

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1043

Just as she was conflicted, a professor suddenly said excitedly, "You're back!"

"Qiao Nian is back?"

"Where?"

Liang Conglin had long been unable to sit still. Qiao Nian wasn't only a student he thought highly of, but also had the Ye family and Old Master Ye behind her. Before her grandfather left, he had specially called him and reminded him repeatedly that it did not matter if his eldest son couldn't return to the capital for the time being. He had to ensure his granddaughter's safety. In such an unfamiliar place, if Qiao Nian did not return after 20 minutes, it would be a lie to say that he was not worried!

If she was in Beijing, he wouldn't be afraid if Qiao Nian went out for a while and didn't come back. After all, he knew many people around there.

He could find her no matter what.

The problem was that this was an illegal area.

He was a nobody here!

It could be said that there was nothing between them.

"There, right ahead. She even brought someone back." The professor who spoke was quite excited.

They hadn't expected Qiao Nian to really know someone here.

Liang Conglin also saw her.

The girl was still dressed as when she left. The brim of her cap was lowered, and her walking posture was arrogant and casual.

.....

Behind her was a young man. He looked young and was probably in his twenties. He was dressed differently and his hair color was eye-catching.

In the blink of an eye, the two of them were already in front of him.

At a glance, Slim Waist Control saw four to five people surrounding him and staring at him as if he was a 'monster'.

Damn!

He was a little embarrassed. He raised his hand and touched his high nose bridge. His blue eyes looked at Liang Conglin and the others, then he turned around and asked in a low voice, "Bo-"

He had wanted to call her Boss.

Turning around, he saw that Sun had brought him to meet a large group of people. All of them were dressed like the old pedants in the meeting room upstairs, looking serious.

His words rolled down his throat, and he simply brushed past the greeting and said softly, "These are..."

What kind of f*cking people were they?!

Had they never seen a handsome man?!

They were all staring at him.

Qiao Nian was quite calm. "My teachers."

Slim Waist Control was speechless.

He was confused.

Then surprised.

He could barely tolerate it that Sun was a girl and that she was extremely beautiful. But who the hell were Sun's teachers?! She still needed to go to school?

To learn what?

How to destroy the world???

Or was she studying criminal law so she could learn how to smuggle raw stones?

Qiao Nian ignored him and turned her head to introduce him to Liang Conglin and the others. "My friend, Slim Waist Control."

Tian Jing was the first to recover her senses. She sized up the young man who looked like a hooligan and frowned. "Slim Waist Control? Is that a human name?"

What kind of nonsensical name did this man give himself!

"Internet name." Qiao Nian raised her hand and pulled down the brim of her can. She was still standing casually. Without explaining to her, she looked in Liang Conglin's direction and said, "Principal Liang, you can give him the information you mentioned and let him help you bring it up."

Slim Waist Control finally regained his senses slowly and was dumbfounded. "What information? Where am I taking it?"

When Tian Jing heard this, her eyes gradually turned from distrust to anger and contempt.

The other party didn't even know what information they were sending, yet Qiao Nian dared to bring such a person back. Did she know how important that information was to chip technology?

This was the first time they had a breakthrough in chip technology in the country. They had brought firsthand information. It was fine if they showed it to the IT Association, but if it fell into the hands of others, the consequences would be unimaginable.
