cast a complicated glance at her and said, “That’s because I gave it to her voluntarily back then. I can’t blame anyone for it!”

Yvie gaped without saying anything.

Jocelyn walked out of the elevator and said, “Let’s go. It’s afternoon. I’ll treat you to a meal. Be more cautious in the future. Don’t ruin your relationship with everyone in the design department. Fiona is the only one that’s going against me. There’s no need for you to become enemies with everyone else! At most times, they’re all just sheep following the leader!”

Yvie immediately nodded. She then followed Jocelyn out.

Someone interrupted Jocelyn and Yvie while they were having lunch.

Somehow, Howard had managed to find them over here. He stood in front of Jocelyn and Yvie’s dining table. He glared at Jocelyn with an angry expression on his face. “Jocelyn White, you’re pretty amazing. I’ve really underestimated you in the past!” Jocelyn frowned. She saw a lot of people around them looking over. She could not help but ask coldly, “What do you want?” Howard sneered as he looked at her. “I heard you and Skyler Moore got marr...” Jocelyn got up at once. She interrupted him straight away. “Let’s talk outside!” Howard glanced at Yvie and huffed coldly. He then walked outside.

Jocelyn comforted Yvie, who had a worried expression on her face. “Don’t worry, you should eat first!”

As soon as Jocelyn finished speaking, she walked out in a hurry. 1

Howard spoke up in a heavy tone as soon as he saw her. “Jocelyn White, online, you said that I cheated on you. What about you then? You’re married to Skyler Moore. Let’s not mention how you cheated on me. You even schemed against me and caused my reputation to go down the drain! I’m facing plenty of lawsuits right now!” “If I told everyone that you’re married to Skyler Moore and everything that you posted online previously was fake since it was part of your schemes, what do you think the netizens would think?” Howard glared at Jocelyn harshly. Jocelyn stared at Howard, who was acting like a complete fool. “Fake news? There were so many videos and audio recordings. Do you take the netizens as fools? Who would believe in your nonsense?”

“What about your marriage with Skyler Moore? I didn’t make that up, right!” Howard fixed his gaze on Jocelyn like he was a venomous snake. Jocelyn could not resist moving further away from him. “So what do you want to do?”

Howard took in a deep breath and raised her brow. "That's simple. Help me clear my name. Tell everyone that you've known about me and Lily being together a long time ago. Tell them that you gave me all the design drafts voluntarily. Lily White was the one who seduced me. Anyways, you didn't have evidence to prove yourself when Lily dragged you through the mud today!"

Howard had planned out everything well. He just needed to stir up the netizens' hearts online.

They would definitely take a different stand again.

Due to the destruction of Oasis Jewelry's reputation, a lot of their partners terminated their contracts during the contract period. Therefore, Oasis Jewelry had to pay a large sum of compensation. Once the public opinion changed, this problem would naturally be solved for him.

Jocelyn stared at Howard like she was looking at a madman. "You must be dreaming! Do you want me to take back everything that I posted online? That's impossible!" Her tone softened as she said, "Besides, even if I gave all the designs to you voluntarily in the past, I didn't give the last draft to you on my own accord! If you look for me again, I'll sue you for illegal coercion!" Jocelyn turned around to leave after speaking.

Howard started panicking. He grabbed Jocelyn's arm and said, "Jocelyn White, stay right there! Aren't you afraid that I'd expose the fact that you're married to Skyler Moore?"

Jocelyn glared at Howard hatefully. "Go on then. Let's see if Skyler will let you go!"

Howard stiffened. He was so enraged that he swung his hand toward Jocelyn's face. "You b* tch! Aren't you just acting so high and mighty just because you have Skyler Moore's support?" However, someone grabbed his hand mid-air before it could land on her face.

Chapter 29

Howard turned around in rage. "D*mn it! Who dares to f*cking..."

He turned around and was met with the sight of Skyler Moore's expressionless face. He instantly choked on his words.

Jocelyn started acting slightly unnaturally when she spotted Skyler. "You...why are you here?" Skyler glanced at Jocelyn and said curtly, "I'm here to eat!"

After speaking, he flung off Howard's arm and took out his handkerchief from the pocket of his business suit. He wiped his fingers slowly as if there were some dirt on them.

An unpleasant expression appeared on Howard's face.

Trei

The corners of Jocelyn's lips twitched uncontrollably a few times. He threw his handkerchief into the rubbish bin and pulled Jocelyn behind him protectively. He raised his head lazily and glanced at Howard. "How do you know that I married Jocelyn?"

