

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1339

The man's voice was cold. His tone was usually slightly lower when he spoke, giving off a sharp feeling.

At this moment, his voice was low and hoarse. It was enough to make people break out in cold sweat even if he was not angry.

Jiang Yao was the first to bear the greatest pressure.

Ye Wangchuan gave off a lot of pressure. A thin layer of sweat appeared on his forehead and his back. His handsome face was flushed red.

He was also a proud son of heaven. When had he ever been suppressed like this?

Jiang Yao's face turned pale. He clenched his fists and wanted to retort, but he didn't dare. His palms were sweaty, and his nails hurt from clenching them. He didn't even dare to fart.

Ye Wangchuan did not see how bad their expressions were. He said indifferently, "Director Jiang, go back and think about it. My patience is limited. Don't delay it for too long."

Jiang Zongnan opened his mouth several times, but in the end, he couldn't break through the fear in his heart. He could only give up.

...

At the same time.

In a sanatorium in Beijing.

Jiang Weishang had heard from Nie Mi that Qiao Nian's USB drive had been maliciously damaged.

He only asked someone to casually find out that the Zhu family was in a hurry to find connections and wanted to get Zhu Yuanhao out of the police station.

In addition, Director Zhu had also announced to the public that he would not let Jiang Xianrou have it easy.

Jiang Weishang almost lost his breath. His mind went blank, and a string that had been tense all this time snapped.

If the nurse who was taking care of him hadn't noticed in time and quickly given him a sedative and an oxygen transfusion, Jiang Weishang wouldn't have survived.

This incident happened so suddenly that the sanatorium did not have time to inform his family.

Fortunately, Old Master Jiang had been taking the "health supplements" Qiao Nian had given him during this period of time. His body was relatively strong. After a flurry of resuscitation, his various indicators stabilized again.

The doctor wanted to inform Jiang Zongjin and Jiang Zongnan to come over, but he was stopped by Old Master Jiang.

He didn't ask anyone to come.

He sat alone in the ward for an hour until the sun was setting and it was almost dark outside.

Seeming to come back to his senses, Old Master Jiang found his phone in the drawer, took it out, and made a call.

"Hello, are you there?"

Su Huaiyuan had just finished his meeting and returned to his residence.

He was quite surprised to receive a call from him. He asked, "Why did you call me? What's wrong?"

Old Master Jiang looked tired, but they were clearer than anyone else's. He pressed the space between his eyebrows and said softly, "I want you to help me witness something."

"What's the matter? Why are you in such a hurry?" Su Huaiyuan had just brewed a cup of nourishing tea. He turned back and walked towards the living room, smiling. "It can't be related to Nian Nian, right?"

Old Master Jiang was silent for a minute before continuing, "No, it has something to do with my other granddaughter. Can you come to Beijing?"

"Now?" Su Huaiyuan looked up at the sky.

It would take him at least two hours to get there. It would be dark by the time he arrived.

Unexpectedly, Jiang Weishang insisted, "Right now. Come over immediately. I'll wait for you. I still have to call Nie Mi and the others."

Su Huaiyuan realized that he was very serious when he heard this. He might have something important to tell. He only thought for a few seconds and then immediately said, "Alright, I'll get someone to book the tickets."

"Okay."
