

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1168

“Young Master Qin called and asked us to fetch him on the way.” He looked up at the place they were reaching and said in surprise, “This is where Young Master Qin said to meet, should we turn around at this time?”

Ye Wuchuan leaned back, stretched his body, and instructed lazily, “Turn around. Let him take a taxi by himself.”

Gu San was speechless.

Old Master Wei’s death was too sudden, and they had also just received news of it.

Many people would definitely gather in the provincial hospital when the news spread.

The Qin family was related to the Wei family. Qin Si would definitely go to the provincial hospital, but if Young Master Qin took a taxi for this kind of thing...

Gu San couldn’t imagine Qin Si taking a taxi to go to the provincial hospital.

His lips moved, and he was about to say, “Will it be good?”

Then, he heard the low voice of the man in the passenger seat. “Qiao Nian is in the provincial hospital, and Old Master Jiang asked me to go over as soon as possible.”

Gu San immediately swallowed what he was about to say, and his expression turned surprised. “What! Miss Qiao is in the provincial hospital?”

Why was Miss Qiao there???

Gu San’s mind spun, and he immediately remembered that Qiao Nian had a good relationship with the young master of the Wei family. He instantly figured out the twists and turns.

He focused his entire heart on driving to the provincial hospital, completely forgetting that Qin Si was still waiting for them. He immediately turned around and ran a red light.

“Master Wang, I’ll drive faster.”

In the monitoring room of the provincial hospital.

Suddenly, a lot of people came in, and the security staff of the hospital were all driven out, leaving only the one in charge.

Wei Mingxuan, Wei Lou, Wei Ying, and Wei Ling were divided into two factions.

None of the Wei family's seven aunts and eight uncles dared to clarify which side they stood on, and they all followed up silently, waiting to see the results.

Shen Jingyan frowned all the way. His brows kept jumping wildly as he watched the girl's arrogant back walk into the monitoring room.

After Qiao Nian went in, he followed her, and finally couldn't help but lower his voice. "Nian Nian, how can you, a non-computer major, repair computers!"

Shen Jingyan pressed the bridge of his nose. "Don't make a fool of yourself. We can find a professional if you really want to fix the surveillance footage."

He felt uneasy for some reason, but he couldn't place his finger on what he felt uneasy about.

Shen Jingyan looked at the girl's flamboyant back. Her aura was exactly the same as when she faced Qiao Chen in the hospital last time. It was that kind of unrestrained evil spirit, as if she was afraid of no one. She was a little too fearless!

That feeling gave him the illusion that he was facing the muzzle of a gun.

Shen Jingyan didn't know why he had such a feeling, but he was used to being cautious. He ignored the gazes around him and said with a straight face, "Didn't the people Young Master Wei found just now ask the security guards? They said that the hospital's surveillance cameras have been formatted. How can they be restored so easily..."

Qiao Nian raised her brows, stood still, grabbed her peaked cap, and raised her hand to reveal a white wrist. She lowered the brim of the cap, a little amused. "Who told you that it cannot be restored? I can restore everything as long as the computer's C disk isn't damaged!"

This time it wasn't just Shen Jingyan, even Wei Ying and Liang Lu, who came in behind, heard her words, and their hearts skipped a beat.

Liang Lu was the most nervous, and her fists were clenched. She insisted. "I advise you not to be so stubborn. Let's talk after you've restored the surveillance footage. Who knows if you're just acting here for everyone to see."
