

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1089

Little handsome boy...

This was the first time someone had added the word "little" in front of "handsome boy". He didn't have time to defend himself. That person came and left in a hurry. In the blink of an eye, her figure had already disappeared around the corner of the corridor.

At this moment, Gu San heard the conversation at the door. Seeing that he had not returned for a long time, he walked over and asked him loudly, "Young Master Qin, who's outside?"

"I don't know."

Qin Si looked at the box in his arms. For some reason, he felt a little concerned. He turned around and called out to him, "Come and help me move a box."

...

10 minutes later.

The box that had been left by the door was opened.

Qin Si, Gu San, and the others surrounded the open box. They were silent for a long time.

Several small boxes were neatly stacked in the box. The names of the various materials on the boxes were clearly written.

Beryllium, titanium, vanadium, and lanthanum...

It was all the rare metals they wanted, which was why they had come to the illegal district for the auction.

The auction had already reached the finale.

The price of the "Dragonfly" had already soared from eight to nine figures. Looking at the sounds of bidding at the auction venue, it should still be rising.

And someone had given them a box of such expensive things!

Gu San barely closed his mouth and looked deeply at Qin Si, who was also stunned. "Young Master Qin, where did you get this?"

Qin Si looked as if he had seen a ghost. He spread his hands. "I don't know."

"I went to answer it as soon as someone knocked on the door. I saw a woman when I opened the door. She didn't say who she was. She just said she was delivering something to us, then she dropped the box and left. I asked her who it was from, but she didn't say either."

“Oh, she did.” Qin Si’s expression was complicated. His throat was dry when he met Gu San and the others’ gazes. “She said it was from the God of Wealth.”

Gu San, Luo Qing, and Chen Zhu: “...”

God of Wealth!

However, the three of them turned around and looked at the box on the table. With the value of this box, they silently swallowed their complaints.

To be honest, it didn’t seem wrong to say that it was a gift from the God of Wealth.

Gu San still couldn’t figure out who sent them. He turned his head and looked at the only calm man in the private room. Unable to resist the curiosity in his heart, Gu San pursed his lips and asked, “Master Wang, do you know who sent these things?”

Ye Wangchuan had already hung up the video call.

He raised his eyebrows and his eyes darkened. He didn’t answer immediately, so Gu San thought he didn’t know. Then, he said slowly, “There are many people in the illegal area in the mineral business.”

Qin Si and Gu San were confused.

And so?

His tone was soothing. “But only one person has the technology to purify rare metals.”

Before Qin Si came, he had asked Bo Jingxing and done his homework. He immediately reacted. “You mean the legendary mining big shot in the illegal area?”

“Yes,” Ye Wangchuan replied indifferently.

Qin Si frowned again and touched the bridge of his nose. “That’s not right. Why would the other party give us such an expensive gift?”

“Master Wang, do you know that mining big shot?” He tilted his head and looked at the noble man on the sofa. This was the only possibility he could think of.

Ye Wangchuan did not answer his question directly. After thinking for a moment, he raised his chin and instructed him, “Go back and check the surveillance cameras in the corridor.”

He didn’t know the other party, but the other party had named him and given him something. Furthermore, the gift was coincidentally what they were looking for...

The coincidence was a little too much.

He had a vague theory. He still needed some information to prove it.
