

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1476

Xu Jishen felt that his brain was not working well enough and he couldn't react at all.

What was going on?

Something clicked in his brain.

But that thought was ridiculous, and yet he thought it possible!

He had heard from Jiang Yao that Qiao Nian studied Chinese Medicine at Qing University.

However, Qiao Nian had just entered university this year and was in her first year.

His grandfather had known 'Q' for a long time.

How old was Qiao Nian when his grandfather mentioned 'Q' to him?

Three years ago, Qiao Nian was still in her first year of high school!

How could a high school student be the 'Q' his grandfather said was better than a domestic authority expert?

Xu Jishen's mind was filled with a jumble of thoughts that he had yet to sort out.

The girl in the black sweater and black cap had already stopped in front of him.

The girl was wrapped in the cold air that came in. She raised her head slightly and pulled down the brim of her cap to reveal an overly delicate face.

A pair of dark eyes looked at him and asked simply, "Where is Old Master Su?"

Xu Jishen: "?"

Xu Jishen: "!"

He was standing in front of her like a wooden stake, and when Qiao Nian asked him a question, he didn't respond for a long time. She frowned impatiently, her clear eyes suppressing her frustration. She asked him again in a good-natured manner, "You sent me a message saying that your grandfather's fever hasn't subsided? Where is he?"

F*ck!

Was Jiang Yao's cousin really 'Q'?

Xu Jishen pinched his palm hard. He gasped upon feeling sharp pain. Cold air filled his head, and his mind buzzed. Only then did his eyes regain a hint of clarity. "My-my grandfather is in the intensive care unit."

"Yes." The girl nodded. She walked around him and was about to head for the ward.

Xu Jishen finally calmed down a little. He watched as the girl placed her hand on the door and was about to enter the ward.

His heart felt like it was being fried in hot oil. Feeling uneasy, he called out to her, “Qiao Nian.”

The girl stopped and looked back at him with her beautiful dark eyes, as if she wasn’t sure what he was going to do.

Xu Jishen’s mind was still buzzing. Actually, he didn’t even know why he had stopped her.

The girl looked at him.

He opened his mouth again and managed to squeeze out, “That Q on my grandfather’s phone is you?”

What Q?

Qiao Nian didn’t know what he was talking about. Her aura was quite restrained as she glanced at Xu Jishen casually. “Well, I guess so.”

Guess so?

Before the Su family could recover from their shock, they watched helplessly as a young girl opened the door to the intensive care unit.

He went in in the blink of an eye.

Mother Su was the first to react and grabbed Xu Jishen’s hand. “Jishen, is the doctor you were talking about the girl just now?”

“She— isn’t she too young!”

The others were thinking the same thing.

They all thought that the doctor Xu Jishen was talking about was at least in his 40s. Otherwise, how could he have the experience to save someone?

But Qiao Nian was too young.

None of them had expected her to be so young. She didn’t look very reliable...

Xu Jishen was still confused, let alone explain to them.

He calmed his mother down in frustration and said reluctantly, “Anyway, the experts from the city hospital are all inside. Let’s take a look first!”

Don’t ask him. He didn’t know.

After all, he would never have thought that the cousin that his friend had found was actually his grandfather's very important friend, 'Q'.
