

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1048

Before they came, they were already prepared to fight a tough battle.

In the end, before they could roll up their sleeves and fight, the matter was resolved so easily.

What was going on?

The other professor was also shocked. He had a complicated expression on his face as he said, "That's right. Qiao Nian's friend said that someone would come up to get the information. I thought that it would be an ordinary member of the IT Association. I didn't expect it to be the vice president.

"And from what he said, it seems that Qiao Nian's friend has a powerful background. Even the IT Association and the Council have to give him face. This..."

That person looked sloppy and roguish, like a hooligan. He was pretty young too, but he actually had such a background in the illegal district.

It was unbelievable!

Most importantly, how could a freshman like Qiao Nian know such a person?

They couldn't wrap their heads around it, and neither could Liang Conglin, who was being asked all these questions. He rubbed his brows and calmed down after a long time. He only said, "I don't know. It's good that the matter is resolved. There's no need to think so much."

As for how Qiao Nian knew that Slim Waist Control, how could she have so much face?

He didn't know either, nor did he dare to think about it!

After all, he couldn't wrap his head around the people around Qiao Nian!

Since he had already spoken, the professors did not ask further. However, they saw surprise and shock in each other's eyes.

.....

Only Tian Jing was standing there alone with a business card in her hand. Her face was filled with disbelief.

The business card was still warm in her hand. The gold-plated business card was square and especially formal. The name marked on it in English was very clear—Vice President of the IT Association!

She took a deep breath and felt that her lungs were filled with cold air. It stung her windpipe and made her face heat up for no reason.

It burned.

It was as if she had been slapped.

She was almost speechless and had nothing else to ask.

However, before she came, Liang Lu had clearly told her that the freshman from the Chinese Medicine Faculty was just an ordinary high school student who came from Rao City. Other than her results, she was not very capable. Her personality was also antisocial and unlikable. She didn't even have a friend...

In the business suite opposite Liang Conglin.

The girl tossed her shoulder bag on the coffee table and sat on the sofa. She stretched her legs and placed them on the coffee table lazily.

"Has the person you called gone to them?"

"He has." Slim Waist Control followed her in and obediently helped her close the door. He only got used to it slightly when he saw how confidently and casually she sat down on the couch. He followed her steps closely and touched his earlobe. His dazzling purple hair swayed in the room. "He's taken the information."

The people from the IT Association had just called him to tell him about this. Slim Waist Control found a couch and sat down. He tilted his head and said with a puzzled expression, "But Big Boss, why did you interfere in this matter? You even came specially for this kind of thing."

Qiao Nian took out her cell phone and lowered her head. Ye Wangchuan's message came in, asking if she had arrived.

Her fair fingers pressed on her phone screen as she replied quickly.

After replying to the WeChat message, Qiao Nian raised her head and met the young man's eyes which were filled with curiosity. She paused for a second before changing her posture and answering like a big shot, "It's nothing."

Slim Waist Control was even more puzzled. "If it's nothing, why did you especially make a trip?"
