

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1138

Tang Wanru saw the authentication information on Weibo clearly, and her face instantly turned green.

“Do you see clearly?”

At this stage, Qiao Nian still left her some face as an elder. Although her facial features were sharp, her attitude was indifferent, and she didn't call her Aunt, she still spoke to her respectfully.

“If so, please apologize to my dad.”

Adding a 'please' was giving enough face to everyone in the Jiang Family.

Tang Wanru suddenly looked at her, her eyes were full of shame and anger as if she wanted to eat her up!

She would never apologize!

“What exactly did you show her? Why do you keep asking your elder to apologize to you? This girl's upbringing is too poor.” Before she could figure out what was going on, her aunt nagged at her in dissatisfaction, accusing Qiao Nian of being in the wrong. “No matter what, Wanru is still her elder. How can she speak like this? She's really ill-mannered. I wonder what that family in Rao City taught her. She's useless now...”

“Cousin!” Jiang Zongjin's face sank. His eyes fixed on her coldly and his attitude was tough. “This is my family's family matter, please respect yourself!”

“You...” She originally wanted to take this opportunity to suck up to Jiang Zongnan's family to pave the way for her own children, but she was yelled at by Jiang Zongjin. She couldn't hold back her pride as an elder, and her old face darkened. She was flushed and wanted to flare up, but she didn't have enough confidence to really get angry at Jiang Zongjin.

She swung her hand and glared at Qiao Nian, who had never provoked her before. She vented her anger on the person she thought was a pushover. “Hmph, the younger one is like this, and the older one is also like this. No wonder people say that you can't hide that you're from the same family. If the upper beam isn't upright, the lower beam will be crooked. Xianrou isn't like her, who makes a fuss even when talking to her elders.”

“You don't have to watch it if you can't stand it,” Jiang Zongjin said coldly, ignoring her.

“You!”

.....

Great Aunt was angered by his indifferent attitude and was about to retort.

Old Master Jiang glanced over with a sharp look, brought his cane down, and said in a low voice, “Yuan Qing, I'll ask the driver to take you back if you continue to make trouble.”

Among the people present, Nie Mi was someone of the same generation as her, but not from the Jiang family.

Otherwise, Jiang Zongjin and Jiang Zongnan were a generation behind her.

So, even though she was from the same family, Great Aunt was there because of her seniority, and she kept making noise, lest Tang Wanru didn't see her 'performance'.

She didn't dare to be arrogant now that Old Master Jiang personally ordered her to shut up.

Her expression was ugly and stiff. The urge to shout angrily that she would leave was stuck in her throat, and she was worried that she would miss the benefits of this conflict between the brothers.

She didn't speak, and the living room was much quieter.

"What did Nian Nian show you?" Jiang Zongnan walked over and snatched the phone from Tang Wanru's hand. With a glance, he was stunned for a moment, then raised his head to look at Qiao Nian, then lowered his head again and flipped through the comments below.

Qiao Nian had been tagged many times on Weibo.

They were all asking her to come out and defend her rights.

Jiang Li and Zhui Guang's fans joined forces to control the comments when the matter was just fermented. Many fans thought that this account was Jiang Xianrou's own account and sent her many private messages.

At this moment, Jiang Zongnan clicked on some private messages.
