

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1433

Tang Wanru was wearing a scarf, and her dignified face was expressionless. Only when she heard Qiao Nian's name did she frown slightly.

He asked Jiang Zongnan, "Hubby, did you agree?"

Jiang Zongnan placed his phone on the table and straightened his back. He answered her without thinking, "How could I agree? Last time, I was in a mess with my father and the others because of these matters. It's fine with Zhu Yuanhao, but the Qiao family doesn't know us. How could I speak up for her?"

A trace of coldness flashed across Tang Wanru's eyes. "That's true."

"Nian Nian has tolerated the Qiao family for a long time. This time, she let the police take Qiao Chen away. It's definitely because Qiao Chen did something that she couldn't tolerate."

Jiang Zongnan sighed. "No matter what, I can't speak up for outsiders."

Therefore, he rejected Shen Jingyan and said that he wouldn't get involved in this matter.

Shen Jingyan was not very happy.

However, the Jiang family didn't have much contact with the Shen family. Whether the other party was happy or not had nothing to do with him.

Just as Jiang Zongnan was thinking this, he heard Tang Wanru say, "Xianrou has entered the Pharmacy Association this time and acknowledged the Countess as her godmother. I want to properly organize this banquet."

"What do you think about us setting the table at the Imperial Mansion?"

Previously, at Qiao Nian's school promotion banquet, Old Master Jiang had set up a few tables for Qiao Nian in the Imperial Mansion.

Tang Wanru didn't want her daughter's filiation banquet to be lower than this.

At the very least, it had to be on the same level as Qiao Nian's school promotion banquet. Only then would she feel better.

Otherwise, just the thought of Qiao Nian being lucky enough to win first place in the software competition made her feel uncomfortable.

"It's also a joyous occasion for Xianrou to acknowledge the Countess as her godmother. To our family, the benefits outweigh the disadvantages. I want to organize it well."

Tang Wanru took the tie from the servant and carefully tied it for him. She then patted the tie knot and smiled.

"A lot has happened to Xianrou recently. It's rare for something good to happen. I still hope to get rid of her bad luck."

She said “get rid of her bad luck” very clearly.

She was just short of saying that “Qiao Nian” was their family’s bad luck.

Jiang Zongnan frowned and glanced at her.

Tang Wanru didn’t back down. It was as if what she said just now was not directed at anyone.

“And putting aside the matter of Xianrou acknowledging her godmother, it’s a good thing that she was able to enter the Pharmacy Association successfully this time.

“You also know the Pharmacy Association’s status in the medical world. She was chosen by the Pharmacy Association to be one of them. It’s much better than learning from Liang Lu. It can be considered a glory for the family.”

Tang Wanru restrained the light in her eyes and handed Jiang Zongnan his briefcase, then said softly, “Jiang Yao is in Tian Chen, and Xianrou has also entered the Pharmacy Association. Apart from Jiang Li, the three children at home are all very hardworking.

“As parents, if nothing else, it’s not too much to throw her a filiation banquet. Zongnan, don’t you think so?”

Jiang Zongnan took the briefcase from her. After thinking for a moment, he said, “It’s not that I don’t want to hold a filiation banquet for her. We definitely have to hold this filiation banquet. It’s just that who we invite to attend is a problem. We need time to prepare.”

Tang Wanru had already expected him to say that.

“I’ve thought about it. We’ll definitely have to invite our relatives to Xianrou’s filiation banquet. Great Aunt’s family will definitely have to be invited. As for the rest, we’ll invite some of your business partners. Jiang Yao can invite Young Master Xu. In addition, I know some friends. Xianrou has friends to invite herself. I’ll ask her when the time comes.”
