

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1264

Jiang Xianrou did not answer immediately. Instead, she waited for a long time. When the call almost hung up, she picked up expressionlessly. "Hello, Brother."

She thought that he had called to tell her about Qiao Nian. Unexpectedly, Jiang Yao's tone was no different from usual, as if he didn't know that Qiao Nian had entered the finals of the World Software Competition.

"Xianrou, I saw the message you sent me. You passed the initial review of Master Cheng's laboratory?"

Jiang Xianrou's ugly expression finally turned a little better at the mention of this good news. She forced a smile and softened her tone. "Yes."

"Congratulations!"

It was obvious that Jiang Yao was quite happy for her.

Jiang Xianrou's terrible mood finally improved a little. She lifted the hair by her ear and put her hand down again. She said quite modestly, "I just passed the first trial."

"Seven or eight others passed with me. Master Cheng will pick two of us. In the end, only two can enter the laboratory. I don't know if I can be chosen by Master Cheng yet."

Jiang Yao seemed to be very confident in her and smiled. "Don't worry, you can definitely enter Master Cheng's laboratory with your strength!"

Jiang Xianrou's mood finally improved and she revealed a proud smile. She held her phone and thought of the dinner later, then said, "Brother, are you free later?"

"What's the matter?"

Jiang Xianrou pursed her lips and her eyes darkened before she said, "I'm inviting a friend to play at the Half Mountain Clubhouse. If you're free, do you want to come over and play with us? My friend hasn't seen you yet. I can introduce you to them."

Jiang Yao did not think too much about it and asked her strangely, "Don't you usually play with Young Master Qin and the others? Young Master Qin isn't going today?"

He was not familiar with Qin Si and the others.

Unlike Jiang Li, who was in the same circle as them.

Jiang Yao had a reserved personality. He was more like Jiang Zongnan and did not get along with Qin Si and the others.

However, he knew Qin Si and had seen him a few times in the past.

Therefore, subconsciously asked about him when he heard that she wanted to introduce him to her friends.

Jiang Xianrou's face, which had finally softened, instantly turned pale. Her fingers tightened until her knuckles turned pale. She pursed her lips and whispered, "Him? He has something on today and can't come over."

"Haven't you always been on good terms with them? How can they not come when you passed Master Cheng's laboratory's first trial?" Jiang Yao still didn't realize that he had accidentally poked his sister's sore spot. He was about to get to the bottom of it.

Jiang Xianrou was even more embarrassed by his question. Her throat dried as if someone was strangling her. She replied with difficulty, "Not all of them. Some friends will come! It's fine if they can't come, but I can't skip the celebration."

Jiang Yao belatedly heard the frustration in her tone and finally stopped asking. He immediately said, "Where did you say the dining place was?"

Jiang Xianrou said, "Half Mountain Clubhouse."

Jiang Yao knew this clubhouse. It was one of the more famous wealthy clubs in Beijing. They had many facilities.

It also occupied a large area.

There were private golf courses and equestrian fields. Many second-generation heirs in Beijing liked to go there to play.

The Half Mountain Clubhouse was a private club like Lan Pavilion. Only VIP clients could enter. Not everyone could play there.

Jiang Xianrou had always played with the top circles in Beijing in the past. Of course, she was a VIP of the Half Mountain Clubhouse.

Jiang Yao nodded and did not say anything else. He asked for Jiang Xianrou's location and said, "Wait for me there. I'll drive over to pick you up."
