

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1426

Qin Si: "..."

Then, why did you just say that you smeared something on the hard drive?!

Not only Qiao Chen, but Qin Si, Bo Jingxing, Zhang Yang, and the others also didn't expect Qiao Nian to do this.

They all believed that Qiao Nian had smeared the chemical reagent on the hard drive.

Who knew that she was just joking?

The entire room was silent. Even Ye Wangchuan looked surprised. He glanced at the girl's figure and then looked away. His thin face was half-closed, revealing some interest.

Wasn't she afraid that she would ruin Qiao Chen?

Qiao Chen was indeed ruined.

The skin on the back of her right hand hurt so much that she couldn't think straight. But none of this could compare to the humiliation Qiao Nian had brought her.

Her not-so-pale face turned the color of a pig's liver. She held her breath for a long time before saying, "You..."

Qiao Nian ignored her. Her eyes were cold as they met hers and she said sharply, "Qiao Chen, you haven't had time to deal with the hard drive you stole, have you?"

Qiao Chen's blood instantly turned cold. She tried her best to avoid eye contact again. "I told you, I didn't take anything from you!

"I went in to find you because I wanted to make peace. I came out when I found out you weren't inside."

She seemed to have found her backbone and was a little less nervous. "As for why I was in there for three minutes, that was because I was waiting for you. I thought you'd be back soon. I went out later when I saw you hadn't returned.

"That's what happened. It's not like what you think." Qiao Chen took a deep breath and continued, "No matter how much I hate you, I know that you're representing the country in this competition. I can't take your hard drive on purpose. If you lose face, we'll lose face with you. I understand this."

"Pfft." Qiao Nian chuckled. Her dry eyes stared at her as she returned to her seat. She didn't listen to Qiao Chen's nonsense at all and continued, "Time was too tight, you shouldn't have been able to find a chance to deal with the stolen hard drive. You're afraid that I'll find it, but you don't want to throw it in the trash can nearby... Let me guess where you've hidden it?"

Qiao Chen's heart raced and was about to rush out of her throat. "I told you, I didn't steal anything from you."

"In the bag?"

Qiao Chen clenched her fists nervously, but her expression was still calm. She took the initiative to open her bag. "You can check if you don't believe me."

Qiao Nian looked her up and down. The satchel she had brought today was especially small and could only fit one phone. "That's not right. Your bag can't fit the hard drive. Besides, with your personality, you wouldn't be so stupid as to put something you stole in your bag."

Qiao Chen was about to go crazy from her torture. Her beautiful face turned pale. She tightened her grip on her bag and looked up. "Qiao Nian, what do you want? I told you, I didn't take anything from you—"

Qiao Nian's gaze landed on Shen Qiongzhi's handbag before Qiao Chen could finish speaking. She said to the security guard, "Help me check if there's a hard drive in that bag."

"Okay, Miss Qiao."

The tall security guard received Qiao Nian's order and was about to snatch the bag from Shen Qiongzhi.

Qiao Chen's expression changed. She cared more about Shen Qiongzhi's bag than her own bag. She ignored her scalded right hand and wanted to snatch it. "What are you doing? Get lost!"
