

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1281

They were here to ask Qiao Nian to explain why she was at the clubhouse in the afternoon, who she was with, and who the owner of the sports car was.

Why did it become her apologizing to Qiao Nian?

“Apologize.” Jiang Yao’s handsome face darkened. He was a little oppressive when he was angry.

Seeing that he was angry, Jiang Xianrou pinched her palm and turned her head away. “I don’t know why I’m apologizing.”

“Didn’t you hear what your sister said just now? At your school’s anniversary, you stole someone else’s identity and publicized it online. After that, not only did you not appear to explain, but you also allowed the passers-by on Weibo to attack your sister. One of them was even a junior. Have you apologized to Qiao Nian?”

!!

Jiang Yao put on a fair attitude and demanded forcefully, “Apologize first. Apologize to your sister.”

This was also what he wanted Old Master Jiang and Jiang Zongjin to see. He didn’t want the two elders in the family to think that he was targeting Qiao Nian.

Actually, his original intention was for Qiao Nian’s sake. He was worried that his little cousin would go astray.

After all, Qiao Nian was even more beautiful than Xianrou. As a man, he knew very well how attractive Qiao Nian was.

This kind of beauty was rare in Beijing.

Qiao Nian had never seen the world before and had always stayed in a small city. He was afraid that his little cousin would be deceived.

She was a student now, and students should focus on their studies. He didn’t even approve of Qiao Nian entering the entertainment industry like Jiang Li.

In his opinion, studying was the right way!

Qiao Nian was talented in her studies and should cherish her talent. She shouldn’t live her life in a daze and waste her youth.

“No!” Jiang Yao had thought it through, but Jiang Xianrou was not cooperative. Her beautiful face was so cold that it was like ice. “I have nothing to apologize for. She never told me before that she was Zhui Guang and played me like a monkey. Why should I apologize to her?”

Jiang Yao’s eyebrows moved slightly. He raised his hand as if he was about to attack in anger.

Playing with the orange in her hand, the girl indifferently stopped them upon seeing this scene. "Alright, I don't need you to apologize. Don't disturb me in the future! We'll go our separate ways. You don't have to greet me when we meet in the future."

After saying that, her gaze landed on Jiang Xianrou.

Qiao Nian didn't say much, but she was quite domineering. "Jiang Xianrou, don't provoke me in the future. I'm not to be trifled with."

"..." Jiang Xianrou's eyelids twitched. She didn't know what she meant, but she felt vaguely uneasy. She had a feeling that Qiao Nian wouldn't let this go.

Her heart beat faster and her eyes were filled with shock and anger, but she didn't know what she wanted.

Jiang Xianrou looked at the girl's deep eyes and felt frustrated and uneasy.

What was Qiao Nian trying to do?!

Wangyuan Road, in the building of the Jiang Corporation.

The man in the suit came out of the company conference room after the meeting.

His suit was a designer one, tailored to fit him. He wore a black suit with black pants and looked high-spirited.

"President Jiang."

"Hello, President Jiang."

On the way back, Jiang Zongnan was greeted by the employees.

He had been in a good mood recently. Although his personality was relatively reserved, he couldn't help but nod in response.

He was in such a good mood that anyone could tell.

An employee went to the pantry to get water after he left and asked the person beside him softly, "Hey, do you know what's been going on recently? I bumped into President Jiang on the way. President Jiang is in a good mood. Did something good happen to the company?"
