

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 114

The two from the Ye Family received gifts from his sister. The older one got a physical one and the young one got the promise of a gift.

However, Jiang Li received the same gift as Gu San. How could he tolerate such treatment?!

Qiao Nian wasn't a miser. Since he had asked about it already, she made him the same promise. "Same. I'll get you one when I find something suitable for you."

Jiang Li was quite handsome as well. She felt that she had seen him somewhere before. She just couldn't remember where.

Qiao Nian frowned. Since she couldn't remember, she stopped trying.

She then took out the bottle that contained the gum. She took a white one out and passed it to the kid.

"Here, have one, Chen Chen."

"Alright."

She would give him a sweet every time she came. Ye Qichen was used to that already. He obeyed her and put the gum into his mouth

The aroma from the sweet filled his mouth. It was so sweet that he closed his eyes.

It was really sweet.

It was even sweeter than the previous one she gave him.

Ye Qichen sucked on the sweet slowly. He then tilted his head and stared at Qiao Nian curiously. He asked, "Sister, why is this sweet orange-flavored?"

Even though the sweet was white, it was orange-flavored. So weird.

He had asked people to get it for him, but they failed.

The sweet-seller told him that orange sweet would be orange-flavored. Grape-flavored ones would be purple. There were no such things as white, orange-flavored sweets.

Qiao Nian thought that he didn't like the flavor. She then said after a while, "It's just a random flavor that I chose. Do you not like it? I'll change it next time."

The reason why the sweet had flavor was that she hated bitter things. Hence, even if this was medicine, she wanted to make it the least bitter as possible without hindering its effectiveness.

The flavor of the medication wasn't important to her. It was easy for her to change the flavor anyway, she just had to change the type of sugar used.

Ye Qichen shook his head and said, "I like the orange flavor. I like all your sweets."

Qiao Nian felt that he was young and would grow tired of it very quickly. She thought for a while and said, "I'll change up the flavors in the future."

She hadn't tried creating an apple-flavored one. It sounded great as well.

As they spoke, Ye Wangchuan realized that Qiao Nian had given Ye Qichen sweets again. Even though it was really small, he felt that it wasn't just a normal sweet.

He had tasked people to look for the sweet when Ye Qichen asked, but it wasn't available in Rao City.

...

Outside the ward.

Jiang Li dragged him out.

Even though he was quite tall, he was still shorter than Ye Wangchuan.

But he didn't care about it. He stood in front of him, frowning, then asked with a lowered voice, "Master Wang, what are you doing?"

"What do you mean?"

Ye Wangchuan's eyes turned red, and a strong sense of bloodlust emitted from him. He touched his chin, obviously angry. The bracelet on his hand was eye-catching.

Jiang Li knew him for a long time already. He asked directly, "What's going on between the both of you? I've only been away for half a month. Don't tell me that you're planning to lay your hands on her?"

He wasn't worried about asking Ye Wangchuan to take care of Qiao Nian previously.

Even though Nian Nian had a marriage arrangement with Master Wang, few knew about it. He wasn't even sure if they would go through with the arrangement.
