

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1440

He was so happy that he couldn't stop grinning, as if he was afraid that Qiao Nian wouldn't ask for anything. "Take a look first. Tell Grandpa what you like. I'll take you to buy it."

"Okay."

Old Master Jiang was afraid that she would only agree verbally and not look for him. He thought for a moment and said, "Take a photo of whatever you like and send it to me. I'll buy it for you or transfer the money to you on WeChat."

Qiao Nian's heart suddenly softened, as if a warm current was flowing through it. She nodded at him solemnly. "I know. I'll tell you if there's anything I like."

"Good. Don't forget it."

Old Master Jiang was satisfied.

Seeing that Qiao Nian was still peeling oranges for him, he recalled that he had received a call from Jiang Zongnan not long ago. After hesitating for a moment, he looked at the girl and said softly, "Many things have happened at home while you were away. Your cousin... Xianrou has entered the Pharmacy Association."

Jiang Xianrou entered the Pharmacy Association?

Since when did the Pharmacy Association have such a low threshold?

She remembered that the Pharmacy Association was famous all over the world for its abnormal selection conditions. Could it be that she had not paid much attention to the Pharmacy Association in the past two years and the standards had lowered?

Qiao Nian raised an eyebrow but didn't stop peeling oranges for him. She said lazily, "Congratulations."

Seeing her reaction, Old Master Jiang thought that she was too young and did not understand the Pharmacy Association's status. He said, "You might not know the situation of the Pharmacy Association. You know your teacher, Mr. Huang, right?"

"Okay." Qiao Nian finished the remaining half of the orange and placed it on the fruit plate. She wiped her fingers clean with a tissue and looked up at him. "I know."

Only then did Old Master Jiang continue, "Mr. Huang is already a God-like existence in the country. He's also one of the honorary presidents of the International Medical Organization. With Mr. Huang's status in the medical world, he can only barely enter the Pharmacy Association. You can imagine how difficult it is to enter the Association.

"I'm also surprised that your cousin can enter the Pharmacy Association this time."

Old Master Jiang's tone was a little solemn as he looked at Qiao Nian. "But since she can enter the Pharmacy Association, Nian Nian, what about you? Do you have any thoughts?"

Qiao Nian raised her eyebrows, not quite understanding what he meant.

Old Master Jiang rubbed the space between his eyebrows and realized that he had made things a little serious. He smiled and looked at her lovingly. "I'm not asking you to find a way to enter the Pharmacy Association. I mean, you're also a medical student. Why don't you join an organization and have more people take care of you?"

"Mr. Huang has connections in the Medical Organization. Why don't you try to put your name in the Medical Organization in the country first?"

Qiao Nian roughly understood what he meant.

However, she wasn't interested in reputation, so she shook her head and rejected Old Master Jiang's kindness. "I don't want to join these organizations for now. Let's talk about it if there's a need later."

Old Master Jiang did not force her upon seeing that she was indeed not interested in entering the Medical Organization.

Then, he looked at the box on the table and remembered something. He smiled and said, "Speaking of which, there's something else."

Old Master Jiang picked up the box and handed it to Qiao Nian, gesturing for her to take a look. "Take a look and see if this small pill looks like the health supplements you gave me."

Qiao Nian's temples throbbed. She had a headache.

Tsk. It couldn't be what she thought.
