

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1008

Master Qin believed that he himself had a wide network and a wide circle in the city. He knew people from all walks of life. Even Ye Wangchuan might not know as many people as he did.

Hence, when Qiao Nian said that she had found the person, he immediately became interested and asked with his hand supporting his chin.

“Ji Nan.”

The moment this name was out, Qin Si went speechless.

He was stunned, and Zhang Yang, who was with him, was even more stunned. Ji Nan? It couldn't be the Ji Nan he was thinking of, right?

Almost done eating, Qiao Nian placed her hand on the chair. She sat quite arrogantly and did not feel that the person she mentioned was very impressive. Her attitude was similar to that of an old man from next door. “He's probably bored from speculating in stocks previously and has studied law part-time. He's considered half a lawyer.”

The muscles on Qin Si's face were extremely stiff.

What was this? Ji Nan was considered half a lawyer??

Ji Nan was most proficient in speculating stocks and was known as the country's Buffett. Next was his achievements in the legal world.

It was said that as long as Ji Nan took on a lawsuit, he would never lose!

To Qiao Nian, such an awesome person was just “half a lawyer”, or an amateur lawyer.

Qin Si was speechless.

As expected of Zhang Yang, when he heard Qiao Nian mention Ji Nan, he immediately looked at Ye Wangchuan. Seeing that the man had no reaction and was still scolding the beef roll for Qiao Nian, he silently calmed down.

If even Master Wang did not care, it seemed that this Ji Nan was only Miss Qiao's friend.

However, even her friends were people of Ji Nan's level.

Zhang Yang's eyelids twitched as he looked at the girl with a complicated gaze.

Thinking back, Master Qin didn't say this to him. He said that Young Master Wang had a sister who came all the way from Rao city and needed their help to take care of her.

Did he need to take care of such a big shot with such terrifying connections??

He had to curry favor with her, more like it!

Just then, his cell phone suddenly rang. Someone in the group was asking Jiang Xianrou out for a meal. He silently blocked the message and pretended not to see it. Then, he flipped his cell phone over and placed it on the table.

Qin Si was stunned for a few seconds before he quickly regained his senses. He did not pursue the topic and instead sat up straight with a serious expression. "By the way, Sister Qiao, how do you plan on dealing with this matter? Are you just going to sue them?"

It was just too easy on her if Qiao Chen just went to jail for three years.

In his opinion, it was best to deal with Shen Jingyan and the others as well.

Qiao Nian had her hand on the chair and was sitting sideways with a casual expression. Her cell phone on the table lit up.

Two messages came in at the same time.

She picked up the cell phone.

One was a message from Yuan Yongqin, saying that Su Mo had already sent the gift.

The other message was from Shen Qiongzhi.

It was a number from Rao City.

It should be Shen Qiongzhi's new phone number.

She was filled with righteous indignation and criticized her for being heartless, saying she was an ingrate who had lived in the Qiao family for more than a decade for nothing. She relied on the Qiao family's connections to build a relationship with Cheng Feng Corporation, and after she became successful, she went against her family in all aspects. She said that she had let Qiao Chen down. They would definitely not lower their heads to an 'evil thing' like her.

Qiao Nian patiently read the message. Her eyes were dark, and she tried to control her temper. However, the last bit of emotion in her eyes was wiped away.

She didn't reply to Shen Qiongzhi's message and directly blocked her phone number before sending a message to Yuan Yongqin.

She wouldn't do anything to the Qiao family, but she would make them spit out all the benefits they had enjoyed all these years!
