

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1431

Qiao Nian put down her phone and lowered her eyes. "Yes, I've already finished my work in Rao City. There's nothing to do if I stay. I might as well go back."

Qin Si thought so and immediately said, "Alright, I'll go back with you."

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows and was about to say, "No need..."

Qin Si immediately smiled and said, "Sister Qiao, it's settled then. We'll go back together in the afternoon. Anyway, we came over to cheer you on. It's meaningless for us to stay since you're going back. Why don't we go back together?"

Zhang Yang took out his phone and said eagerly, "I'll book a flight."

In a few words, they decided to leave together. Qiao Nian had no choice. Actually, she was more inclined to go back by herself.

There were too many people, especially Qin Si.

She could imagine the noise around her ears on the way back.

However, Zhang Yang had already called to book a plane ticket. She frowned and put her phone back without saying anything else.

"Done."

Zhang Yang booked all their tickets in less than five minutes. He had a smile on his handsome face and was very amiable. "Young Master Qin, Miss Qiao, I booked a flight at four in the afternoon. It's noon now. Let's eat something and go over slowly. The time is very suitable."

He was the most inconspicuous person in the small circle, if not for him being smart enough to get close to Qin Si.

With Zhang Yang's identity and background, he would definitely not be able to enter this small circle.

Even so, Zhang Yang's family background was one of the best outside. He could settle something as simple as booking a plane ticket with a phone call.

If not for the fact that Qiao Nian was usually too low-key, getting a private jet wouldn't be a problem for him.

After Zhang Yang booked the tickets, he put down his phone and asked her, "Miss Qiao, at noon..."

However, before he could finish speaking.

20 meters straight ahead, a tall man walked towards them.

Zhang Yang's attention was immediately attracted to that person.

The blond man looked very young. His handsome face was exceptionally attractive under his curly blond hair, and his skin was also fair.

At first glance, he felt that he had seen this face somewhere before.

Zhang Yang could not remember where he had seen her before.

He was puzzled when he suddenly heard Qin Si's surprised voice. "Aiden? Didn't he withdraw from the competition? Why is he here?"

"Aiden?" Zhang Yang tilted his head and said with a puzzled expression, "Young Master Qin, are you talking about the contestant from Country D who withdrew from the competition?"

Qin Si was still puzzled. "Ah, who else could it be? I thought he quit early because of an emergency. I didn't expect him to still be in Rao City... Then, why did he quit?"

Qiao Nian narrowed her eyes. No one noticed that she had raised her hand to pull down the brim of her cap, lowering it even further.

Very low-key.

It was obvious she didn't want to be noticed.

"Who is he looking for?" Bo Jingxing crossed his arms and pushed his gold-rimmed glasses up his nose. He glanced at the three of them and asked in a low voice, "Do any of you know him? I think he's here for us."

Gu San, Qin Si, and Zhang Yang were all dumbfounded.

Who the f*ck knew him!

When Bo Jingxing saw that the three of them were shaking their heads like idiots, his gaze couldn't help but fall on the girl whose cap was lowered and had one hand in her pocket. Just her side profile was quite cool.

He had the answer in his heart.

The person Aiden was looking for was—Qiao Nian.
