

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1121

Qiao Nian was not as excited as Song Tian, and looked quite calm. She took the water bottle from Zhou Moyan, unscrewed the cap, and took a sip.

Song Tian was still looking at herself with an excited expression.

Screwing the cap and looking like she had a headache, she shrugged and smiled. "I don't know, let's see the effect of the performance later. We won't be the last place for sure."

"That's for sure!" Song Tian was so excited.

She silently added, "I think we did better than Jiang Xianrou and the others this time!"

Qiao Nian raised his eyebrows with a surprised expression but didn't say anything.

They were better than Jiang Xianrou, wasn't it an inevitable result?

...

The clash of the two performances was basically the biggest highlight of Qing University's celebration.

In particular, the reversal of the plot made the audience excited to watch it.

The show that followed had it the worst.

As soon as Qiao Nian's 'Nirvana' came out, there was no chance for the next performer to come out later. Basically, the audience was immersed in the comparison of the two identical shows.

The Physics Department and Architecture Department at the back all performed chorus programs.

There was no need to even watch.

It was hard to get to the end of the show.

After the end, Liang Conglin announced the final result.

In the past, it was not a good thing to be the first in the school celebration. Everyone was having fun. No one cared about the results of this kind of competition.

But this year was different.

The first would get funding from Tian Chen Corporation.

In addition, the audience also wanted to know who of the two Nirvanas came first.

Liang Lu's face was extremely ugly from the time the principal took to the stage to the announcement of the final result. She endured it until it was all over, then immediately left.

1

She didn't even go to the dinner with the Ministry of Culture later.

Her speed of walking was extremely fast. Everyone saw that her face was ashen, and her expression was so ugly.

Wen Ruxia also stood up and said to Cheng Wu with a smile as soon as she left, "Professor Cheng, I won't go to lunch at noon. I haven't seen my little nephew for a long time. He's in school, and I promised to have a meal with him and his friends. Help me inform Principal Liang when the time comes."

Chinese Medicine Faculty's 'Nirvana' was 1st place.

2

Next, Clinical Department's 'Nirvana' was 2nd place.

The result was as dramatic as the sequence of the show, and it was one after the other, but this time Jiang Xianrou and Liang Lu were behind them.

Cheng Wu looked at Liang Lu's back as she rushed away angrily. He could imagine how angry she was this time. He withdrew his gaze without a word.

The gentleman said to Wen Ruxia, "Okay. I'll go back and tell the principal."

It was normal for Wen Ruxia not to go to the dinner party, but the one from the Ye family did. He didn't know why he gave them enough face this year and carried the sedan chair to the school over and over again.

But it was a good thing that Ye Wangchuan was going.

The Ministry of Culture had to take a look at this master's face no matter what happened. In the future, many things would be easier for the school.

"Yes. Thanks."

Wen Ruxia picked up her bag and went to the back row to find Wen Ziyu after she finished speaking.

At the same time, she lowered her head and sent a QQ message to the contact on her mobile phone. They must have dinner near the school at noon. She tried to see if she could meet Qiao Nian.

There was no movement for a long time since the news was sent.

Wen Ruxia was a little disappointed, but not in a hurry.

Qiao Nian should be waiting for the results with her classmates at this moment. They would talk for a while before Qiao Nian had time to look at her phone.

After thinking about this, she thought about calling and booking a better place.
