

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1479

The doctors looked at each other. Their minds were blank. They had no idea what to say.

“Give me three days.”

Qiao Nian calculated the time. Three days was enough.

She picked up her bag. “I’ll bring the medicine back in three days,” she said simply.

Su Huaiyuan’s attending doctor could do nothing but nod.

Those who didn’t study medicine did not understand how sacred and difficult the Pharmacy Association was to enter.

The laymen watched the show, while the professionals knew the ropes.

They just understood the ropes.

They were shocked that not only did Qiao Nian know about the existence of the Pharmacy Association, but she also seemed to be very familiar with it.

At her age... she knew about the Pharmacy Association and was related to it. Her future was limitless!

When Xu Jishen heard her say that she could get medicine for his grandfather, he looked at Qiao Nian and suggested without thinking, “I’ll go with you!”

Qiao Nian had planned to leave after informing the doctor.

She raised her eyebrows and looked at him in surprise.

Xu Jishen saw her surprised gaze and recalled the countless times he had gotten the chance to get to know her. However, he had never spoken to Qiao Nian properly because of Jiang Yao. He felt a faint sense of regret.

Putting everything else aside, just the fact that Qiao Nian was looking for medicine for his grandfather this time...

He was definitely going to make this friend!

“Where’s the Pharmacy Association you mentioned?” Xu Jishen picked up his car keys. He thought that the Pharmacy Association was in a city in the country, somewhere like the Medical Association. Worried, he said, “I’ll go with you. It’s not safe for a girl like you to be outside.”

Mother Su wiped away her tears and a gentle smile appeared on her well-maintained face when she heard that her father could still be saved. She also agreed. “That’s right, young lady. Let Jishen accompany you. It’s dark outside. It’s not safe for you to go out alone. With him around, there’s finally one more man. If you need to carry anything, you can let him do it for you. It’s more convenient for you to bring him along.”

Xu Jishen's lips twitched when he heard his mother's words.

His heavy heart was suddenly amused.

Was he a dog?

From his mother's words, it sounded like she was persuading Qiao Nian to bring a dog out.

Qiao Nian seemed to be amused by Mother Su's words as well. The corners of her lips curled up casually, a little brash and arrogant. "He can't enter."

Mother Su: "... Why can't he get in?"

"The Pharmacy Association won't let strangers in, so it's useless for him to follow me," Qiao Nian explained politely.

After Mother Su was stunned, she immediately turned to look in Xu Jishen's direction. Her sizing gaze seemed to be saying, "You're actually so useless?"

Xu Jishen felt that his mother had been deeply hurt. He touched his nose bridge, feeling rather awkward. Without looking at Mother Su, he said to Qiao Nian, "The Pharmacy Association you mentioned isn't in Rao City, right?"

Qiao Nian wasn't as polite as she was to Mother Su as she casually said, "It's not in Rao City."

Xu Jishen smiled again as he held the car keys. "Then, I'll take you to the airport. That's fine, right?"

Qiao Nian didn't answer him immediately. She pursed her lips and thought for two seconds before reluctantly agreeing. Her reaction was as if she was trying to suppress her impatience and give him some face.

Xu Jishen was speechless.

He wanted to die on the spot!

...

Beijing.

At the Jiang Residence.

It was nine in the evening and dark outside.

However, the Jiang family's villa was brightly lit. Everyone was flustered.
