

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1057

Her family had always wanted to establish ties with the Red Alliance, and the Red Alliance also thought very highly of her. If she could successfully enter the Red Alliance, the Qi family's competitiveness in the industry would greatly increase in the future.

It was also a good thing for her individually!

After all, she had lost face in the medical competition previously. She had never fallen so hard before, which caused her to lose interest in medicine.

But in IT?

Qi Lanyin was young and arrogant. She restrained the arrogance in her eyes and curled her lips into a smile.

Their family was in this industry, to begin with. If she didn't study medicine in the future, it wouldn't be too bad to change industries.

As she was thinking, she suddenly saw someone from the corner of her eye.

"What is she doing here?!" Qi Lanyin tightened her grip on the wine glass. Apart from shock, she had the same reaction as Qin Si. She felt that her eyes were playing tricks on her.

Coincidentally, that figure disappeared very quickly.

Before she could see clearly, she was gone.

She put down the wine glass and wanted to chase after her to see if she had seen it wrongly. Then, she received a call from her father.

Qi Lanyin found a corner and picked it up. "Hello, Dad. What's the matter?"

She was a little distracted. Her eyes kept looking in the direction where the figure had disappeared.

.....

She frowned again.

She was in a bad mood.

That figure looked especially like the freshman of Qing University's Chinese Medicine Faculty.

What was her name again?

Qi Lanyin thought for a moment and could only think of the other party's ID on Instagram—QN.

She had won first place in three consecutive years of medical competitions and had never encountered such a downfall in medicine. That was the first time in her life that she had to face a defeat.

She still remembered how the other party played her like a monkey in the second round.

In the end, she crushed her with a high score of 98 points and forced her to obtain the most humiliating result in her life—59!

She failed!

Not only that, the other party even slapped her in the face on Instagram.

She emphasized the words “Chinese Medicine Faculty”.

She was clearly targeting Qi Lanyin and what she had said in an interview previously, that Chinese Medicine was a joke and lacked credibility.

Qi Lanyin didn't hear what Qi Rongguang was saying on the other end. She only heard the words ‘Council’, ‘Red Alliance’, and ‘chip’.

She hurriedly retracted her thoughts and forced herself to calm down. She said vaguely, “Dad, what did you say? I didn't hear you clearly. It's too noisy here. Say it again. What happened to the Council?”

The middle-aged man on the other end of the phone sounded exasperated. He suppressed his anger and repeated coldly, “I said that the research team from Qing University used some unknown method to contact the Red Alliance. The Red Alliance suddenly changed their mind and stood on their side. The Council just informed me that they have obtained the proof provided by Qing University. They will have the results of their research in the future. From the looks of it, they seem to want to reject our suggestion and acknowledge the results of Qing University's research!”

This time, Qi Lanyin heard it clearly. Her heart sank and her face darkened. Covering the phone with her hand, she walked out quickly, lowered her voice, and said, “How did this happen? Didn't the Red Alliance say that they would stand up for us?”

Slim Waist Control had said that she was talented and had a chance to join the Red Alliance.

Slim Waist Control was one of the main members of the Red Alliance. If he wanted to support Hengfeng Corporation, who else would be more useful than him?

“I heard that... Sun seems to have come to the illegal district!”

“Did you say Sun?”

Qi Lanyin was stunned.
