

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1078

Indeed, Jiang Xianrou replied quickly.

[How about tomorrow? I want to treat everyone to a meal tomorrow. We haven't gathered in a long time.]

Zhang Yang smiled indifferently and restrained the disdain and frivolity in his gaze. As he took out his car key and opened the car door, he replied to the message on his phone with one hand. His attitude was similar to before.

[Tomorrow? I'm sorry, Miss Jiang. I might not have time tomorrow.]

Zhang Yang sent the message. He thought that with Jiang Xianrou's character, she would never reply to him again.

Unexpectedly, he had just gotten into the car and started the accelerator when the phone he had thrown aside rang again.

He was a little impatient. He picked it up and opened the message.

It was actually from Jiang Xianrou. [When are you free? I'll pick a time when you're free to ask the others out.]

"..."

Zhang Yang stared at his phone for a long time and confirmed that the WeChat profile picture was correct. It was Jiang Xianrou herself.

He slowly returned to his senses, but he only placed his phone aside again and did not care.

He had no intention of replying to the message at all!

At the same time, at Lan Pavilion.

.....

Jiang Xianrou had just reached the door.

More than ten minutes had passed since she sent the message, but there was no response from the other party. Zhang Yang's profile picture was also silent.

Her expression became ugly as she stopped in her tracks. She bit her lips until they turned white.

What did Zhang Yang mean?

Was he cutting ties with her?

“Xianrou, what’s wrong?” Seeing that she had suddenly stopped walking, the friend who had come with her stopped in confusion and tilted her head to ask, “Why did you suddenly stop?”

Jiang Xianrou’s fingers tightened around the phone. She pursed her lips and tried to control her emotions, but her face still revealed a little displeasure. She kept a straight face, but she was not in high spirits. “Nothing.”

Her gaze was still on her phone as she spoke. She was clearly distracted, still thinking about the rumors in the circle about Zhang Yang being close to Qin Si’s sister who came from Rao City.

Wasn’t Qin Si’s sister from Rao City referring to Qiao Nian?

“...” Jiang Xianrou frowned tightly. Her beautiful eyes contained a hint of discomfort and disbelief.

Zhang Yang was clearly avoiding her. Did he think that Qiao Nian could replace her status in this circle, so he wanted to hug her thigh first?

This was too ridiculous!

Her heart rose to her throat at this thought. Her mind was a mess and she couldn’t find a place to stay.

Convincing herself, she flipped through WeChat in frustration. Seeing Qin Si’s WeChat profile, her snow-white fingers paused for a moment before she clicked on it.

She had basically been sending unilateral messages to Qin Si ever since Qiao Nian’s school promotion banquet. His attitude toward her was much colder, and he only replied to her occasionally.

The latest message was still from three days ago. She had sent a message to ask him out for a meal, but Qin Si had not replied to her yet...

Jiang Xianrou’s beautiful eyes flickered, and she felt even more uncomfortable.

Coincidentally, her friend as she walked to the private room, “By the way, is school about to start?”

“Soon,” Jiang Xianrou replied casually as she looked at her phone.

Her friend did not care and said with interest, “In the past, Qing University would hold a school opening ceremony to welcome new students. Sometimes, they would even invite celebrities. What about this year? Will it be held?”

Jiang Xianrou did not speak.

Her friend tilted her head again and smiled. “Remember to save a seat for me if the school will be holding an opening ceremony this year.”
