

MADAM'S IDENTITIES SHOCKS THE ENTIRE CITY AGAIN Chapter 1488

Tang Wanru was similar. The two of them were clearly nervous from the beginning.

Qi Yan glanced at them and led the way. "Xianrou, let's go in."

"Okay." Jiang Xianrou's mind was still buzzing. She clenched her fists nervously and took a deep breath before letting go. She was so nervous that her tense face relaxed a little, then she followed her.

Tang Wanru followed beside her. The two of them followed Qi Yan and were very unfamiliar with their surroundings.

On the other hand, Qi Yan seemed very familiar with the Pharmacy Association. She led them in and even greeted some people.

After being nervous for a few minutes, Tang Wanru's expression relaxed a little. As she walked, she whispered to the girl beside her, "Is this the Pharmacy Association? I didn't expect the Association to be like this."

Jiang Xianrou was quite nervous and answered her casually.

Tang Wanru saw the Association's laboratory along the way. She also saw people dressed in lab coats walking past them hurriedly.

She couldn't help but raise her eyebrows again. "We should really get your grandfather and Qiao Nian to come over and see what the highest level of medicine looks like!"

Jiang Xianrou was originally nervous. Hearing this, a trace of arrogance and coldness flashed across her face. She said coldly, "Heh, she might not be able to come to such a place in her entire life."

Tang Wanru thought for a moment. "That's true. What kind of place is the Pharmacy Association? How could Qiao Nian possibly come here?"

When she thought of this, her face relaxed and she revealed a happy expression. "So what if she follows Mr. Huang? She'll never have the chance to see a place like the Pharmacy Association in her life! Your grandfather even treated her as a treasure and thought that she could bring glory to the family by winning a few wild chicken awards. Tsk! He's old and muddle-headed. In the future, he'll know who he can rely on to earn face for the family!"

Jiang Xianrou smiled without saying anything, but her eyes revealed a strong sense of superiority.

She didn't say much, but she wanted to see Jiang Li and Old Master Jiang regret not choosing her back then.

She couldn't wait for that day to come!

...

"Yeah."

The Pharmacy Association had a total of ten floors. The place where the new members reported was on the first floor, not far from the entrance.

Qi Yan led Jiang Xianrou there and communicated with staff about Jiang Xianrou's situation.

The staff quickly entered Jiang Xianrou's information into the system and asked her to fill in a set of basic information.

After about 40 minutes, they were finally done.

Qi Yan was not someone who liked to waste time.

After she successfully completed the procedures with Jiang Xianrou, she smiled and said to them, "I've contacted Dean Zhong's disciple. He said that Dean Zhong is receiving a very important friend and asked us to go over ourselves. He'll meet us when Dean Zhong is done. Let's go over and wait."

Jiang Xianrou felt nervous again when she heard that Qi Yan was about to bring her to see Zhong Yiliu. Her back stiffened and she nodded hurriedly. "Yes, sorry to trouble you, Godmother."

Seeing her petty look, Qi Yan straightened her clothes and smiled gently. "It's no trouble at all. I already said that I wanted to introduce you to Dean Zhong."

Jiang Xianrou couldn't say anything else.

Qi Yan led them over calmly.

"Come on, let's go over and wait."
