

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1195

Shen Qiongzhi stood there uneasily.

Her face began to burn.

She felt an unprecedented sense of humiliation. It was as if Qiao Nian had exposed her hypocrisy, revealed her true colors, and left her in a sorry state!

She was Embarrassed and dying to escape!

“Alright, the 15 minutes are up. I’m in a hurry, so I’ll leave first.” The girl pulled on her shoulder bag and looked at the two of them again. She said naturally, “Old Madam Qiao, Madam Qiao, don’t look for me in the future. There’s a high chance that we won’t ever sit together and have a drink again.”

The girl did not care how the two of them reacted after she finished speaking and walked away neatly and firmly. She did not look back once.

He Yujuan and Shen Qiongzhi were left standing in the cafe.

He Yujuan watched as the girl walked out of the cafe and muttered in a daze, “We’re letting her leave just like that? What will happen to Chen Chen?”

At this moment, Shen Qiongzhi only felt embarrassed and sorry for herself. Her mind was filled with what Qiao Nian had said before she left. She clenched her fists and turned to the murmuring old woman. “Mom, let’s go back to the hotel first.”

“I’m not going back.” He Yujuan was indignant. She knocked her walking stick on the ground and her face turned red. She looked angry and indignant. “Does she think that I don’t dare to go to her school to cause trouble? I’ll be blocking the school gate every day. I don’t believe that she really doesn’t care as much as she says.”

Why wouldn’t Qiao Nian care?!

She still had to study at Qing University in the future.

“What will her classmates think of her if they know that she’s vicious and won’t even let her sister off?”

He Yujuan did not believe it. She did not believe that Qiao Nian wasn’t afraid that she would cause trouble.

“And who’s the principal of Qing University? I’m going to look for him. I’ll sue him for accepting such a student. Qing University is a famous school, after all. Do they only accept students based on their results? This ingrate... This ingrate caused her sister to be unable to study and ruined her life. How can they accept such a person?”

“I must make the principal expel her!”

Many people in the café looked in their direction. At first, they kept their voices down and discussed quietly.

After Qiao Nian left, the discussions became louder.

“What kind of person is this? She keeps talking about going to our principal. Does she think that our principal is so free that he can meet anyone anytime? She must be joking!”

“I think this person is quite old but has low morals. Just now, I pitied her for crying her eyes out. Now it seems... she’s no different from a shrew. Qiao Nian is really unlucky to have met such a person.”

“I just heard them say something about a sister. I remember something. Before school started, there was a post on the school forum saying that a new school belle was coming in the first year. Her name seems to be Qiao Chen. This Qiao Chen has done many bad things and has even been on the news.”

“Qiao Chen? What did she do?”

Shen Qiongzhi heard the surrounding onlookers change the topic to Qiao Chen and started to expose what Qiao Chen had done.

She could not stay a moment longer.

She pulled He Yujuan, who was still making a scene, and said in a heavier tone, “Mom, let’s go back to the hotel first!”

“No, I’m going to look for the principal. We’ll go to Qing University first, and we’ll go to the principal’s office to make a fuss. I don’t believe it!” He Yujuan was so angry that she felt dizzy. She thought that Qing University was no different from First High School in Rao City. The parents could go in if they wanted to. They could talk to the principal if they wanted to.
