

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1436

Jiang Xianrou had offended Young Master Ye and was about to be expelled from this circle.

Who would have thought that the Jiang family was so capable? They found a backer for Jiang Xianrou and used their connections to stuff her into the Pharmacy Association...

After all... the Pharmacy Association was different from the International Medical Organization. It was not just about reputation. There were also tangible benefits.

There were too many powerful masters in the Pharmacy Association.

If Jiang Xianrou could enter the Pharmacy Association, it meant that she had their support.

In addition, Jiang Xianrou was able to make a comeback with the Countess who was about to become her godmother.

Who else would have come out to play with her today?

Ruan Sisi looked at Jiang Xianrou's departing figure and curled her lips in disdain. She felt that the other party was too pretentious and did not want to care anymore. She leaned over and played dice with the others...

Outside the private room.

Jiang Xianrou did not go to the washroom as she had said after she left the private room. Instead, she walked out of the corridor.

The weather in Beijing was perfect.

The sun shone brightly on the camphor trees. The sky was cloudless, like an azure mirror. A few birds would occasionally fly by.

Jiang Xianrou held her phone and looked along the way after she went out.

She had sent Ye Wangchuan three WeChat messages in the past two days.

All three were inviting the other party to her filiation banquet.

However, two days passed and Ye Wangchuan did not reply.

Jiang Xianrou found a quiet place and finally couldn't hold it in anymore. After some thought, she found the phone number in her address book and called Jiang Li.

"Toot-toot."

It rang a dozen times, and she was about to hang up when Jiang Li answered.

When he picked up, he said in the same cold tone, "Hello? Why are you calling me? What's the matter?"

A look of humiliation flashed across Jiang Xianrou's oval face, but she hid it very well. She tried her best to calm her breathing and said, "Brother, I'm holding a filiation banquet in a few days. Do you have time?"

"I told my agent to clear the day." Jiang Li couldn't believe she'd call him about that. "You just wanted to know if I had time that day?"

"I have one more thing to ask of you." Jiang Xianrou didn't beat around the bush with him. She made up her mind, gritted her teeth, and said in a low voice, "I... I wanted to invite Master Wang and the others to dinner that day."

Sure enough, Jiang Li said nothing.

Jiang Xianrou took a deep breath and continued humbly, "Brother, can you help me call Master Wang and the others? You know that I had a conflict with them because of some matters previously. I sent a message to Master Wang, but he didn't reply to me. This filiation banquet is very important to me. I also hope to invite a few more people. It will be very embarrassing for me if no one comes..."

"I want to apologize to Master Wang and the others in person and reconcile. Brother, you have a good relationship with them. Can you help me?"

She was usually arrogant and spoke on her high horse.

For once, she showed weakness.

Jiang Li didn't know how to deal with it for a moment. He was silent for a full half a minute before his tone softened. He asked her, "Xianrou, did you invite Nian Nian to your filiation banquet?"

There was some silence.

Jiang Xianrou felt as if she had been slapped in the face. Her expression froze, and her throat seemed to be blocked. She couldn't say a word.

Jiang Li knew that she definitely hadn't invited Qiao Nian from her silence.
