

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1038

The young man completely ignored the group of people arguing non-stop not far away. His gaze was fixed on his cell phone.

He stared at the cell phone anxiously.

The message on the phone screen was still his one-sided nagging. The other party did not reply at all.

He refused to give up and sent another crying emoji.

He even shamelessly sent a harassment message under the emoji.

[Slim Waist Control: Boss, are you here? Have you settled the matter? I can lead the way~ Where do you want to go? Let's drive a Maserati and speed on the streets.] ""

[Slim Waist Control: Boss, don't ignore me. I'm so cute. Please give me a chance to kneel and bootlick you!!!]

He even especially typed three exclamation marks on the last message, afraid that the other party wouldn't be able to understand his excitement and admiration.

Sun had always been cold and aloof. Guan Yan had seen Sun before, and because of this, that fellow had often bragged in front of him.

This time, Sun finally came here. Of course, he had to be the most sensible lackey.

He wanted to get back at that fellow, Guan Yan, so that he wouldn't get carried away after seeing what Sun looked like.

When he returned and successfully picked the Boss up, he would go singing, eating, and drinking in the same bar with Boss.

That relationship... Tsk, wasn't it more impressive than that guy only seeing Sun once?

.....

He continued to think about how impressive he would be around the base in the future and became even more excited. He was about to send a few more messages to the big shot to show him his determination to pick him up.

His cell phone suddenly buzzed.

A new message popped up.

Slim Waist Control frowned. He was still wondering who was so f*cking blind to not see that he was hooking up with a big shot and sending a message.

He looked down.

He instantly lost his composure and bounced up. His leg hit the coffee table, making a loud sound.

The heated debate in the conference room suddenly stopped.

The people from the IT Association's Council, including Qi Rongguang, looked in his direction.

The young man pretended not to see it. He grabbed his cell phone and said with a fanatical expression, "Damn, I'm going to be rich!"

Silence.

The dozen or so people from the IT Association's Council were dumbfounded.

Qi Rongguang had never seen him so agitated before.

The young man did not seem to care about them at all. He suppressed his excitement and picked up his jacket, then said hurriedly, "I'm going out for a while. Continue arguing."

"Yu..." Seeing that he was about to leave, Qi Rongguang's square face tensed up. He was stunned for a moment before returning to his senses. He subconsciously wanted to stop him.

However, he didn't even manage to call his name.

The young man's figure had already disappeared from the meeting room in a hurry. With a bang, the meeting room door was closed.

The conference room fell silent.

Hengfeng Corporation had the confidence to challenge the entire IT Association this time because of their relationship with the Red Alliance. The Red Alliance had taken a fancy to his daughter, Qi Lanyin's talent in programming, and wanted to include her in the Red Alliance as a member.

The Red Alliance was famous for being protective of its own people. On this matter, they had given their family face and agreed to help them.

Unexpectedly, the other party left halfway.

Qi Rongguang had a huge headache, but the Red Alliance was not an entity he could order around. Even if the other party left without saying goodbye halfway, he couldn't do anything about it. He could only frown and vent his anger on Qing University's research team.
