

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1180

Tang Wanru did not say anything and nodded. Her well-maintained face was elegant and calm as if she agreed with Jiang Xianrou's way of handling things.

She said nonchalantly, "That's true. Liang Lu is your teacher, after all. You're being kind."

She paused for a second and said coldly, "It depends on how Qiao Nian replies."

...

Rhine Apartments.

!!

Qiao Nian had just come out of the shower. She picked up her phone and went downstairs with her hair still wet.

In the living room downstairs.

Gu San had just made two cups of Bamboo Leaf Green Tea for Qin Si and Ye Wangchuan.

As soon as he placed the teacup in front of them, he looked up and saw Qiao Nian coming down the stairs. He immediately put down the cup and greeted her. "Miss Qiao."

The girl looked his way.

Gu San immediately asked, "What do you want to drink? There's black tea, green tea, milk tea, and coffee."

Qin Si had almost been hit by the teacup he had put down. He raised his eyebrows in disdain upon seeing his fawning. Gu San was the same. Did he have to lick Qiao Nian's boots like this?

However, he did not realize that his expression was no different from Gu San's when he looked up and saw the girl walking over. He smiled and asked, "Sister Qiao, you're down? Are you thirsty? I'll give you my cup of tea. I haven't touched it. I'll get Gu San to make me another cup."

Gu San looked at him silently. His gaze was the same as Qin Si's. "..."

Young Master Qin did not have to suck up to her like this!

Not only did Qin Si give up his cup of tea, but he also took the initiative to give up the center seat on the sofa. He chuckled. "Come, come, come. Boss, sit first."

Qiao Nian was speechless. She walked over with her phone but did not sit in the seat he had given her. She pulled out the stool at the bar and opened the bag she had placed there. She took out the untouched cold drink.

She casually shook the milk tea cup and said to them, “No need. I’ll drink this.”

“This is?” Qin Si glanced at the drink and touched his chin with one hand. He smiled sloppily. “Sister Qiao, have you been very poor recently?”

“Huh?” Qiao Nian had just inserted the straw. Hearing this, she looked up at him and leaned sideways lazily. “Why do you ask?”

“This drink,” Qin Si replied naturally. “Isn’t that drink only a few yuan a cup? It doesn’t match your status!”

This last part was the point he wanted to make.

With the big shot’s usual style, was it appropriate to drink something worth a few yuan worth?

At the very least, she had to have a cup of Starbucks!

Qiao Nian did not react. Her dark eyes looked at the drink again. In a good mood, she glanced at him sideways and said, “I think it’s delicious. Master Wang bought it.”

Qin Si was speechless.

What the hell?

At first, he did not believe it and almost blurted out, “When did Master Wang become so stingy? He can’t even bear to buy an expensive drink for his girlfriend.”

However, he swallowed his words. His neck shrank down and he immediately pretended to be dead. “Oh, it’s fine if Master Wang bought it.”

Ye Wangchuan stood up and walked over to get a hairdryer. He then walked to the girl and said in a low voice, “Come here. I’ll help you dry your hair.”