He caught sight of Howard and Jocelyn having an argument from the distance when he came over to have lunch. Howard was spouting terrible words with an evil expression on his face. He was also telling Jocelyn that he would expose her marriage with him.

Skyler simply found it funny that his marriage had become something that could be used as a threat to someone else! Howard looked at Skyler and immediately hesitated. "Lily...Lily White told me that!" Skyler narrowed his eyes dangerously and asked, "Then do you think that I'll be threatened by this incident?"

Howard looked at Skyler in a cowardly manner and remained silent.

Just then, Yale finally caught up with Skyler. He whispered in Skyler's ear, "President Moore, Lily White tried to commit suicide earlier. She's trending online because of this. She mentioned that she's Miss Jocelyn's biological sister. She also mentioned that she got tricked by Howard and she didn't know that he was cheating on her. She was also oblivious to the plagiarism. She made everything sound like it made sense. She has won all the netizens' sympathy now. They all think that Miss Jocelyn is cold and ruthless since she insists on forcing Lily to the brink of desperation. If everyone knows that about Miss Jocelyn being married to you, they'll definitely think that Miss Jocelyn is abusing her power to bully Lily White!"

Skyler raised his brow and looked at him with an icy expression on his face. "Why didn't you tell me about this previously?"

Yale shrugged and spoke in a lowered voice, "Didn't you tell me not to mention anything about Miss Jocelyn in front of you today?" Jocelyn glanced at Skyler in shock Skyler immediately recalled what he had said in the morning. An unnatural expression appeared on his face. "Alright, I got it. I'll handle this!"

After speaking, he glanced at Jocelyn and said, "You should continue eating!" Jocelyn glanced at him hesitantly. Skyler raised his brow. "What's wrong? Don't you want to eat?"

Jocelyn immediately shook her head. "No!"

Skyler raised his eyelids lazily and cast a glance at her. "Continue eating then!" Jocelyn remained rooted to the spot stubbornly. She held her neck up high and said, "I won't withdraw the charges!"

Skyler found it rather funny. "Who asked you to withdraw the charges? If you withdraw the charges, that will mean that Prosperity Jewelry is going against its word! I won't allow something like that to happen!"

After hearing his words, Jocelyn let out a sigh of relief. Her gaze instantly lit up as she said, "Thank you!"

After speaking, she smiled and turned around. She then ran toward the restaurant. Skyler was stunned. He seemed to have seen stars in Jocelyn's eyes just now. Yale stole a glance at Skyler and said, "President Moore..."

Skyler returned to his senses. He glanced at Yale and moved his gaze onto Howard's face. "If you want to protect Oasis Jewelry, come with me!"

Howard froze and followed after him at once. Jocelyn returned to the design department after having lunch. She realized that everyone in the department was silent. Nobody was discussing the topic that they had been talking about in the afternoon.

She raised her brow in shock. As soon as she sat down, Yvie walked over quietly and whispered, "Jocelyn, look at Twitter! The company released a statement!". Jocelyn's gaze flashed. She was slightly shocked. She opened Twitter and saw the statement that Prosperity Jewelry had just posted. @ProsperityJewelry : Prosperity Jewelry sympathizes with Miss Lily White's condition after she attempted to commit suicide. However, plagiarism is unacceptable in the jewelry industry. Prosperity Jewelry will not withdraw their charges against Miss Lily White on behalf of Miss Jocelyn White! This statement must have been posted when Skyler found out about Lily's suicide attempt. There were already thousands of comments beneath the post. The opinions of the netizens were mainly split into two groups. On one side, the netizens felt that the statement by Prosperity Jewelry made a lot of sense. Regardless of everything, plagiarism should not be accepted in any way. People should be punished for their wrongdoings. Even a child knew such things. Why did so many people not understand this logic?

Meanwhile, another side mentioned that Jocelyn White must have influenced Prosperity Jewelry's decision not to withdraw their charges. Jocelyn White was the victim. She was not willing to forgive Lily, and she would only stop when Lily died.

Humans were emotional beings. The majority of netizens took Lily's side due to their sympathy toward her. Besides, it seemed like some people were taking the lead in altering public opinion.

After a while, the topic, "Jocelyn White should withdraw charges now", started trending online. Everyone seemed to view Jocelyn as an evil and ruthless person right now. They called her a heartless animal through the computer screen.

