

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1366

Jiang Yao straightened his legs, opened the door, and got into the car. He put the phone to his ear.

"Hello, Young Master Xu."

Xu Jishen had always been well-informed.

He asked concisely as soon as the call went through, "I heard that your sister is in the hospital? Which hospital is she in? How's her condition?"

Jiang Yao took out another cigarette from the drawer and lit it. He narrowed his eyes anxiously and said softly, "Beijing First Hospital's emergency ward."

His eyes narrowed, his gaze casual. "The situation... I don't know yet."

"You don't know?" Xu Jishen asked him in confusion, "That's not right. Your family didn't go to the hospital?"

Jiang Yao raised his head and looked at the few pedestrians at the entrance of the hospital. He replied calmly, "Yes, my father went in to ask the doctor about the situation. My mother and Xianrou don't have time to come over, so I waited for my uncle and the others to come. It's just these few people. Why?"

He felt that Qiao Nian had only gotten into a small accident. Her life shouldn't be in danger.

It was just a small car accident. There was no need to make such a fuss, make it look like it was a big accident. After all, who didn't suffer a little accident and was scratched?

Xu Jishen was stunned when he said "just a few people". After a long while, he replied, "Nothing. I was driving here when Sister Qiao got into an accident. I should come and visit too. I'll be there in a while. I'll call you when I arrive."

Jiang Yao frowned and was about to say that there was no need to make a special trip.

Xu Jishen had already said hurriedly, "That's all. I'll hang up first."

"Hey, Xu..." Xu Jishen had already hung up before he could refuse.

Jiang Yao put down his phone impatiently and stared at it. His slightly furrowed brows furrowed even more tightly.

He felt that Qiao Nian was just a young girl who had gotten into a moderate car accident. There was no need to make such a big fuss.

There was really no need for Xu Jishen to specially visit Qiao Nian with his status!

Jiang Yao put down his phone and looked up as soon as thought that. Then, a car stopped in front of him.

The license plate number was very ostentatious.

Beijing. 888888.

Only one person in Beijing could use this license plate number—Ye Wangchuan!

His heart skipped a beat as he focused on it.

Someone got out of the black-flagged car. The man looked sideways. He had a high nose bridge and overly distant eyes. He held the car keys in his hand and walked straight into the hospital without stopping.

Jiang Yao was still in a daze.

Soon, more cars arrived at the entrance one after another and stopped not far from him.

Qin Si, Zhang Yang, Ye Lan, Old Master Ye, and some of the branches of the Ye family came. In a short while, they blocked the small parking space at the entrance of the city hospital.

Jiang Yao had never expected so many people to come to check on Qiao Nian.

His eyelids fluttered fiercely. His hands tightened on the steering wheel. His back was already tense.

There were already quite a few people in front.

Jiang Yao thought it was almost over.

He didn't expect more cars to arrive one after another.

Nie Mi.

Liang Conglin.

He could still make sense of these people.

Jiang Yao saw the back and did not expect to see a rather unbelievable person—Su Huaiyuan!

Xu Jishen's grandfather!

Now his lips paled.

His mind went blank. He was stunned and unable to recover.
