

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1480

Tang Wanru was helping Jiang Xianrou pack her luggage. As she helped her tidy up her clothes and put them into her luggage, she frowned and said, "What's wrong with the Pharmacy Association? Didn't they tell you this morning to change it to the day after tomorrow? Now they're urging you to leave immediately."

"They're making such a fuss that we're scrambling. I was planning to go to the beauty parlor tomorrow to get my face done. We've got an appointment. It's too late now."

Jiang Xianrou was also busy putting her things into her luggage. "I don't know. Chief suddenly called, informing me that his flight was at 11 o'clock. I didn't have time to ask him why he changed the time."

"It's better if you don't ask." Tang Wanru thought for a moment and said, "The Pharmacy Association might have something urgent to tell him to go back. You're a newcomer, so it's not convenient for him to tell you some things. You'll seem insensible if you ask..."

"Yes, that's why I didn't ask him." Jiang Xianrou also thought so.

She just couldn't understand why the other party would delay going back one moment and rush off the next. What exactly had happened?

Tang Wanru was going over with Jiang Xianrou this time. She had already packed her luggage and was mainly helping her unpack.

As she put in the daily necessities that Jiang Xianrou needed, she said, "Xianrou, keep a low profile when we get to the Pharmacy Association. We don't know the situation there, so it's not wrong to keep a low profile..."

Jiang Zongnan had also mentioned this to her this morning.

Jiang Xianrou frowned impatiently when she heard the same words now.

However, thinking that she was about to go to the Pharmacy Association, she quickly relaxed her frown.

Still in a good mood, she said, "I know. Don't worry. I'm not a fool. I know the Pharmacy Association's weight!"

Tang Wanru was slightly relieved upon seeing that she didn't seem to be lying.

"That's good."

"Normally, since you can't enter the Pharmacy Association this time, the Qi family's spot wasn't originally reserved for you. At first, they wanted to give it to their own family member, but later..."

She trailed off, as if there were something she couldn't say.

She changed the topic again. "In short, you have to be more careful when you reach Country M. We won't be at home. It's more or less inconvenient for us to do many things. Just bear with it and wait until you find a good teacher."

The Pharmacy Association also had a laboratory and teachers who taught new students.

However, their lab was too awesome compared to Liang Lu's laboratory at Qing University.

The world's most cutting-edge medicine was always born in the Pharmacy Association's laboratory. This was also the most terrifying thing about them!

Jiang Xianrou had a preliminary understanding of the Pharmacy Association from Qi Yan. She roughly knew that the Pharmacy Association existed in the form of a research institute in Country M.

However, Country M wasn't the Association's base camp.

Their true headquarters was on the independent continent.

However, in the past few years, the head of the Pharmacy Association, Zhong Yiliu, had moved the laboratory to Continent O. Only then did the active area of the Pharmacy Association transfer from the independent continent to the small Country M.

That was why Qi Yan had a precious spot in the Pharmacy Association.

Because Qi Yan had married the third successor of Country M, a member of the royal family.

Qi Yan had once helped Zhong Yiliu and had a deep relationship with the Pharmacy Association. At first, Zhong Yiliu promised Qi Yan a spot in the Pharmacy Association, but she never used it.

She originally wanted to leave it for her niece, Qi Lanyin, who was currently the most talented person in the Qi family.

Unexpectedly, this spot landed on Jiang Xianrou's head.
