

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1306

He wasn't afraid of anyone, but he didn't have what it took to say that he could continue hiding Eagle Eye's location if the other party was Sun.

However, Eagle Eye had joined Tian Chen and was under Mr. Lu.

The technician was so frightened that he broke out in a cold sweat. He thought he was going to be finished here today. Unexpectedly, the man in the wheelchair was only silent for a few seconds before he said, "You don't have to worry about it."

What?

The technician looked up sharply, thinking he had heard wrong. At the same time, he breathed a sigh of relief. His computer was black when he looked back.

The IP-hiding program that he was so proud of had been deciphered by the other party in 10 minutes. The other party had hacked his computer.

There was some silence.

It was no longer a question of whether he cared or not. It was beyond his control.

At the cafeteria.

The girl's delicate eyebrows looked at the location that had been locked on the map. Under Bo Zheng and Deputy Captain Luo's gazes, she typed a string of codes unhurriedly. After a while, a piece of information popped up on the screen.

"There's a boat going to international waters in Shuangjiang City at 11:15. He should be escaping on that boat. This is his new ID."

Qiao Nian enlarged the identity card to make it easier for Bo Zheng and the others to take photos. She reminded them impatiently, "Eagle Eye has already bought a ticket for this ferry. It's 10:30 now. You still have 45 minutes to catch him. He won't go far if he wants to take the boat. He should be hiding somewhere in the lounge at the docks. Find him yourself."

Bo Zheng took out his phone and took a photo of the screen. Then, he noted down the exact location. Without another word, he said in a low voice, "Nian Nian, thank you. I'll treat you to a meal when I come back!"

She looked up and said to Ye Wangchuan, "Your little girlfriend is not bad. Cherish her."

"I know." Ye Wangchuan nodded. There were stars in his eyes. He glanced in the girl's direction and did not say anything more.

Bo Zheng nodded and did not say anything else as he was in a hurry. He glanced at Qiao Nian again and gave her a deep look. Then, he turned around and said to Ye Wangchuan concisely, "I have something to attend to now. I won't delay any further. We'll talk when I get back."

Deputy Captain Luo was also in a hurry to catch the criminal. After Qiao Nian found out about Eagle Eye, he couldn't wait to return to his seat and pick up his cell phone and jacket.

Before he left, he passed by the girls' seats and paused again. The man's back was quite stiff, but he still stopped and touched the back of his head in embarrassment. He apologized in a low voice, "Miss Qiao, I'm sorry about earlier. I shouldn't have spoken like that."

At this point, he picked his nose uncomfortably. "I thought you didn't know anything and came over to make fun of us. That's why my words were quite unpleasant. I don't mean any harm. Don't take it to heart. I'll definitely apologize to you properly another day."

He was in the wrong in the end. Captain Bo was right. He shouldn't have judged a book by its cover. He assumed that she must be incompetent just because she was young. Wasn't he slapped in the face in the blink of an eye?

However, Deputy Captain Luo felt that it was worth it.

He was willing to be slapped a hundred times as long as he could catch Eagle Eye!

Qiao Nian did not answer him directly. She only turned her cap and shut the laptop in front of her. "Catch him first, then we'll talk."

Seeing her reaction, Deputy Captain Luo blushed and became even more embarrassed. He promised in a loud voice, "Don't worry, I'll definitely catch him."

He was in a hurry. After apologizing briefly to Qiao Nian, he hurriedly left the coffee shop with Bo Zheng.

After a while, the car parked outside drove away.
