

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1182

The older generation had worked hard step by step.

It was even more so for people like Old Master Wei and Old Master Ye.

“Damn!”

Qin Si felt uncomfortable.

“...” Qiao Nian didn’t say anything. She pursed her red lips and thought of the small notebook Old Master Wei had given her previously. She had already handed it to Wei Lou before leaving the provincial hospital.

!!

She had already checked the names in the small book. They should be all veterans.

Old Master Wei would sponsor these people every month.

It should be his private matter. The Wei family didn’t know.

Qiao Nian was silent for a long time before moving. She lowered her eyes and put down the milk tea, then only said, “The dead can’t be revived. It was only a matter of time before Old Master Wei died.”

Qin Si was related to Old Master Wei. Hearing this, he glanced at her and tried his best to adjust his mood. The corners of his mouth twitched, but he couldn’t hide his bad mood. “I know.”

Seeming to have thought of something again, he frowned and said, “Wei Ying wanted to keep the old man alive so that Wei Qi could still mingle in the circle in the future. Although her plan failed this time, Old Master Wei left in a hurry, and his matters were not prepared in advance. The Wei family will probably be in a mess during this period of time!”

He was telling the truth.

The Wei family had a big business. The old man had left so suddenly without saying a word.

He did not say who would be in charge in the future.

With Wei Ying’s competitive personality and a covetous son-in-law watching from the side, she might take advantage of the mess to snatch the family business.

Wei Mingxuan was a man. He couldn’t think of many things in such detail.

His wife had died early, leaving him a son.

How could they fight Wei Ying and the others?

Furthermore, Wei Mingxuan...

Thinking of his uncle, Qin Si's head hurt for no reason. His parents all said that Wei Mingxuan was a good person. He was upright and did things without hesitation. He had inherited Old Master Wei's unyielding character.

However, he looked down on him.

What era was it now?

Being upright was no longer a compliment.

These days, it was all about who was more shameless and who could go all out.

Wei Mingxuan was about to argue with Wei Ying when she threw a tantrum at his house and went to his office. It was really hard to say.

Qin Si was quite unwilling to see the Wei family fall into the hands of people like Wei Ying and Shen Jingyan.

He was distraught. He picked up the tea Gu San had made for him and drank it in one gulp.

"Uh... Cough, cough, cough!" Who knew that Gu San would use boiling water to make tea? He suddenly gulped it down, and Gu San did not have time to stop him.

Qin Si's handsome face turned red. He wanted to spit it out but could not. It was so hot that he couldn't swallow.

It took him a long time to recover. He looked at himself with a mournful expression. "Damn. Gu San, can you tell me next time the water is too hot? I almost died!"

Gu San kept a straight face and looked down. He held back his laughter and replied honestly, "Young Master Qin, I didn't expect you to drink it so quickly."

Qin Si was speechless.

Tea indeed had to be drunk elegantly.

For example, Old Master Ye was the kind of person who drank tea elegantly. He even burned incense and took a bath before drinking tea. It was very grand.

Of course, young people of his generation did not understand that.

In his eyes, the 10,000 yuan Bamboo Leaf Green Tea was similar to the free tea delivered by the restaurant.