Although Jocelyn had prepared herself for it mentally a long time ago, she still felt extremely uncomfortable after seeing all these comments.

Jocelyn scrolled through Twitter for a while and got tired of it after a while. She then closed the application.

At the same time, Lily received a call from Howard. "Lily White, I'm at the hospital entrance right now. Come out. Let's sign the divorce agreement!" Lily frowned and said, "I slit my wrist. I'm hospitalized right now. Don't you know that?" Howard immediately cursed at her. "Did you slit your f*cking wrist or ankle?"

Chapter 30

Howard's rebuttal rendered Lily speechless. "Anyways, I won't come out. Come inside if you want to get the divorce agreement signed!"

Howard thought of Skyler's words. His gaze flashed as he said icily, "Tell me your ward number!"

After telling him, Lily hung up on the call straight away,

Howard unbuttoned the second button of his collar. Skyler Moore had prepared these props for him. He could not return without any gains.

He laughed at himself as he looked at the hospital building. He did not expect him to act as a spy when he was the president of a company. He suddenly regretted everything. How did things get to this point for him and Jocelyn? Back then, he had gotten together with Lily White since Jocelyn kept rejecting him. However, he did not expect that he would have to pay back so much in return! There were two bodyguards standing by the door after Howard went upstairs. Not only did they search his body, but they also took his phone away. Lily was eating an apple when he entered the ward. Howard handed the divorce agreement to Lily straight away. Lily flipped through the document and started frowning. "Why didn't you give me anything?"

Howard had a heavy expression on his face. "What do you want?"

Lily did not hesitate before blurting out, "Money!" Howard cast a look of irony at her. He sneered and said, "You really do love money!"

Lily's expression changed slightly. "You knew what I like when we were in bed together back then!"

Howard smirked sarcastically and said, "Don't you know that you can't trust what men say in bed?"

Lily had an icy expression on her face. "I don't care about any of this. I'm your wife right now. I want to have an equal share of your financial assets. If this doesn't work out, let's settle this in court. I don't believe that I won't be able to get a single cent! Don't even think of ditching me just like that!"

Howard looked at the greedy expression on Lily's pale and innocent-looking face. The tone of his voice was slightly stiff. "The netizens should really see your disgusting face and words. If you want to have a divorce lawsuit, go ahead! Anyways, Oasis Jewelry is heavy in debt right now. The company is facing plenty of lawsuits as well. If you want it that much, I can give you an equal share of it all!" Lily stiffened. Her expression changed immediately. "I'll sign it!"

Howard felt so disgusted when he saw how quickly her expression changed that he felt the urge to vomit. Suddenly, he felt that not only was his business skills way beneath that of Skyler Moore, but his evaluation of people were terrible as well. Back then, he must have been blind to have gotten together with Lily White! Howard recalled Skyler's instructions when he saw Lily signing the papers. He said coldly, "Don't be too proud of yourself. The netizens simply think that you're pitiful right now. Can you pretend to commit suicide to gain everyone's sympathy every single time? I don't even know how those netizens can bring themselves to say such words. You were the one who kept asking me to trick Jocelyn for her designs after having a taste of the benefits that you gained. How dare you act all innocent right now? Are you shameless, Lily White?!" Lily laughed nonchalantly and said, "So what?! Do they have any evidence?" Howard felt like this was the first time that he was getting to know Lily. "You disgust me. You were only capable of blaming everything on me this time around because Jocelyn White didn't have any of your incriminating evidence!" Lily simply scoffed and reached out her hand to move the stray strands of her hair away from her forehead. "It's enough if they believe in me this time around. I'm so pitiful. So what if Jocelyn wins the lawsuit? She'll still have a reputation for being a ruthless and heartless person that doesn't care about family!" Howard's gaze flashed as he said, "She's now in Prosperity Jewelry. Skyler Moore is protecting her!"

Lily acted like she had heard a major joke when she heard what he said. She smirked sarcastically and said, "So what? Jocelyn's reputation has been ruined everywhere. Regardless of how powerful Skyler Moore is, can he change the netizens' opinion?"

She raised her brows and rolled her eyes proudly. "Those netizens are complete fools. They'll believe in anything that I say now! Most of them are just following the general public opinion. Don't you know that?"

Howard stared at her wrist. His expression suddenly changed. "You didn't slit your wrist?" Lily's hand froze as she signed the document. She then threw the signed divorce agreement to Howard and covered her wrist. "What nonsense are you talking about?!"
