

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1212

He came back to his senses after his shock. "If you're sure that you want to choose Qiao Nian, I'll submit the name list. The organizing committee still has to review it. It might not work in the end."

"Principal Liang, just you wait and see. The person representing the country in this competition will definitely be Qiao Nian!" Du Mingwei said. "The person that Nanjing University submitted this year is definitely not as good as Qiao Nian!"

Who could compete with Qiao Nian's software?

No one could compare!

Including the Freshman King from Nanjing University next door this year. What was his name? He was also from Rao City. He seemed to be called Chen Yuan.

But so what?

There was no contest!

At night, the Qing University website announced that Qiao Nian's name was on the list they submitted. Qing University and Nanjing University were special.

They had two more spots than other universities.

Qing University submitted three names. The name list contained the names: Qiao Nian, Fu Ge, and Yin Wenzhi.

Qiao Nian's name was at the top of the list.

The school network exploded when this result came out.

To put it bluntly, the World Software Competition was a computer science competition. In the end, none of the people on the list were from this major.

Two of them were freshmen from the Chinese Medicine Faculty!

That night, the Chinese Medicine Faculty had evening self-study.

Qiao Nian didn't go.

But Song Tian, Zhou Moyan, and the others were all there.

They all congratulated Yin Wenzhi as she came in.

"I saw the list on the school website. Congratulations. You've been chosen."

“Yeah, Junior. I didn’t know you were so good with computers. You actually beat a bunch of computer majors and got one of the three spots.”

Faced with the compliments of the seniors from the same department, Yin Wenzhi held a computer science book and appeared very calm.

“I was just lucky,” she said modestly.

“This doesn’t just depend on luck. You must pass the test to be chosen!” A senior flattered her.

Yin Wenzhi smiled faintly and found a seat alone. She said softly, “Qiao Nian was also selected. This list is only temporary. It’s not certain who will represent the country in the end. I’m already very honored to be selected by the school.”

She spoke easily.

Song Tian, who was sitting diagonally in front of her, rolled her eyes in disgust. She said bluntly, “That’s right. It’s just a list of candidates now. It’s not certain who will be able to participate in the competition in the end! Tonight is Professor Shen’s professional class. There’s no need for you to bring a computer book, right? Isn’t it possible? Then, let’s wait for the results before preparing. There’s no need to be so anxious!”

Yin Wenzhi’s face turned pale.

She dug her nails into the computer book. Her face turned pale after being mocked by Song Tian. She wanted to scold back, but she felt that it was demeaning to argue with someone like Song Tian.

Fortunately, Song Tian only mocked her a little and did not continue to make things difficult for her. She turned around and spoke to Zhou Moyan and the others.

Yin Wenzhi took a deep breath and suppressed the dissatisfaction in her heart. With a straight face, she returned to her usual cold appearance and focused on flipping through the books she had borrowed from the library.

She had never treated Qiao Nian as a competitor.

Apart from Fu Ge, whom she had worked hard to surpass, Qiao Nian was not worthy of being compared to her.

She suspected that Qiao Nian had only gotten on the list because she had used her connections.

Yin Wenzhi turned a page in frustration and forced herself to concentrate on the book again.
